Asst. Sec. of Navy, Newton Native, to Present Address

The Honorable Albert Pratt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy and a native of Newton, will give a lecture entitled "The Navy's Position in International Affairs" tonight (Thursday) at the First Naval District Headquarters. The lecture is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m., in the Building 60 Auditorium.

HON. ALBERT PRATT

Mr. Pratt will be honored prior to his talk with a reception at the Navy Building Officers Club sponsored by the Commandery of the Naval Order of the United States.

Albert Pratt was born in Newton, on May 23, 1911 and has been a lifelong resident of Massachusetts, currently residing at Chestnut Hill, in Newton.

HE ATTENDED local schools in Newton and matriculated at Harvard College, graduating in 1933 with an A.B. degree, magna cum laude, in Government. While at Harvard College, Mr. Pratt was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. Mr. Pratt continued his education at Harvard Law School, receiving his LLB degree in 1936 and was a member of the Marshall Club, the School Debating Society.

Mr. Pratt has been a member of the Naval Reserve since 1933, having been commissioned an Ensign in the U. S. Naval Reserve upon his completion of the NROTC course at Harvard College. He immediately took an active interest in the matters of the Naval Reserve and associated himself with the Organized Naval Reserve Program in the First Naval District until he was called to a full active duty status prior to the start of World War II.

Upon graduation from the Harvard Law School Mr. Pratt became employed by the law firm of Goodwin, Proctor & Hoar of Boston, where he remained until his recall to active duty with the U. S. Navy in 1940. He remained on active duty for a period of five years, rising from the rank of Lieutenant (junior grade) to Commander, during which time he saw service on the Staff of Admiral Nimitz in the Pacific. In addition, Mr. Pratt also served aboard the battleship Texas as a gunnery officer; and while attending the Naval War College at Newport, Rhode Island, under a course of instruction he wrote a thesis which resulted in his assignment to the staff of the War College to assist in the organization of the college. He also saw service on the staff of Commander Mine Squadron One in the Pacific.

MR. PRATT is the recipient of the Legion of Merit for his service while on the Staff of Admiral Nimitz and also holds the Naval Reserve Medal, the American Defense Medal, the American Theatre and Asiatic-Pacific Theatre Medals, and World War II Victory Medal.

Subsequent to his release to inactive duty in 1946, Mr. Pratt again returned to the rolls of the Naval Reserve and continued his interest in the Navy and the Naval Reserve Program by attending periods of active training duty. One such two-week training period was spent at the Naval War College in 1952, attending a seminar on Global Warfare Strategy. Additionally, in 1947 Mr. Pratt was assigned to the Office of the Assistant Chief of Naval Operations (Reserves) for a period of two weeks and assisted Admiral Gingrich, then ACNO (Reserve) in preparing an evaluation of the Naval Reserve Integration Policy so urgently required at that time.

IN 1946 on his release to inactive duty from the Navy, Mr. Pratt became associated with the investment banking firm of Paine, Webber, Jackson & Curtis of Boston, Massachusetts, and has remained with that firm, becoming a partner in 1950. He is also Director of Copper Range Company.

Make Today. S-D, A Safe Day In Newton Driving

President Eisenhower has designated today (Thursday) as S-D (Safe Driving) Day, to call to the attention of all our citizens the serious situation concerning Motor Vehicle accidents and fatalities on our highways. In the year 1954, there were 36,000 deaths and over one and one-half million serious injuries on the roads of this country. S-D Day is meant to emphasize the fact that many of these fatalities and accidents can be avoided. Let each one of us make a strenuous effort toward this end, by driving so that this slaughter on our highways will be reduced. Remember, the life you save may be your own! Philip Purcell, Chief of Police, Chairman, Newton S-D Day.

Bishop Lord To Preach Here Jan. 27

Bishop John Wesley Lord, resident bishop of the Boston Area of The Methodist Church, has been scheduled to be the preacher at the re-dedication service of the Newton Centre Methodist Church to be held Sunday, January 29, 1956. In recent weeks the chancel of the church has been in the process of reconstruction. A stained-glass window, which was blown out in hurricane Carol a year ago, is being replaced, and the entire chancel is being transformed into an altar-centered sanctuary. The work is expected to be completed shortly after the New Year.

THE ORIGINAL window which appeared above the altar of the church, was given nearly fifty years ago by the late Mr. and Mrs. Alden Speare in memory of Rev. William Butler, who was a pioneer Methodist missionary to India. The new window, which will portray a figure of Christ giving the great commission to his disciples, will be almost identical in design to the original. There will, however, be more color to the new production.

Former pastors and members of the church are to be extended a special invitation to attend the significant service of dedication.

Discussion On College Entrance Problems Dec. 7

"Look to the Future" is the topic for discussion at the first meeting of the Newton High School Parent-Teacher-Student Association Wednesday, December 7 at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium. Along with the rest of the country, Newton educators, parents, and students are becoming increasingly concerned with the necessity for long range planning in today's highly competitive field of college admission or career placement.

NEWTON High's P.T.S.A. has planned a program which they feel will answer some of the more pressing problems which face the student of today in his desire to be admitted to the career or the college of his choice. Colleges across the country are admittedly unable to expand sufficiently to accomodate the tide of high school graduates who are flooding them with applications for admission. The personnel directors of business firms are screening their applicants with greater attention to past achievement records. All of this stresses the urgent need for students and parents to plan with foresight and to know

Will Give Talk On "Christian Agility" Dec. 6

Rev. R. Norris Wilson, executive director of Church World Service, will speak on "Christian Agility," Tuesday evening, December 6, at 8 p.m. in the Assembly Hall of the Second Church in Newton under the auspices of the World Service Guild of the Woman's Council. He will be introduced by Dr. Ross Cannon, Minister of Second Church.

Mr. Wilson is a speaker of charm and ability and is well qualified to bring his audience the complete and up-to-date picture of the far reaching Church World Service program of relief, rehabilitation and reconstruction. At 43 he is the youngest chief executive of a major division of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A.

Mr. Wilson is a Congregationalist and formerly served as minister at three churches including the First Congregational Church in Wakefield, Mass. He was ordained in 1937 after graduate study at Chicago Theological Seminary and Yale Divinity School.

The public is cordially invited to attend the lecture, free of charge. Mrs. Anton R. Fried is chairman of the program and Mrs. A. Philip Guiles is co-chairman.

Taxpayers Oppose A Blanket Pay Raise, Fringe Increase

SAVED FROM ALMOST certain death were Edward J. Bussiere, Jr., of 55 Clinton place, Newton, and George O'Dowd of 23 Clinton street, Newton, who are shown trapped by earth which caved in at excavation on Parker street, Newton Centre last week while the men were at work. Prompt action by police officer Peter Annese, who dug with his hands to keep the dirt away from the men's faces, did much to effect their rescue.

Newton's White House Conference On Education Scheduled For Tonight

Tonight (Thursday) at 8 o'clock at the Claflin School, Newtonville, representative Newton citizens will meet to plan Newton's White House Conference on Education.

AT THE SAME time, acting on President Eisenhower's request for a national White House Conference on Education, delegates from 48 State conferences, held during the past six months, will be meeting in Washington, D. C. During this year, in local communities all over the country, townsfolk will be sitting down together to discuss education for their children and the problems faced by their schools.

The general topics being discussed at all these conferences are: what should our schools accomplish; how can we (1) obtain a continuing interest in education, (2) get enough good teachers, (3) finance, build and operate our schools, (4) organize them more efficiently and economically; what are our school building needs?

Newton's conference will deal with problems of education for all in their broadest aspects while also providing workshops where Newton's specific needs can be considered in terms of interest not only to parents but to the business man, the taxpayer, and the non-parent.

THE NEWTON School Committee requested "Operation Education," a voluntary alliance of Newton groups and individuals interested in education, to take the initial steps in planning such a conference. A steering committee was then formed drawn from the public, parochial, and private schools, and representing key Newton organizations. Mrs. James H. Zimmer of Newton Highlands was named interim chairman.

As a result of invitations sent by the steering committee, a large cross section of citizens and delegates from the organizations listed in the Community Council Directory will participate in the general planning meeting on December 1st. It will be the responsibility of this organizational meeting to formulate plans for the coming conference.

$390,000 Real Estate Sale Involves Newton Warehouse

The Boston Envelope Co. of Dedham, and six-State Associates, Inc., an auto parts distributor with headquarters at 244 Brighton avenue, Boston, are to occupy two former Meloripe warehouses in Dedham and Newtonville, respectively. The two sales, aggregating $390,000, were announced this week by United Fruit Co. following the signing of purchase and sales agreements.

THE DOUBLE transaction, considered one of the swiftest in New England realty circles, was concluded this week, less than a week after they were put on the open market with the appointment by United Fruit of R. M. Bradley & Co., Inc. as exclusive agents. The sale of the property comes less than a month after the warehouses were vacated by Meloripe whose operations suspended November 1. Still under negotiation is a third plant, in Medford, Mass. All three plants were opened for an inspection tour on the occasion of an open house during the past week.

Boston Envelope Co., with headquarters in Dedham since 1928, will use the former Meloripe plant, less than half a mile away, for storage purposes, according to William H. Woolner, Reservations for the catered dinner may be made through the Temple Office, DEcatur 2-5770.

Say Budget Time Is Time For Changes

Opposition to a blanket pay raise and fringe increases for city employees, including those in the public schools, was registered this week by Lorenz Muther, Jr., executive secretary of the Newton Taxpayers' Association.

HE ISSUED this statement when it was brought out that there was contemplated a timing of change in the wage and salary structure and pointed out that the Taxpayers' Association has consistently held that changes should be made at budget time. He stated that "where City Hall has the decisive voice in the budget, all the running expenses of the city should be established at the one budget time. That is what the budget is for."

Continuing he said: "There is an additional reason this year for not hurrying into pay increase before the budget. It is because a real effort at last has been made during 1955 to establish a plan for eliminating admitted inequities in the present pay scales and for setting up fair classifications. While most all of the program has been ironed out with Civil Service, it is not yet wholly approved. It would be inappropriate for the city to rush ahead before its own program is approved. By budget time, the entire situation can have been

Rev. Dr. George L. Murray 20 Years A Pastor Here

Observing his twentieth anniversary as pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Dr. George L. Murray received the congratulations of several hund[illegible] surprise celebration last Thursday evening.

REV. DR. G. L. MURRAY

The Rev. Dr. Murray was escorted with his wife to the platform of the church sanctuary, while the congregation applauded in a standing ovation.

EACH OF the six elders who had been on the session of the church at the time of Dr. Murray's installation paid their tribute to the pastor and his wife. Mr. Neil MacLennan, moderator of the Boston Presbytery, as well as elder of the church, along with the other elders, outlined the growth of the church over the past twenty years.

During the pastorate of Dr. Murray, five hundred new members have been received into the church, and the Sunday School enrollment has jumped considerably. Following Dr. Murray's leadership, the church moved from its former building on W. Brookline street in Boston's South End to its present edifice in Newton Corner.

AS TOKEN expressions of the church's deep affection for their pastor, several gifts were presented to the Rev. Dr. Murray. Congratulatory telegrams were read from friends absent from the celebration. In addition to the gifts the congregation presented Dr. Murray an illuminated testimonial lauding his character and work.

Dr. Murray in turn paid generous tribute to the many organizations of the church, and the host of members, living and dead, declaring that they had largely contributed both to the growth and success of the church as well as to his own personal contentment and satisfaction in the ministry.

FOLLOWING the benediction the pastor and his wife led the people to the tables where refreshments were being served.

POLITICAL OVERTONES

Congressmen Should Abandon Junkets at Public Expense; Speculation that Ike May Yield to Pressure and Run

One foolproof way of averting incidents involving U. S. Congressmen in Russian-occupied territory would be for Congressmen to stay on this side of the Iron Curtain.

No precise figures are available on the subject, but it would be a fairly good guess that more Congressmen this year wandered all over the world at public expense than ever before in history.

It also is a reasonably safe prediction that the observations and experiences of the Congressmen will produce nothing of great benefit for their constituents.

This is a situation which arises about every other year. As soon as Congress adjourns in the odd-numbered years, a remarkably large number of its members immediately head for distant places on about every imaginable kind of junket.

In the even-numbered years they stay home, build their political fences, attend to the needs of their constituents, make themselves generally available and get ready for their election campaigns.

Budget-

clarified. That is the time to make any changes."

THE PROPOSALS of the city employees are to have a 5 cent hour program of increases to keep in line with industry; to have a general wage boost of $300 per year; to have the city pay the cost of Blue Cross and Blue Shield; to have the city supplement Workmen's Compensation payments up to the full wage rate and where no coverage is provided by Workmen's Compensation, to have the city alone do the covering; to separate sick leave from vacations, giving automatic 3 week vacations after 5 years and 4 weeks after 10 years, and to give a flat 15 days each year for sick leave, cumulative with no modification.

"The estimated cost of these proposals," Muther contends, "runs to some unknown amount but not less than $350,000 to $400,000 more yearly, equivalent to well over $1.50 on the tax rate."

MUTHER, in his release, in a tabulation of figures, shows that between 1941 and 1955, pay increases have amounted to: for patrolmen, $2190 to $3963 or 85.5 percent; firefighters, $2190 to $3908, or 83 percent increase; day laborer, per day before overtime, $5.25 to $12.00 or 143 percent increase; teachers, with minimum educational ratings, men, from $3000 to $5750 or 91.6 percent; women, $2500 to $5350, or 114 percent; cost of living index, old index, 1935 to 1939, from 103.5 percent to 178.5 percent, or 72 percent increase; new index, 1847 to 1949, $101.7 to $113.6 or 11.6 percent increase.

"During all this time," states Muther, "the city has been aware of changing standards in living and working as well. Thus on the city side, hours have been cut substantially while the pay rates were increased, along with more days off, better pensions, etc. On the school side, the single salary at all levels of teaching from kindergarten to junior college was instituted and a major effort in school construction, still in process, has been made.

"THE POINT to be made here is that Newton citizens are willing to pay fairly for the services they require, but that we do not believe a general or blanket pay raise is justifiable at this time on the basis of cost of living or working conditions."

The six page report issued by the Taxpayers' Association bearing on the proposed salary increases for both city and school employees is a comprehensive one and covers all phases of the subject. It is a report which shows that much time and effort has been made to compile the findings which have been summarized and citizens generally, if the report has been printed in sufficient quantity, should secure a copy of it and digest its contents. It is a report presented fairly, and it might be stated, without bias yet it does bring out the findings as they have been compiled.

Mr. Pratt is married to the former Alice Lee of Brookline, and they have five children: Alice, age 12; Cornelia, age 8; Mina, age 6; Danny, age 4; and Kate, age 1.

Hospital Safety Campaign Is Paying Off

The Newton-Wellesley Hospital has recently been informed that its safety campaign, conducted as a part of the U'NI program, has resulted in a substantial reduction in the rates charged for Hospital's Workmen's Compensation Insurance.

Teamwork between the Hospital employees and the engineers of the Loss Prevention and Medical Departments of the Liberty Mutual Insurance Co. have produced fewer accidents, which, in turn, means less human suffering, less lost time, and more money saved for the Newton-Wellesley Hospital.

For the second consecutive year, insurance rates to the Hospital have dropped, and over a five-year period they have gone from 58 percent to 11 percent on an experience charge basis.

The Hospital has been commended for this fine showing by the authorities of Liberty Mutual Insurance Co.

TB Heads Meet To Plan Annual Yule Seal Sale

The Board of Directors and members of the Middlesex Health Association met last week at the Middlesex County Sanatorium to make final plans fo rthe Christmas Seal Sale which opened Wednesday, November 16.

"Our tuberculosis control problem today doesn't compare with the problem Emily Bissell faced when she started the first Christmas Seal Sale to fight tuberculosis in 1907, but the constant effort of tuberculosis associations toward the eradication of tuberculosis during the past 50 years does reflect the complexity of this oldest infectious disease," Mrs. Carolyn W. Hardy, Consultant of Public Information, of the Massachusetts Tuberculosis and Health League told members of the Association.

"In spite of the advances in treatment and in the discovery of anti-tuberculosis drugs there is a great need for Christmas Seal funds to continue preventive measures and to increase medical and social research so that the ultimate goal, the eradication of tuberculosis can be reached.

"In Massachusetts, the number of active cases has not decreased with the death rate. 2361 new active cases were reported last year. The focus today is on the living patient with a lingering disease which last too long and often leaves the patient with physical limitations. This changing picture ha sincreased the need for rehabilitation services.

,"We've come a long way in the battle against tuberculosis since Emily Bissell's time but such progress should be measured soberly against the distance yet to go. Christmas Seals make it possible for each person to do a little part about a very big problem," Mrs. Hardy concluded.

Miss Elizabeth Tobin, daughter of Mr. Joseph Tobin, 67 Court street, Newtonville, and Miss Dorothy D'Innocenzo, daughter of Mr. Ernest D'Innocenzo, 130 Carlisle st. are both students at the Chandler School for Women, 448 Beacon street, Boston.

Research Needed

Tuberculosis has been studied for centuries, as long as there have been men calling themselves physicians, but there is still a great deal we do not know about TB. The enigma of tuberculosis is far from being solved. The disease and the germ that causes it have been studied by a host of distinguished scientists. A tremendous background of information has been collected, but many of the most basic and crucial facts seem to be just beyond reach.

We cannot and we have not waited for complete knowledge about TB to go ahead and fight it. With modern drugs and surgery, our hospitals and doctors are successfully treating cases of TB that only 10 years ago would have been called hopeless. Through widespread education campaigns by organizations such as our Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association, people have learned much about how to protect their health. The Chest X-ray has proved a great boon to early discovery of tuberculosis. Rehabilitation programs pioneered by the TB associations are getting TB patients back on their feet.

But much more could be done if we knew more about TB! Can we look forward to having a vaccine which will be as effective as those which have brought other infections diseases under control? TB has special problems in that respect. Unlike other diseases, being cured of one attack of TB doesn't mean you are immune to another. And yet there is a kind of immunity developed when the body has fought off infection by TB germs. A vaccine commonly called BCG was developed years ago. It offers limited protection against TB for a limited time, and is used among groups that are heavily exposed or that seem highly susceptible to infection. No better vaccine has yet been found. We need to know much more about immunity to TB.

There are many other gaps which, when filled, will speed the day when tuberculosis will be wiped out in our country. It has long been accepted that nutrition plays a vital role in both prevention and treatment of TB, but we have only vague notions as to what food elements are involved. There are several effective drugs for treatment, but they are slow and their action incomplete; none of them will kill TB germs. We need more and better drugs. We know too little about the tubercle bacillus itself—its wide variations in virulence, its susceptibility to drugs, its need for growth. We lack accurate nationwide information on a host of matters such as relapse rates, new infections, hospital bed occupancy, and prevalence of active cases.

One by one the infectious diseases that have plagued mankind for centuries are falling before the quiet weapons of the men of science. Tuberculosis has proved one of the hardest to defeat, but it can be conquered, and one of the most fruitful ways of spending money to fight it is on medical and social research.

A tremendous increase in research on tuberculosis is urgently needed. A good start has been made. Last year research expenditures of the tuberculosis associations made possible by Christmas Seal grants were about $500,000, but this is far from enough.

We can all have a share in the eventual triumph over tuberculosis by giving more generously than ever to the Christmas Seal Sale in Newton.

Good Advice to Heed

Regional Director Leo A. Gleason of the U. S. Department of Labor's Wage and Hour Division this week handed out some good advice to teen-agers which they would do well to heed.

States Mr. Gleason: "Boys and girls who drop out of school in order to earn a 'fast dollar,' are literally throwing away tens of thousands of dollars."

In citing the 1950 census report he states that all men 25 years and older, who completed eight years of grade school received an average income of $2,533. Those who graduated from high school earned an average wage of $3,285. The men who completed four years of college received a median wage of $4,407.

Mr. Gleason cited examples of men who left school at an early age and succeeded in business even though handicapped with little or no education. "These success stories are often mentioned by teen-agers as an excuse to drop out of school, Mr. Gleason declared. "However," he continued, "99 percent of the men with success stories to tell will readily state that they are sorry they did not contine their education and would strongly urge today's youngsters to return to school."

The complexities of our atomic age and man-made satellites now require an even higher level of training and education. Everyone should encourage teen-agers to return to school when the bells ring next month.

What About the Rest?

CIO and UAW-CIO officials have praised a recent ruling whereby Massachusetts Employment Security payments may be made to individuals who also receive private supplemental benefits provided under the Ford and General Motors so-called GAW Plans.

We find no cause of criticism over the elation of these officials over this ruling which benefits their members.

But there does seem to be an issue involved which is too readily overlooked by those who are benefitted. What about the thousands of other workers who do not come under any guaranteed annual wage plans? Are they to be denied the same benefits which this State, through its officials, have ruled can be made to those who do come under these guaranteed annual wage plans?

If that is to be the official ruling, then surely such a ruling is discriminatory and is without justification.

As we stated previously, we have no criticism to offer about the ruling which has recently been handed down. What we are concerned about, however, is the same rule to be applicable to those workers not under the guaranteed annual wage program?

Thirty Thousand Miles - - - - - - THROUGH EUROPE

Copyrighted 1955

BY MILLARD HARMON

AS WE LEFT the castle, we saw a Russian flag flying from the top of a nearby building. We consulted our map and found that it was the Russian headquarters for the Vienna area. We walked over, and walked past several jeeps and trucks (which were American) and several soldiers. It was just getting dark, and there seemed to be a great deal of activity. Everyone was getting ready to go home, and these boys were the drivers, I guess. The sidewalk in front of the buiding is blocked off for a few feet so that no one can get too close. We went around to the back of the building and entered a small shop and bought some cookies.

We got back to the hotel and slept through two-thirds of the opera for which we had tickets. We rushed over, and really enjoyed the last hour — "The Magic Flute" was playing. The main opera house is being restored, so the one we attended was quite small, only room for about 700. The staging and costumes, as well as the performance, were very good.

THE NEXT MORNING we got started early. All nine of our original party went for a walk to look over the Russian headquarters. There is a park on the opposite side of the street from the Red building, so Captain Tanner and I sneaked up to the fence and took pictures. We got our feet all muddy, and there were no soldiers outside, but we did get, I believe, some good shots of the front of the Red building, flag, Stalin, star, and all. We then went a few blocks farther on to the four power building, and got some good pictures. As we were taking the pictures, several soldiers came out of the buiding and got into a "White Mouse," but I don't think I got any of them in the pictures.

We left the rest of the group about this time, and Ruth, and other teacher, and myself returned to St. Stephans to look over the catacombs which were closed the day before. We went down under the church and saw first the big hole through which the coffins were, in olden days, passed. (The church was built about 1140.) There was a long line of coffins in the passageway in which bishops were resting. Further on there were several little cubby holes with a coffin in each. These were children of a wealthy merchant from South America, which were placed there rather recently, say 200 years ago. One of the coffins had fallen apart.

WE THEN WENT down a small narrow corridor at the end of which was a little room which had dozens and dozens of differently shaped metal containers. These all contained entrails of the Hapsburgs. It seems that these people were very impotrant, too important to have any parts of their bodies thrown away. Thus, when they were embalmed, all parts had to be saved. Their bodies were placed in the Hapsberg basement, as mentioned before, their entrails were stored in metal containers here under the church, and their hearts were saved in one of the other churches.

From here we went into the chambers farther down. There were two types of rooms. One was where the coffin was placed for 25 years. After this time, the coffin was taken out, and the bones were removed to a bone room. The bone rooms were most unusual. The bones were stacked solid up the side of the walls, and every so often a skull would be looking out at you. There were thousands in these rooms, but this type of treatment was only for the people with money. There was another room where people without money were dumped with no attention. This was the room that held so many of the 100,000 that died of the plague around 1647. There is no order to the way in which these bones are placed. This burial place carried many thousands collected over many hundreds of years, and yet, at a place like Dachau, half as many people were killed in but a dozen years.

WE WERE very pleased to leave these dreary tunnels, and come out into the fresh air again!

From the catacombs we went to Mozart's home. (Where he lived for three years, that is.) This is in a building that has a small courtyard up through the center. This courtyard is but 12 feet by 18 feet, but it was open at the top. We went up to the second floor and looked over the rooms used by Mozart, as well as some original manuscripts and pictures. There was a plaque at the entrance to the catacombs, which I failed to mention, dedicated to Mozart. He died a pauper, and as a result was placed in the mass grave.

We got a bite to eat, and then started out on a real adventure. We wanted to get into the Russian sector, so began to walk. We crossed the Danube Canal, and on the other side were in the Red area. What a difference! Nobody was in the streets, and the place was really run down. There may have been nothing going on here before the war, but it seems strange to me that there is so much difference between one side and the other, outside of the fact that one is Soviet. On one side is a warm, alive, active city, and on the other is a bleak, deserted network of streets. The few people we did see seemed almost afraid to look at us. We walked quite a way, and then asked a policeman how to get to the Danube.

He suggested that we take a street car, which we did. When we got on, we told the conductor we wanted to go to the river, and then sat down. Ruth sat beside a drunk, so we soon moved up front. Shortly the conductor at the rear, whom we had talked to, came up and stayed with us to be sure that we got off before the bridge. We did,and then walked out on it a ways.

THERE WAS a .Russian guard on the opposite side of the street, so we stopped, looked over the "blue" Danube which at this time was green, then I took another "unobtrusive" picture of a bridge upstream that was damaged, and we beat a hasty retreat. We were in a jolly mood on our return to the inner city, and international zone, and met a streetcar conductor who was fun, too. He got a big kick out of the fact that I did not have long underwear on. I had crossed my legs as I sat on the bench, and he saw that my legs above my stockings were bare. This bothered him quite a bit. He was probably thinking, "These silly capitalists can't be too rich. They can't even afford a decent pair of underwear!"

On the way back to the hotel by streetcar, we passed the four power building and I noticed a "White Mouse" parked out front with no one in it. I wanted a good picture of one of these cars because they're so colorful, so I jumped off the streetcar and hurried over. I got a good shot from the side rear, and then one from the front. Then a truck screeched to a halt in front of the buiding, and I turned away and started to close up my camera. (The girls were watching about a block away and said that the Russians were waving to me to move on.)

I NOTICED out of the corner of my eye that one of the Red officers was coming toward me. I started walking away, and surmised (correctly) that he must be on his way over to the Red headquarters. I slowed down just enough so that he was almost even with me, and looked at him out of the corner of my eye. He was looking me over, but quickly looked straight ahead when he saw that I was peeking too.

And, at this point, I had my great adventure—my one masterful attempt at international understanding- It was such a miserable failure, I'm almost ashamed to recount it! As the Red was not more than two feet from me, I turned, and faced him, and with my most pleasant smile and understanding voice said, "Good morning!"

His reply was immediate, and though he looked at me while I spoke, he looked straight ahead, and said very distinctly, "#$%&!()?&?"!!!"

I thought at first he might explode, but he didn't. He continued his Russian comments for the next half block, though, because I noticed that the people he passed turned and looked at him rather strangely.

ACTUALLY, all kidding aside, I guess I was lucky that was all he did. We were mighty close to his side of the fence. But—you can't blame a guy for trying

We returned to the hotel, which was the meeting place in days gone by of dukes and kings and such, and had something to eat. The hotel was really fabulous.

The next day we started back early. We passed the Vienna check points, and made a number of stops for pictures of Russian road signs and propaganda writing on the walls of buildings, etc. Something else we failed to mention regarding our trip in, we noticed that in the Russian zone, workmen were taking down telephone and electric wires. Looks like the Soviets decided they needed the copper more than the Austrians. Talk about stripping a country!

WE HAD gotten about thre fourths the way through th Russian Zone when we came t a detour sign. A fellow on bicycle told us we could g straight ahead, and I kind o wanted to follow the detou The captain went straight, an I followed the other road. W planned to meet on the othe side of the town. I found ou later that the detour was f three-ton trucks, and, of cours there are no American vehicle of this order traveling the road so we were actually out o bounds. We traveled severa miles on a narrow muddy road way out into the countrysid A Russian staff car passed u going like the deuce with hor blaring, but they didn't stop t chat.

When we completed the d tour we saw no sign of th captain, so turned around an went back on the regular roa that he took. This passed th Red Army post, and we back tracked almost to the turno looking for him. We didn't fin him, so we turned around agai and passed the Red post. (Th folks in the back seat were tal ing pictures like mad as I wen by at about 20 m.p.h.) We knew the captain hadn't had ca trouble, or we would hav found him, so we went on.

AT THE Russian check poin we came across a group of nic looking fellows that could hav been from anywhere in th States. One of them even smile at me, and they weren't carrying machine guns. When we go over the bridge to the Ame ican check point, the M.P. sai that the captain had bee through and was worried abou us. We told the M.P. that w had taken the detour, and h said that the last car throug said that we were stopped b the road. (Actually you are no supposed to stop your car in th Russian area.) I told the M. that I was cleaning off th windshield, as I was at tha time. He said O.K., and got o the radio and called off every one's worry. We were to mee the captain at Camp Mac Cauley.

We missed the captain, bu he got home O.K., as we als did, although the last mile wa the worst driving I've ever had It was heavy fog in the outskirts of Stuttgart, and wa really rough.

WE HAD a fine time in Vienna. Generally speaking, th Russian officers seem to be bunch of hard, straight-face guys, but the enlisted men seen to be a nice-looking bunch o kids who would enjoy a goo time. I also think that the Russian soldiers, regardless o rank, are much more impressive than our soldiers, and thi may be because the ones w saw were dressed so well. They all wore high boots, heav tunics, and fur caps. Most o those whom we saw seemed rather short.

An exception to that rule was the fabulous George Holden Tinkham, the predecessor to Governor Christian A. Herter from the 10th Congressional district. He used to meander off to the far corners of the world hunting big game even in election years, and if there had been an Iron Curtain in those days he undoubtedly would have strayed behind it.

But the present-day Congressmen with itchy feet who encounter unsympathetic treatment from communist police in some area such as East Berlin are not likely to get too much sympathy from their constituents. They would be treated with gerat dignity and respect, if they stayed home and attended to their jobs.

With a Congressman's salary now fixed at $22,500 a year, $2,500 more than the Governor of Massachusetts receives, in addition to a liberal expense account, it is not too much to expect year-around service, allowing a reasonable time, of course, for vacations.

The fact that some Congressman periodically is experiencing difficult in some distant place such as East Berlin, Moscow or Stalingrad causes one to wonder how much time certain of these gentlemen spend in their own districts in the course of a year.

From now until the end of January politicians in both parties, columnists, commentators and perhaps even a few fortune-tellers will participate in the popular guessing game of conjecturing whether President Eisenhower will or will not run for reelection in 1956.

Our guess at this moment, before the flood gates open, is that he will not. But a conviction is growing in political circles that he may yield to the persuasion of persons around him who would like to see him leading the GOP into battle next autumn.

Republican National Committee Chairman Hall strengthened the impression that Ike may be a candidate 11 months from now by his statement that the President will run, if he is able to do so.

What many persons drew from Hall's assertion is that President Eisenhower will toss his hat into the 1956 ring, if his doctors tell him after an examination late in January that his heart appears to be strong enough to stand the strain of a campaign and another four years in the White House.

That may or may not be the fact. Mrs. Eisenhower is likely to have something to say in the matter, whatever the finding of the doctors may be, and from all the reports she will vigorously oppose any disposition on the part of her famous husband to stand for another term.

Her views probably will carry a good deal of weight, more perhaps than is realized by some of the politicos who view the situation entirely in terms of returns in the ballot box.

However, the Republican masterminds may be making a serious mistake in tieing their hopes so tightly to President Eisenhower.

They are creating a situation in which almost everyone, Democrats as well as Republican, concede both privately and publicly that Mr. Eisenhower would be overwhelmingly reelected, if he were physically able to run next year.

So much emphasis is being placed on Ike that the implication also is being created that the GOP will have little chance of winning in '56, if he takes himself out of the fight.

The buildup of hopes that President Eisenhower will seek reelection will be a shrewd move, indeed, if that proves to be the fact.

But the GOP will be in for a terrific letdown, if in late January or some time shortly thereafter, the official word comes out of the White House that the President is going to retire to Gettysburg at the end of next year.

The Republican leaders might be a good deal smarter if they proceeded on the assumption that Ike will not run and then were pleasantly surprised. As matters stand now, an announcement that he will not be available might be a blow from which they would not recover by next November's election. That situation, if it develops, would be one of their own making.

Adams and McCormack Seek State Office

Two popular young public figures, one a Republican and the other a Democrat, have launched early drives for places on their respective State tickets.

State Senator John Adams of Andover is seeking the Republican nomination for State Treasurer, and City Councillor Edward J. McCormack, Jr., of Dorchester is bidding for the Democratic nomination for Attorney General.

Present indications are that both men have at least a fairly good chance of achieving their objectives.

Adams is a member of the liberal wing of the State Senate. He is an aggressive hard-hitting politician who would be a real asset to the Republican State ticket.

MRS. HARRY A. WANSKER

This week the Graphic is proud to salute Mrs. Harry A. Wansker of 195 Mill street, Newtonville. We have chosen Mrs. Wansker as "Newtonite of the Week" because of her untiring work with the Newton Center Woman's Club of which she is now president.

The Newton Center Woman's Club is a member of the State Federation of Women's Clubs which in turn is an affiliate of the National Federation of Women's Clubs. This Federation is the largest woman's organization in the country. Membership in the club is open to all women throughout Newton and is not limited to Newton Center residents.

The objectives of the Club are threefold, — social, educational, and community service. The club is orientated toward providing an expression for every woman. If a woman is interested in art there is a committee which she can join that studies the various aspects of painting. There is a Literature Committee which reports on books and invites guest reviewers to speak on current offerings. There are committees which study drama, gardening, music ,and education to mention just a few.

Two of the most interesting activities sponsored by the club are the Veterans and Foreign Service Committee and the American Home Committee. At Christmas the Veterans Service Committee distributes 75 bags with 14 presents in each to the various Veterans' Hospitals. The presents are either made o donated. The Foreign Servic Committee makes or receive donations for children's clothing, sweaters, mittens and caps The total value of the gifts an clothing given away by thi Committee last year wa $1,653.40.

The American Home Committee is the club's largest. Her the women learn from each other and from lectures all abou home making. Mrs. Wansker had much to do with activating this group. As Vice-Chairma and then Chairman, she arranged for interesting programs, obtained good lecturer and inspired the women int cooperating. This Committe offers the women a real opportunity to add something concrete to their own homes.

The club has a fine building in Newton Centre square, complete with kitchen, auditoriu and Art Gallery, which is len out free of charge to many organizations throughout Newton

The club raises its money through dues and special events A celebrity breakfast which i held each March under the direction of Mrs. Mildred Flagg has attracted much attentio and is one of the most successful of the special events. Each March leading figures in th Arts, Theater, and Movies ar invited to attend a breakfast Roland Hayes, Edna Ferber Dahl the cartoonist and many others have attended this breakfast and entertained for th club members.

A good part of the club's funds are contributed to philanthropic and health agencie such as the Massachusett Heart Association.

Mrs. Wansker, as Presiden of this 300 woman organization coordinates its operation. A you can well imagine the Presidency is a full time job. I requires the administrative abilities of a top level executiv combined with the tact and patience of a diplomat. Mrs Wansker has done much to continue the growth and diversification of interests which is needed to keep the club going. By hard work and the intense interest of Mrs Wansker and th other leaders, this club has filled a definite need in th community. It provides an opportunity for women to participate in an organization which i dedicated to civics and improvement of the individual.

MRS. ROBERT B. BARTON

MISS STEPHANIE PURCELL IS BRIDE OF ROBERT B. BARTON

At an eleven o'clock nuptial mass in the Church of Our Lady of Help of Christians, Newtonville ,last Saturday, Miss Stephanie Ann Purcell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Milton Purcell of Newton, became the bride of Mr. Robert Bruce Barton, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Matthew Barton of Brighton. The Rt. Rev. Walter J. Furlong, P.A., officiated at the ceremony as the bride's father gave her in marriage. Longwood Towers in Brookline was the scene of the reception which followed the church ceremony.

The bride carried a prayer book marked with two white orchids and stephanotis with her princess style gown of ivory satin. She wore a finger tip veil caught to a crown of pearls.

The maid of honor, Miss Paula Purcell of Newton, sister of the bride, wore turquoise taffeta and carried a cascade of shattered pink and lavender carnations. The Misses Patricia Medeiros of Roslindale and Marie Tamburend of Watertown, served as bridesmaids and wore gowns of royal blue taffeta with cascade bouquets of pink carnations.

The bride was graduated from Lasell Junior College this past June, Mr. Barton is attending Northeastern University.

Newton Firemen Aiding Santa's Toy Department

Toys - toys - toys - Newton firemen are busy these days repairing, repainting, refurnishing old, unwanted toys. They are making them very wanted toys indeed, toys which will make glad the hearts of many girls and boys in the city. The playthings will be distributed to those children who otherwise have no gay presents on Christmas morning.

As for dolls — there will be many a sad, lonesome dolly cleaned up and dressed out in fine new clothes, fresh and pretty again, for some loving small mother. The ladies of the Firemen's Auxiliary are looking after this, and little girls who might have been without new dolls at the jolliest time of the year will find that Santa did not forget — there are dolls for them.

Residents of Newton who have old toys or dolls to contribute are asked to take them to any firehouse. Or call Mr. Hay at BI 4-4216, and he will see that they are picked up.

Curtis SHOEperMART Opens Friday, Dec. 2

A thirty-seven foot sign which can be seen for miles along Rte. 9 reads, CURTIS SHOEperMART. And SHOEperMART is the perfect name, too, because here is a real super market shoe store with long aisles displaying thousands and thousands of brand new shoes for men, women and children. This giant store, the equivalent of 10 ordinary shoe stores, is really attractive, with cheery exterior and interior lighting to make family shoe shopping real fun.

The company states that by merchandising family footwear in this revolutionary new way, Mother and Dad can shop for shoes in the same manner as they do for groceries, enjoying the same savings brought about by low overhead, self-service and factory-to-store distribution. Also, they can see every style available rather than depending on a clerk to suggest something, and as they point out, no clerk can show 10,000 styles.

The opening on December 2nd will be a real jubilee with cash prizes for the lucky adults, and free prizes to every child going to the store opening week.

Ray Dorey, WHDH radio personality, will be on hand Friday to make a radio broadcast along with State and local officials. Plenty of free parking is provided and store hours are conveniently scheduled from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Evaluation of Local Halloween Parties Made

A meeting was held November 16 at the home of Mrs. Meyer Ritvo, Newton, to evaluate the 1955 Halloween parties and to plan the 1956 Halloween parties.

This is the first time that an evaluation meeting has been held; furthermore, frequent meetings are planned throughout the year.

Mr. C. Evan Johnson, Dr. R. Emerson Sylvester, Mrs. Ragna Hovgaard, Mr. Nicholas Dedesco, and Mrs. Worthing L. West conducted the meeting, discussed the recent parties and their problems, and appointed the 1956 Village Coordinators.

Among those who attended the meeting were Dr. Samuel Hedrick, Mrs. Morton Myerberg, Mr. Clarence Churchill, Mr. Robert McLaughlin, Mr. Francis Sellick, Mr. Herbert Callahan, Mr. Melvin Dangel, Mr. and Mrs. R. Toher, Mr. Harold Glickman, Mr. John M. Sheehan, Mrs. Charles Arcand, and Mrs. Richard Jarrell.

Christmas Service Committee Of Newton Federation Of Women's Club Brings Cheer

"It surely picked up my spirits which were pretty low, and made ours a real Christmas," writes a mother of three last year after receiving a gift of money through the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs' Christmas Service Committe. "What a wonderfully happy day you and your group gave to this family on Christmas day . . ." "It was very thoughtful and will help solve the practical problems so often heavy as we grow older . . ." From all over Newton these notes come, and always the feeing is that of grateful thanks. "Appreciate" is the word that occurs again and again: "It was very much appreciated and will long be remembered."

Christmas can be a pretty bleak occasion if a man is unable to provide treats and jollity for his children. It can be a day of more than usual emptiness and loneliness to an elderly man or woman, living alone in a room or two, with only the barest necessities of life. The feeling that no one cares does not make for holiday cheer.

Through the sensible work of the Newton Community Council, a Red Feather agency, the city makes sure that Christmas is more than a word to every resident. In November of each year the Council sends out a letter asking for names of those people likely to have a meagre Christmas. These letters go to clergymen, school principals, school nurses, and various organizations likely to know of needy cases. All such names must be in by December 12 at the latest. The list of them is kept secret, and is carefully destroyed after Christmas.

All names are checked carefully so there will be no duplications in giving, and any clubs giving Christmas gifts are asked to turn in the names of the recipients. Checking is also done to determine whether or not there is real need for gifts. Thus any individual or organization contributing money for this committee is assured that it goes to a home where it will mean much.

It is important to note that only cash presents are given; no longer is a basket of food, assorted clothing, toys, etc., brought to the door of each family. The amount of money given varies with the size of the family, and is given in plenty of time so that each family can plan its own celebration, purchasing the items that its member most need or want. There is really a more "Christmas" atmosphere about this way of giving, for it make possible the fun of looking through the stores, the delight for parents of being able to plan gifts for each child and for each other. "How much it helped," writes one mother, "how much it helped us to give the children a wonderful Christmas." All mothers and fathers can understand just what it would mean not to be able to put stars in the children's eyes at the most festive season of all the year!

In 1954, 425 names were cleared through the Community Council. Of these 266 were helped through the Christmas Service Committee, using money given by the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, the Salvation Army, and the Horace Cousens Fund — $2415.00 in all. Other organizations provided Christmas treats for the remainder.

Anyone knowing of people in need this Christmas is urged to telephone Mrs. Eugenia T. Copeland, executive secretary of the NewtonCommunity Council, LA 7-5121. As has been mentioned, all information of this nature is held in strictest confidence. Chairman of the Christmas Service Commitee for this year is Mrs. Donald MacKenzie.

Individuals or groups wishing to help in the work of making Newton a real Christmas city may send contributions to Mrs. Copeland at the Council's address, 93 Union Street, Newton Centre, or to this year's Christmas Service Commitee's treasurer, Mrs. Edmund Miller, 161 Forest Avenue, West Newton. Checks may be payable to Mrs. Miller.

It is a beautiful thought for all of us, and a heartening one, too, in this rushing modern world—the thought that "Hark, The Herald Angels Sing," and the fragrance of evergreen, and the glitter of tinsel and the clear chiming of church bells mean something, after all, in Newton. They mean that Christmas is a living thing, that men and women and boys and girls take care and thought for each other — that no one is really alone, unwanted, suffering. The Community Council, the Christmas Service Committee, and many clubs show forth the spirit of the season.

"Your committee must feel a glow of satisfaction at doing so much good," writes one recipient of a present. Certainly that glow is a precious thing to have during the holidays; it is a glow which can spread to many, many people.

And one young mother, writing a happy letter of thanks, says that she, her husband, and their small children, join "in thanking you all for your Christlike charity." After, all what more can Christmas giving be?

Recent guests at the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco were the Carl R. Hauers of 117 Cleveland street, Newton.

Boys' Club Gets Basketball Season Started

Basketball practices for members of the Newton Boys' Club have been underway for the past few weeks at the Hawthorne Gymnasium. Through the kindness of Mr. C. Evan Johnson, Commissioner of Recreation for the City of Newton, facilities at the Hawthorne Gym have been available to the Club on Tuesday evenings throughout the winter season.

Through the cooperation of Coach Benny Freeman, of Brandeis University, a coach for varsity team of the Club has been made possible. The Coach, Robert C. Osterberg, a sophomore on the Brandeis team, a resident of Union City, New Jersey, and former two year letterman at Union Hill High School, the county and sectional state champions, has been working the sixteen candidates for the team. Coach Osterberg is planning to open the season in about two weeks with independent clubs in preparation for the City League to start some time in January. The Boys' Club is planning to have a fully uniformed team in either the National A or B league. Members of last years team who have come out are Frank Biotti, Jack Rose, Charles Fremault, Nick Pennaggio, Fran MacDonald, Pat Proia, Donald Lawn; among the new candidates are James Giroux who played baseball last summer for the Boys' Club, and Arthur Caeretti, Fran Sheehan, Tom O'Hara, Dick Ryan, Dick Goggin, Al Zazzera, D. S. Champagne, Dick DiGregorio.

Intermediate members under sixteen years of age have also league. Members of last year's for an opening game to be played at the Gym November 29. Pat Proia, a member of the Varsity team is coaching the Intermediates. From present indications two teams may be organized due to the large number of candidates turning out. More than twenty boys have shown up at practices. Selection of the teams will not be made until after the first practice game.

Junior members of the Club have been working out at the small gym at the Clubhouse on Dalby street. Boys in this class will play intra-mural ball and will be classified as Midget League. At least four teams will compete for awards and Club letters.

Interrelations Of The Arts Theme At Catholic Art Association Meeting

Newton College of the Sacred Heart, 885 Centre street, Newton will be host, on the 3rd and 4th of December, to the New England Regional Meeting of the Catholic Art Association. At this meeting, authorities on drama, Architecture, Romance Languages and Choral Music will discuss the common principles which underlie the many forms of art.

Father William J. Leonard, S.J., A.M., S.T.L., Associate Professor of Theology, Boston College, will open the meeting on Saturday afternoon with a talk on the Liturgy and the Arts.

Musicologist G. Wallace Woodworth, Professor of music at Harvard University, and known to the listening public through his weekly program "Tomorrow's Symphony", broadcast over WGBH, will speak on "Standards And Problems In Religious Choral Music."

Saturday evening, a lecture on "The Miracle Play As An Art Form" to be given by Miss E. Catherine Dunn, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of English, at Catholic University of America, will be followed by a presentation of a miracle play written by the contemporary English author, Charles Williams. The play "The House By The Stable" will be presented by the Newton College Players, whose scenery for this performance was executed by Miss Celia Hubbard, artist and scenic designer, whose Botolph Group Gallery is a center for Catholic Art and artists.

On Sunday, the meeting will open with a Missa Cantata facing the congregation sung by Reverend William J. Leonard, S.J. This will be followed, later in the morning, by a talk on "True And False In Art" by artist Ade de Bethune. Miss Bethune, born in Brussels, has done mural painting and church designing in the Philippines and Mexico.

In the afternoon, Helmut Hatzfeld, Ph. D., will speak on "Establishing Relationships Between Literature and Art". Mr. Hatzfeld, who has studied at the major universities of Europe and was Professor at the University of Heidelberg, is Professor of Romance Languages and Literature at Catholic University of America.

The final talk of the meeting will be by the Dean of the Harvard School of Design, Jose Luis Sert on "Art and Architecture In Relation To Church Building". Mr. Sert, who worked with Le Corbusier and Pierre Jeannert, was appointed Dean of the Faculty of Design and Professor of Architecture in the Graduate School of Design, Harvard University, 1953.

The Catholic Art Association was organized in 1937 to foster a true understanding and practice of the arts among Catholics. It aims to renew the sacred Christian spirit in all arts, those that provide for the necessities of everyday life as well as those that are specifically ecclesiastical.

Women's Gym and Swim Schedule Is Announced

The Newton Y.M.C.A. in keeping with the trend toward progressive programing has initiated a women's gymnasium and swimming activity schedule, announced Alex R. Miller, General Secretary of the Y.M.C.A.

The women's class was conducted on a small scale, due to limited facilities, last year but since its start this season in October it has blossomed into a prominent part of the Y.M.C.A. total program. Classes are conducted under the supervision of Edward R. DiPersio, Associate Physical Director, each Thursday morning.

The women attend gymnasium classes from 9:30 to 10:00 a.m., engaging in calisthenics and body slimming exercises. In addition, many sport and recreational skills are presented in units of two weeks each. To date the women have enjoyed volleyball, square dancing and archery. Planned for the future are units on golf, field hockey and indoor softball.

A swimming program follows the gymnasium class and offers a recreational period with instruction for all non-swimmers. At the present there are approximately fifty women registered in the class using temporary locker-rooms pending completion of the new units which are now being constructed as a part of the overall Y.M.C.A. building remodeling program. It is expected that work will be completed during the first part of 1956.

Social Science

The Social Science Club of Newton will meet on Wednesday, December 7th at 10 a.m., at the Hunnewell Club. A Business Meeting will be followed by a talk by Mr. Leo Barry, Principal of Newton High School. Hostesses will be Mrs. Leonard Abbott and Mrs. Gordon Russell.

Newton Lawyer Wins Client Large Verdict

Awards totalling more than $92,000, including interest charges, were returned by a Suffolk County jury last week in favor of the family of a young girl who was crushed to death and her grandmother painfully injured by an MTA bus in the Dudley street terminal in June, 1953. This is one of the largest verdicts ever entered in the Massachusetts Courts.

The plaintiffs were represented by Newton attorney Charles Schwartz of 90 Greenwood st., Newtan Centre. Mr. Schwartz is a partner in the law firm of Hoffman & Schwartz. He is vice president of the Oak Hill School P.T.A. and is active in Newton charity drives.

Robert F. Pierce, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Pierce of 21 Park place, Newtonville, is presently attending the Bentley School of Accounting and Finance in Boston.

Rev. V. M. Martin To Speak Here December 5

Reverend Vincent M. Martin, O.P., will lecture at Newton College of the Sacred Heart, 885 Centre street, Newton, Monday night, December '. Father Martin will speak on "The Queen of Theology."

Father Martin who was ordained at Washington, D. C., in 1940, received his doctorate in philosophy at Laval University in Quebec. He has taught at the Dominican House of Studies in Somerset, Ohio, and in Washington, D. C., and is at present Dean of Studies at the Dominican House of Philosophy, Dover, Mass.

Among his writings are: "Frontiers of the Human Mind," "Communism and the Exaltation of Man," and pamphlets on the novena to Our Lady of Fatima, and the first Saturday Devotions.

His talk on "The Queen of Theology" is the fourth in a series of lectures being offered at Newton College of the Sacred Heart.

Newton Evening ORT

Newton Evening Chapter ORT will hold a paid-up membership meeting Wednesday, December 7, at 8:30 p.m., at the Memorial School, Oak Hill Park.

An outstanding evening is in store. Mrs. Priscilla Dunn, toy consultant for F.A.O. Schwarz, renowned toy store, will talk on the "importance of toys in a child's life." Mrs. Dunn possesses a wealth of knowledge about children, having become interested in this field when she was a young reporter assigned to do a story on hospitalized youngsters. She is also a member of the staff of Marjorie Mills of WBZ.

There will also be an interesting skit on the activities of ORT put on by our own ORT members.

Here, also, an opportunity for you to do your holiday shopping — members will have tables set up showing their items for their "work and earn projects."

Newsprint Shortage Poses Problem For U. S. Papers

The shortage of newsprint poses a critical problem for newspaper publishers in the United States at the present time. "Newsprint" is the trade term for the paper on which this newspaper is printed.

In fact, the rising shortage of newsprint is changing the appearance of newspapers in many cities. Here and there it's bringing a higher price for a paper on the news-stands.

Two Boston papers have been forced to hike advertising rates to offset the raise in the price of newsprint announced recently by the producers. One boost is effective in February, the other on January 1st; increases are from 5 to 6 percent.

The shortage makes it compulsory for newspaper publishers to scan closely the balance between news and advertising in their jounals and to weigh carefully any necessity for additional pages, or extra sections. Already many publishers are studying the possibility of curtailing advertising in next year's first quarter.

Many publishers have pointed out that the margin of profit is extremely small in most papers when the cost of production is measured against the income derived from circulation and advertising. An increase in newsprint price — and a shrinkage of the supply — can have a serious effect in advertising and circulation price increases which might shrink the volume of service by the press rather than expand it as it should be doing.

Some publishers, on the eve of what looms as the biggest Christmas advertising season ever, are wondering if they'll be able to give their advertising customers all the space they want. It's that serious.

Most United States newspapers haven't had to restrict advertising since the paper rationing days of World War 11.

Record consumption of newsprint, pressing against capacity operations of producers, is basically responsible for the supply stringency. Rising exports to Europe and other overseas points is aggravating the domestic shortage. European newspapers, held to a minimum of pages since the war, are expanding, partly as an effective weapon against communistic propaganda, and this sudden drain on the supply of newsprint is felt here.

Statements from publishers epitomize the tight situation in supply of newsprint for U. S. newspapers. It is a tough problem and one which is increasing the intake of aspirin among hard-pressed publishers. They are sincere in their wish to provide all the news space possible ,the features, the photos and other editorial items which please the newspaper reader; also all the necessary space for the proper and complete display of the advertisers' messages.

Measure this against a critical shrinkage of the paper upon which all this is printed, plus a sudden zoom upward in the price of the stuff, and a realization of the crisis must be apparent even to those who are not behind the scenes in the creation and publication of a newspaper.

MISS MARY HIGGINS

Miss Mary Higgins To Marry In June

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Higgins of Newton Centre and Scituate, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Denise, to Dr. Francis Joseph Nash, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Nash of Chestnut Hill, and Allerton.

Miss Higgins attended the Boston Academy of Notre Dame and graduated from Emmanuel College in 1950. Her fiance was graduated from Boston College, class of 1950 and Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia. He was president of Phi Alpha Sigma fraternity and Miss Higgins is a member of the Ace of Clubs. Dr. Nash served as a Pharmacict's Mate in the Asiatic-Pacific areas during World War II and is now resident in Obstetrics and Gynecology at Carney Hospital and St. Margaret's Hospital.

Dr. Sabbath Guest At Weeks Jr. H. H. PTA

The Education Committee of the Weeks Junior High School Parent Teachers Association is presenting a program November 30 in the Auditorium which should be of special interest to all parents of adolescent children. The Committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Leon Bayard, has chosen a film entitled "The Age of Turmoil." As its title indicates, this film concerns itself with the thirteen to fifteen year old boys and girls and focuses on the behaviour that reflects the emotional turmoil of this age.

Dr. Joseph Sabbath, psychiatrist on the staff of the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital will introduce the program and will conduct a question period following it. Dr. Sabbath is also associated with the Department of Psychiatry at Harvard Medical School.

Mrs. Frances Forgie of the Weeks Guidance Office has assisted in the planning of this program. Mrs. Bayard stated that the Educational Committee plans to follow up this introductory meeting with a workshop for Weeks parents dealing with the problems of adolescence.

Cub Scout Pack No. 73 Inducts New Members

The monthly pack meeting of Pack 73, Newton Cub Scouts, was held at the Pierce School, West Newton, Friday evening, November 18, with a good representation of Cubs and parents from all ten Dens present. The meeting was presided over by Cub-Master, Bob Kretschmar, and the entertainment was provided by Den Number 3 under the leadership of Mrs. James Phair, who presented an amusing take-off of the Ed Sullivan show.

Two new Bobcats were inducted, Daniel Wolff and Peter Macalaster, and two Bobcats, Wayne Chasson and Edward Shea were awarded their Wolf badges. Arrows on their Wolf Badges were awarded to the following cubs: 3 Silver Arrows to Clifford Derick, one Gold and one Silver Arrow to Bruce Jones, two Silver Arrows to Frederick McCarthy and Roger Singer, and one Gold and one Silver to Edward Shea. One Cub, Joseph de Bettencourt, was presented with his Bear badge.

Den Number 3 won the award for the best proportional attendance. The next meeting of the Pack will be held Friday evening, December 16, when a Christmas Carnival will be presented under the chairmanship of Pack Committee Member, Al Chasson.

Corpus Christi Horizons Club

Favors and candy for their Thanksgiving table were presented to the two hundred children of Nazareth, Jamaica Plain, by a delegation representing Bluebirds, Camp Fire Girls, and Horizon Club members of Corpus Christi Church in Auburndale. Accompanying the group were Reverend Edward Beucler, Camp Fire Spiritual Director, Mrs. Paul A. D'Agestino, Mrs. Archie Hayes and Mrs. Orazio E. Vaccaro, leaders.

Informed Citizenry Stressed By Community Service Club of W. N.

The Community Service Club of West Newton met last Wednesday at the Second Church in West Newton. Mrs. Howard M. Goff, program chairman, introduced Nathan B. Gatchell, lecturer, who taught for ten years before World War II called him to service. His three years as an infantry officer in the Pacific Theater with the 43rd infantry Division was the start of his interest in the tropics as an area for travel, study and adventure. The use of a motorcycle, instead of a car, on his trip into the American tropics dispelled the usual barrier between a traveler and the native people in whom he was especially interested. His colored slides were of exceptional quality and his talk on Mexico gave an interesting and informative picture of our Mexican neighbors.

Mrs. George C. Thompson and Mrs. George H. Fernald were co-chairmen of the dessert coffee hour. The pourers were two new members, Mrs. Louis F. Fowler and Mrs. Samuel Werner. Mrs. Alden W. Read, art chairman, used Mexico for her motif in the Art corners. Many interesting and beautiful articles were loaned by members of the Club and Mr. Gatchell.

The President, Mrs. Alfred O. Weaver, called the business meeting to order at 2 p.m. Mrs. Raymont J. Grenier, Chairman Veterans' Service, showed the members a completed Christmas bag filled with the individually-wrapped articles which each of member's bags will contain when they are taken to the Veterans' Hospital during the Holiday season. The collection taken during the meeting to aid in this project was most gratifying.

Mrs. Alden W. Read, Art Chairman, urged members to visit the Jackson Homestead "Open-house" December 11 at 527 Washington street, Newton. Tea will be served from 3 to 5 p.m. and the Bell Ringers will entertain. The Blind Circle of Newton will be guests at the next meeting, December 21, when Alice Fredey, comedienne and character actress and Blair Brenner, baritone, will combine to present a Christmas program. Mrs. Chester W. Wilson, Hospital chairman, reported on the work accomplished by her committee at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital where the group does volunteer sewing twice a month. From April 19 to October 4 inclusive, 1432 articles were completed. The President announced that Club Institute will be held at the Y.W.C.A. in Boston December 1 at 10:30 a.m. A Christmas program will be presented.

Miss Theresa L. Cram, Legislative chairman, introduced the guest of honor, Mrs. Lorimer T. Reed, Chairman of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs Legislative Division. She explained briefly what the Division does and how it works. She urged Club women to visit the State House and to watch the newspapers for bills to be presented. "Our legislation is the most democratic in the country. Mrs. Reed closed by saying, "A good citizen is an informed citizen and citizenship is the heart and soul of our country."

Pupils Skating Program Begins Under Horace Mann P.T.A.

At the November 9 meeting of the Horace Mann P.T.A. in Newtonville, President Russell F. Gooley announced the appointment of co-chairmen for the skating program. For undertaking this assignment a vote of thanks goes to Mrs. Erich Arenberg, 230 Walnut street, and Mrs. John A. Snook, 74 Page road. Mothers whose children go with their classmates on the skating trips, which are sponsored by the P.T.A. and by the Newton Public Schools, can best express their appreciation by volunteering to help these women. Sale of tickets started November 18, and the first skating day for Horace Mann children was Tuesday, November 22. There will be eleven skating trips in all but each trip must have a sufficient number of chaperones. You may contact Mrs. Arenberg by phoning BI 4-5092 or Mrs. Snook at LA 7-8346. They need your help. Signed permission slips must be received from parents before children are signed up for skating.

Others who have assumed chairmanships are Mrs. Kenneth G. King, 361 Albemarle road, for membership; and Mrs. Fred A. Lepine, 50 Parsons street, who was in charge of the Hallowe'en party.

Mrs. Wilmer P. Heath, 142 Lowell avenue, volunteered to serve as representative to the city-wide P.T.A. Council.

Elected officers, serving with Mr. Gooley, are Mrs. Jack Hoover, 806 Watertown street, vice-president; Mrs. Christian Hagelstein, 136 Randlett park, secretary; and Victor A. Nicolazzo, 45 Harrington street, treasurer.

Kenneth LaFlamme, principal, introduced the teachers, both "old" and new. He thanked P.T.A. members for their interest in the school and urged all parents to give their support to P.T.A. efforts.

After the business meeting parents went to the cclassrooms for grade-level meetings. Each teacher explained her program of classwork and method of teaching.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Herbert Shaw and Mrs. Bernard Brooks.

Auburndale Woman's Club

The Membership Committee of the Auburndale Woman's Club will hold a tea for new members December 9, Friday, at 2:30 p.m. in the clubhouse lounge at the Auburndale Club House Inc., 283 Melrose street.

Chairman and Hostess of the day, Mrs. Orazio E. Vaccaro, assisted by Membership Committee, Mrs. Raymond D. Brewer, Mrs. Edward D. Brine, Mrs. LeRoy A. Faulkner, Mrs. Philip L. Houle, Mrs. Frank Meyer, Mrs. William M. Rauha, Mrs. David S. Roberts, Mrs. John M. Sheehan, Mrs. Herbert L. Stevens and Mrs. William Wellock and group 3. Pourers: Mrs. J. Howard Littleton, President, Mrs. Richard F. Cleveland, Vice-President. Table arrangement, Mrs. William . McCarron.

Eighteen new members are to be welcomed. Other guests are to be the Executive Board and sponsors of new members.

MISS ALICE HANNINEN

Miss Hanninen To Wed Dec. 9

Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Hanninen of Newtonville, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Alice Marie, to Mr. Carroll R. Farrenkopt, son of Mrs. Margaret Farrenkopt and the late Rudolph C. Farrenkopt of Chatham.

Miss Hanninen attended Chamberlain School of Retailing. The wedding is to take place December 9 after which the couple will make their home in Chatham.

Christmas Greens Topic At Waban Woman's Club

Next Monday at two o'clock Mrs. Helen Wilson, well known authority on Christmas decorations, gives a talk to the members of the Waban Woman's Club at the Waban Neighborhood Club House. Mrs. Wilson has many original and fresh ideas for the entire house, for mantels, halls and stairways. Using materials, some of which last for more than a season, she creates charming and unusual effects, all of which may be easily adopted to member's homes.

Newtonville Woman's Club Yule Bell Bazaar Dec. 6

The newly decorated Club House of the Newtonville Woman's Club, at 661 Washington Park, will be gaily trimmed for the Yule Bell Bazaar, December 6, by Mrs. Carl B. Horton and Mrs. George Curtis. From 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. it will be a mecca for Christmas shoppers who will find an attractive and varied assortment of useful and ornamental holiday items. The Greens and Berries Table will have intriguing merchandise such as Christmas decorations for both indoors and outdoors; candle racks, Norwegian kissing bells, blue angels, gift aprons for "dirt gardeners," guaranteed to keep knees dry; and Christmas cards and wrappings. Many of the items have been hand made by Mrs. George W. Hinman and her committee, which includes Mesdames Richard C. Ashenden, George A. Edmands, Alexander A. Fox, Robert Gourley, William B. Hanna, Nelson E. Howlett, Charles Peterson, Raymond W. Scribner, Harold L. Stillman and Miss Margarita W. Ells.

At noon a delicious hot luncheon, open to the public, will be served by Mrs. John R. Clark, assisted by Mesdames C. O. Mooney, Frederick K. Hussey, Harry L. Kinsel, Walter N. Keene, Raimund G. Vanderweil, Robert Gourley, Orvil Hagaman, Robert A. Gleason, John F. Gilbert, hilip D. Clark, and Clayton J. Kannair.

Reservations for the 6 p.m. dinner should be made with Mrs. Harry W. Abells, whose committee includes Mesdames K. G. Bilezekian, Marshall David, Lawrence P. Farnham, William Fish and Arthur L. Hare.

The Red Nose Reindeer Table, of which Mrs. Hugh A. McCrea is chairman, will have a wide assortment of handkerchiefs for all tastes. Her committee members include Mrs. George I. Whitehead, Mrs. William J. Ray, Mrs. Henry J. Prince, Mrs. Joseph L. Sevigny and Mrs. Lawrence S. Manning. At the North Pole Postoffice will be found all sorts of "mystery packages." Mrs. Walter F. Burt, chairman, is assisted by Mrs. George W. Taylor, Mrs. D. L. Woodberry, Mrs. I. E. Jackson, Mrs John R. Rees, Mrs. Edward P. Hendrick, Mrs. Joseph L. Hurff and Mrs. Theodore M. Reed.

Everyone should pause at Santa's Thrift Shop to find a White Elephant to suit his fancy. Mrs. Harold S. Rice and Mrs. Eaton Webber are assisted on this table by Mrs. John F. Gilbert and Mrs. Theodore M. Reed. The Sugar Plum Table will be one of the most popular. Here Mrs. Edmund Miller and Mrs. Howard C. Thomas, co-chairmen, will preside over a taste-tempting assortment of home-made baked goods, preserves and candies. Their committee includes Mrs. Alfred A. Alexander, Mrs. Lawrence G. Drury, Mrs. D. T. Gallison, Mrs. Boyd Hayden, Mrs. Dudley Hovey, Miss E. Louise Larned, Mrs. Royal arkinson, Mrs. Newell J. Trask, Mrs. A. Gordon Weinz and Mrs. Roger Wheeler.

At the Christmas Gifts table and at Mrs. Santa's Workshop (apron) table will be found many items to help complete one's Christmas list. Chairmen are Mrs. John Cox and Mesdames Elmer W. Littlefield and John M. O'Donnell, respectively.

Order of Rainbow Confers Degrees On Five Girls

Degrees were conferred upon five girls and affiliation was also conferred upon one girl by Newton Assembly, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, November 19, at the Masonic Temple.

Awarded degrees were Josephine Cialdea, Donna Collins, Marilyn MacLean, Jane Renker, and Lynne Robinson. Affiliation was awarded to Barbara Carolyn Learoyd.

Degrees were exemplified by the Worthy Advisor, Cynthia Brown; Worthy Associate Advisor, Mary Ayres; Charity, Helen Ranney; Hope, Barbara Whiting; Faith, Barbara Bowers; Drill Leader, Marilyn Miller; Chaplain, Nancy Butler; and other officers and the choir of the assembly took part in the exemplification of degrees.

After the initiation an informal reception was held and refreshments served in the Social Hall.

Woman's Society Of Christian Service Tea

The Christmas festivities of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will combine a tea and reception for the new members with a featured program of colored madonna paintings and musical selections. This will be held in the Newtonville Methodist Church next Wednesday, December 7, at 1:45 p. m.

Mrs. Earle Wood, who is vice president of the Newton Council of Churches, and president of the Woman's society of the Church of the Messiah in Auburndale, will show her fine collection of madonna pictures and point out the various characteristics of the many lands and races represented.

Mrs. R. N. Fedje, of Amherst, will present vocal selections appropriate to the pictures.

Eastern Star "Christmas Fair" Tuesday, December 6

Eye-catching will be the Christmas table when Palestine Chapter No. 114, O.E.S. opens its "Christmas Fair", at 1:00 o'clock on Tuesday, December 6 in the Masonic Temple in Newtonville Square. Ornaments ready for placing on the Christmas tree, center pieces for the dinner table and many other types of seasonal decorations are special features of the Christmas table. Gay gifts also may be found, along with cards, seals, wrappings, etc.

Mrs. George Smith, General Chairman of the Fair, and her committees have spent weeks in preparing unusual handmade items including colorful aprons, kitchen gadgets, painted ware, jewelry and the little knick-nacks that are so appealing to women. The menfolks have not been forgotten, for Mr. Alfred Crandall will preside over a table devoted to their needs.

Other tables and chairmen are: Christmas Table and Gifts, Mrs. Alfred Crandall; Food and Candy, Mrs. Emmett Warburton and Mrs. Lehman Kepner; White Elephant Table, Mrs. Clarence Forrest and Mrs. Willis Cummings; Aprons and Handwork, Mrs. Judson Sartwell; Jewelry and Handbags, Mrs. John Eldert; Corsages, Mrs. Jennie Day; Grabs, Mrs. Frank Laurie.

Mrs. Wayne Whiting and Mrs. John Lengeman will serve at the Tea Table from 3-4 P.M.

A ham and baked bean supper will have two servings, one at 5:30 and the other at 6:30 P.M., with Mrs. Herbert Waterhouse chairman and Mrs. Henry MacPhee in charge of the reservations.

An auction, with Mr. Crandall acting as auctioneer, will provide a fitting climax to the "Christmas Fair."

Advent Activities Continue At Newton Methodist Church

Advent activities will continue this week at the Newton Methodist Church. "Behold, the Man Jesus" will be the title of the sermon to be given Sunday morning in the 10:45 a.m. service of worship, Dr. Paul Uhlinger, minister of the church announces. This will be the second in an Advent series "in search of the Jesus of Christmas."

The Men's Club are having a special "Father and Son Night" this Friday evening at 6:30 p.m. in Fellowship Hall. Mr. Charles Law, Freshman Football Coach at Harvard and director of athletics at Suffolk University will be the featured speaker. In addition to relating interesting incidents from the gridiron and giving diagrams on the blackboard, Coach Law plans to show motion pictures from the Harvard games. The boys and young men of the church will be special guests.

The Welcome Circle of the Women's Society of Christian Service will meet on Tuesday evening at 8:00 p.m. in the Trowbridge Room. For roll call, each member is being requested to name her favorite Christmas hymn. Mrs. Gertrude Simmonds will give a reading, "The Man Who Was too Busy to Find the Christ." Fifty cent pieces will be brought to buy supplies for the Methodist Mission in Sarawak, Borneo.

The Chancel Choir will rehearse on Thursday evening at 7:15 p.m. in the Sanctuary of the Church.

The Junior High Youth Fellowship of the Church will meet Sunday evening to continue their work on the Christmas play, "The Boy Who Didn't Belong" and to see an Advent filmstrip on the true meaning of the holiday ahead. The time of meeting will be 6:00 p.m.

Dr. Uhlinger, minister of the church, and a group of singers will conduct the Sunday afternoon service at the Stone Institute in Newton Highlands, sponsored by the Newton Council of Churches. The service will be at 4:00 p.m. this Sunday afternoon.

Mr. George Dewsnap, chairman of the Every-member Canvass of the church, reports that, to date, $9,589.60 has been subscribed toward the 1956 budget of the church. The individual pledges represented an average 10 per cent increase over last year. Approximately $21,000.00 was given to the Church for all causes this last year, including current expenses, benevolences, the building fund, the program of religious education and the women's work. Plans are now being formulated to expend the program of the church to all the constituancy of the church and to interest new residents of the community, Dr. Uhlinger announces.

Ladies at Stone Institute Spend Leisure Time Sewing For Needy

The ladies at the Stone Institute, a red feather agency, spend much of their leisure time sewing and knitting articles of clothing for the less fortunate and needy about the world. As a result of their summer work they have some layettes, afghans, socks, mittens, booties, nities and blankets ready for shipment. They have made good use of the contributions of yarn and materials donated to them.

THEIR periodic "Friendly Sewing Circle" meetings are busy as well as very pleasant occasions, when refreshments are served by a committee of the ladies. There are usually birthday cakes from some one or more who have birthdays during the month. Mrs. William Glidden and Mrs. Stanley of the board of directors are in charge of this group.

The ladies also spent many pleasant hours during the summer helping to cut and prepare many bushels of beans, peas and other garden vegetables from the garden to be stored in the freezer for winter use.

MANY OF of the residents spent part of the summer visiting with friends and relatives at their homes or cottages in various parts of New England and on the Cape. Many others were entertained at luncheons and taken for rides by local friends. The others had a pleasant time enjoying the beautiful flower beds and the wild flowers recently planted in the wooded section of the grounds. The grounds committee, with Mr. Douglass Francis as chairman, has improved the property greatly by repairing the hurricane damage and re-graveling the driveways and paths.

A new coat of green paint on the trim of the house also affected a great "face lifting."

Many of the committees of the board of directors have been busy during the summer and others have been preparing for the winter schedule of activities. Mrs. Edward Pride has completed her assignment of the "visitors" to the ladies. Mrs. Paul Goddard has plans all set for the special fall, Christmas and May parties. Mrs. Elmore MacPhie as chairman of the housekeeping committee spends many hours overseeing that part of the program. She also, with Mrs. George Smith, represented the Stone Institute board at the October 22nd meeting of the Mass. Committee for the Aging held at Waltham. Mrs. Arthur Allen, Mrs. Smith-Peterson, Mrs. MacPhie and Mrs. Stevens, the matron, visited the new Home for Aging at Foxboro. The board members are ever on the alert for ideas to make the home an attractive and home-like place for the residents.

HOWARD RICH is completing plans for building a new sick-bay and diet kitchen on the second floor. It is hoped that it will be possible to secure new laundry equipment to replace the much worn machines in present use, before long.

That the ladies at the Stone Institute do spend pleasant, profitable lives in "their home" is attested by a small paper of news items collected by Mrs. Bailey and Miss Patridge, both residents. Their "Hill Top News" will be distributed to friends of the Stone Institute in the near future.

Garden City Grange

At the regular meeting of Garden City Grange held last week in the Parish House of the Centenary Methodist Church ,Auburndale, a turkey whist was held after the business meeting. The first prize of a turkey dinner for four was won by Mable Quartermain; the second prize, a turkey, was won by May Sawyer and the third prize, a capon, by Eleanora Tainter. Mrs. Mildred Harris won the door prize, a turkey dinner for four.

Plans were made to entertain the Pomona Grange, Middlesex and Norfolk No. 1, at the first meeting in December, and also to send a delegation to the Youth Conference of the Grange at Foxboro next month under the leadership of Gordon Ellis of the State Grange Youth Committee.

TELE-VIEWING THE NEWS

By LEE LOUMOS

Sometimes we can be too quick to blame our TV receivers for a poor or distorted picture. Occasionally a dim or fading picture, slow or interrupted sound, indistinct or distorted pictures can be traced to imperfect transmission of the TV signal. The TV station will usually announce this fact if the trouble persists, but if it's just momentary it might not be announced.

And just as in a movie theater the film will sometimes be blurred due to improper focusing, your TV picture can show a blurred picture if the TV camera is momentarily out of focus. Besides these transmission problems, which increase during winter with its bad weather, you can occasionally get such things as slight picture shrinkage at night when lights, appliances and TV sets are in heavy use.

So when a picture problem pops up in your TV set, give the set a chance before you blame it for the trouble. If the trouble persists and there's no station announcement... or if the same fleeting trouble signs keep coming back all evening or spasmodically for several nights in a row, then it's time to call us for service.

It always helps when you call for service to describe the trouble symptoms exactly. This speeds service many times... and we figure it's our job to give you speedy as well as accurate service when you need it.

Pack 27 Visits Boston Navy Yard

November 12, Pack 27 of the Norumbega Court of the Cub Scouts, visited the Boston Naval Shipyard in Charlestown. There were almost sixty boys between the ages of eight and eleven and den fathers. The trip was arranged by Committeemen J. Wolf and Y. Goldman under the direction of the Cub Master, Bob Grossman. The Pack visited the Radar Ship U.S.S. Vandivier and the U.S.S. Cromwell, DE 1014. The highlights of the trip were (1) each boy had a chance to rotate a gun turret and (2) they were served refreshments on the U.S.S. Cromwell.

After the trip the boys put in applications to join the Navy.

Senior Citizens To Meet At W. N. Community Centre's New Home

The Newton Senior Citizens have been most active these past few weeks in helping their sponsor, the West Newton Community Centre, settle into a new home. The Centre, a Red Feather Agency, is now in full swing at 429 Cherry street, West Newton.

At this address every Tuesday afternoon from 1-4 p.m. the Senior Citizen's group meets, welcoming all Newton residents who would enjoy its varied program and its warm companionship. Activities are planned by the members of the group and have included community projects with a Fair as a climax, special programs with movies or speakers, and at each meeting there is time for games and a social hour around the coffee or tea table.

January of '54 when the Senior Citizens first met, they were most grateful to be given a temporary home by the Unitarian Church in West Newton. Now in permanent quarters and with the wonderful facilities of the new Center, there will be additional activities possible including shuffleboard, pool, television viewing, as well as a craft program with sewing and woodworking.

Mrs. Lazarus S. Yudin of Waban is the Volunteer Leader of this group. Before coming to Waban, Mrs. Yudin had extensive experience in Senior Citizen programming in New York and is now also affiliated with Hecht House, Dorchester, working with a Golden Age group there. She is assisted by a committee from the sponsoring West Newton Community Centre including Mrs. Ernst Seyfarth, chairman, Mrs. Samuel Werner and Mrs. Burton Skinner, executive director.

Senior Citizen officers for the year are: President, George Harvey of Auburndale (retired Engineer); Vice President, Mrs. E. Carl Smith of Newtonville; Secretary, Frank Grant of Newtonville (retired City Clerk of Newton) and Treasurer, Mrs. R. S. Bowen of West Newton.

Newton Art Association

The Newton Art Association will have as its guest this evening at the Newtonville Public Library, Mr. Robert Hunter. Widely known as teacher and painter. Mr. Hunter will lecture on painting fundamentals with special reference to composition, color relationship, and abstraction, accompaning his remarks with a painting demonstration.

Over seventy-five members and guests of the Association were present to enjoy the painting of a portrait by Arthur Safford, when he produced a remarkable likeness in the short space of one and one half hours.

Several paintings in oils and water colors by members of the Newton Art Association were shown at the Newtonville Women's Club last Monday, on the occasion of its "Art Day" activities.

Newtonville Woman's Club Bazaar Tuesday

The North Pole Postoffice at the Newtonville Woman's Club Yule Bell Bazaar next Tuesday, December 6, will contain intriguing mystery packages for old and young. The committee for this table includes Mrs. Walter F. Burt, chairman, Mrs Edward P. Hendrick, Mrs. Joseph L. Hurff, Mrs. I. E. Jackson, Mrs. Theodore M. Reed, Mrs. John R. Rees, Mrs. George W. Taylor, and Mrs. D. L. Woodberry.

Mrs. Harry W. Abells is chairman of the 6:00 p.m. dinner, assisted by Mrs. K. G. Bilezekian, Mrs. Marshall David, Mrs. Lawrence P. Farnham, Mrs William Fish and Mrs. Arthur L. Hare.

An attractive assortment of home made food and candy will appear on the Sugar Plum table. Mrs. Edmund Miller and Mrs. Howard O. Thomas are co-chairmen. Their workers include Mrs. Fred C. Alexander, Mrs. Lawrence G. Drury, Mrs. D. T. Gallison, Mrs. Boyd Hayden, Mrs. Dudley Hovey, Miss E. Louise Larned, Mrs. Royal Parkinson, Mrs. Newell J. Trask, Mrs. A. Connell Company and is a member of the Longwood Cricket Club, Q. B.'s Automotive Electric Association; B & T Club; and the National Aviation Trades Association.

Mrs. Martin Miemoller Speaks At Newton-Wellesley Branch Luncheon

Mrs. Martin Niemoller, wife of the famous German minister who resisted Hitler was the guest speaker at a luncheon meeting of the Newton-Wellesley Branch of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, yesterday (Wednesday) at the Newtonville Methodist Church, Newtonville square. Her topic was "Women and the Peace."

DURING the tense years of Martin Niemoeller's defiance of Hitler before his arrest, he was encouraged and advised by his wife Elsa Bremer Niemoller. Monthly, and frequently twice monthly, she was allowed to visit him during his eight years at the concentration camps, Sachsenhausen and Dachau, from 1937 to 1945.

After her famous husband had been arrested by the Gestapo, Mrs. Niemoller carried on the work of the parish in Berlin-Dahlem and furthered Christian resistence throughout Germany. She trained her seven children to give Christian witness whenever the Church was attacked at school or in public meetings. The oldest of her four sons, a ministry student, was killed on the Eastern Front. The second is now a doctor, and the third, who was a prisoner in Russia, has just graduated from law school. The youngest boy, 18, is called the bookworm of the family.

During the 12 years of Nazi terror in Germany, Mrs. Niemoller did relief work for persecuted persons. Since Hitler's downfall, she has been active in Christian relief, and reconstruction work. She has helped to arrange for the sending of food and clothing to needy pastors' families in Germany.

MRS. NIEMOLLER has travelled with her husband extensively since his release from prison. They have been to America, Australia, New Zealand, Tasmania, and England. Mrs. Niemoller has done much public speaking and is a fluent and popular speaker. As she has taught school in England, her English is excellent.

MRS. MARTIN NIEMOLLER

Her last visit to America with her husband was in the summer of 1954 in connection with the Evanston Assembly of the World Council of Churches.

A citation from Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, in behalf of his department, was issued to the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom. The commendation cited the organization's effort and activity in support of the United Nations.

Mr. Dulles expressed his deep appreciation of the work done not only by the Women's International League, but by all American non-governmental organizations who sought "to make the principles of the UN Charter vital and real to the citizens of this country and to the world at large."

THE STATEMENT, signed by Mr. Dulles, concludes: "It is precisely this kind of devoted effort, this ability to struggle and sacrifice for peace, day after day, year in and year out, which demonstrates anew the resources of strength in the American people. I am confident that this strength and the programs of the voluntary organizations which so ably express it, will be decisive factors in the march of our civilization toward an era of lasting peace and goodwill."

The WIL, celebrating its 40th anniversary this year, is one of the oldest women's organizations devoted to a peace program. Its cofounders and presidents, Jane Adams and Emily Greene Balch, were the only two American women ever to receive the Nobel Peace Award. The League's 40th anniversary chairman, Mrs. Pearl S. Buck, is also a Nobel Prize Winner, in the field of literature.

The WIL has international headquarters in Geneva, a U.S. legislative office in Washington, members in practically every state in the Union, and conducts its national activities out of the Jane Adams House in Philadelphia. It is an accredited non-governmental organization at the United Nations.

Homemaking Demonstration Next Wednesday

Boston Edison's Home Service Division will present an electrical homemaking demonstration for the St. Philip Neri Guild, at the Church Auditorium, Beacon street, Waban, Wednesday afternoon, December 7, from 2:00 to 4:00 o'clock.

This program under the direction of Miss Frances R. Cullen, Head, Home Service Division, will feature a complete cooking demonstration on one of the newest types of automatic electric ranges. Menus will be prepared that will show the outstanding features of electric baking, broiling and surface cooking and the ease of performances through automatic and exact temperature controls.

The class will be conducted by Edison Home Economists, Jeanne Lanigan and Mary Davis.

In addition, Paula Fitzsimmons, Edison Home Lighting Consultant, will give a short informative talk on lighting needs in the home and how they can be met. Examples of the part played by good lighting in the home will be shown.

Mrs. C. J. Duncan of 107 Windsor street, Waban, is chairman of the program. Special features have been arranged to make this affair popular and timely to all who attend.

Newtonians

Fisher Hills of 351 Otis street, West Newton, was one of 23 employees who joined the Quarter Century Club of Dewey and Almy Chemical Company Division of W. R. Grace & Co. recently at a dinner held in their honor at the University Club of Boston.

New West Newton Community Centre Holds Open House

Newton residents turned out in great numbers to view the new West Newton Community Centre, a Red Feather Agency, which held Open House during the afternoon and evening.

GREETING each guest in the reception hall were Mrs. Edmund Anthony, President of the Board of Directors, and Mrs. Burton Skinner, Executive Director of the Centre. Other members of the Board acted as hostesses on tours of inspection of the new plant which is located at 429 Cherry street, West Newton, and past presidents were among those who were pourers at the attractive tea table in the auditorium. In charge of hostesses and floral decorations was a committee headed by Mrs. Hugh L. Robinson and Mrs. S. L. Sholley of West Newton.

During the afternoon and evening background music added to the pleasant atmosphere and was made possible through a permanent gift of a high-fidelity system from the Raytheon Manufacturing Company.

MANY LOCAL groups were represented among the guests, including the Newton Community Chest, the Newton Y. M. C. A., Pomroy House, the Newton Community Council, the Newton Council of Churches and several Service Clubs. Many city officials were present as well as other friends and neighbors of the Centre.

The forty-eight year old West Newton Community Centre, with its many new facilities, has a registered membership of approximately 450 at this time, and is constantly growing.

Golden Anniversary of Trudeau Society To Be Held Thursday

Thursday, December 1, marks the Golden Anniversary of the American Trudeau Society, the medical branch of the National Tuberculosis Association. The American Trudeau Society supervises programs of the National Tuberculosis Association and its 3,000 affiliates. The local affiliate is the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association.

For half a century members of the medical profession have taken an active role in the voluntary movement against tuberculosis. The membership has grown from 34 in 1905 to 5,200 at the beginning of 1955. The Society's program is aimed to improve tuberculosis prevention, diagnosis, treatment, rehabilitation, public health control methods, hospital administration and medical education.

The medical research and medical education programs of the NTA and ATS are supported by the 3,000 local tuberculosis associations each of which is supported solely by the sale of Christmas Seals in its own territory. Six percent of the total Seal Sale funds raised in Newton by the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association will be allocated for the work of the NTA and one per cent is allocated directly for medical research.

Local members of the ATS are Gordon M. French, M.D., Newton Centre, and Alton S Pope, M.D., Newtonville. Dr. Pope, a past president of the National Tuberculosis Association, is the Honorary President of the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association.

THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS LAND COURT

Middlesex, ss.

To the Honorable the Judges of the Land Court for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Respectfully represents Irving W. House, of Wayland, in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth; that he is owner of a certain lot of land with the buildings thereon, situate in Newton, in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth, bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a point on the westerly line of Taft Avenue extension at the southeast corner of Lot No. 7; thence running fifty (50) feet on the westerly line of Taft Avenue extension; thence turning and running southwesterly ninety-five (95) feet by land now or late of Larson; thence turning and running northwesterly fifty (50) feet by land now or late of Perkins; thence turning and running ninety-five (95) feet by land now or late of Perkins to the point of beginning; containing four thousand seven hundred fifty (4,750) square feet. Being Lot No. 6 on plan of Henry F. Beal C.E. dated July 1916.

That the record title to said lot of land is clouded by a mortgage given by Mary Edna House, to Frank L. Nagle, dated November 17, 1931, and duly recorded Book 5612, Page 10, purporting to secure two notes, one for $1,000.00 payable six months from November 17, 1931, and one for $500.00 payable eighteen months from November 17, 1931, with interest quarterly, which mortgage appears to be undischarged, unassigned and unforeclosed on and by the record:

That for more than twenty years after the expiration of the time limited for the full performance of said condition no payment has been made and no other act done in recognition of said mortgage; and

That the mortgagor named in said mortgage and those claiming under her have been in uninterrupted possession of said land for more than twenty years after the expiration of time limited in said mortgage for the full performance of the condition thereof.

WHEREFORE your petitioner prays that after appropriate notices a decree may be entered on the foregoing allegations as authorized by Section 15, Chapter 240 of the General Laws as amended by Chapter 20, of the Acts of 1924.

IRVING W. HOUSE.

THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

Case No. 21593 Misc.

Middlesex, ss. LAND COURT
(SEAL)

Upon the foregoing petition, it is ordered that the petitioner give notice to all persons interested in said petition to appear before the Land Court, at Cambridge, within and for our said County of Middlesex (where appearances and answers may be filed with William B. Bailey, Register of Deeds for the South Registry District of said Middlesex County, as Assistant Recorder of said Court) on the third day of January next, by causing a true and attested copy of said petition and this order to be published forthwith once a week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, in said County of Middlesex, the last publication to be fourteen days at least before said third day of January next; by serving each known respondent by registered mail with a like attested copy of said petition and order as soon as may be and in any event fourteen days at least before said third day of January next; that all respondents may then and there show cause why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

Student Council At Junior Coll. Names Vice Chm.

George H. Rice of Newton Highlands was chosen Chairman of the Student Council at Newton Junior College last week in a close contest with Suzanne Seested of Newton subsequently elected Secretary Joanne Straley of Newton Centre was elected Vice-Chairman and Treasurer.

Of 17 candidates for the Council, the four second-year students elected were Erroll Haywood, Edward Kelley, Mr. Rice, and Miss Seested. The three winning first-year students were Miss Straley, Justin McCarthy, basketball co-captain, and William Gaudreau of Marblehead and Newton.

The Council exists to coordinate student activities outside of administration and academic affairs and to work closely with the faculty and student body for the welfare of the College. The faculty elected Mr. Kenneth White of Boston, instructor in the Business Administration and Retail Trades Divisions, as Faculty Consultant to the Council.

Student - faculty committees have been chosen to develop a set of policies for the Smoking and Social Rooms, to revise the Student Association bylaws, and to promote attendance at the basketball games.

Plans are shortly to be announced from the College for the annual first-semester Open House to which parents and interested citizens are invited to meet with faculty and students.

Gives Lecture On Arcadia And America

Ernest Hatch Wilkins, former president of Oberlin College and president of the Dante Society of America, delivered a paper on "Arcadia and America" at the New England Conference of Renaissance Studies, meeting at Tufts University recently.

A native of Newton Centre, Dr. Wilkins received his A.B. from Amherst in 1900 and his Ph.D from Harvard in 1910. He has been an instructor in Romance languages at Amherst, Harvard, and the University of Chicago where he also served as dean of the college of arts, literature and science.

From 1927-1946, he was president of Oberlin College. Returning to the East, Dr. Wilkins was visiting lecturer on Italian Literature at Harvard University.

Other offices which he has held include president of the Association of American Colleges, 1931, and president of the Modern Language Association of America, 1946. He is a fellow in the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and the Medieval Academy of America. He is also a corresponding member of Accademia della Crusca.

Professor Wilkins resides at 177 Homer street, Newton Centre.

Wayne Star Of Christmas Seal Movie

He-man John Wayne is the star of the Christian Seal film to be shown in Newton's movie theaters during December. Wayne gave his services as a contribution to the 1955 Christmas Seal Sale now being carried on by 3,000 voluntary tuberculosis associations throughout the country. The film was made at the Goldwyn Studios in Hollywood during shooting of Wayne's current picture, "Blood Alley." The entire "Blood Alley" crew, including stunt men, cameramen, and director William A. Wellman, helped in the making of the Christmas Seal film.

Christmas Seal Days Are Held

On November 26 and 27 congregations of all denominations in Newton observed Christmas Seal days with special bulletins calling attention to the work of the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association. Clergymen in Churches and synagogues urged support of the Christmas Seal Sale to raise funds for the fight against tuberculosis.

The local association maintains year-round programs of health education, rehabilitation, case finding and medical research. It is supported solely by the sale of Christmas Seals in Newton.

Tony Saletan Enthusiastically Received by Memorial School P.T.A.

The effects of television on children—new songs for children and parents, too—the difficulty of providing wholesome entertainment for youngsters—were among the various points that were discussed by TV star Tony Saleton at the November 21 meeting of the Memorial School Parent-Teacher Association.

Tony Saletan conducts one of the newest and most talked about television programs for children—"Come and See", originating over Channel 2—and he demonstrated with song and story just how TV can provide adequate entertainment together with good learning experiences.

Parents and teachers at the 8 p.m. meeting in the Memorial School auditorium found themselves learning new songs for children and actually singing sparkling tunes to the accompaniment of Tony Saletan's guitar. He discussed and answered questions about "educational" television, the type of programs that are good for children, how to "channel" your youngsters' interests into worthwhile programs and activities.

Most parents recognize that the usual TV fare of their children consists of assorted pandemonium, boxtop offers, scenes of violence and the like. In refreshing contrast is the program offered on WGBH-TV by this P-TA speaker. In a calm relaxed atmosphere, Tony Saletan tells simple stories and sings easy tunes that children (and parents) want to learn. He is the music teacher of the Harvard Preschool and is also the instructor in music at Tufts College Eliot-Pearson School.

Angier School Grade Meetings

The Angier School faculty and Parent Teachers Association has just completed participation in a most successful series of Grade Meetings. These meetings, enthusiastically endorsed by the teachers and principal, were a new addition to the P.T.A.'s year's activities and were substituted for a formal second meeting of the association. The meetings were staggered and scheduled throughout the month of November.

The meetings took the form of a general gathering in the schools' auditoriums where acting principal, Robert Jackson presented a general overview of the broad objectives pertaining to each grade. Parents and teachers then adjourned to the individual classrooms for an informal discussion period on those areas most important to that grade level. Each teacher planned and organized the explanation of the school's program in the form she felt most informative for her grade or on the basis of answers to questions which parents had submitted previous to the evening's meeting. The interpretation and presentation of the different grade meetings therefor were as varied and individual as the teacher herself and ranged from following the child through his day at school, to explaining steps and methods in the teaching of specific school subject areas such as reading and arithmetic, to acquainting the mothers and fathers with the new teaching materials in use in their classes.

The cooperation of the teachers in the preparation and direction of these meetings evidenced the fine quality of teaching going on at Angier School. The enthusiastic support of P.T.A. President George Mason in his attendance and introduction to these several meetings throughout the month long program exemplify the interest and spirit of the Angier Parent Teachers Association.

Comments on these meetings by the parents were indeed favorable for after each of the meetings parents felt they knew their school and understood its program better. Perhaps the best indication of the interest and success of the meetings can be measured by the innumerable signalling of bells at the close of each evening's program to announce discussions were running long over time.

Do You Know Masachusetts?

Industrial Expansion

A total of 2,499,403 square feet of factory floor space built, purchased or leased in Massachusetts was recorded by the Massachusetts Department of Commerce during the three months ending September 30. Of this, 1,107,893 square feet represented new construction. Durng the quarter, '33 new manufacturing concerns were reported as created in the Commonwealth and nine as moving in from other states, either in total or as branches. The gain in employment from the new companies was 3,239, and together with the gain resulting from new plant construction and newly purchased or leased plant area within the State, they provided a total of 5,971 new jobs. On the minus side, the record showed five concerns terminated, four moved to other states and one contracted, all representing 831 jobs, and leaving a net industrial job gain for the quarterly period of more than 5,000.

Farming Is Important

Cash receipts from marketing by Massachusetts farmers in the eight months, January to August 1955 ,are reported by the U. S. Department of Agrienditure as $118,767,000. Of this sum, $81,850,000 or 70 percent were from livestock and their products; $34,917,000 or 30 percent from crops. On the seasonal trend of 1954, with November typically the largest month for farm receipts, the year 1955 should total about $187,000,000.

Consumer Prices

Retail prices of consumer goods and services in Massachusetts during October were off .4 percent from those in September, due to a drop in food prices, but were 1.2 percent more than in October last year, as reported by the Division of Necessaries of Life. The item showing the biggest increase over costs a year ago was "sundries," up 3 percent, which includes medical supplies and services ,transportation, amusements and other facilities.

Net In-Migration

Massachusetts had a net inmigration of 17,600 persons between April 1, 1950 and July 1, 1954, as reported by the U. S. Bureau of the Census. This was a gain of 0.4 percent, compared with .3 percent for the total United States and a higher rate of in-migration than in 31 of the 48 states and Washington, D. C.

Gain in Census List

The Massachusetts Census of Manufacturers in the year 1953 had 439 establishments added to its list, with an initial employment of 6,593 production workers. This was the largest number since the first post-war year, 1946, which had 589 newly reported establishments employing 10,400 production workers.

Zoning in Cohasset

The town of Cohasset has just voted to adopt zoning, the 190th municipality in the Commonwealth to establish this means of properly guiding its development. Massachusetts Department of Commerce.

Announce Modest Rate Increase At N-W Hospital

Hospital Reports Year of Progress at Annual Meeting

At the regular Annual Meeting of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital, held at the Hospital on Tuesday, December 6, starting at 4:45, the Trustees and members of the Corporation elected new officers, and heard encouraging reports on a year of substantial progress.

THE FORMAL meeting was followed by a dinner in the hospital dining room attended by approximately 300 staff members, physicians, Trustees, and friends of the hospital.

The meeting then adjourned to Usen Auditorium, where Dr. Charles F. Wilinsky, Director-Emeritus of Beth Israel Hospital, spoke on the "Hospital of Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow." Dr. Wilinsky in his address cited examples of medical advances over the past 75 years, and hailed the epochal progress that has already been made in hospital practices. "The hospital of yesterday," said Dr. Wilinsky, "was a glorified poor house where people went only to die. Hospitals in later years became safer places to go to, and now most of the hazards of surgery have largely disappeared. Hospital practices have become an exact science."

THE WAR on disease is a constant war, according to Dr. Wilinsky, which will project itself increasingly into the field

Fund Total To Date Is $9,447

Miss Norma Solimene, Executive Director, reports that in the first twelve days since the opening of the 1955 Christmas Seal Sale of the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association 5,217 people have answered their Christmas Seal letters and have contributed $9,447.56. The Association hopes to raise $20,000 to continue and to expand its year-round programs of health education, case finding, rehabilitation, and medical research.

SINCE the Association has sent out only 18,700 letters this year, Miss Solimene points out that it is extremely important that a large percentage of those solicited answer their Christmas Seal letters. Reminders are now being sent to those people who have not yet answered the letters, since so often the letters are simply mislaid or forgotten in the pre-Christmas rush.

Miss Solimene also explains that sometimes through an error or because of the timing of the mail, people who have answered the Association's letter receive a reminder card. It is hoped that if this happens, the

Talk on Problem Of Adolescence Next Tuesday

The Parent-Teachers Association of the Levi F. Warren Junior High School will hold its general meeting next Tuesday evening, December 13 at 8:10 in the school auditorium Jerome Grossman, Program Chairman, will introduce the main speaker Dr. Kenneth I. Wollan to discuss the "Emotional Problems of Adolescence."

DR. WOLLAN was born in Duluth, Minnesota, received his A.B. Degree at the University of Minnesota, and his doctorate in Social Science at Boston University. His professional experience is considerable and varied. Mr. Wollan received national recognition as Director of the Connecticut Junior Republic from 1941 to 1951. He has been Director of the Citizenship Training Department of the Boston Juvenile Court, and Co-Director of the Massachusetts General Hospital Psychiatric Camp. He taught at the University of Minnesota and at the Boston School of Occupational Therapy. He now holds the office of Executive Secretary of the Children's Aid Association, Inc. of Boston, and also teachers at the Boston University School of Social Work.

AT THE FIRST meeting of Warren P.T.A., there was a discussion of the intellectual growth of the teen-agers. At this December meeting, the problem of the emotional growth of the children will be considered, and suggestions offered as to how parents may better cope with emotional needs and crisis of the youngsters.

Condition of Ald. Anderson Is Improved

The condition of Alderman Winfield C. Anderson of 57 Elmhurst road, Newton, whose name is on the danger list at the Newton Wellesley Hospital, was reported as "improved."

ALDERMAN Anderson was removed from a doctor's office to the hospital last Thursday night, following a heart attack. He was taken from the office of Dr. John A. Conway, Newton Centre, by Patrolmen James D. Coletti and James Muldoon, who administered oxygen with a resuscitator enroute.

Mr. Anderson was elected for his fifth term as alderman-at-large from Ward 7 in the November city election. He is a member of the aldermanic Claims and Rules, and Finance Committees, and chairman of the Kenrick fund which provides Christmas gifts for deserving citizens.

MR. ANDERSON is proprietor of Anderson and Company, Boston, an advertising concern with printing and publishing facilities. A World War I veteran, he was a lieutenant in the Coast Guard Reserve during World War II.

He has lived in Newton more than thirty years and has served in Newton and Boston Community Chest campaign, Newton-Wellesley Hospital Building Fund Campaign and the Children's Medical Center Fund Campaign.

He is a member of many organizations including Newton Post 45, American Legion, Newton Lodge of Elks and the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts.

Program of Carols to Be Presented by Bell Ringers

A special program of Christmas carols by the Needham Bell Ringers has been planned by the Friends of the Jackson Homestead to usher in the holiday season at the next Open House to be held this Sunday afternoon, (December 11) from 3 to 5 p.m For this festive occasion, candles will glow in every window of the old house at 527 Washington street, Newton, and the entire house will be decorated with Christmas greens and berries in old-fashioned arrangements by a committee of the Newtonville Garden Club under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles W. Peterson of Newtonville.

DRESSED in lovely old costumes of yesterday, the Misses Barbara Jorgenson, Adelle De Francisco, Sally Churchill, and Gayle Monahan, students at Lasell Junior College, will be on hand to welcome visitors, while Mrs. Thomas E. Dorrance will preside over the punch bowl. Hosts and hostesses for the afternoon will be Miss Florence C. Bacon, Mrs. M. Fletcher Eades, Mrs. Edward T. Jones, Mrs. Edmund Miller, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Rawson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Slocum, Mrs. Frederick J. Wood and Mrs. George W. Wyman, headed by Miss Adelaide B. Ball, Chairman of Open House.

The Needham Bell Ringers will ring two groups of carols, at 3:30 and 4:15 p.m. Thirty-one different bells, cast in the White Chapel Bell Foundry in England are used by the group, which is directed by Mr. Irving W. Daniels, Treasurer of the American Guild of English Hand Bell Ringers. Members of the group include Mrs. Lawrence L. Clampitt, Mr. Warren S. Clarke, Mr. F. R. Stone, Miss Ruth Green and Mr. and Mrs. Waldo E. Stone.

Recommend Two Centre and One Corner Areas

Three municipal parking areas would have meters installed for all day parking privileges if the recommendation of the Municipal Parking and Meter Committee is adopted.

A STUDY of the advisability of placing meters in city parking areas was advocated Monday night to the Board of Aldermen by the committee, of which Richard H. Lovell is chairman.

The study of the proposal was made by the committee as a result of a resolution by the Board of Aldermen.

It was recommended that the meters be installed in off-street areas on a limited basis until the experiment is in effect for a sufficient length of time to determine what the results will be.

The committee recommended the installation of the meters for all day parkers, suggested

Named Chairman Of Volunteers of Newton Red Cross

National Red Cross, in 1951, created the position of Chairman of Volunteers. Gradually and carefully throughout the country, local chapters have been making selections to fill this post.

THE CHAIRMAN of Volunteers assists the Chapter Chairman as co-ordinator of volunteer personnel for the total chapter, and she may assist the Chapter Chairman in related matters having to do with coordinating the efforts of volunteer personnel.

The Newton Chapter is proud to announce that Mrs. Robert W. Moore, Jr., of Waban, has accepted this important appointment.

Mrs. Moore first came to the Newton Chapter in 1929 as a Motor Corps driver. She became certified as a Gray Lady and in First Aid in 1931. In 1939 she organized the Gray Lady Corps for Newton. In 1941 she became a member of the Executive Committee of the Chapter. The executive posts she has held include Chairman of Nurse's Aid Corps, Chairman of Nursing Services, both of which were originally organized under her supervision,

Newton's White House Conference Attended by Over 300 Citizens

Newton's White House Conference on Education left the planning boards last Thursday at the Claflin School Auditorium when a crew of more than 300 citizens laid the keel and started working on details. Friday evening and Saturday, March 16 and 17, and Newton High School were the time and place voted by interested citizens and delegates representing more than 60 civic, social, service, and church groups for the Conference to deal with present needs and future prospects of public, church-supported, and independent education in Newton.

WE ARE planning for a world about which we do not know," declared Dr. Franklin P. Hawkes of Newton Highlands, Acting Director of Elementary and Secondary Education, state

Film On Weights and Measures Highly Praised

A new concept in pubic service was last week introduced in Newton by joint action of Newton's Weights and Measures Department and the Newton School Department. A far-reaching step in civic education became fact when over 700 ninth grade pupils of the Bigelow, Day, Meadowbrook, Warren and Weeks Junior High Schools viewed Newton's locally produced color and sound nararted motion picture film, "Your Weights and Measures Department in Action." It was used in conjunction with a short textbook of the same title. Both film and text were produced by the Newton Weights and Measures Department.

PILOT showings of the film have been held before the National Conference on Weights and Measures in Washington, the Massachusetts Weights and Measures Conference in Boston, the Newton Kiwanis, and the Newton Department Heads Association. Favorable comment has been received from many of the nation's leading weights and measures officials.

After personally viewing the picture "Your Weights and Measures Department in Action" at a Newton Department Heads Association meeting, and after reviewing the textbook, Dr. Harol B. Gores, Newton superintendent of schools, stated, "I feel that exhibition and use of both the film and the text in the Newton schools is a "must." Here, vividly and interestingly portrayed, is the everyday work of a very important municipal agency. In our attempt to teach the functions of democratic government at all levels this film is a valuable aid."

IN 23 minutes, time the student is able to view 12 months' activity of around the clock protection afforded by this law enforcing agency of government. Illustrated are the activities of the Newton Weights and Measures Department as a protector of the pocketbooks of the producer and manufacturer, the retailer and customer, and of the individual physical person of every member of the community. The Sealer of Weights and Measures is shown carrying out his duties to inspect and test, at least once anually, every weighing or measuring device, used commercially, within the city, and to either approve or condemn same. The film was produced under the direction of J. Ellis Bowen, sealer of the city of Newton.

"Thanksgiving Fun" Book Given Peabody Home

Newton high schoolers automatically groan when books are mentioned in the same breath as a holiday from school; but certain members of the Junior Red Cross Council had almost nothing else on the brain during the Thanksgiving vacation.

THE BOOKS referred to are 60 copies of "A Thanksgiving Fun Book" presented to the children at the Peabody Home for Crippled Children. The members of the various committees responsible for these books worked diligently for weeks, writing, planning and mimeographing.

The book contained a child's version of the Pilgrims landing written by Sara Geiger and Carol Brooks, a story entitled "Bashful Finds a Friend," for the younger child, as well as a story of a Dutch boy's journey on the Mayflower. The book also contained puzzles, games and illustrations for the children to color.

A boy who received the book makes all efforts rewarding when he says, "Please thank the girls for delivering the Thanksgiving Fun Book and the Pilgrim favor. I like the book very much and I am sure that I will spend lots of time with it."

Final Plans In Toll Road Construction Seen Aid to Pigeon Hill Section

Final plans, which gave improving concessions to the City of Newton, were announced for Route 128 Interchange of the toll road by Chairman William F. Callahan at a conference with Mayor Howard Whitmore of Newton. The new plan further spares the Pigeon Hill area from damages.

CHAIRMAN Callahan told Mayor Whitmore and City Engineer Frank Perkins that the final plan was the result of exhaustive studies to incorporate the Mayor's suggestions into the plan insofar as it was possible and still hold to the highest engineering standards.

Mayor Whitmore stated after the conference, "The final plan shows several changes that are beneficial to the City of Newton, particularly the residents of the Pigeon Hill section. I am disappointed that the entire problem could not be solved, but I do feel that Chairman Callahan and the other members of the Turnpike Authority went to considerable expense to make a complete exploration of the problem. I appreciate the amount of work, time and expense that was devoted to our problem by the Authority."

Chairman Callahan explained that the toll road engineers ex-

Belief Grows, Despite Talq by Professional GOP Politicians, that Eisenhower Will Not Run . . .

Growing uncertainty as to whether President Eisenhower will or will not run for a next term next year is causing widespread confusion in Republican ranks as well as a little dissension.

The GOP professional politicians are fully aware of the implications that may be behind the move by Republican National Committee Chairman Leonard Hall to promote the impression that Ike is likely to be a candidate next year.

They realize that it may be a bit of shrewd maneuvering on the part of Hall. This is how they see and size up the situation in their own party.

President Eisenhower may agree to stand for re-election and to head the Republican national ticket in the 1956 campaign, if the definitive examination he is to take in late January or early February indicates that he could stand the strain of an election fight and another four years at the White House.

Temple Emanuel To Hold Its 20th Anniversary

Commemorating the Twentieth Anniversary of its founding, Temple Emanuel of Newton will honor its Charter Members, the first and present Officers and Boards of Trustees at a special Sabbath Eve Service in the Temple, 385 Ward street, beginning at 8:15 p.m., December 9.

TAKING NOTE of the remarkable growth of this Conservative Jewish Congregation which, in September, 1935, with fifteen families represented, now has a membership of twelve hundred families, its spiritual leader, Dr. Albert I. Gordon, expressed his great pleasure in the qualitative development of the Temple's Religious School and Youth Activities Program. There are 976 pupils enrolled in the Congregation's School, of whom 754 attend Hebrew School Classes, after school sessions, three to five afternoons each week. Dr. Gordon particularly noted that "we are proud to be the recipients of the United Synagogue of America's National 'Solomon Schechter' Award in Education' for the general excellence of our Religious Education program." Housed in a new and beautiful Temple School Building and Community Hall, Temple Emanuel has become the "second home" of a large part of the

Conference-

Dept. of Education. As chairman on arrangements for the Massachusetts Conference on Education which drew 1800 to Amherst in September, Dr. Hawkes gave the Committee pointers to make the Newton job easier and more effective in getting ordinary citizens into action on education. Upwards of 700 laymen are expected to take part in Newton's conference.

Mild disagreement over methods of setting up discussion groups was resolved with the decision to set them up in pairs to discuss four aspects of Newton's problem: Teachers, Buildings, Finance, and General The committee voted for two hour-and-a-half discussion sessions in order to permit conferees to cover with some depth two of the four arreas. A reporting session Saturday afternoon will give each conferee a final chance to discuss findings of the four groups.

"This may well turn out to be the most important job anyone in Newton could be given," said Mrs. James H. Zimmer, elected Conference Chairman Mrs. Zimmer has represented the League of Women Voters and headed "Operation Education," the lay group which with the School Committee and the Newton Teachers Federation, has spearheaded a continuing interest in education over the past five years in Newton. Other groups originally and continuing in this Operation are the Federation of Women's Clubs, the Community Council, and the Council of PTA's.

THESE organizations called last week's conference to pick up the challenge thrown down by President Eisenhower and the Amherst Conference for communities to start solving their own educational problems.

In introducing Mrs. Zimmer, School Committee Chairman Henry W. Keyes pointed out that the Conference was not the creature of the Newton Public Schools. He asserted the Conference's concern with all the children of all the people in Newton.

Outlining the size of the job to be done by the Conference, Mrs. Zimmer said that "We need more money just to maintain the present standard of education without considering improving it." Assisted by Mrs. Frederick J. Wood, Mrs. Zimmer showed slides which focussed attention on questions of organization and planning to be solved as the group worked up details for a successful conference.

PLANS agreed upon included particular attention to exhibits of factual and informational materials by many agencies working on the problems of better schools and better communities, insistence on "pleasurable" participation in discussion groups of 25 persons each, with able leaders and consultants, pre-registration of conferees.

Elected to positions of leadership on the committee were Vice-chairman Hart Fessenden, Dr. Roger Hamilton, Mrs. Abraham Karff, Mrs. Philip McNiff, and Harold Wooster, City Librarian, who brought the committee the best wishes of Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr.

John Rubenstein was chosen treasurer, Gwendolyn Frederickson secretary. Melvin E. Dangel and E. Graham Bates are co-chairmen of the Program sub-committee; Mrs. J. L. Oncley and Dr. Sam Hedrick, the sub-committee on Participation; Mrs. F. J. Wood and Dr F. P. Hawkes, Arrangements; Dr. Harvey Kazmier and George L. Hicks, Public Relations and Publicity; Harold Wooster and Philip McNiff, Follow-up; Mr. Lawrence Anderson, Printing.

THE MEETING noted the absence of three persons likely to have a great deal to do with the success of the Newton Conference on Education: Representative Irene Thresher, Haskell Freedman of the Newton School Committee, and philanthropist and public servant Joseph Kaplan who were attending the White House Conference on Education in Washington.

THE ON and off ramp on the eastbound lane of Route 128 will be constructed further to eliminate land taking in the Pigeon Hill section. This tighter loop will serve as the connecting ramp for traffic on and off Rte. 128 and the toll road.

Chairman Callahan also stated that the change in the Commonwealth Avenue access road to the turnpike will not require taking the Duck Sanctuary at Riverside. He commented that he was sorry that it was impossible to eliminate the Route 128-Toll Road access roadway that is contiguous to Pigeon Hill. He pointed out that the interchange plans have been changed three times to try to overcome the objections of Mayor Whitmore and other city officials.

WORK WILL be started immediately to draw up plans and specifications for the interchange in order that the starting point of the East-West Toll Road will be completed in time for opening the road. The opening date is scheduled for late 1956.

Youth Activities Committee Prepares for Active Program

The Youth Activities Committee under the chairmanship of Lloyd Oppenheim, promises an exciting and active program for all age groups. The game room for children 7-14 years of age will be open every afternoon on Monday and Wednesdays from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. and on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 1:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. The game room will be under the supervision of Sue Feldstein, a senior at Brandeis University. For the children 7-11 years of age there will be special interest groups in arts and crafts, dramatics, photography, Israeli dancing and singing, cooking, creative dancing and fishing. During school vacation programs there will be special activities at the Temple, including roller skating parties, movies, professional and amateur shows, trips to places of interest, swimming bowling, hay and sleigh rides and weenie roasts.

For boys and girls in the 7th and 8th grades of public school there will be a special program on alternate Saturday evenings. The opening program for this age group begins this Saturday evening October 22, in the form of a square dance and will have a professional caller. Saturday evening activities for this group will include roller skating, bowling, swimming, dancing, and holiday celebrations. Boys and girls in the 7th and 8th grades will also enjoy special interest groups and vacation programs

High school boys and girls will also have a stimulating, interesting and exciting program this year. Three clubs have already started their activities including the United Synagogue Youth, Senior Judaea AZA and the Amigos. The USY group which is sponsored by our Temple and supervised by Ike Itkin and Chester Rubin is embarking upon a very ambitious program this year. The program will include Onegei Shabbot programs on Friday evening, Pc-t-BasMitzvah and Bar-Mitzvah breakfasts on Sunday Mornings, Sunday afternoon discussion groups and social functions, Sunday evening suppers, and special activities for school vacation weeks. On Sunday evening October 30, the group will hold its' first supper meeting of the year, featuring a guest speaker, Israeli singing and dancing to a 4 piece orchestra.

The USY group will hold its first big dance on Thurs. Nov. 10. There will be dancing to an outstanding orchestra and out of town guests have been invited from Quincy, Boston, Dorchester, Brockton, Fall River, Worcester, Providence, Cranston, Nantasket, South Brookline, Lynn, and Revere.

The Emanuel Club, the Young Peoples' League of Temple Emanuel, for single young adults welcomes all young people of Newton to join its' membership. Bertram Eyges is president of the group. The Emanuel Club holds discussion groups, supper meetings, Onegei Shabbot programs, engages in community service projects, has bowling parties, dances, movies, and this year will participate in a number of winter sports. The next dance of the season will be held on Sunday evening October 30. A special invitation is being extended to out of town graduate students to attend this dance.

The Golden Age group has now been organized for 4 years and has an outstanding program of activities. The group meets every Tuesday afternoon in the Vestry of the Temple, and each week a different program takes place which is planned by the Golden Age Committee and representatives of the Golden Age Group. Mrs. Harry Veaner, is chairman of the group. Some of the activities planned for the coming season include, movies, speakers, games, trips, singing, entertainment and holiday celebrations.

An athletic program for all age groups will also take place under the supervision of Joseph Nathanson. The temple will also sponsor a varsity and junior varsity basketball team which will compete with teams from other Centers and Temples.

Participation in the Youth Activitiy program is free to children whose parents are members of the Temple, while a $5.00 fee is charged to children whose parents are not members.

Chester Rubin, Youth Activities Director of Temple Emanuel, is in charge of the Youth Program which is supervised by the Youth Activities Committee and Rabbi Albert Gordon.

Youths Basket Ball Program Is Underway

The basketball program at Countryside School Gymnasium, which got under way two weeks ago, already shows signs of being a resounding success.

Over 200 different boys and girls from third to ninth grade have already participated in the Wednesday and Friday sessions, and it has been found necessary to revise the schedule by the addition of Monday evening Starting this week, third and fourth grade boys will play Mondays, fifth and sixth grade boys Wednesdays, both from 7 to 8 p.m. Junior High boys will meet Mondays and Wednesdays from 8 to 9 p.m. The girls' program remains unchanged on Fridays, with younger girls having the first hour and junior high girls the second hour.

With the cooperation of Commissioner Evan Johnson of the Newton Recreation Department, the Association has been very fortunate in procuring the services of Reg. Smith as Director of the boys' section of the program. "Smithy," as he is popularly called, is former basketball coach at Newton High, now Athletic Director, and a recognized expert in the sport as well as in handling youngsters. Basketball is a sport which may be enjjoyed by all with proper supervision and instruction, and the response to date is a sure indication that Newton Highlands children are anxious to avail themselves of the opportunity to participate which is being provided by the Athletic Association.

This is an entirely volunteer movement and all children and parents of the village are welcome at the sessions. On Saturday, December 10, the group is to be the guests of the Boston Garden and will go in town by bus to see the Boston Celtics play the Minneapolis Lakers.

Named Manager Of Oceanic Hotel At Star Island

Robert V. Frost of Newtonville has been appointed manager of the "Oceanic Hotel" at Star Island. This island is one of the Isles of Shoals, ten miles off the coast at Portsmouth, N. H., and the hotel is used during the summer months as the meeting place for religious and educational conferences. Mr. Frost replaces H. Edgar Pray of Newton Centre who recently resigned.

The new manager is a native of Maine, a graduate of Bates College in the class of 1938, with a master's degree from the University of Maine. For the past 15 years he has taught school, for eight of these as principal in Maine high schools, the past five as teacher of General Science at Bigelow Junior High School in Newton.

In addition to serving on numerous professional committees, Mr. Frost has been active in community organizations, and is a deacon of the Central Congregational Church in Newtonville. He first went to Star Island in 1953 as desk clerk, then in 1954 and 1955 as bookkeeper and assistant manager. He is married and has three children.

— Political Overtones —

That, of course, would boom GOP prospects for next year, but the fact is that the Republican pros do not think that state of affairs will come about.

First of all, they believe that President Eisenhower will make up his own mind about running and that his decision will be to retire from office, regardless of what his examinations show or what the doctors report. They feel that Mrs. Eisenhower will have something to say in the matter and that she will bring strong pressure upon her husband to step out.

There is a strong undercurrent of feeling that Ike personally does not want to run again, that he desired to serve only one term before his heart attack and that that desire has increased, not lessened.

Secondly, they suspect that Hall himself is not nearly as optimistic about President Eisenhower running next year, as he professes to be.

Thirdly, they are not overlooking the possibility that Hall may have urged the President not to be hasty about announcing whether or not he will be a candidate.

It did not escape the professional politicos that Hall emphasized to reporters at Gettysburg and later at Chicago that President Eisenhower need not hurry his decision after getting the report from his doctors and that he could wait until March.

They point out also that the message from President Eisenhower which Hall read to the Republican National Committee members in Chicago could be interpreted to conform with several different schools of thinking.

The President said in that message: "You have a splendid record to submit to the voters . . . I shall do everything in my power . . . to help you report the record accurately to the country."

Hall construes that as indicating that Mr. Eisenhower will run next year, if his physical condition permits him to do so.

Other less optimistic Republicans believe that it contains a hint that Ike will be on the sidelines in the '56 campaign but that he will assist his party in presenting its record to the voters.

What will happen if President Eisenhower waits until March and then announces that he plans to retire to Gettysburg at the end of his present term?

That would be a serious blow to the GOP hopes, and it would be more serious because Hall and others have promoted the idea that the President will be available to lead his party into next year's election wards.

One other thing very likely to happen is that the period before the convention then would be so short that Vice President Nixon's chances of achieving the Republican Presidential nomination would be improved and that the Eisenhower advisers and lieutenants would be in a better position to control their party's national convention.

An important disadvantage to a late announcement by the President that he will not be available next year is that it would lessen the opportunity for the Republican voters to express a preference between the other candidates.

New Hampshire's Presidential primary in March, for example, would mean little, if Mr. Eisenhower has not made known his decision long enough before it so that the political air were cleared.

Some Republican leaders, who are unenthusiastic about Vice President Nixon, suspect that Hall may be setting things up to strengthen Nixon's chances in the event that President Eisenhower decides that one term is enough. There seems to be substantial basis for that surmise.

• • • •

A great deal of political interest is centered on the $100-a-plate dinner which Executive Councillor Patrick J. McDonough of Dorchester, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, will hold at the Hotel Somerset next Monday night.

Both Democratic and Republican politicos are in agreement that McDonough will get his campaign away to a fast start, if he can draw in the vicinity of 500 persons to his affair, but they are somewhat doubtful now that he can do it.

They point out that this is probably the worst time of the entire year in which to hold a political event of any kind, that many persons, particularly in other parts of the State, are likely to be occupied with their own holiday season affairs or duties.

A turnout of 500 would be a terrible demonstration of pulling power by McDonough, they assert. The colorful Governor's Councillor, of course, is taking a political gamble in holding his dinner next Monday. It might prove a flop, but on the other hand it could also give his campaign such impetus that he would never be headed in a race for the Democratic nomination.

• • • •

Reports have been circulated in political quarters recently that former Representative Christian A. Herter, Jr., of Newton, son of the Governor and now a prominent federal official in Washington, may be a candidate for Lieutenant Governor, if his father is to retire to private life after his present term.

There is no question but that the younger Herter would be an asset to the Republican State ticket next year or any year. He is able, energetic, has a pleasing personality, possesses some color and is liberal enough to attract a good independent vote.

But he is not likely to be a candidate for Lieutenant Governor in 1956. For one thing he probably will not know exactly what his father is going to do in time to make a bid for endorsement at the Republican State Convention which will be held next June.

The present opinion in GOP circles is that Governor Herter will not be a candidate for a third term. That, however, is only a guess. If President Eisenhower runs for reelection, he undoubtedly would request Herter to do the same, and as has been pointed out repeatedly in this column, the Governor would not be in a position to refuse.

If Mr. Eisenhower steps out of the picture, Governor Herter is one of the top three or four Republican Presidential prospects, since there no longer appears to be any doubt about his eligibility under the Constitution.

Whether the situation will be such that the Governor's son would be disposed to run for public office is a question that only coming developments will answer. One thing that is certain, however, is that former Representative Herter will be a big factor in some future election, if not this year, then in 1958 or 1960.

Executive Councillor Charles J. Gabriel is the only formal candidate at this time for the Republican nomination for Lieutenant Governor. Like many other persons, Gabriel is waiting to see exactly what is going to happen. If Governor Herter does not run again, Gabriel will seek to move up the political ladder. If Herter seeks reelection, Gabriel will remain where he is.

It is improbable, of course, that Gabriel would get second place on the GOP State ticket without a fight, and the battle may be a stiff one. Prospective contenders besides Gabriel include State Senate President Richard I. Furbush and State Public Works Commissioner John A. Volpe.

FAIR WAGES

Editor, Newton Graphic:

As a citizen of Newton, I believe each and every employee is entitled to a fair and just wage.

As a taxpayer of Newton, I believe the City of Newton is financially solvent, and able to pay such a wage.

As an employee of the City of Newton, I believe that we are underpaid in proportion to, and on the basis of job performance, with many surrounding communities of comparable size — this in regards to wages.

Latest statistics also prove that the city employees are paid less wages than those workers in industry. Furthermore, we must still pay the same price for all the necessities of life, as these more fortunate workers.

There is no question of doubt, but that such inequities should be stopped, and wages brought to a more equal level. We should be paid salaries and wages commensurate with our work and position. They should never be attached to any cost of living bonus, or other inflationary methods of salary adjustments.

If every worker was paid a just wage he could then become a property owner, and be eligible to join the Newton Taxpayers' Association. While thus acquiring ownership through skill and thrift, he would enjoy a little of the blessings of this life. He would have a small share of earthly possessions with less fear of security.

Every city worker or employee should be paid a wage sufficient for the support of himself and of his family. This would eliminate many part-time jobs, where mothers are compelled to work and thereby neglect their children and home life, because of the insufficiency of the father's salary.

Each and every city employee should receive a wage sufficient to adequately meet everyday domestic needs, and thereby lesson family burdens.

It is the absolute and inherent right of every worker to receive a just and living wage together with a fair share of this world's goods. This will increase his standard of living and the community will gain with happy and contented workers.

It is also an undeniable fact that our take-home pay has been decreasing in recent weeks with the higher costs of public transportation and added tonsorial charges.

I deem it necessary to imply that although these added costs aren't too exorbitant; nevertheless, they do add to our present cost of living, and reduce our take-home pay in like proportion.

We have recently read in the papers where government economists have predicted a higher standard of living, with increased incomes for the average worker, in the next 10 years. We cannot attain this standard unless we start now to increase the lot of the average worker, and pay him a just wage.

Now that the Christmas season is here, let us once again renew our acquaintance with the "Sermon on the Mount." It is this lesson that should inspire us to the point, that we are our brother's keeper. It is in this lesson where we find the true faith of Christian purpose.

What is Your Nationality?

Editor, Newton Graphic:

I am quite sure that if you were to ask your students this question, your answer would vary from the ridiculous to the sublime. Parents, on registering their children at school, are often asked this question and many of them are confused as to what nationality means. Frankly, I feel that many teachers are also unaware of the meaning of the word. Children will certainly never fully understand, if their teachers aren't able to comprehend the word "nationality". Last September I asked 37 seventh graders in my home room for their nationalities and I received 35 different answers!!

The dictionary tells us that nationality means "fact of belonging to one particular nation or state by birth or allegiance". Since I was born in America, my nationality is American. Would the reader suggest that my nationality is Russian, since that is where my parents were born? Certainly not!! I well remember Professor John J. Mahoney at Boston University in the late 1930's lecturing his graduate students on indoctrination of Americanism. Our children seem to be proud of everything except being an American.

As a social studies teacher, I have been quite concerned about dual or hyphenated nationalities. The following situation is in point. I asker a student what her nationality happened to be and her answer was half Italian and half French". I asked her if she saluted the Italian or French flags; did she pledge allegiance to those countries; was she a citizen of those countries. Her answers were all negative. Through reasoning logically, I pointed out to the class that they were not half one thing and half another but all Americans.

My being disturbed over the use of the word nationality is serious enough, but the problem goes further. I love my country and I'm proud of its history and people. I am no different in these respects from most teachers. But it is our responsibility as teachers to inculcate these great emotions in our students - admiration, pride, love, respect for America and Americans! These emotions must be encouraged and developed in our young. Let the children feel, dynamically, the great American ideals of democracy, fair play, decent living and educational and economic opportunities.

We have a wonderful country, let's brag a little!!!!

THE VICE PRESIDENCY

Editor, Newton Graphic:

The regrettable illness of President Eisenhower brought into inescapable prominence the question of the selection of a Vice Presidential candidate by both Conventions in August, 1956. The usual method of this selection in the flurried closing hours of the Conventions has long been recognized as an unworthy and outmoded procedure. Its confusion and carelessness, its haste and guesswork have become almost a national scandal in our democratic system.

To call attention to this political sore spot does not imply any criticism of the Vice Presidents who have been called upon to fill the higher office, but does imply the dire need of a more orderly machinery for this selection and we are called upon now to take full advantage of almost a full year ahead of us in which to remedy our chaotic situation. As citizens we have the duty and the right to ask our political leaders to become aware that the possibility of the death of a President is a fact of life larger than all political consideration, a possible fact which cannot be disregarded.

Practical suggestions about the selection of a Vice Presidential candidate are difficult to make, for the method of nomination is not written down in the Constitution of the United States. Yet if a Constitutional Amendment is necessary, we should take the necessary seven years to pass such an amendment.

There is, however, another method that might be workable. After the two parties have nominated their respective candidates for the Presidency let them adjourn until after the election. After that election let the victorious party proceed to throw its choice of a Vice-President into the hands of its own party members who compose the Senate and the House of Representatives.

This method would give the newly elected President full opportunity to at least express judgement concerning any proposed Vice-President. It would also give opportunity for the party leaders in Senate and House to consult with him about our second-highest personality in the Government.

It may be objected that if the new President should die before the Vice-President has been selected, his successor would be, as it now, is the Secretary of State, already named by the new President. The present-line of succession runs through the Cabinet.

This selection by Senate and House will not entirely avoid political wrangling, but such political wrangling will be less than it now is in our present party "hit and run" method. The wrangling will at least take place under the Senate and House Rules instead of under the hot disorder of a Convention which is eager to dissolve and "get back home."

The victorious party is in any case responsible for the Vice-Presidency. But the theory that the candidate, Republican Thompson or Democrat Robinson, will add "strength to the ticket" is a fallacious appeal. The real responsibility should rest on the shoulders of Senate and House, not on the shoulder of the Convention.

(Editor's note: During the last few months we have carried four chapters of Mr. Harmon's book out of context so as to fit into European news events. An example of this was the running of the Trieste, Yugoslavia chapter during Mr. Dulles' trip to Yugoslavia. Another example was the running of the Vienna chapter the week following the evacuation of the city by all allied personnel. Starting this week we will run the chapters in their normal sequence.)

I Arrive In Europe

My trip to Europe was most uneventful. The trip was made in a DC-6D. This particular ship had just finished a major overhauling, and was in good shape. We left New York at 9:00 p.m., and sighted the coast of Ireland the next morning at about 10:00 a.m. Our first stop was Shannon Airport. We stopped here just long enough for a snack, and I found a very attractive leather holder for my passport, simply, but attractively, tooled. If cost $2.00, and was an investment that I have been most pleased with ever since.

We took off and flew over the British Isles. I spotted the white cliffs of Dover, and attempted to take a picture of them through the window of the plane. I am afraid that they will not come out very well, since we were almost directly above them. We crossed the channel and headed for Frankfurt. We were over the mainland for but a short time when I noticed two jet aircraft, tactical fighters, making a pass at us. They dove in at us from about 2 o'clock high, and broke off at about 500 feet. They looked like British makes to me, but carried French markings. Shortly after this, we were beginning to lose altitude as we approached our destination, Frankfurt.

The weather was beautiful, with a few clouds in the sky to add to the beauty of the day. As we dropped lower and lower, it became easier to distinguish the landscape and buildings. It was surprising—the number of buildings that appeared to whole and usable, which, upon close observation, were but standing walls of unused buildings.

We made a fine landing at the Frankfurt airport. This place is huge, and there were probably close to a hundred planes dispersed throughout the runways. There was, however, a sad lack of tactical ships. I saw here at Frankfurt only the many "Flying Boxcars" used for the Berlin airlift, plus a few large transports of cargo carriers. This was an uncomfortable feeling for an ex-Air Force man. In my time with the Air Force, I had always been in a situation where there were usually several hundred ships, many of which were the latest first-line equipment.

The trip to town from the field was delayed, as our flight was three hours ahead of schedule, and no one was there to meet us. Finally, a sargeant gave us some instructions which we were glad to follow since they indicated that there might be someone slightly interested in getting us to town. At this point, we were all told to change our American money into German Marks or Army script. I was toward the rear of the line, and presently heard that all those who did not know where they were to be stationed should change only $10 of their American money. This was because some of our group, although no one knew who, were slated for duty in France, and would only have to change their money again. At this point no one in our group knew where he would be stationed, so those of us remaining had 40 American dollars with us when we left the Airport.

One word about the Army script — some call it "Mickey Mouse" money, and this about right. It is advised that none of this money be left in lockers during weekend trips, etc., because the Army changes it every so often. When it is known that there has been wide duplication of the script (counterfeiting), all script is called in and new script, of a different color, is issued. This, of course does away with the duplication problem for, following 24 hours of the move, none of the old scrpit is usable. Several issues of new script have been printed, and are stored away for immediate use. I understand that a change of this sort has occurred twice since the end of the war.

We left the airport and went to the center of the city which, invariably in Europe, is the railroad station. (German — Bahnhof). I was given a room and told to be on a train to Stuttgart the following morning at 7:32.

The new surroundings were most interesting. The roads were no narrower than our Boston roads, and there were bicycles everywhere. Often there were special strips along the side of the road for motorcycles and bikes. As we left the airport, there were many people lining the barbed wire fence surrounding the field. They were watching the operations. Their bikes and cars were just pulled off the road a little way. At this particular point, the road was an autobahn or superhighway.

After a supper at an American eating place, one of the teachers who met our group in town (he had been here for a year), asked several of us if we would like to get a look at something typically German. We all went over to a beer hall or garden. It was rather a famous place, I guess, for several reasons. The orchestra leader would come down into the crowd and try to put his hat on someone's head. If this was allowed by the person, he had to buy a beer for everyone in the orchestra. This cost 10 marks. ((The current exchange rate is 4.19 DM or Deutsche Marks for one American dollar). For this price, the person selected from the floor was allowed to lead the orchestra. Those whom I noticed in this act seemed to be doing a rather good job, probably because they were just a little bit high. The orchestra would take a short rest every 20 minutes or so, and when they were not playing, small panoramas all around the room came to life. It was a most interesting sight.

It was at this first spot in Germany that I first read in the eyes of many young Germans the hate for a conquering enemy.

Newtonite Of The Week

By LEWIS PAUL SIMONS

HAROLD A. WOOSTER

This week the Graphic is proud to salute Mr. Harold A. Wooster of 32 Maple street, Newton Corner. Mr. Wooster has been Newton's chief librarian since 1942. He has done a fine job in making our libraries a cultural community asset.

Harold Wooster is educationally and vocationally well suited to be overseer of the Newton libraries. He graduated from Wesleyan College and spent two additional years there doing graduate work in preparation for library administration.

In 1920, after 18 months service with the U. S. Navy in World War I, Mr. Wooster accepted the position of librarian in Westfield, Mass. Following that, he became librarian in Brockton, then Scranton, Pa. and finally Newton.

As Mr. Wooster sees it, a librarian has certain professional responsibilities. Not only must a librarian participate in community activities but he must also take an active part in library professional groups. For example, Mr. Wooster has been president of the Pennsylvania Library Association, the Mass. Library Asso., the New England Library Asso., and has served on various library committees.

Mr. Wooster writes constantly for library periodicals. In October of this year there was an article by him in the Wilson Library Bulletin. This month he wrote an article for the Library Bulletin on "Newton's Shopping Center Branch (Oak Park)."

As for community activities, Mr. Wooster is a director of the Newton Community Chest. He is present chairman of the Newton Agencies Executive Group and a former chairman of the Newton Department Heads' Association. Educationally, Mr. Wooster is serving on the Planning Committee for Newton's White House Conference which will be held in 1956. For several years he has been leader of the "Great Books Discussion Groups" at the library.

As Chief Librarian Mr. Wooster's activities are not confined merely to intellectual pursuits. Our libraries are big businesses representing over a $2,000,000 investment. Roughly, the library buildings are worth a million and a half dollars; the book stock represents another half a million; the annual operating budget is close to a quarter of a million. There are 45 full time employees and 50 part time people. Naturally all this takes careful administration.

A recent study of American libraries has turned up some statistics of which we can be proud. In cities which have a population between 65,000 and 85,000, Newton ranks first in annual book circulation (over 800,000 volumes), first in size of book collection, third in annual expenditure for reading material, and fourth in per capita cost.

Under Mr. Wooster's leadership, many improvements and expansions have been made. The Children's Room of the Auburndale Branch was added. The Main Library addition was made. The Adult Branch Library in Newton Center was set up. Next spring work will start on the new Nonantum Branch.

Our library system is something of which we should all be deeply proud. Personally I have always found the library easy to use and very complete. Mr. Wooster deserves our thanks for his part in the excellence of our libraries.

49th Birthday Of Christmas Seal Yesterday

Yesterday, December 7, marked the 49th birthday of the Christmas Seal which fights tuberculosis and which supports the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association and all other tuberculosis associations whose registered trademark is the red double-barred cross.

The first Christmas Seal to fight tuberculosis was originated by Miss Emily Bissell. The design of the very first Christmas Seal, sold in an attempt to raise $300 to save a small TB hospital in Wilmington, Delaware, was that of a holly garland centered by a Red Cross, with "Merry Christmas" below. When the stamps were ready, a group of volunteers went to work putting them into small pay envelopes with a message about the purpose of the seals on each envelope.

At noon, on Saturday, December 7, 1907, "Delaware Day," in the lobby of Wilmington's main post office, this country's first sale of Christmas Stamps began. Ten times the money needed to save the hospital was raised!

Since the first birthday of the Christmas Seals, their annual sale has meant a saving of more than 7 million lives. The work of the tuberculosis associations which are solely supported by the annual Christmas Seal Sale has been largely responsible for the tremendous drop in the TB death rate since then.

The task ahead is to realize a similar decline in the tuberculosis case rate, and the local TB association is working toward this goal by maintaining year-round health education, case finding, rehabilitation, and medical research programs to fight tuberculosis.

MR. and MRS. JAMES P. HANKS

MISS NINA LEONE BRIDE OF MR. JAMES PHILIP HANKS

At a 2:30 ceremony at Trinity Church in Newton Centre, recently, Miss Nina Leone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Leone of Newton Centre, became the bride of Mr. James P. Hanks, son of Dr. and Mrs. John H. Hanks, also of Newton Centre. The Rev. Howard R. Dunbar officiated and a reception followed in the Beaconsfield Hotel.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white ribbon silk taffeta gown, fashioned with a portrait neckline, and a full skirt terminating in a train. She carried gardenias and stephanotis in her cascade bouquet.

Mrs. Anthony A. Leone of Old Lyme, Conn., was matron of honor for her sister-in-law. She was gowned in forest green taffeta and carried fall colored chrysanthemums. Wearing pale green taffeta gowns and carrying similar bouquets, the bridesmaids were Miss Lucy Thomas of Lincoln, and Miss Jane Lippincott of Newton Centre. Miss Juliette Hanks and Miss Janet Hanks, both of Newton Centre, sisters of the bridegroom, were Junior bridesmaids.

Mrs. Leone, mother of the bride, wore ice blue lurex, Mrs. Hanks, the bridegroom's mother, was gowned in brown taffeta.

The bridegroom had his father as his best man. The ushers were Mr. John K. Hanks of Springfield, brother of the bridegroom, Dr. Paul Helmreick of Brunswick, Maine, Mr. Jonathan Leonard of Hastings, New York, and Mr. William Reiss of Wilton, Conn., both cousins of the bride, were junior ushers.

The bride is a senior at Sargent College. Mr. Hanks graduated from Amherst College in June and is a member of Kappa Theta fraternity. He is now studying for his Masters Degree at Boston University graduate school of Geology.

Newton Highlands Congregational Woman's Ass'n.

Tickets may be obtained from Mr. John Maloy and Mr. John Moran, co-chairmen of the affair; or members of the ticket committee; Mr. Walter Hannigan, Mr. George Burke, Mr. Frank Ascolese, Dr. William Egan, vice-president; and Mr. Thomas Kenney, president.

College Notes

Miss Mary Barr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Barr of 240 Greenwood street, Newton Center, is a new member of the Mount Holyoke College freshman choir which gave its first performance of the year at Sunday evening services, November 20.

Membership in the choir is determined by competitive tryouts, and students usually continue as members of their class choir throughout their four college years. In their junior and senior years, choir members are eligible to try out for Glee Club, which sings both sacred and secular music, and gives an annual Christmas Carol concert in Town Hall, New York City.

The freshman choir sang the introit, "Abide With Us, the Evening Is Descending," by Reichard in the Sunday vesper service, and the sophomore and senior class choirs also participated. Miss Ruth Douglass, professor of music, directs the class choirs which sing at chapel services and Sunday evening vespers throughout the college year.

Cub Scout Pack 7 Holds First Monthly Meeting

The first monthly meeting of Cub Scout Pack 7 was held November 28, at Davis School, West Newton.

After flag ceremonies were held the following boys were inducted into cub scouting:

Geoffrey Hale, Thomas Rando, Peter Jones, Harvey Feldman, Douglas Jordan, Anthony Conti, Francis O'Donnell, William Price, Brad Haywood, Walter Cooper, Billy Ryan, Stephan Westland, John Clarke and Drew Russell. Alfred Ryan and Richard Evans were awarded their Wolf Badges.

The theme for the evening was Robin Hood of Sherwood Forest. Den #1 entertained with a skit of the meeting of Little John and Robin Hood. Den #2 sang depicting the exploits of Robin Hood's adventures. Den #3 demonstrated swords and sheaths they had made. Den #4 put on skits portraying the meetings of Robin Hood with Little John, Friar Tucker and the knighting of Robin Hood by King Richard. Den #7 had a scene of the Attack of the Sheriff of Nottingham by Robin Hood and his band.

All costumes, hats and forest scenery were made by the boys.

Mr. Robert Cobb and Mike Walsh (Massachusetts Champion) demonstrated the skills of archery.

At the close of the meeting it was announced that the next meeting will be held December 19, and will be the annual Scout Christmas Party.

Friendship Guild

On Dec. 13 the Friendship Guild of Second Church, West Newton, will meet in the Parish House at 6:30 p.m., for its annual Christmas party.

Following a Dannish supper served by Mrs. Frederick Whelpley, Mrs. James Hogsett and their committee, the Guild will enjoy a delightful Christmas program by Phyllis Durgin, popular contralto. Miss Durgin will present "The Christmas Story" in legend and song. This is a delightful presentation of Christmas songs interspersed with stories and legends of these much loved melodies. Miss Durgin is accompanied by an equally talented ensemble — Miss Alice Martin of Waltham at the piano, Miss Judith MacNeil of Framingham violinist, and Miss Dorothy Perry of Waltham on the cello.

The hostesses for this Christmas program are Mrs. Eleanor Gordon and Miss Elizabeth Hammond.

Newton Children In YWCA Christmas Festival

Girl Scout News

New Brownie Troops

We are most happy to welcome nine new Brownie troops to the Newton Girl Scout Council. There are three at Hyde School: Troop 174, led by Mrs. Merrill Baxter with Mrs. John Wilde as Troop Committee Chairman, Troop 213, led by Mrs. Jane Stromberg, with Mrs. Arthur Stromberg as Troop Committee Chairman, and Troop 211, led by Mrs. S. M. Kozol. Memorial School has two new troops: Troop 209, under the leadership of Mrs. Alan Barkin, and Troop 210, led by Mrs. Jacqueline McPhee with Mrs. Richard Delahanty as Troop Committee Chairman. At Mason School, there is Troop 64, led by Mrs. Russell Bishop, as well as Troop 214, with Mrs. William J. Axt, Jr., as Leader, and Mrs. Howard Shuman as Troop Committee Chairman. Mrs. Louis P. Lipman is the Leader of Troop 212 at Bowen School. Mrs. Norton Shapiro is her Troop Committee Chairman. Mrs. Christian Hegelstein is the Leader and Mrs. John Bromilow is the Troop Committee Chairman of Troop 160 at Horace Mann.

There are now 161 Girl Scout Troops in the City of Newton. These are divided into 77 Brownie, 73 Intermediate troops, including 25 at Junior Highs, and 11 Senior Troops.

Camping Opportunities

Senior Girl Scouts will have a busy summer in 1956. There is to be a Senior Round-up for 5000 Senior Girl Scouts from all over the U.S.A. for ten days of primitive camping at Highland State Park, near Pontiac, Michigan. Newton is allowed to send four girls to this encampment. These girls are to be chosen this week from seventeen applications which have already been received.

Nancy Derr of Troop 15 is the lucky Girl Scout whose application has been sent in by the Newton Girl Scout Council as a candidate for the exchange of Senior Girl Scouts. If she is chosen, she will camp abroad with Girl Guides and visit in their homes.

Winifred Johnson of Troop 2 has been recommended for the Juliette Low session at Our Chalet. Only four girls are selected from this country to meet with other Girl Scouts and Girl Guides from all over the world at Adelboden, Switzerland.

Good luck, Nancy and Winifred.

New Training

A course in basic leadership for new Girl Scout Leaders will be held in the evenings, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. on Nov. 16, 23, 30, Dec. 7, 14, and Jan. 11, at St. Bernard's Hall, West Newton. It will be given by Miss Elizabeth Richardson and Mrs. Thomas J. Lepore. It will help the leaders to gain skill and confidence in carrying out Girl Scout programs with the girls, and will demonstrate the use of program consultants and community resources. There will be individual participation and group discussion.

Fall Workshop

A most instructive workshop was held at the Claflin School on Nov. 15, for all Girl Scout adults. There were sessions in Arts and Crafts, Dramatics and Ceremonies, Singing Games and Nature for the Brownie Leaders; Intermediate Leaders were interested in badges in Good Grooming, Foods and Nutrition, Campcraft, Rambler, My Country, Folk Dancing, Puppeteer, and Dabbler. Seniors took part in a discussion of the Senior Round-up; and Neighborhood Chairmen and Board members talked about Neighborhood Service Teams. Mrs. Arthur Gregorian concluded the meeting with an enthusiastic report about the convention in San Francisco.

We are particularly grateful to the following women who helped make this workshop such a success: Mrs. George Taylor, Jr., Mrs. Thelma Barkin, Mrs. Alexander Goodale, Mrs. Robert McGlone, Miss Elizabeth Richardson, Mrs. Russell Broad, Mrs. Alfred Bickelman, Mrs. Robert Hunter, Mrs. Grace Lepore, Mrs. Arthur Berberian, Mrs. Fritz Hampe, Mrs. John Swanton, Mrs. Albert Beisel, Mrs. Stanley T. Johnson, Mrs. Eleanor McClelland, Mrs. Janis Kalnajs, and Mrs. Harry Shain.

College

The College of Girl Scouting, which recently concluded its meetings, was very popular among Newton Girl Scout adults. Those attending from this area were: Mrs. Carl Alvord, Mrs. Alan Barkin, Mrs. Jack Bloom, Mrs. Russell S. Broad, Mrs. Mildred Cubell, Mrs. Janice Dannenberg, Mrs. Perry Fox, Mrs. Margaret L. Johnson, Mrs. Harold Arsenault, Mrs. Jean Shaw, Mrs. Alan Yoffa, and Mrs. Eleanor W. Young.

Troop Visits

On Nov. 16, Diane Brown, Genevieve Clemens, Angela Ditto, Joan McNamara and Jacqueline Obert, representing Troop 35, visited the girls of Troop 82, under the leadership of Mrs. Edwin Crowley, at the Sacred Heart School. They demonstrated the proper use of a knife and introduced their tenderfoot friends to many songs and games and the dance of the "Northern Lights." A grand march, ending with Taps, completed a very pleasant afternoon for the girls of both troops.

First Concert of High School Glee Club, December 13

Final rehearsals are being held for the first concert of the 48th season of the Highland Glee Club for its friends and sponsoring membership. This concert will be given in the Newton High School Auditorium at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday evening December 13, and is open to the public by ticket.

Songs old and new will be presented on the program under the direction of D. Ralph Maclean. Accompanist will be Jet Turner and second piano will be played by Cecil J. Hall.

An opening from Gilbert and Sullivan is followed by folk songs of Italian, English, and Welsh heritage, and the club will sing more serious numbers from the classical composers, Handel, Wagner, and the master melodist, Franz Schubert. The Christmas season is recognized in the Oxford manuscript carol "Nowell" and the old French carol "Miracle of Saint Nicholas" arranged by Dr. Arthur T. Davison with accompaniment by Prof. G. Wallace Woodworth. Other selections complete the program with popular appeal.

Solo voices from the club in unusual number will be heard at this concert with Robert Traylor, Edgar Randle, Ernest Schleicher, Robert McIlhatten, James Murray, and Charles Diehm participating.

It has been previously announced that guest artists appearing with the club will be the duo-pianists, Karina and Ingrida Gutbergs. The Latvian sisters were reared in a musical family and after a struggle against financial and political circumstances and years study established themselves as captivating artists in Europe and more recently in the United States. Critics have praised their skill and spiritual mastery as a duo-team.

Prior to the Newton appearance the Highland Club will have sung December engagements with the Moses Parker Greeley Lecture series at Lowell and with the Worcester County Mechanics Association concert series in Worcester, both being return performances.

Holy Name Society

The Holy Name Society of Our Lady's Help of Christians Parish will receive Holy Communion at the 8:00 a.m. mass on Sunday, December 11th, and will offer their prayers for the intentions of His Excellency, Archbishop Cushing. These intentions will be presented to the Archbishop in the form of a Spiritual Bouquet. The Holy Name Choir of the parish, which presented the musical program at St. James' Church in Boston last Sunday during the solemn benediction closing the Annual Convention of the Officers of the Archdiocesan Holy Name Society, will also present the musical portion of the mass.

Following the mass the Society will hold its regular monthly business meeting in the High School Hall, at which time there will be an enrollment of new members. The speaker at the meeting will be Dr. Charles L. Sullivan, a member of the staff of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, specializing in obstetrics. Dr. Sullivan is a graduate of Dartmouth and Boston University Medical Schools, a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons, Diplomate of the American Board of Obstetricians and Gynecology, and a Fellow of the Obstetrical Society of Boston.

Ward School PTA

Youngsters of the Ward School from Kindergarten through the 3d grade were treated to a lively musical show adapted from "Pinocchio" by the Harvard-Radcliffe Children's Theater in the Ward School auditorium on Wednesday, November 30. The children, who did not know what was afoot, were taken by their teachers directly from classrooms to the auditorium during the afternoon school hours. There, the thrilled youngsters saw their favorite characters of the old classic, but in a singing, dancing version of the story. The 1½-hour long production, skillfully acted and colorfully costumed, had many a lively original tune, with delightful comic lyrics and fresh, humorous dialogue. Carl Brandt was the producer, the music was written by Dick Brown, and the script was a result of the combined efforts of the Harvard - Radcliffe group. Pinocchio was played by Ann Arensberg; Gepetto, by Don Adam; Cricket, Betsey Nelson; Fox, Beverley Butte; and Cat, Margaret Groome. Others in the cast were Stephanie Nelson, Zandy Moore, Marc Brugnoni, John Fenn, and Louise Greep.

This performance was one of several, including the concert series for upper grades, in this year's program in the Arts being brought to Ward School children as part of the School curriculum by the PTA. Funds to meet the costs of the entire program are being provided by the PTA.

Arrangements for the presentation were made by Mrs. Joseph Weinreb.

Officers this year of the Ward School PTA are: Mrs. Wilfred Werner, president; Mr. Henry Marcus and Mrs. Joseph Weinreb, vice-presidents; Mr. Herbert Cohen, treasurer; and Mrs. Saul Gilman, corresponding secretary.

Memorial School PTA Children's Theatre Program

The several hundred elementary school children in the Oak Hill section of Newton Centre will experience a rare treat in theatre presentations with the beginning of a series of quality programs starting this Sunday in the auditorium of the Memorial School.

The Memorial School PTA is sponsoring the program and Sunday's event is the showing of Pinocchio by the Harvard-Radcliffe Children's Theatre, also known as the University Children's Theatre. Two performances will be given; at 1:45 and 4:00. Teachers are giving the children advance background knowledge of the performance and instructing them in "theatre manners."

Later in the season the ballet, Tschaikowsky's "Nutcracker Suite" and the musical, Prokofieff's "Peter and the Wolf" will be presented. Tickets for the series are available to children at the Oak Hill School on Wheeler street.

Mrs. Sanford Sachs is chairman of the PTA series and Miss Olive Eldridge, Memorial School principal, is directing the instruction of the children.

Hanukkah Celebrations

On Sunday, December 11th, the Hanukkah celebrations for the children of the Temple Reyim religious school will take place. The party for the primary children will include a dreildle dance and the dramatization of "The Miracle of the Oil." The elementary party will feature a play prepared by the Reyim Dramatics Club. Participating in the play will be: Barbara Idelson, Toby Swartz, Eileen Swartz, Hanna Lipman, Barbara Barnett, Roy Podell, Donald Todrin, Phyllis Shapiro and Kenny Platt. The dramatics leader is Mrs. Dorothy Binder. The Junior High celebration will include a special quiz entitled "Who Am I."

Hanukkah delicacies and gifts will be presented to the children by the P. T. A. with the cooperation of the School Committee. Mrs. Samuel Handler of the P.T.A. and her committee will arrange for the distribution of the gifts.

Newton Highlands Garden Club

The next meeting of the Newton Highlands Garden Club will be held on Tuesday evening, at eight o'clock, December 13th at the Workshop on Columbus street.

After the usual exchange of Christmas gifts a group of the members will present a one-act comedy "Bundles for Christmas" under the direction of Mrs. John F. Jenkins and Mrs. Henry W. Nelson.

Hospital-

of preventive medicine. There are today in this country 13 million people 65 years or over. Within another 5 years, there will be 30 million people above age 65. So Dr. Wilinsky sees an increased need for geriatric practice ,or the care of older people.

We will need, according to the doctor, a practical plant and equipment with which we can treat the older patients. An expansion of the chain of resources between hospitals will be essential ,as will be increased need for community support of the hospital as a preventive mechanism. In closing, Dr. Wilinsky stressed the fact that there can be no richer dividend than the knowledge that by supporting the community hospital you have helped others, as well as yourself.

AT THE afternoon meeting, Mr. Donald P. Perry read for Mr. Samuel Brown, Treasurer, the report. This report noted an increase from 165.1 average patients per day during the previous year to 172.2 patients per day last year, with corresponding increases in the work in every department. The hospital's revenue was increased by $120,000, going from $1,620,000 to $1,740,000. At the same time, expenses rose by $36,000. Income from investments increased by $7,000. Because there had been a loss of $44,000 experienced during the previous year of the hospital, a request has been made to Newton and Wellesley Community Chests to retain more of this year's surplus, so that a seriously depleted working capital fund could be restored.

During the year Mr. Brown noted the increment of endowment funds from the following gifts: Anton R. Fried, M.D. $650; Estate of Laura E. Hudson $500; Estate of M. E. Kellogg $5,000; Estate of Mary H. Remick $32,132; Estate of J. L. Richards $3,850; Joseph and Celia Greenbaum Fund $1,000; Gift of Mabel L. Riley for the Agnes Winslow Riley Fund $5,000.

ALSO DURING the past year, the hospital was the grateful recipient of grants of $11,457 for the construction of a new parking lot, and $10,000 for new special flooring in the Operating Room from the Hospital Aid.

Mr. Brown concluded by forecasting increased expenses for salaries of nurses and other personnel during the coming year. A modest rate increase has been necessitated by this measure, and has already been put into effect.

Mr. Paul T. Babson, reporting for the Investment Committee, remarked that the financial well-being of the hospital had been enhanced during the past year through further improvement of the position of the Endowment Funds. Market value of these funds showed a gain of $230,000 over the previous year. Of this amount, gifts and bequests accounted for $50,20, while the balance resulted from the further rising stock market.

SAID Mr. Babson, "There has also been a gratifying increase in income from our funds which showed a gain of almost 25 percent over the previous year, and which rose to $51,046." Mr. Babson expressed special thanks to the work of his committee, and to Mr. Henry Dunker, who had served, unofficially, as working secretary of the committee.

Dr. Richard I. Smith reporting for the Executive Committee of the Medical Staff noted that full accreditation of the hospital by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals has continued. Approved residencies and administration, anesthesiology, medicine, pathology, radiology, and surgery have also continued.

There are nearly 400 physicians on the active and courtesy staffs. Dr. Smith voiced the universal appreciation for such improvements as air conditioning, the surgical recovery room, safety flooring, and electrical equipment, and two virtually new elevators. He felt that the quality of treatment and care has moved forward and improved during the past year, and he, like many of his colleagues, longs to see the completion of the two remaining floors in the North Wing, and the establishment of an Accident Floor given over uniquely to the care of casualties.

Miss Myrtice L. Fuller, R.N., Director of the School of Nursing and Nursing Services, reported on the hospital's service during the recent poliomyelitis epidemic. Miss Fuller placed the enrollment in the School of Nursing at 166, and said that we had considered applications from 216 young ladies, the fifth largest number in the Greater Boston area. Fifty-eight new students entered the school on September 6 last.

RESULTS from State Board examinations showed, in general, slightly higher averages than those obtained locally and nationally. Miss Fuller, too, expressed her concern over the present organization of the Accident Floor, and quoted as an example of the increased use of this facility the fact that there were 425 accident cases in one month last year and 506 during the corresponding month this year.

Mrs. Paul T. Babson, in her report as President of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital Aid Assn., Inc., placed the Aid's membership at 2,026. She described the operation of the coffee shop where 396 volunteers worked 10,354 hours and served 99,672 customers so far this year. Thirty-six volunteers in the gift shop have served 2,151; 17 volunteers have given 31 hours to the Newborn Photo Service; and 3 volunteers have worked 1,091 hours in the aid office. All together 477 ladies have given an 11-month total of 14,510 hours of work.

Gifts to the hospital from the aid this year included the following:

6 nurses' scholarships $1,500; for patient care $1,500; new parking area, including lighting and planting of shrubbery $15,000; improvements in operating rooms $10,000; air conditioning units in the post operative recovery room $561; total, $28,561.

The fund-raising event for the year was a series of dessert-bridge parties throughout Newton and Wellesley on October 26, under the chairmenships of Mrs.. Herbert Dunphy of Newton Highlands and Mrs. Edward Garland of Wellesley Hills. Almost 1700 women played in various homes, and many generous donations were given, with the profit, to date, amounting to $4,150. Of this, $1,500 will be sent for new furniture in the Nurse's Recreation Room, and $1,200 for lightweight fracture frames for the hospital.

THE JUNIOR AID, under the Presidency of Mrs. J. Marshall Leydon of Newtonville, netted over $500 with their Fashion Show held at the Meadows in Framingham.

Mr. George S. Burgess included in his report of the Board of Governors the following leaves and appointments:

Leaves of absence were granted Drs Frank M. O'Connor and George E. Quigley from the Active Staff for purposes of further graduate study, while Drs. Floyd A. Cornelison, Edwin B. Goodall, Joseph A. Mendez, Thomas Peebles and Richard B. Pippitt were transferred from the Courtesy to the Active Staff. Dr. Seymour, upon his request, was transferred from Active to the Courtesy Staff.

NEW appointments to the Courtesy Staff were the following: Drs. William H. Birchard, Sidney Brodie, Elmore M. Campbell, Leonard S. Fox, Sydney Grace, Joshua J. Hurwitz, Leon E. Kruger, Bernard Lown, Forrest N. Maddix, Jr., Bertha Offenbach, C. Burns Roehrig, Arthur A. Thibodeau. Dr. Ann M. Jones was appointed intern for one year beginning October 1.

Mr. Charles M. Cutler, as Chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented the following recommendations for approval as members of the Corporation, as Trustees, as officers, and for the several committees: Corporation: Mrs. Paul T Babson, Chester E. Borden, John C. Kiley, Jr., Mrs. William F. King, Richard H. Lovell, Loomis Patrick, William H. Raye, Jr.; Trustees: 1956, Loomis Patrick; 1957, Chester E. Borden; 1958, Mrs. Paul T. Babson; 1959, William H. Raye, Jr.; 1960, Mrs William F. King, John C. Kiley, Jr., Richard H. Lovell, Samuel C. Brown, C. Raymond Cabot, Paul T. Babson, Mrs. F. Marsena Butts, Dr. Frank R. Clark, Walter A. Dane, Joseph Greenbaum, Dr. Henry F. Keever, Kenneth R. Mackenzie, Hugh Munro, George W. Sweet, Mrs. Theron B. Walker; Officers: President, Mark C. Wheeler; First Vice-President, Thomas E. Shirley; Second Vice-President, Marshall G. Bolster; Treasurer, Samuel C. Brown; Assistant Treasurer, Richard Wengren; Clerk, C. Raymond Cabot.

THE NOMINATING Committee recommended the following committee memberships: Board of Governors: Julian D. Anthony, Nathan D. Bugbee, William F. Chase, Charles M. Cutler, Samuel A. Fitch, John D. Fox, Edward B. Gray, Richard Wengren; Auditing Committee: Harold A. Bishop, Norman H. S. Vincent; Finance Committee: George S. Burgess, Kivie Kaplan, Mrs. Lucius E. Thayer, Hugh Munro, Harry L. Peabody; Investment Committee: Henry T. Dunker, Nathan D. Bugbee, W. Elliott Pratt, Jr.; Nominating Committee: Donald P. Perry, Endicott Smith, Charles M. Cutler.

After dinner, and prior to Dr. Wilinsky's address, Mr. William S. Brines, hospital director, presented his report, in which he noted that all-time records were set for the hospital census, that 1,593 new born and 7,753 were cared for at the hospital. Directly assigned charity amounted to $32,000, and free care to charity patients from public agencies came to just under $45,000. Mr. Brines also remarked on the state minimum wage increase which will add about $60,000 and to meet which rate increases have recently gone into effect. Mr. Brines reviewed the performance of the many departments of the hospital, citing in each instance increases in activity and efficiency frequently with reduced personnel. He paid special tribute to the 173 Newton-Wellesley, and Weston Red Cross workers, and the 441 independent workers who with 561 auxiliary volunteers gave a total of 41,873 hours of volunteer effort to the hospital. Mr. Brines, in closing, looked forward to the day when the remainder of the hospital's physical plant could be modernized, when we could see improved accident facilities, certain improvements in X-ray equipment, and an augmented central supply department, and similar betterments of the hospital's plant and management. Mr. Brines concluded by expressing his appreciation to Mr. Mark Wheeler, the President, to the Board of Governors, and to his fellow staff members for a year of service to the community.

Open House At Junior College

A chance to see part of a basketball game is the unusual feature of Open House at Newton Junior College for parents of students an friends of the College tonight (Thursday).

The program will start at 7 p.m. with coffee and cakes in the College Library where Mrs. Genevieve R. Oncley and Mrs. Grace C. Whitmore of the School Committee and Mrs. Nancy C. Taylor, wife of the director, will pour. Students and faculty members of a hospitality committee are under the direction of Miss Janice Abbott, secretary to the Director and Registrar of the College.

Short talks on the college program and policies by instructors Kenneth P. White, Alice J. Kennedy and Frank Heys, Jr. and Director Walter M. Taylor are scheduled to proceed moving to the gymnasium for the scheduled game with M. I. T.'s junior varsity team.

Director Taylor has expressed the hope that parents of prospective students will visit the college on this occasion to discuss the program and meet the faculty and staff. Dr. Leo Barry is principal of the college, one of two public junior colleges in New England.

HEALTH FOR ALL

This column is for children only. It's about Christmas and what it does to grownups and what children can do to help them through the crisis.

You've noticed, no doubt, what sometimes happens to older people during the holiday season. You've seen how tired and cross they can get, and you've suffered from it. They skip meals to go shopping, burn their fingers baking cookies, cut themselves on broken tree ornaments, and hammer their thumbs putting up greens. By Christmas afternoon they collapse, sometimes in hysterics. You're lucky if it isn't raining, and you can get out with your new bike until the situation simmers down.

Have you wondered why they do all these things, why they wear themselves out? The older they get, the more things they seem to have to do for Christmas. It begins when they are young like you: "We always do this at Christmas time, we've always done that." They get married and each partner has family traditions, things they're always done and must go on doing. As the years go on they hear or read of things that sound like fun. They remember things that Grandma used to do. All these get added to the list. And so the Christmas customs grow from year to year.

Grownups wouldn't do these things if they didn't want to. They love the Christmas season, and they want to pack into each Christmas all the good times they remember from earlier Christmases. But as the old saying goes, "their eyes are bigger than their stomachs."

You can't stop them entirely, and you wouldn't want to spoil their fun. But perhaps you can tactfully help them to make this Christmas a more relaxed and happy time for all. You might suggest a family conference on holiday activities and use your influence to cut out some of the customs that have turned into hard work. You can suggest a share-the-work plan. Even the younger children can take on some duties. They'll get a lot of fun out of pasting Christmas Seals that fight tuberculosis on greeting card envelopes. Suppose they aren't on straight? The true Christmas spirit of kindness and generosity will be there.

This column is sponsored, in the interest of better health, by: The Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association whose sole support is the annual sale of Christmas Seals in Newton.

PTA Landscaping Project Is Begun At Oak Hill

At the Oak Hill School the first step in the P.T.A. landscaping project was completed last week when the children planted 320 crocus and narcissus bulbs which they had purchased with voluntary nickel contributions.

The landscaping committee, headed by Mrs. Benjamin Green and Mrs. Samuel B. Horovitz, began this project last spring with the sale of Mother's Day plants to the children. During the spring season garden accessories, potted plants and over 400 flats of annual seedlings were sold to people in the community.

With the proceeds from these sales shrubs were bought to replant two beds in front of the school. These shrubs, carefully selected for all year interest and good growth habits, were planted by men from the City of Newton Park Department. Mr. Robert Ralston was landscape consultant.

Through this project the children have learned horticulture in an interesting fashion. At each step they have been instructed in the history, growth habits, proper planting methods and care of the plants used.

Completion of this project to beautify the school grounds and replace all overgrown and uninteresting shrubs is expected to take 3 or 4 years. After that the Oak Hill School grounds will be a source of pride to all in the community.

Christmas Party

The Corpus Christi Guild of Auburndale, will hold their December business and Christmas Party on Monday evening, December the 15th, at 8 p .m., in the Corpus Christi Auditorium.

Each member will be expected to bring a gift, Christmas Wrapped, which will be judged by Mrs. Vivian Pettersen, a representative of The Grover Cronin Co., who will demonstrate and talk on "Gift Wrapping." A cash prize will be awarded to the member or guest, who brings the most attractively Christmas Wrapped gift.

Mrs. Maurice O'Connell will be the chairman of the evening, and Mrs. Carl L. Recco the hostess.

Spotlight on Weeks

Approximately 350 new seventh graders at Weeks paraded onto the field recently where a loud speaker and platform had been placed. Council Pres. Hal Cohen welcomed the seventh graders and Mr. Blaisdell delivered a short message. The newly purchased Weeks flag for outdoor use with its motto, "Knowledge is Power" was shown for the first time. After the Pledge of Allegiance and a selection by the Weeks band, nearly all the seventh graders remained to watch the Varsity defeat Bigelow, 21-0.

Weeks-Bigelow Game

Bigelow fumbled in the first quarter, Weeks recovered and this paved the way for the Varsity's first touchdown and victory. John Impeduglia scored after racing eleven yards around right end. Impy carried the ball over again to score the extra point. After the uneventful second quarter, the Weeks band marched onto the field playing "Go, Weeks, Across That Goal Line."

The third quarter brought the second touchdown as Impeduglia again charged over for six points. Al Calman maneuvered across the line to make the score 14-0, in favor of Weeks. In the fourth quarter, Bill Morris connected with Dave Connors on a short pass to the right to score the third touchdown for Weeks. Completion of the extra point ended the scoring with Weeks coming out on top, 21-0.

Ninth Grade Dance

That night following the game, the words "Foot Ball" on the gym wall welcomed the victorious team and its rooters to the first Weeks dance. Goal posts and separate pennants with the names of the Varsity members helped set the football mood. To the music of the Hi-Fi, Bob Graham and Diane Costa were chosen jitterbug king and queen by the teachers. Everyone had agreed that the Ninth Gade had sponsored a most enjoyable dance.

Red Cross Tops Goal

Weeks' Red Cross Fund Goal for this year was $325.00. During the last few days of the drive, everyone contributed generously to help Weeks over the top. On Monday, November 28, the total read: $334.56.

Christmas Seals Have A Very Great Meaning

Christmas Seals aren't just attractive stickers to decorate our Christmas mail and packages. They have a larger meaning ,and happy children illustrate that meaning.

For 49 years Americans have been using Christmas Seals to symbolize their contributions toward the eradication of tuberculosis. Their aims have been a future for their children free from the tragedies they have seen caused by the disease. Jean Simpson, artist for the 1955 Christmas Seal felt that aim would best be expressed by picturing children "healthy, secure, bursting with joy and eager to share it."

For this year's Christmas Seal Sale, which opened November 16, she designed two companion Seals, one showing a little boy against the blue of a winter sky ,the other a little girl against a background of apple green. Carrying packages in their hands, they convey they happy mood of Christmas giving. The red double-barred cross, trademark of the National Tuberculosis Association and its 3,000 affiliated local associations ,stands boldly behind them as a promise of protection.

College Notes Auburndale PTA

Lawrence K. Frank, noted author, and B. Alden Thresher, Director of Admissions at M.I.T., will speak on "Conflicting Goals in Education in a Democracy," Tuesday evening, December 6, at 8 p.m. at the Williams School, Auburndale. This is the second program in the Auburndale P.T.A. series on problems facing democratic education.

The meeting will be moderated by Paul Deats, who will also lead the discussion. Discussion will center around such questions as what type of high schools do we want; what subjects should be emphasized; should we give special attention to the bright child, the average child, the dull child; who should go to high school, to college? In view of the many changes in our educational system needed to meet today's new demands, this meeting should be of interest to parents of elementary and high school age children alike.

---- the informed citizen ----

A Weekly Column written and prepared by the Newton League of Women Voters and devoted to the principle that an informed citizen is a good citizen.

A survey of the state of constitutional rights was inaugurated in Washington, D. C., on Constitution Day, September 17, by the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Constitutional Rights—Senators Henning (D., Mo.), chairman, O'Mahoney (D., Wyo.) and Langer (R., N. D.).

ELEVEN citizens selected from organizations in each civic class were invited to "petion" Congress. The ceremony, held in the old Supreme Court chamber in the Capitol, was unique in the history of congressional practice in that the citizens occupied the high bench and the committee members occupied the seats customarily reserved for the citizens. Mrs. John G. Lee, President, League of Women Voters of the United States, appeared as "petitioner" for the woman citizen.

Here are her remarks:

It is an honor to be here today; it is also, in my opinion, a most serious responsibility and duty. The preservation of our traditional freedoms has not only required of Americans the total involvement of our resources and our lives; it has "involved us totally in mankind."

To my mind the very essence of freedom is born of a deep respect for the worth and dignity of the individual human being. It is part and parcel of the great American idea—that Americans working together in partnership, with good will, have the capacity to secure life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness for themselves and for succeeding generations. Because you believe this as profoundly as I do, you will honor my words with the respect which is born of freedom.

I AM DEEPLY concerned about a subtle and dangerous disunity which can destroy our freedoms. It stems from the unwillingness of many basically patriotic citizens and groups to think through and accept essential adjustments in a rapidly changing and developing technological civilization.

I think it is only fair to put before you briefly a few matters in order to provide a frame of reference which will help you assess my apprehensions in regard to the "extent to which the constitutional rights of the people of the United States are being respected and enforced."

The area of the subject to which I wish to address myself revolves around the question: "Are the rights of the people being respected?" I do not propose to deal primarily with governmental action or with Communist efforts, or with the activities of extremist groups, though much can be said in regard to them.

Let me say at the outset that I do not presume to speak for all the women of America and not necessarily even for all the members of the League of Women Voters. Nor do I find it possible to look at the problem only as a woman for there is no such thing as woman's point of view, as far as I can ascertain. The women of America live and work and think side by side with everyone else in the United States. It is well to note, too, that when one speaks for educators, veterans, lawyers, business groups and so on, one is speaking for women as well as for men. What affects one affects all—"for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health . . . till death do us part." Some of you may remember those words!

As to background. I am an American—a Connecticut Yankee, if you will. I hold firmly and confidently to the great American idea. I believe the values we have accepted have a wide application outside our own society and that they satisfy more largely than has yet been achieved elsewhere the eternal aspirations of human beings. I believe they will be accepted gradually by increasing numbers of peoples without imposition—if we remain true to them ourselves—much as a stone thrown into a pool sends out ever widening circles. I believe freedom to explore, to examine, to argue, to criticize, to develop, to accept, to adjust fearlessly, has been America's strength.

I HAVE HAD the great privilege to serve the League of Women Voters as its national President for nearly six years. I am devoted to its ideals. It should be noted that the League of Women Voters was born when the last stronghold of obstructionism to complete "government by consent of the governed" was abandoned. Political freedom has been a gradual achievement in the United States. It was not until 1920 that America accepted it in theory for all her adult citizens. The purpose of the League of Women Voters, founded in 1920 as a result of the granting of the franchise to women, is "to promote informed and active participation of citizens in government." By the very nature of its purpose and work the League is the antithesis of totalitarianism. One cannot honestly support the purpose and policies of the League of Women Voters and be other than unalterably opposed to Communism — to totalitarianism in any form. One cannot work in the League and fail to recognize the menace and threat that Communism presents to all we hold most dear. Yet it is not our way in the League of Women Voters to fight it by destroying our own values and heritage; it is our belief that it must be fought by developing a realization of what Communism is and by strengthening devotion to the American way.

MANY PEOPLE think of the Constitution as a plan designed years ago, by men long since dead, in an effort to establish a new form of government. They fail to see it in the light of a living, growing concept having deep significance in their daily lives. They fail to understand its changing character and its increased importance. They fail to recognize the impact of the world tensions and the cold war experiences of this century. They forget that the design started in 1775 was a masterpiece because it permitted satisfactory adjustments in 1955 to meet the realities of the modern world without sacrifice of principles and ideals.

An example of this growth lies in the development of the interpretation of a phrase which appears in the first Amendment: namely, "the right of the people peaceably to assemble and to petition the government for a reddress of grievances." At first the right of petition was the primary consideration. Assembly was granted in order to facilitate petition and the protection of citizens from government infringement. Today the right to assemble is as fundamental as free speech and free press. The reason is less a matter of petition than it is to facilitate a free exchange of ideas and an opportunity to participate in the formulation of public policies.

The Supreme Court decision of De Jonge v. Ore. (1937) is based on this concept. The right to assemble "is one that cannot be denied without violating those fundamental principles of liberty and justice which lie at the base of all civil and political institutions—the principles which the 14th Amendment embodies in the general terms of its due process clause . . . The holding of meetings for peaceable political action cannot be proscribed. Those who assist in the conduct of such meetings cannot be branded as criminals on that score. The question . . . is not as to the auspices under which the meeting is held, but as to its purpose; not as to the relations of the speakers, but whether their utterances transcend the bounds of the freedom of speech which the Constitution protects."

OF COURSE, freedom of speech and of assembly are not unlimited. It has been said, rather delightfully I think, that common law held that any assemblage was considered unlawful which aroused the apprehensions of "men of firm and rational minds with families and properties there." This is a nice way of restraining a meeting from inciting to violence and from behaving in a "tumultuous manner." Government has the power to protect the public welfare and the right of the people peaceably to assemble. The question has been left open as to whether Congress can protect the rights of assembly and free speech from private action.

It is from the first Amendment and the growing and changing interpretation of it that one of America's most valuable assets was developed. I refer to our unique system of voluntary associations which has contributed so largely to the strength of the nation. While we often complain that our communities are overorganized, we must not lose sight of the fact that the system allows us to do freely a multitude of things we want done without our having to demand that government do them for us. Consider the social and educational services rendered by voluntary association, the impetus they have given to reforms, to experimentation, to innovation, to doing a very large share of the public work of the nation—freely, fearlessly, effectively. They generate vitality and provide a means for an individual to develop his capacities and to share in decision making.

REPUTABLE organizations operating in this manner in a free society have a grave responsibility to establish and uphold a code of high ethical standards which must govern their conduct. These standards must be based on the same democratic concepts which govern society as a whole. The extent to which the constitutional rights of the people of the United Staes are being respected is seriously affected by the activities of these organizations. Their failure to adhere to high standards of conduct is an abrogation of their fundamental responsibility and respect for our American heritage. As President of the League of Women Voters, I am convinced that the strict adherence of the organization to democratic principles and procedures is more important in the long run than are the causes which it pursues. I believe tolerance and respect for the opinions of others is being jeopardized by men and women whose instincts are worthily patriotic, but whose minds are apparently unwilling to accept the necessity for dissent within a democracy. If reason and understanding and faith in the capacity of Americans to discover truth are not brought to bear upon this matter, this country will take a long step backward. We will fall heir to the very thing we fear the most.

LET ME illustrate my concern by briefly outlining a current activity of the League of Women Voters. From its inception the League has been involved in the free examination and exchange of ideas and with the fundamental role of freedom of opinion in a constitutional democracy. In this sense the League has always been concerned with the essentials of individual liberty and their indispensable relationship to the public interest and currently to the security of the nation as a whole. During the past year the League has been engaged in developing the awareness of citizens in regard to this basic heritage and its relation to the present-day world and the Communist threat. In carrying out this program in the local communities the League has joined with many groups—church, legal, educational, veterans, among others—to examine the Bill of Rights and the 14th Amendment. The intent is to build widespread understanding and appreciation of the historic base of these ideas and their application from the earliest development to the present time. As this program has gained momentum, antagonism to the examination of the subject has been revealed.

The aspect of the question which I think is pertinent to your Committee's deliberations lies in the manner in which this antagonism is expressed, not in the fact that there exist differences of opinion in regard to the interpretations of the ideas under consideration. Honest disagreement in some instances has deteriorated into an attempt to intimidate those who propose to participate in the program and thus to limit public debate of matters of vital importance to the American people.

THE SAME THING is true, for example, when individuals or groups attempt to discredit outstanding scholars attached to America's leading universities. Unprejudiced examination of all ideas is the way we prepare ourselves to form reasonable and wise judgments as to their validity and merit. In this same connection, I heard it said that during his lifetime Einstein was a joiner of many organizations of presently doubtful character, the implication being that this shed much doubt on the value of his contribution to his times. Those of us who reject such an implication may feel inclined to smile at its very absurdity, but this kind of attitude resembles a slow and debilitating poison eating into the very heart of America.

These things are not isolated circumstances. They have occurred often in the last few years and they have sprung from many divergent sources. Since the Fall of 1954, however, public attitudes have strengthened somewhat, courage has begun to return, there is less fear of character assassination and persecution if unpopular ideas are projected or discussed.

I would like to quote the words of a patriotic American which have bearing on this subject: "All eyes are opening to the rights of man. The general spread of the light of science has already laid open to every view the palpable truth that the mass of mankind has not been born with saddles on their backs, nor a favored few booted and spurred ready to ride them legitimately by the grace of God. There are grounds for hope for others." This was written by Thomas Jefferson in 1826.

EQUALLY meaningful is the notion that this nation cannot exist half slave and half free. I will resist the temptation to quote Voltaire to you, for the point is obvious. We cannot put fetters on our minds or force them upon others and survive.

It seems to me it is by the free exchange of ideas and the testing of them that we produce the good and fine things of life. There is no value in refusing to examine an idea of another or in charging him with evil motives simply because we do not share his point of view. Equally it is mistaken to declare that because a person is willing to examine an idea he necessarily must support it. The heart of the matter lies in the capacity of the American people to sift the true from the false, to maintain their traditional values, to assume the responsibilities that come with freedom. I have infinite faith in this capacity if our freedom to think and express ourselves within the framework of the Bill of Rights is respected fully.

MUCH DEPENDS on the assumption of individual responsibility for the conduct of our joint affairs. Congress has a responsibility to safeguard liberty and justice. If it does not conduct fair and honest investigations, it promotes fear and restraint in the public at large. Voluntary associations have a responsibility to conduct their business in the spirit of good will and democratic procedures. If they sow discord and disunity and promote fear and distrust of one another, they are guilty of disrespect of the American tradition of liberty and justice. The individual American has the responsibility to mobilize his values and insist that they guide his personal and his public activities.

Respect for our freedoms will be maintained in direct proportion to our willingness to assume these responsibilities. I think one of the keys to our future lies in the ethics and practices followed by America's voluntary organizations. It is tragic indeed when any great national association representing a large number of good Americans yields to the pressure of fear and repression. It is my earnest hope that the task your Committee is undertaking will develop a greatly increased understanding of the values we so urgently wish to safeguard, that widespread and thoughtful public debate will prevail on this and all other vital subjects, that from it will grow a deepened sense of individual responsibility in maintaining America's birthright.

IN SHORT, the extent to which our constitutional rights are respected depends primarily upon public attitudes. If our voluntary associations heighten their respect for the rights and freedoms of others, if government conducts its affairs honestly and fairly and respects the dignity and worth of the individual, fear will not shape public attitudes. As is always the case in the United States, our nation reflects our own image and although institutions must share the responsibility, in the last analysis the power of decision rests with the individual. Self-government is an arduous business, it demands infinite intelligence and patience and devotion Fundamental to its success is freedom of ideas and of opinion. I believe each individual and each group must help stretch back the horizons of this nation so that it can successfully contribute to its times in a spirit of greatness equivalent to that of those who designed and accepted the opportunities and responsibilities inherent in the Bill of Rights.

Residents to Give Broadcasts For Christmas Seals

During the month of December several Newton residents will broadcast over local radio stations on behalf of the annual Christmas Seal Sale in Newton, the sole support of the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association.

On December 4, Dr. Thomas S. Hayden, president, will be heard on WEEI. Dr. R. Emerson Sylvester, 1st vice president, Mrs. Ernest Kuebler, 2nd Vice president, Mrs. Ruth Levens, director, and Rev. Hamilton Gifford, director, will take part in a fifteen minute roundtable discussion to be featured on WMEX on December 6 at 8:45 p.m.

On December 7 at 3 p.m., Mrs. John Fox will speak for the Association on the Mildred Carson show, WBZ. Mrs. Fox, a member of the Newton Highlands Woman's Club, is the chairman of the group of volunteers from Newton Highlands who have been helping the Association with the Seal Sale campaign.

On December 15, Miss Norma Solimene, executive director, will be interviewed on the Gus Saunders Show, WNAC, 2 p.m., and on December 16, Mrs Henry Plimpton, Waban, will broadcast over WBMS at 11:30 a.m. Mrs. Plimpton, clerk of the Association, is president of the Waban Woman's Club.

Mother's Club Of Boys' Club Holds Installation

Robert DiBona, age 10, a Day Camper at the Newton Boys' Club, last night addressed the Mother's Club and thanked them for the wonderful time the boys had during the summer months. The occasion was the installation of officers of the Mother's Club. Robert in his own words told about the experiences he and 42 other boys went through last summer. All of these experiences were made possible by the hard working mothers who sponsored the Day Camp for eight weeks.

James Marini, also age 10, opened the meeting with the pledge to the Flag. Welcoming remarks were made by August E. Mascaro, Executive Director of the Newton Boys' Club. Francis Gentile, one of the Club members supplied vocal and accordion selections. Mrs. Rose Proia, Chairman of the Installation Committee, presented the past President with a gift from the members. Mrs. Vachen, the Past President, thanked the mothers for the excellent support given her during the past year. More than a thousand dollars was raised through various activities which made many projects possible at the Club.

In the absence of Miss Adelaide Ball, who had to attend the Board of Alderman meeting, Mrs. E. T. Copeland acted as installing officer. The new officers installed were: President, Mrs. Stanley DeCoste; Vice President, Mrs. Amedee Framault; Secretary, Mrs. John Schipani; Treasurer, Mrs. Thomas Diggin. Both Mrs. Vachen and Mrs. DeCoste received gavels in the wood shop of the Club.

Mr. Herbert J. Callahan, Principal of Stearns and Lincoln-Eliot Schools was guest speaker. Mr. Callahan praised the efforts of the Mothers and urged that the good work be continued.

Expressing the thanks of the Board of Directors, Mr. Jerry Angino, President, acknowledged the splendid work done by the mothers.

Mayor Howard Whitmore took time out from City Hall to attend the installation, and praised the Boys' Club as well as the Mother's Club for the work being done for the youth of the City. The Mayor stated that he had followed the work of the Club for a long time, and that he had noticed the marked change that had taken place during the past year. Much of this development was due the sacrifice of the mother of the area.

Refreshments were served by members of the Teen Club, Miss Louise Bianchi, Miss Barbara Dentino, Marlene Lygman, Ann Mauro, Mary LaRusso, Antonette Delicchi. Decorations with the Christmas theme were done by the girls.

Among those present were: Charlotte Yoffa, Stearns School; Dorothy Seaward, Mrs G. Litchfield, Mrs. Jac Ridgway, North Church; Mr. N. P. Tedesco, John F. Donahue, Rec. Dept.; Mrs. Robert Toher, Cabot School P.T.A.; Mrs. Frank Lombardi, Mrs. Wm. LaFay, Mrs. Edward Collins, Newton Community Club; Teresa Volente, Angelina, Vardaro, Mrs. Louise Peccorari, Madonna Del Carmine Society; Antonette Melanson, Post 50 Auxiliary; Mary Vinciulo, Mary D. Fiore, Italian-American War Veterans Auxiliary; Mrs. Seymour S. Getter, Mrs. Jesse Stone, League of Women Voters; John C. Malgieri, Joseph Volpe, Newton Honor Guard; Mrs. John G. Learmont, The Community Service Club of Newton; James DiLiello, Past Com. Nonantum Post 440; Mrs. Peg Trainer, Mrs. Josephine Greco, Mrs. Sue Pellegrino, Post 440 Auxiliary; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Morse, Principal of Day Jr. High School; others present were Mrs. Helen Milligan, Mr. Robert Cahill, Community Chest.

Halper Winner of Award In Home Building Contest

Alfred W. Halper, Newton home builder who resides at 5 Wiswall road, is the winner of the 1955 National Association of Home Builders competition for the Greater Boston area, according to an announcement by Anthony Losordo, president of the Home Builders' Association of Greater Boston.

Halper, who was competing with other members of the N.A.H.B. in this area exhibiting homes during National Home Week, is currently developing Wayside Acres in Sudbury. This is a subdivision of split-level homes.

The winning entry was selected by a panel of judges because of the excellent and completeness of the exhibit home merchandising program. The judges leaned heavily on the appeal and livability of the Halper Exhibit Home at Wayside Acres.

Halper is a graduate of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, class of 1932, where he received a Bachelor of Science degree in Business and Engineering Administration. He enjoys an enviable reputation as a home builder and currently builds and sells about 30 homes per year.

Halper's winning entry has been sent by the Home Builders' Association of Greater Boston to Chicago, where it will compete with other winners from various localities throughout the country.

Artist to Lecture At Newton College

Monday, December 12, Muska Benes Brzezinski will talk on "The Representative and Formal Elements in Painting" at Newton College of the Sacred Heart.

Mrs. Brzezinski was graduated from Wellesley College and studied at the Boston Museum School. She studied under Richard Wagner at the Castle Hill School at Ipswich, Mass.

Mrs. Brzezinski, who is an instructor in art at Newton College of the Sacred Heart, is preparing a show of paintings and wood sculpture to be given later this year.

News of Day

The drive for Junior Red Cross at Day has ended successfully with 100 per cent participation and a total of $268.49 collected. Divisions 20-A, 11-W, 23-C, 20-E and 23-B led the school. The Junior Red Cross Assembly helped spark the drive with a film, Flag of Humanity, and a talk by the former Newton school director of Junior Red Cross, Mr. Alden Read, of our faculty. The drive was directed by Miss Beverly Holmes, faculty advisor, and the Red Cross Council officers, Diane Fay, Sandra Smith, Patricia Pellegrini, Patricia Corwin, Ronald Promer and the Grade Representatives, Marilyn Nugent, Bruce Taylor and Patricia Corwin.

The Day football teams ended their seasons with all wins and no losses, a record which make the school proud and the coaches, Mr. Eldert, Mr. Carr and Mr. Blount, happy. The Junior Varsity played its last game with Weeks and won easily, 13-0. The Varsity beat Belmont, 26-8, in its last game on November 18.

The students of the F. A. Day gathered in the assembly hall, on Wednesday, November 23rd, in honor of Thanksgiving Day. The spirit of the program was memory of the past, thankfulness for the present, and prayer for the future. Patricia Leone introduced the theme and the various sections of the program. Alan Otis gave the history of Thanksgiving Day in the United States, explaining how the third Thursday in November came to be a national holiday Two selections, "This Is My Country" and "Thanksgiving Prayer" were beautifully sung by the glee clubs under the direction of Mrs. Nadja Altstetter. The governor's proclamation was read by Charles Aucoin. A concluding prayer, written by Edward L. R. Elson, minister of the National Presbyterian Church, Washington, was given by Patricia Leone. The orchestra played for the opening and closing of the assembly.

Says Politics As Career Advisable

The young man or young woman desiring to enter politics would do well to distinguish himself through active membership and leadership in community organizations, service clubs, PTA's, scouting and church activities declared Representative Irene K. Thresher of Newton to the students of Newton Junior College at the first "Conversation" in the College's general education program on November 23rd.

Mrs. Thresher and Alderman William Power of Newton, head of the social studies department at Brookline High School were interrogated by Dr Charles Peltier, head of the Social Sciences Department of the College Robert S. Harris, instructor in history and government and former Melrose Alderman, and Waler M. Taylor, Director of the College and former elected Town Meeting member in Natick.

Mr. Power seconded Mrs. Thresher's point with the notion that the young man or woman must show genuine interest and understanding of the affairs of the community and not count on personal privilege or ambition to pull in his favor. All agreed with Mr. Harris that an aspirant must let his aspirations be known, but that the office would seek the man if the man was sincerely working for the benefit of everyone in the community.

Mr. Taylor stressed the need for educated men and women in public office, asserting that courses in history and government, psychology, economics and sociology served to enable aspirants for political office to understand people and the times. He asked that college-trained men and women put their education to work for the good of democracy.

The Junior College "Conversations" are open to the public; they are held Wednesday mornings at 8:30 in the College library, Elm Road. Attendance of the student body is mandatory for some of them although others require the attendance of students taking particular courses. The next scheduled Conversation is between H. Russell Beatty, President of Wentworth Institute, and instructors of science, mathematics, and technical subjects, Nov 30 on "National Needs, Job Requirements, and Opportunities for Engineering Technicians."

Second Event In Concert Series Next Monday

GIAN-CARLO MENOTTI

The second event of the 1955-56 Wellesley Concert Series will take place at Alumnae Hall, Wellesley College, Monday, December 12, at 8 p.m. It will be a full stage orchestra presentation of the two most highly successful operas by the well-known composer, Gian-Carlo Menotti, "The Medium" preceded by "The Telephone." "The Medium" is a very dramatic musical melodrama, sung in English, and is the story of a bogus medium who accidentally happens upon something really supernatural. This opera, or rather music-drama, will be staged and lighted as it was originally on Broadway. The title role will be sung by its originator, Marie Powers, and the orchestra will be conducted by the original conductor, Emanuel Balaban. As a contrast, "The Telephone" is a gay and light-hearted opera about the attempts of a young man trying to propose to a young lady who has many telephone calls. This entertaining and interesting program will start your Christmas entertainment season happily.

Garden City Grange 364

Garden City Grange 364 of Newton held their regular meeting in the Parish House of the Centenary Methodist Church on Central street, Auburndale. Various reports were given regarding Garden City Grange Activities.

Report was given regarding the Group Conference held at Foxboro regarding the Youth Movement in the State and Nation with State and National Officers of the Grange in attendance. One of the highlights of the conference was the experiences of a Group German Exchange Student who entered this country without knowing a word of English six months ago but was able to tell of her activities in broken English.

After the meeting the Newton Star Players put on a play entitled "The White Hat" which was very well received by those present which included visitors from other Granges in the State.

Upon conclusion of the Play picture slides were shown of a canoe trip from Warwick via Lake Champlain and various rivers, Montreal and ending at Quebec, Canada.

Refreshments were served and a Social Hour followed which was enjoyed by all present.

Garden City Grange will entertain the Middlesex-Norfolk Pomona Grange No. 1 at the next meeting on December 19, 1955 by holding a Supper and Christmas Party.

At the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich., Fred Elliot Charm of 25 Shumon circle, and Maynard Goldman of 20 Nobscot road, have been pledged by Pi Lambda Phi.

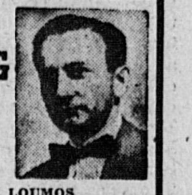
TELE-VIEWING THE NEWS



By LEE LOUMOS

Robert Ryan joins the ever-increasing number of former Hollywood holdouts to jump onto television's bandwagon. He is making "Lincoln's Doctor's Dog" for Screen Director's Playhouse. Christopher Morley wrote the original. Charles Bickford plays the doctor.

Broadway actor Joe Mantelli came West to make the movie "Storm Center" with Bette Davis. He stayed long enough to grab off a part in Alfred Hitchcock's TV thriller, "Guilty Witness." He plays a storekeeper who gets involved in a Greenwich Village murder.

Frank Lovejoy took over the role of Lt. Maryk in the Spectacular version of "The Caine Mutiny Court Martial." The late John Hodiak, who created the role on Broadway, had been scheduled for the part.

ABC-TV has commissioned the Four Star Playhouse company to produce a series of four hour-long TV dramas called Wire Service, for showing after the 1st of the year .... Another hour drama series, Playwright's '56, was so pleased with the work of Edmund O'Brien on a recent show that he's been offered a pact calling for four similar chores a year .... The proof of an actor's ability is in his performance . . . and the proof is in the performance when it comes to TV reception. Visit our showroom to see a SYLVANIA TV picture. . . for proof of fine performance that's easy on the eyes.

Newton . . . Girl Scout Activities

News Notes and Meetings

GIFT

On the fifth of December, Brownie Troop 49 of the Newton Girl Scouts presented The Peabody Home for Crippled Children with a doll house, completely rebuilt and furnished by these first year Brownies themselves. Their leader, Mrs. Max Wood, assisted by Mrs. Richard York, and Mrs. Bernard Weinstein, supervised the activities of the following members of the troop — Marilyn Borowsky, Susan Bronstein, Jeanne Kaswell, Amy Kraft, Susan Lasker, Rosalyn Miller, Jeanne Troll, Carole Weinstein, Sylvia Wool, Elizabeth York and Ruth Zaplin.

BOARD MEETING

The original date for the next meeting of the Board of Directors and the Officers of the Council was December the twentieth. This date has now been changed to the thirteenth of December in an effort to ease the crowded schedule of all in the busy holiday season. The meeting will be held at the Y. M. C. A. in Newton.

VISIT TO TROOP

Diane Brown, Genevieve Clemens, Angela Ditto, Joan McNamara and Jacqueline Obert, representatives of Troop #35, paid both a social and purposeful visit to Troop #82 Wednesday, November sixteenth, at the Sacred Heart School in Newton Centre. They ably demonstrated to Mrs. Edwin Crowley and her Tenderfoot Scouts the proper technique in handling a knife—with clear emphasis on how NOT to handle one. After the demonstration, the girls introduced new songs and games, and danced the Northern Lights to the great enjoyment of Troop #82. The grand march, ending with Taps, completed an afternoon shared in true Girl Scout spirit—A Girl Scout is a friend to all and a sister to every other Girl Scout.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Newton Girl Scout Council Incorporated will be held at the Waban Neighborhood Club, on January sixteenth. There will be a dinner preceeding the meeting—more details on this important affair in subsequent columns. Put the date down now, though—and plan to come.

TROOP #13

The fifth grade, Intermediate Scouts of Troop #13 gave an "Open House for Parents" on November twenty-ninth at one fifteen p. m. in the Carr School auditorium. Registered Scouts acting as hostesses were Annette DiRico, Christine Hagelstein, Barbara Jensky, Annette Kasabian, Susan Monahan, Marion Mauro, Elaine Panagopoulos, Carol Ann Proia, Theresa Rhonda, Dorothy Russo and Karen Swanson. As the purpose of the meeting was to acquaint the parents with the Girl Scout program, the Girls demonstrated the Flag Ceremony, and did some group singing and folk dancing.

The Investiture ceremony made Dorothy Bergen, Grace Butler, Anne Dezotell, Donna Giroux, Janet Nichols, Jean Francione, Susan Lord, Mary Anne Matezak and Bernadette Mazzola full fledged Scouts in good standing. Refreshments for all were served and the Scouts and their parents thanked leaders Mrs. Orlando Celluci, Mrs. Malcolm Gallagher and Mrs. Victor Russo for a happy and informative afternoon.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

On Monday December twelfth, at the home of Mrs. Joseph Kaufman, 219 Chestnut street, West Newton, the Public Relations Committee, headed by Mrs. Dwight P. Merrill of 20 Buswell park, Newton, will hold the final meeting of the year. Tea will be served; and Mrs. Arthur T. Gregorian of 28 Lenox street, West Newton, president of the Newton Girl Scouts, and Miss Betty Richardson, its executive director, will join Mrs. Kaufman, Mrs. Albert Shames, Mrs. John R. Horgan, Mrs. Harmon White, Mrs. George Schutter, Mrs. Chester White and Mrs. Samuel White in congratulating Mrs. Merrill on a most successful directing of the Girl Scout publicity for the year 1954-1955.

GET-TOGETHER

All Brownie and Girl Scout troops in the Carr neighborhood came together on December sixth in the Carr School auditorium for a program designed to foster the feeling of "belonging" not only to a Girl Scout troop; but also to a larger group of girls of different ages. Mrs. Orlando Cellucci led the group singing which opened the program. Mrs. Arnold Black showed the following films: "How To Catch A Cold," a health film put out by Disney; "Stop and Go," a safety film, and "The Toy Maker," a human relationships film done with puppets. Mrs. Samuel Handler supervised the Flag Ceremony and the Friendship Circle which closed this most successful program. The girls in the color guard were Barbara Sellers, Linda Huling, Patricia Bivans, Carol Howes, Ruth Handler and Judith Simonds from the sixth grade troop #168.

CARR MEETING

On December fifth at seven-forty five p.m. at the home of Mrs. Wallace S. Howes, 243 Crafts street, Newtonville, the Carr Neighborhood bi-monthly meeting of all registered adults was called to order. The business portion of this meeting concerned the voting on the slates of officers for 1956 for the Carr neighborhood, and a discussion of the program for the coming year. Sample films were shown on audio—visual aids to Girl Scout programs at the Brownie and the Intermediate level. Mrs. Arnold Black showed these films; and the meeting was conducted by Mrs. Wallace S. Howes, vice-chairman of the Carr neighborhood.

SEND US MATERIAL

Many, many thanks to Mrs. Malcolm Gallagher, Carr Neighborhood Chairman, for her clear and detailed report on the doings of her troops. Please send us news of what you are doing—send in some reports of activities for the holidays. Help us keep this column up to date and full of news. We can't do it without all of you.

TODAY'S BEST BARGAIN: CHRISTMAS SEALS.

"The Bible Tells Me So" To Be Sermon Subject

In observance of Universal Bible Sunday, Dr. Paul Uhlinger at the Newton Methodist Church will bring the sermon, "The Bible Tells Me So," this Sunday morning at 10:45. Reference will be made to the many concepts of Christ and in contrast the picture of Jesus available in the Four Gospels. Bookmarkers outlining suggested Bible readings from Thanksgiving to Christmas have been distributed to the congregation, many of these centering about the person and teaching of Jesus.

The Junior High Youth Fellowship of the church will meet at 3:30 p.m. to go to the Boston Common to see the Christmas scene, will then have supper at the church and will work on the presentation of a play, "The Boy Who Didn't Belong."

The monthly meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service will be held Tuesday evening, December 13, at 7:30 in Fellowship Hall. A Christmas tableau, "We Would See Jesus Today" will be presented in music and by readers. Mrs. Mina Ralston will give a piano solo. The refreshments will be served by the Fourth Nighters Circle.

The Chancel Choir will rehearse on Thursday evening at 7:15 under the direction of Mr. Robert Gerling.

The Men's Club of the Church, under special arrangement, are selling the newly-released recording of "Messiah," by the Handel and Hayden Society and the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Orders may be placed by calling the Church office, LA 7-6094.

Longer Hours of Darkness Mean Danger for Children

Dark clothes camouflage and make walking at night doubly dangerous, Safety Director Richard W. Hoover of Massachusetts Division, American Automobile Association, declared yesterday in announcing that the Triple-A School Safety Posters for November urge children to "Wear White After Dark."

The AAA's Massachusetts Division issues a new poster each month for display in elementary school classrooms in Greater Boston as its contribution to the cooperative school-motor club safety education program.

Hoover explained that at this time of year when days start getting short, even very young children are sometimes out on errands or returning home after dark. "It's especially important at these times for children to be dressed in white or light-colored clothing so that they can be seen by motorists should the children have to cross the street or wander into the roadway," he added.

"Many new articles of clothing are being offered made with 'reflectorized' yarn," the director noted. These clothes appear to light up when they are caught in the glare of on-coming headlights and in many instances they offer even greater protection than white clothing."

The design for November's poster was made by 11-year-old Robert Miller, a student at Roosevelt School, Toledo, Ohio. Robert's poster won a prize in the last AAA National Traffic Safety Poster Contest and is now being distributed to schools by other Triple-A motor clubs throughout the United States.

America Spends Millions Annually On Tuberculosis

America spends an estimated total of $621,000,000 on tuberculosis annually, most of this in tax dollars, David Moxon, Executive Director of the Middlesex Health Association, announced today. Mr. Moxon explained that funds raised in the annual Christmas Seal Sale which is now in progress represent a very small portion of this amount and therefore cannot be used for treatment of tuberculosis patients or for relief to their families.

The total of Christmas Seal contributions in the United States last year would not be enough to pay for two weeks of treatment for all known tuberculosis patients, he maintained. The most economical and effective way of spending Christmas Seal money is for prevention of the disease and prevention of its spread.

Christmas Seals are searching for unknown tuberculosis through chest X-rays; they are financing prevention of the disease through health education, and helping the TB patient through rehabilitation. Christmas Seals are also supporting important medical research in an effort to find the answer to the fight against this very complex disease.

Mr. Moxon emphasized that "every one of the deaths from tuberculosis throughout the Association area and every case now on the rolls of local health departments represents a human tragedy to a wide circle of people as well as a serious financial loss to the community as a whole. This tragedy can be prevented by more intensified efforts in the search for cases and through other measures which Christmas Seals support."

Local residents have an opportunity to contribute to the tuberculosis prevention and control program during the 1955 Christmas Seal Campaign which opened on November 16, and will continue through December.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

By virtue and in execution of the POWER OF SALE contained in a certain mortgage given by Joseph A. Moffie and Frances Moffie, his wife in her own right, of Newton, Middlesex County, Massachusetts to Brookline Federal Savings and Loan Association, a United States Corporation doing business in Brookline, Norfolk County, Massachusetts, dated August 26, 1953 and recorded with Middlesex South District Registry of Deeds, Book 8127, Page 525, of which mortgage the undersigned is the present holder, for breach of the conditions of said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing the same will be sold at Public Auction at Ten o'clock A.M. on the fourth day of January A. D. 1956, on the mortgaged premises all and singular the premises described in said mortgage.

To wit: A certain parcel of land with all buildings and structures now or hereafter standing or placed thereon situated in that part of Newton, Middlesex County, Massachusetts called Newton Centre, bounded and described as follows:—

PARCEL I: Beginning at the Southeasterly corner of the land herein conveyed at a stone bound on the Westerly line of Kenwood Avenue at other land of grantor and thirteen and 23/100 (13.23) feet distant Northerly from land now or formerly of Charles S. Young; thence running

WESTERLY on said other land of grantor in a line parallel with said land now or formerly of Charles S. Young thirteen (13) feet distant therefrom, one hundred thirty-three and 36/100 (133.36) feet to a stone bound at land formerly of one Carleton; thence running

NORTHERLY on said land formerly of Carleton, thirty-five and 93/100 (35.93) feet to a stone bound; thence running

EASTERLY at an angle of 91° 5' 20" with the last described line on land now or formerly of William B. Young, eighty-six and 43/100 (86.43) feet to a stone bound; thence running

SOUTHEASTERLY at an angle of 162° 57' 10" with last named line, seventy-five (75) feet to a stone bound on the Westerly line of said Kenwood Avenue; thence running SOUTHERLY on said Kenwood Avenue sixty-one and 70/100 (61.70) feet to point of beginning.

Containing 7,774 square feet of land.

PARCEL II: A certain parcel of land situated in that part of said Newton called Newton Centre, adjoining the above parcel, bounded and described as follows:—

Beginning at the Northeasterly corner of the premises herein conveyed at a stone bound on the Westerly side of Kenwood Avenue at land above described; thence running

WESTERLY on the lot above described, one hundred thirty-three and 36/100 (133.36) feet to a stone bound at land formerly of Carleton Heirs; thence running

SOUTHEASTERLY by said land formerly of Carleton Heirs about thirteen (13) feet to a stone bound; thence running

EASTERLY in a line parallel with the first described line, one hundred twenty-seven and 6/10 (127.6) feet to a stone bound at the Westerly line of Kenwood Avenue; thence running

NORTHERLY by said line of Kenwood Avenue, thirteen and 23/100 (13.23) feet to point of beginning.

Containing 1,695 square feet of land more or less.

PARCEL III: Also another parcel of land situated in that part of said Newton called Newton Centre, bounded and described as follows:—

NORTHERLY by land now or formerly of Sullivan, one hundred eighty-two and 98/100 (182.98) feet;

WESTERLY by land now or formerly of Carleton, fifty-one and 73/100 (51.73) feet;

SOUTHERLY by two lines eighty-six and 43/100 (86.43) feet and seventy-five (75) feet, both of said measurements being by other land of grantor, and being the first parcel herein described. Excepting however, from this parcel so much as was conveyed by Alice L. Barker to Daniel Sullivan and Mary E. Sullivan by deed recorded with the Middlesex South District Registry of Deeds, Book 4490, Page 524.

Be any or all of said measurements or contents more or less on the three parcels hereinbefore described.

Being the same premises conveyed to Frances Moffie by deed of Mary Millstein dated April 4, 1951 duly recorded with the Middlesex South District Registry of Deeds, Book 7723, Page 430.

Including as a part of the realty all portable and sectional buildings, stoves, oil burners, radiators, gas, oil and electric fixtures, heating apparatus, refrigerators, air conditioning apparatus, shades, screens, screen doors, awnings, and all other fixtures of whatever kind or nature now on, used or hereafter attached, annexed or installed in or on said premises.

Said premises will be sold subject to all unpaid taxes, tax liens, municipal liens and assessments, if any there be.

For authority to foreclose, see Decree of the Land Court Case No. 21171 Misc. in Equity.

Terms of Sale: One thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars in cash or certified check at the time and place of sale; announcement of the terms of the payment of the balance will be made at the time and place of sale.

Other terms to be announced at the sale.

To Robert H. H. Nichols, Margaret C. Nichols, of Newton, in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth; Jenney Manufacturing Co., a duly existing corporation, having an usual place of business in said Newton; and to all whom it may concern:

Suffolk Savings Bank For Seamen And Others, a duly existing corporation, having an usual place of business in Boston, in the County of Suffolk and said Commonwealth, claiming to be the holder of a mortgage covering real property in said Newton, and numbered 86 High Rock Terrace, given by Robert H. H. Nichols and Margaret C. Nichols to Suffolk Savings Bank For Seamen And Others, by instrument dated July 26, 1950, recorded with the Middlesex County South District Registry of Deeds, Book 7614, Page 421, has filed with said court a bill in equity for authority to foreclose said mortgage in the manner following: by entry and possession and exercise of power of sale.

If you are entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940 as amended and you object to such foreclosure you or your attorney should file a written appearance and answer in said court at Boston on or before the ninth day of January 1956, or you may be forever barred from claiming that such foreclosure is invalid under said act.

Witness, JOHN E. FENTON, Esquire, Judge of said Court this twenty-second day of November 1955.

LAND COURT

To the Honorable the Judges of the Land Court for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Respectfully represents Irving W. House, of Wayland, in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth; that he is owner of a certain lot of land with the buildings thereon, situate in Newton, in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth, bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a point on the westerly line of Taft Avenue extension at the southeast corner of Lot No. 7; thence running fifty (50) feet on the westerly line of Taft Avenue extension; thence turning and running southwesterly ninety-five (95) feet by land now or late of Larson; thence turning and running northwesterly fifty (50) feet by land now or late of Perkins; thence turning and running ninety-five (95) feet by land now or late of Perkins to the point of beginning; containing four thousand seven hundred fifty (4,750) square feet. Being Lot No. 6 on plan of Henry F. Beal C.E. dated July 1916.

That the record title to said lot of land is clouded by a mortgage given by Mary Edna House, to Frank L. Nagle, dated November 17, 1931, and duly recorded Book 5612, Page 10, purporting to secure two notes, one for $1,000.00 payable six months from November 17, 1931, and one for $500.00 payable eighteen months from November 17, 1931, with interest quarterly, which mortgage appears to be undischarged, unassigned and unforeclosed on and by the record:

That for more than twenty years after the expiration of the time limited for the full performance of said condition no payment has been made and no other act done in recognition of said mortgage; and

That the mortgagor named in said mortgage and those claiming under her have been in uninterrupted possession of said land for more than twenty years after the expiration of time limited in said mortgage for the full performance of the condition thereof.

WHEREFORE your petitioner prays that after appropriate notices a decree may be entered on the foregoing allegations as authorized by Section 15, Chapter 240 of the General Laws as amended by Chapter 20, of the Acts of 1924.

IRVING W. HOUSE.

Case No. 21593 Misc.

(SEAL)

Upon the foregoing petition, it is ordered that the petitioner give notice to all persons interested in said petition to appear before the Land Court, at Cambridge, within and for our said County of Middlesex (where appearances and answers may be filed with William P. Bailey, Register of Deeds for the South Registry District of said Middlesex County, as Assistant Recorder of said Court) on the third day of January next, by causing a true and attested copy of said petition and this order to be published forthwith once a week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, in said County of Middlesex, the last publication to be fourteen days at least before said third day of January next; by serving each known respondent by registered mail with a like attested copy of said petition and order as soon as may be and in any event fourteen days at least before said third day of January next; that all respondents may then and there show cause why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

By the Court.
SYBIL H. HOLMES,
Recorder

Dated November 23, 1955

VA Lists Helpful Reminders For G.I. Trainees

The Veterans Administration today listed some helpful reminders for the two-thirds-of-a-million veterans now in training under the Korean GI Bill.

First, VA urged veteran trainees to make sure they fill out the "Certification of Training" form their school will give them at the end of each month of training. The completed form must be returned to the school which, in turn, will send it to VA.

The law requires that this monthly form be in VA's hands before the agency may mail a veteran his GI Allowance check.

Veterans should fill out the forms promptly after each month of training, VA said, since a delay on their part may lead to delay in receipt of their checks.

VA's second reminder was for veteran-trainees eligible for higher GI allowance rates because they have dependents. These veterans should submit evidence of dependency as soon as possible, VA said.

The veteran who wishes to claim an increased allowance because of his wife should send VA a certified copy of the public or church record of his marraige, along with a VA form called "Declaration of Marital Status." Other records will be needed if the veteran, or his wife, has been married before.

To claim the higher rate because of a minor child, the veteran-trainee should submit to VA a certified copy of the public record of birth, or a certified copy of the record of baptism.

Finally, VA reminded Korean GI veteran-trainees that they should notify the VA immediately if any of the following occur:

(1) They change their address; (2) They plan to change their training program. (3) They quit or drop out of training (4) Their dependency status is changed, through divorce, birth of a child, or death of a dependent.

should be sure to give their claim number and full name and address. The reason for this, VA explained, is that all veteran's records are filed by Claim number. By using this number, a veteran can assure himself of faster service.

For all information on Veterans Benefits, the Malden Contact Office located in Rm. 4 City Hall Annex, is open daily Monday to Friday 8:30 to 5 p.m. for assistance.

NEW ELECTRIC SHAVER for women makes ideal Christmas gift. The sure way to Milady's heart this Christmas is through a gift of a Lady Sunbeam Shavemaster. This is the new electric shaver that's designed exclusively for women, and which has a shaving head with one edge especially ground to shave the legs, and the other edge especially ground for underarm use. No larger than a compact, the Lady Sunbeam is wonderful for use at home or for traveling. Its gentle, sure performance gives women a new, easy way to keep neat, fresh and dainty. See it and all the other wonderful Sunbeam products at Newton stores from now until Christmas.

Gives Time For Mailing Of Christmas Mail

The appeal of the Post Office Department for public cooperation in the deposit of Christmas Cards, even for local delivery, not later than December 15, is based on postal knowledge of current mail conditions, according to Postmaster Joseph P. W. Finn.

The postmaster stated there were certain facts to be recognized by all patrons with respect to the mailing of cards at Christmas. The first fact is the tme element. More than two hundred million pieces of mail will be placed into the postoffices of Greater Boston in addition to the regular mail load. Each piece will require from seven to fifteen handlings, depending upon distance. This great production job can be completed only if there are no last-minute points of congestion. All operations must flow smoothly.

For the last three years the postoffice in the local area has not suffered adverse weather conditions. Bad weather slows trains, planes and trucks. It throws mail arrivals and departures to the four winds and breaks down all production schedules. Carriers are delayed and temporary employees have difficulty in delivering mail.

Mail is worked in sequence of postmarks, with priority given to business mail. In the event of conditions which would hamper Christmas schedules, Christmas cards with late postmarks would necessarily be placed in a difficult position insofar as assurance of holiday delivery is concerned.

There is also the matter of postage on Christmas cards, according to Postmaster Finn. The unsealed type of Christmas card bears the third-class or circular rate of postage. It does not permit the writing of a note on the card; it cannot be forwarded, even though a new address is known to the postoffice; it cannot be returned to sender. No knowledge is had by the sender as to whether the cards are delivered year after year. The cost of these cards in addition to the loss of postage on this type of card represents a substantial item.

A sealed card, with a 3c postage stamp affixed represents the maximum in Christmas greetings. Many folks write brief notes on each card. They also include the return address so that their lists are always correct.

The public are urged not to include cash or other values in an ordinary envelope. Such values should be registered for protection.

College Notes

Scholarships of $600 have been awarded by the American Bankers Association Foundation for Education in Economics to two second-year students at the Amos Tuck School of Business Administration at Dartmouth College. One of the students is Eugene Youngentob, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Youngentob of 436 Commonwealth avenue, Newton Centre. He is a graduate of Boston College, Class of 1952. The awards are based in part on need and part on demonstrated academic performance and are made for the final year of study at Tuck School "to encourage students who will become leaders in professional or business life."

A Psalm of Recognition

By GEORGE LAWRENCE PARKER

The curtains of the universe are permeated with the fragrance of God. Man recognizes that scent of the Divine and, consciously or unconsciously breathes it in as native to himself. He cannot escape it.

All creation is draped with the festoons of God, which the ancient Psalmist called 'a sweet-smelling odor unto Him.' The oceans girdle the earth like necklaces of reality and the soil under our feet sends up perfumes that clutch at our hearts. The burning jewel of the sun, the calm brilliance of the moon, and the glory of billions of stars, what are these but festoons of light over the edges of the world to give to mankind a certainty of the glory that shines in his own soul.

O, my soul, you are not a scattered fragment of experiences but a comprehensive unit of existence. Blessed be your chance to unify your outer world with your inner world. Catch the fragrances of the Divine that sweep through the universe, until you possess unity and peace and until life's with the significances of eter- rough substance is fragrant nity.

Visiting Nurse Association

How does a Visiting Nurse go about helping a family to meet problems that arise when either or both of the parents become ill and must give up all care of their family? This is not an unusual situation for the Visiting Nurses to have on their daily round of calls.

First the nurse is given the orders from the attending physician. She makes the necessary number of visits. In this case it is to be a series of innoculations given to the mother. With each visit the nurse becomes more aware of the problems that are affecting the family due to the mother's illness. She listens carefully as the mother talks of her problems and may thoughtfully suggest that as a starting point they might make a study of the family income and budget. Wherever it is needed the nurse seeks the cooperation of other agencies. Then before long progress is being made on all fronts. Through the kindness and ability of the Newton Visiting Nurse and those of cooperating agencies the nurse is able to bring comfort and solace to a very anxious mother and her children who were all in need of care and affection.

Immunization as of November tenth is now being given at all the Well Baby Conferences of the Visiting Nurse Association. The six staff nurses and two part time nurses are all keeping full schedules as the demands for the services of the Visiting Nurse continues to increase.

The Newton Visiting Nurse Association welcomes Mrs. Abbott Spear of Newton Centre as a newly elected board member replacing Mrs. C. J. A. Wilson who resigned after giving very generously of her time and ability to the organization. Her years of service will long be remembered and deeply appreciated.

Prepare A Christmas Cake For All Occasions

When friends come to call during the holidays, you'll find sweet yeast-raised breads or cakes attractive and taste-tempting for serving any hour of the day. They can be made well ahead of time, and scince they are all decorative as they come from the pan there's no time-consuming frosting to cut into other activities. It's easy, too, to bake with yeast when you use the new batter method which requires no kneading. Following are three completely different sweet cakes to serve for special or impromptu holiday treats.

Perhaps you'll have a "decorating the tree get-together" on Christmas Eve. This Holiday Fruit Ring can be prepared while you're getting dinner and will be all ready to serve by the time your guests arrive. Arrange your Christmas decorations on the table and around the cake for a festive feeling. Serve plenty of hot coffee or punch with thin slices of the cake.

Holiday Fruit Ring

- 1½ cups warm, not hot, water (lukewarm for compressed yeast)
- 2 teaspoons sugar
- 2 packages or cakes yeast, active dry or compressed
- 4½ cups sifted enriched flour
- ¾ cup margarine or butter
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1½ teaspoons cinnamon
- ¼ teaspoon cloves
- ¼ teaspoon mace
- ⅛ teaspoon nutmeg
- 1 cup raisins
- ¾ cup glaceed fruit
- ¾ cup chopped nuts

Measure water into a mixing bowl (warm, not hot, for active dry yeast; lukewarm for compressed). Add and stir in 2 teaspoons sugar. Sprinkle or crumble in yeast; stir until dissolved. Add 1½ cups of the flour and beat well. Cover with a cloth and let rise in a warm place, free from draft, until very bubbly, about 30 minutes. Cream margarine or butter with 1 cup sugar. Add and beat in eggs. Combine with bubbly yeast mixture. Sift together salt, spices and remaining 3 cups flour, and add to yeast mixture. Beat until smooth. Use mixer or beat by hand. Add and stir in fruits and nuts. Turn into a greased, lightly floured 10-inch tube pan or into 2 well-greased 1½ quart molds or casseroles. Cover with a cloth. Let rise in a warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1½ hours. Bake tube cake at 375 deg. F. (moderate oven) for 1 hour; bake molds or casseroles at 350 deg. F. (moderate oven) about 1 hour. Cool cake in pans 5 minutes. Turn out on cake rack.

For Christmas morning breakfast you'll want something very special. This traditional Italian Christmas cake can be mixed up quickly the night before. It will rise in the refrigerator overnight as you sleep and will bake while gifts are being opened in the morning.

Italian Christmas Coffee Cake

- ¼ cup warm, not hot, water (lukewarm for compressed yeast)
- 1 package or cake yeast, active dry or compressed
- ¾ cup margarine or butter
- ¼ cup sugar
- 4 eggs
- Milk
- 2 cups flour
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 2 teaspoons candied citron, chopped
- ¼ cup seedless raisins
- 2 tablespoons almonds, chopped
- 2 tablespoons candied orange peel, chopped

Measure water into a large mixing bowl (warm, not hot, water for active dry yeast; lukewarm for compressed yeast). Sprinkle or crumble in the yeast. Stir until dissolved. Cream butter with sugar. Break eggs into a 1 cup measure; fill up with milk and beat slightly. Sift flour and salt; add the fruit. Stir flour mixture alternately with eggs into the creamed butter and sugar. Add yeast and beat until smooth. Blend in vanilla. Pour batter into a greased 8-inch tube pan. Cover tightly and let rise in refrigerator overnight. Bake at 375 deg. F. (moderate oven) for 50 to 60 minutes.

For Christmas day open-house a fruit ring will provide lots of holiday cheer. It's made just like an upside-down cake with your choice of canned fruits, bright red maraschino cherries in a buttery syrup. The hostess who enjoys entertaining with ease will deck her table in her prettiest china and silver and serve just a beverage to accompany the cake.

Peach Coffee Cake

- 3 tablespoons soft butter
- 2 tablespoons brown sugar
- Maraschino cherries
- Sliced peaches
- ⅔ cup milk
- ⅔ cup sugar
- 1½ teaspoons salt
- ½ cup shortening
- ½ cup warm, not hot, water (lukewarm for compressed yeast)
- 2 packages or cakes yeast, active dry or compressed
- 2 eggs, beaten
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 4 cups sifted flour

Melt butter in a 9" round or square cake pan. Sprinkle brown sugar in the bottom of pan. Then arrange the fruit attractively. Scald milk. Stir in sugar, salt and shortening. Cool to lukewarm. Measure water into a large mixing bowl (warm, not hot, water for active dry yeast; lukewarm for compressed yeast). Sprinkle or crumble in yeast. Add lukewarm milk mixture. Add beaten egg, vanilla extract and flour. Stir until well blended, about 1 minute. Carefully turn batter into the prepared cake pan. Cover; let rise in a warm place free from draft 1 hour and 15 minutes until doubled in bulk. Bake at 375 deg. F. (moderate oven) about 45 minutes.

Mass. Industries To Furnish Many Christmas Gifts

Santa Claus can be happy that factories in Massachusetts are working hard for a big Christmas, because Massachusetts is a quality leader in 85 categories of manufactured product spurchased annually as Christmas gifts. There is hardly a community in the Commonwealth that does not produce merchandise for the holiday trade, according to a feature article in the December issue of "Industry" by Frank Prendergast, Managing Editor. "Industry" is published monthly by the Associated Industries of Massachusetts.

Textile products, like sportswear, knitted goods, and hosiery, constitute the principal category, dollar-wise, according to the recent survey by the A.I.M. upon which the article is based. Jewelry from the Attleboro area, ranks second, followed by toys, sporting goods, candy, dolls, games, leather goods, fine stationery, and even bayberry products from Cape Cod.

The products sold in huge volume throughout the United States and Canada require thousands of freight cars to transport them and an equal number of trucks for late deliveries. Orders for the bulk of this Christmas merchandise are usually placed in early spring. This manufacture of merchandise for Christmas also provides annually thousands of steady jobs for employees of many skills and aptitudes throughout Massachusetts. The article forecasts that Christmas sales for 1955 will exceed all previous years.

Boston Antiques Show to Exhibit Valuable Relics

The big Boston Antiques Exposition, featuring more than 4,000,000 rare relics, opens in Mechanics Building in Boston on Tuesday, Dec. 13, and continues through Saturday, Dec. 17, from 1 to 11 p.m. daily, according to Milton Babcock, director of New England Antiques Assn. which sponsors the show.

More than 175 antique connoisseurs from all parts of the U. S. and abroad will exhibit some of the rarest, finest and most valuable relics, many practically extinct.

One highlight of the exposition will be an exhibit of part of the world's largest collection of bread service plates from the Arnold Bakers Museum in Port Chester, N. Y. Among the 150 old broad plates and trays will be a German bronze bread tray of 1580, a small boat-shaped china dish used to serve King Louis Philippe of France, a pressed glass tray which honors four Bunker Hill heroes, many Majolica plates with inscriptions, a salt glaze plate made in Pennsylvania in 18th century, a reticulated basket made of stoneware in England about 1830, and many other rare pieces.

In keeping with the Yuletide season, a large array of antique toys will be exhibited at the exposition which is considered the largest held in the United States.

A complete country store with all the old-time favorite relics will be set up at the exposition by James Riley of Wells, Me., and one of the largest collections of mechanical banks will be exhibited by S. L. Ball of Cambridge.

In addition, other relics that will be exhibited include old prints, furniture, china, early colonial glass, old fans, florentine mirrors, mugs of all types, old newspapers, magazines, books and Bibles, vases, candlesticks, old button collections, handcrafted jewelry, firearms, clocks, pewter, historical paintings, musical instruments, music boxes, primitive eating tools, early household gadgets, all types of weapons, clothing, lamps, valuable silver, and countless other articles ranging from few pennies in value to several thousands of dollars.

PAT KIRBY—When a publicity man recently whispered to a columnist that songstress Pat Kirby, of the "Tonight" show lives in a convent it was but natural for the journalist to deliver a cold stare and a cynical "Oh yeah?"

But the fact is that Pat really does reside in a convent—the Convent of Our Lady of Peace—while she is in Manhattan.

Her home is in Philadelphia where she was born and bred. She returns there on weekends to stay with her parents and her three brothers but she stays in New York for the Monday-through-Friday period in order to perform on "Tonight" and to keep recording dates.

Pat is 20 years old, stands five feet, six and a half inches high and weighs 125 pounds. She has jet black hair and luminous, flashing dark eyes.

ANDY WILLIAMS who is the featured male vocalist on "Tonight' is still a bachelor at 28. He lives alone in a small, but comfortable apartment on Manhattan's Upper East Side. Art and tennis are his big off-camera loves. The walls of his living room are covered with nearly 100 paintings including his most cherished possession, an original still life by Monet.

Born in Iowa, Andy and his three older brothers started singing almost as soon as they could stand, and they almost always worked together.

His first job was with a Des Moines radio station, WHO where he warbled at the tender age of six. He also performed with a church choir in Wall Lake, Iowa. During the war when his brothers were in service, Andy worked with other singing groups, the "Six Hits and a Miss," "The Starlighters" and others.

When older brother Dick and Don and Bob returned from the war, the boys banded together as the Williams Brothers. They were very successful.

In the summer of 1954 he auditioned for the "Tonight" program, was hired immediately and has been on the job ever since.

The other three Williams brothers have gone their separate ways. Dick is now a member of the "Cheerleaders," the singing group on "Tennessee Ernie Show." Don is still doing nightclub work. Bob has quit show business to become a purchasing manager at an aircraft plant in California.

STEVE ALLEN'S book of short stories, "Fourteen for Tonight," received such favorable reviews from the critics that he is planning on writing two more in 1956.

DREAM GIRL—When Hal March, Vivian Blaine and Evelyn Varden co-star in Elmer Rice's "Dream Girl" on the Hallmark Hall of Fame, viewers will be seeing one of Broadway's unique comedy hits for the first time on TV.

Dream Girl opened on Dec. 14, 1945, and ran for exactly a year. Betty Field, Mrs. Elmer Rice in private life, portrayed the role of Georgina Allerton, the bookshop sales girl who takes refuge in daydreams. Vivian Blaine will be seen in this role. Hal March plays the role of the newspaperman who is repulsed by the heroine in his attempts to arrest her chronic day-dreaming. Evelyn Varden originated the comic role of the heroine's mother, which she resumes in the Maurice Evan's production. (Sunday, NBC-TV, 4-5:30 p.m.)

MAURICE EVANS was honored by the National Council of Teachers of English when he received the group's first television drama award for his production of "Macbeth" telecast on Nov. 28, 1954. The production was chosen for its contribution to the teaching of English. Evans was both producer and star of the Shakespearean classic.

Twenty thousand English teachers comprise the membership of the NCTE.

Last year Evans produced three Shakespearean plays. He is presently producing eight 90-minute programs, once each month on Sunday afternoon. "Alice in Wonderland" and "The Devil's Disciple" were the first two of the current season.

Home Ownership Increases Among U.S. Elderly People

The spread of pension plans and Social Security has increased home ownership among older folk in the past five years, it was reported today at the National Association of Real Estate Boards' 48th annual convention.

While this move has developed in the West, the mid-West, and the South, its effects will soon be felt in the New England area as well, according to Peter Turchon, president of Homes, Inc. of Newton.

Turchon, described in the current issue of "The Practical Builder" magazine as "Unquestionably the biggest man in the remodeling field," says that as far as his office is concerned, home ownership appears to be already more prevalent among older people.

"Why are folks in the 50-year-old-and-over bracket buying? Economy is one of the reasons. Moreover, these prudent home buyers are deciding on pre-war two and three family homes—'2's & 3's—when they are available."

"You see, people are living longer," Turchon told delegates "Our total population comprises a greater percentage of oldsters. These people appreciate quiet and privacy And many, more than ever, want their own homes."

At a special meeting attended by Turchon and other U. S. specialists in used home remodeling, it was pointed out that the 1941 building dollar has shrunk to 43c. Increased cost of new home construction has forced many of the older buyers to select used homes.

"All owners can deduct a large slice from State and Federal income taxes each year, but it's the owners of '2's & 3's' who save the most," Turchon declared.

Told that in the Greater Boston area "2's & 3's" sell for an average of $10,000, realtors from other Metropolitan areas throughout the country showed great surprise at the low cost.

Turchon predicted that Boston prices would rise, too, just as prices did all over America when rent controls went off.

"I suppose, actually, that $12,000 is really low for a house that would cost up to $30,000 to build at today's prices," he concluded.

Car Getting Old? Yours Isn't The Only One!

"Everybody but me is driving a new car!"

You see the 1956 models coming out and being eargerly bought up; you notice that every car on the street seems to be a shiny new model.

But you're in good company if yours is four years old or more, says the American Automobile Association. Nearly half of all cars registered in the United States are at least four years old, while only 12 percent — one out of eight — are current models.

Cars two to three years old account for 22 percent of all autos registered, and 23 percent — nearly one out of every four cars — are more than seven years old. In making this report, the Triple-A safety engineers emphasize that many of these older vehicles on our highways lack the safety devices to cope with today's traffic conditions. And many are without adequate brakes or lights.

Reminders of Christmas Hits Of Yesteryear

In these days when talk of automation and space stations is everyday conversation, even toys have gone "out of this world." It was not always so. When Christmas rolled around for the children of the 1890's, the best any little girl could hope for was the excitement of a doll that could really talk; and the electric train, soon to be a "must" for little boys, was still in the experimental stage.

For this was the heyday of Thomas Alva Edison, the man who made many commercially practicable inventions, but never forgot the joys of childhood and the magic of Christmas. The Wizard of Menlo Park, as he was known, had invented the phonograph in 1877 primarily as a device whereby businessmen could dictate their correspondence—a purpose for which it is still used today.

But by the early 1880's, he realized that it had entertainment possibilities as well, and set to work on a series of talking toys, as well as what we have come to know as phonograph records. Of these toys, which were to include a talking clock and a collection of talking animals, only the doll was ever made in quantity.

Although her vocabulary was limited to a few nursery rhymes like "Mary Had a Little Lamb," and "Peter, Peter Pumpkin Eater," the doll was an immediate hit. Dressed in the fashion of the day and standing a sturdy 20 inches high, she made her debut at the Paris Exposition of 1889 and was thereafter on view at many fairs and exhibits. "Leslie's Illustrated Weekly" of October 1890, a popular periodical of the time, found her sharing the cover spotlight with her inventor and she was much written up in other magazines and journals.

As for her talking apparatus, it was installed in the galvanized tin tube that made up the torso of her body. The horn mechanism of the phonograph was installed in a kind of grating under her chin and the wax cylinders or recordings were placed in her back. Like all the first phonographs she needed a few turns of a crank to get her started. Although all this did not make her the most cuddly of creatures, it did make her rather an accomplished young lady. Considering that each cylinder was only 3 inches across and ¾" long, she was a wonder, indeed. Unfortunateately, there are no catalogs left to tell us how much she cost.

Schedule for Mailing Christmas Cards and Packages

Boston postal officials report the heaviest volume of parcel post since World War II is now being received daily. Commercial shipments of packages are at an all-time high and coupled with thousands of Christmas gift packages the problem is causing even veteran postal authorities some consternation.

The official schedule calls for all local parcels to be mailed not later than Dec. 10 for Christmas delivery. In view of current conditions it has become necessary to advance this schedule.

Christmas cards for the South and Mid-West are due to be mailed this week with all local Christmas cards to be deposited by Dec. 14. Post office windows are busy with the public making advance purchases of postage stamps. Arrangements have been completed for additional air space for Christmas cards and packages on all airlines. Postal schedules indicate that air mail and air parcel post can be deposited as late as Dec. 17 for Christmas delivery to all parts of the nation.

Letters can be included inside gift packages this year, under a new ruling, provided the outside of the package is endorsed beneath the stamps "Letter Enclosed" and the additional amount of the letter postage is affixed. In any event a duplicate copy of the address should be placed inside the package as protection against damage to outer wrapper, and loss of outer address.

Postmaster Joseph P. W. Finn asks the full cooperation of every person and every firm and store this Christmas season. Two hundred million pieces of mail must be handled in the Boston district before Christmas. It is suggested that all advertising matter not relating to Christmas be held until after the holidays.

Fingold Warns Against Illegal Rent Increases

Attorney General George Fingold warned this week that any violations of the State Rent Control Law, in effect Dec. 31, 1955, will be vigorously prosecuted.

At the same time Fingold pointed out that administration of rent controls in cities and towns of Massachusetts has been on a local level since expiration of the Federal Rent Control Act on July 31, 1953.

"Therefore," he advised, "complaints for what are considered 'unconscionable' rent increases should be lodged promptly with local officials."

Fingold gave assurance, however, that his office will properly advise the State Rent Control Coordinator on any question of law that the Coordinator may seek to interpret in regard to the rent control situation.

Returning to his State House office Monday after attending a meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Association of Attorneys General in Washington, Fingold said he and his staff are keeping in constant touch with the State Rent Control Coordinator.

Honestly — Want To Save Money on Storm Windows?

After many years of working in the trade, making and installing aluminum doors and windows, I want to be on my own, working out of my home with no overhead. You don't have to buy more than one window or door. "You save commissions and installers costs," since I do all the work and give you guaranteed service. I can build you a porch and install jalousies. Excellent references.

WORD OF THE ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARADE AND PARTY for Newton children is conveyed to Cathy Curby of Newton Highlands by Commander Vincent J. Tuscher of the sponsoring Lt. Stanton M. Amesbury Post, V.F.W. The gala street parade will take place on Sunday afternoon, December 18, at 2 o'clock, from Staniford and Lexington streets and will end at the Auburndale Library Hall. Refreshments and gifts will be distributed by Santa Claus.

Annual Christmas Pageant To Be Presented Sunday At First Church

This Sunday at 7 p.m. the Comrades of Pilgrim Fellowship of First Church of Newton Centre will present their annual Christmas pageant. There will be tableaux depicting the Old Testament prophecies, the decree from Caesar Augustus, the Annunciation, the journey to Bethlehem, the song of the angels on the hillside with the annunciation to the shepherds, and the manger scene. The pageant will be climaxed by the annual Candle Light Service. Margaret MacKenzie is chairman of the Pageant Committee assisted by Betty Dutton, Richard Farren, Lorraine Gayzagian and Michael Smith.

Four Units Here Benefit by Ford Foundation Grant

Two colleges and two hospitals, located in this city were recipients of awards made by the Ford Foundation "to supplement and encourage the efforts of the American people in meeting problems affecting the progress of the whole nation." A total of $500 million in grants was disbursed by the Ford Foundation.

The New England Peabody Home for Crippled Children at Newton Centre received a grant of $19,900 and the Newton Wellesley Hospital at Lower Falls received a grant of $111,100.

The colleges in Newton receiving grants were Boston College, Chestnut Hill and the Newton College of the Sacred Heart in Newton Centre. Boston College received a grant of $857,500 and an additional sum for having increased salaries of teachers, and the Sacred Heart College received a grant of $111,100.

McDonough's Gamble Paid Off, He is Now a Strong Contender for the Democratic Nomination for Governor . .

Executive Councillor Patrick J. McDonough demonstrated beyond any question this week that he is a candidate to be reckoned with in the battle now getting underway for the Governorship of Massachusetts.

There is a long way to go and many political bridges to cross before next November's all-important election is held and even before the rival parties decide who their gubernatorial standard-bearers will be.

But at this moment the colorful McDonough is off and running in the race for the Democratic nomination for Governor. Uncertainty exists as to whom he's running against and who his eventual opponents will be either in the primary or the final election.

One thing that is certain, however, is that he is building up strength in his own party and that he may push into so substantial a lead for the Democratic endorsement that his prospective adversaries may not find it easy to overtake him.

The fact that McDonough was able to draw 846 Democrats from all sections of Massachusetts to a $100-a-plate dinner at the height of the Christmas season is astonishing and has the politicos cluck-clucking like so many mother hens.

New Personnel Changes Made by The N-W Bank

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Newton - Waltham Bank and Trust Company held recently in Waltham, several new changes in organization were announced.

Assistant vice-president John J. White was elected vice-president. Mr. White has had considerable experience in all phases of commercial banking during his 24 years of association with the Newton - Waltham Bank. He has specialized in operations, loans, office management and all phases of trust department activity. He is a graduate of Suffolk University and the Graduate School of Banking and is a member of the Massachusetts Bar.

Mr. White is a director of the Starkweather Engineering Company and for the past three years has been chairman of the Bank Employees Group of the Newton Community Chest. He is currently treasurer of the Bureau of University Travel and is a member of the Newton Rotary Club.

In addition to Mr. White's

Presentation to Be Made at Its January Meeting

In keeping with presentations to be made nation-wide by Junior Chambers of Commerce during January, the Newton Jaycees will present a Distinguished Service Award key to Newton's outstanding young man.

SELECTION of the recipient will be made from nominations by a panel of judges composed of Arthur T. Gregorian, George R. Stranberg, and Col. Arthur J. Swett.

The award will be presented January 16 to the young man the judges believe has contributed most to the welfare of this community during the past twelve months. "And the winner need not be a member of Jaycees", James K. Fitzpatrick, chairman of the Distinguished Service Award Committee announced.

NEWTON'S Distinguished Service Award for 1954 was presented last January by Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., to John A. Baldwin, who has long been associated with, and was the then chairman of Newton's March of Dimes.

At the same time Newton's outstanding young man is honored by the local Jaycees, more than two thousand other young men will be recognized in similar ceremonies by Jaycees all over America.

MEANTIME, in Springfield, Illinois, the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce will be saluting January 14, the ten Americans selected as the most outstanding young men of the nation. The awards in Springfield will be made by Vice-President Richard Nixon, a past winner of this annual award.

Service of Carols and Candles To Be Held Sunday Evening

"A Service of Carols and Candles" will be held this Sunday evening at 7:00 p.m. in the Sanctuary of the Newton Methodist Church. A single candle on the altar will give light to the candles of each person attending, representing the spread of the Light of the World from the tiny flicker of flame coming into the world in the manger.

Dr. and Mrs. Uhlinger and daughter Marthanne are observing "At Home in the Parsonage" this Sunday afternoon and evening from 5:00 to 6:00 p.m. and 8:30 to 10:00 p.m., before and after the Candlelight Service in the Church. The parsonage is at 30 Wesley street, to the rear of the Church and all friends are invited to "stop in" and help decorate the Christmas tree, Dr. Uhlinger states.

"A CHRISTMAS SNAPSHOT" will be the Advent sermon of Dr. Uhlinger in the 10:45 a.m. Service of Worship this Sunday morning. "Among all the greetings sent to each other this season of the year, let us not forget the message God sent to us in a living picture," the minister of the church will state.

The Official Board of the Church will meet on Monday evening at 7:45 p.m. in the Trowbridge Room to give final approval to the 1956 budget.

The Friendly Circle of the WSCS will meet on Tuesday, December 20 at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs Fred A. Hawkins, 26 Sargent Park, for their Christmas party. Each member will be bringing a 50c gift for an exchange.

The Triple F Circle will meet Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. at the Home of Mrs. Percy Trundle, 102 Hunnewell avenue. Mrs. Dale Brown, Secretary of Missionary Education, will speak, followed by a social evening. There will be a 50c gift exchange.

THE GOODWILL CIRCLE will hold their Christmas party on Wednesday afternoon, December 21 at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Allen Hatfield, 25 Farlow road, Newton. Unwrapped gifts will be brought for Cooper Community Center in Roxbury and a second gift to be used in baskets for the shutins.

"The Sunday School Christmas Tree" will be observed Thursday evening, December 22 at 7 p.m The Junior High Youth Fellowship will bring the play, "The Boy Who Didn't Belong" and Santa has promised to attend. Used and unwrapped toys are to be brought for Morgan Memorial Settlement House in Boston. All members and friends, regardless of age are urged to attend, according to the Church School superintendent, Mr. Robert Strandberg.

Says Sales Tax, Education and Care of Aged To Be Issues

The proposed sales tax, cost of education and the needs of our aging citizens will be the major issues to be debated by the 1956 Legislature, according to Lt. Gov. Sumner G. Whittier, speaking before the Rotary Club of Newton luncheon. Monday, in the Brae Burn Country Club, West Newton.

More than one-third of the 32,000 patients in the state's mental institutions are over 60 years of age. Lt. Governor Whittier urged more attention to the care, treatment and help of this group of our population. Old Age Assistance payments total $85 million while institutional care adds another $15.5 million, he said.

In talking on needs in education, the lieutenant governor decried that few colleges in our state are expanding fast enough physically to take care of those high school graduates who in the next decade will be seeking higher education within the Commonwealth. He told of 6,673 applicants to the University of Massachusetts. More than half passed the admission examination, but less than one sixth could be enrolled at this institution.

Lt. Gov. Whittier stated $3,185,000,000 is collected thru taxation from Massachusetts residents and businesses. Approximately 75 per cent goes to Federal government, 15 per cent to local municipalities and the remaining 10 per cent to State Treasury, with one half of this latter amount being returned to the cities and towns of the Commonwealth.

Newton Woman Makes Bequests

The will of Carrie B. Millett of 47 Centre street, Newton, filed last week in the Middlesex Probate Court disclosed that a bequest of $9500 was given the Lynn Hospital for the establishment of a free bed. Miss Millett died November 13.

According to the executor's bond, Miss Millett left a personal estate of $40,000.

Other bequests were as follows: $8000 to the First Congregational Church, Swampscott; $6000 to Kate E. Pitman of 167 Burrill street, Swampscott; $6000 to the Women's Board of Foreign Missions of the Boston Congregational Church; $2000 to the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, New York; $1000 to the Business Bureau Round Table of Calvary Presbyterian Church, San Francisco.

Also $1000 to the Moody Schools, East Northfield, to establish a scholarship for needy pupils; $1000 to the American Bible Society, New York city; and $500 each to the Essex Branch of the First Congregational Church, Swampscott, for use in foreign work; Calvary Presbyterian Church, and Newton YMCA. A total of $4000 went to relatives and friends.

Who Is The Boy?

Last Thursday afternoon, a dog named Timmy was hit and killed by a train at the West Newton Railroad Station. A conductor on a passing train saw a sobbing boy on the station platform with the hurt dog on his lap.

The trainman was so overcome by emotion at this scene that immediately upon reaching the terminal, he checked with the police and located the owner of the dog. He promised the boy a new dog for Christmas, and Saturday morning brought the youngster his new pet.

The owner of the dog was at school at the time of the accident. And the parents of this boy, who is now consoled by a new pet, are anxious to locate the youngster who so tenderly showed his affection for Timmy on Thursday afternoon.

Will this boy please phone LAsell 7-4632.

Eagle Scout Awards Are Presented 2 Newton Boys

Eagle Scout Awards were presented to two Newton and one Weston Explorer recently at a Court of Honor conducted by Norumbega Council, Boy Scouts of America at Weston Town Hall. David C. Hoover of Wellesley, President of Norumbega Council, made the presentations.

Richard E. Asherman, 15, 703 Boylston street, Newton, was cited by his Explorer Advisor, Donald Marten of Newton Highlands for being a good camper and leader in Scouting as well as being a leader in school activities. Asherman completed most of his Scout advancement in New York city where he was President of his class at school and was accepted for a city-wide Boys'

Asks Parents to Warn Children on Skating Areas

Chief Philip Purcell of the Police Department this week issued a warning against skating on ponds and lakes until it has been established that the thickness of the ice is sufficient for safety.

He urged parents to permit their children to skate only in areas supervised by the Recreation Department.

In this statement the Chief warned:

"With the recent 'cold snap,' some of our ponds, lakes and rivers are frozen over. However, C. Evar Johnson, Newton recreation commissioner, reports that Bullough's Pond, Commonwealth avenue and Walnut Street; Ware's Cove in Auburndale, and Crystal Lake, Newton Centre, the three ponds over which the Recreation Department has jurisdiction, are not safe.

"The child will take a chance that the ice is sufficiently thick for skating. They will also skate under unsafe conditions after it begins to thaw.

"Remember you can't control the weather. You must control the children!"

James G. Lord Named Chairman Of National "Y" Week Committee

JAMES G. LORD

At the December meeting of the Newton YMCA Board of Directors held Wednesday evening, December 14, at the YMCA, President George R. Strandberg announced the appointment of James G. Lord as chairman of the National YMCA Week Committee. Mr. Lord is quite active in YMCA affairs being assistant treasurer of the Y, a member of the Board of Directors, Chairman of the Church Basketball League, and a member of the Physical Department Committee. He resides at 46 Bemis street, Newtonville.

THE YMCA Week Committee has been formed yearly for the past two years to handle the planning and administration of National YMCA Week which will be observed this season from January 22-January 29, 1956. It is a composite of many of the working committees of the Y and this draws together many facets of YMCA thinking in order to make the week truly representative of the total YMCA picture.

The Board of Directors also heard statements of progress in both the Youth Division modernization program and the Building Fund program. It was reported that the building remodeling has been moving forward steadily. All the concrete floors have been poured, all the piping has been completed and several brick and tile partitions are now being erected.

The meeting was preceded by a 6:30 dinner.

Newton . . . Girl Scout Activities

News Notes and Meetings

Senior Round-Up

Congratulations to Elizabeth S. Andersen, Troop 33, Carole Berberian, Troop 51, Ruth E. Butterfield, Ship 32, and Linda J. Farley, Ship 3. These girls have been chosen to represent the Newton Council at the Senior Round-Up next June at Highland State Park Recreation Area, Michigan. The Awards and Selections Committee, of which Mrs. Henry Knuppenberg is chairman, announced also the alternates who are Ann DiPalma, Troop 52, Patricia Hampe, Ship 32, Rosemary Shannon, Troop 52, and Amy Jo Sostilio, Troop 31.

Three girls from Somerville and one from Watertown will join with our four to make up one patrol for ten wonderful days of primitive camping, swaping ideas, discussions, and program activities. About 5,000 girls from all over the United States will attend in patrols of eight.

Best of luck to all of you!

Troop Scribe Reports

We are always happy to receive news and are especially happy to know that our Scouts are taking an active interest in reporting. The following report of Holiday Awards and Fly-Up of Troop 128 was sent in by their Troop Scribe, Fran Grandolfo.

On December 7 at the home of Mrs. Joseph Simberg, 11 Lancaster road, Troop 128 initiated Priscilla Kantor, Rachel Perlman, and Louise Nateman as tenderfoot scouts. Second class badges and Home Maker badges were awarded to Rita Hyfer, Harnete Berkman, Jane Carmen, Ellen Savet, Fran Grandolfo, Ann Kahalas, Toby Krassnoo, Ellen Skolnick and Beverly Snyder. Home Maker badges were awarded also to Marjorie Caplin, Nancy Caroline, Linda Duchin, Janet Haffer, Erika Rosenwald, Joan Rothstein, Irma Simberg, Diane Singer, and Nancy Wise, all of who are working towards their first class rank. After an opening flag ceremony and awarding of badges, the girls acted as hostesses during a social hour at which they served a delicious variety of cakes and cookies which they had baked themselves.

Round-Up

The Brownies and Girl Scouts of the Pierce Neighborhood remarked that their Round-Up on December 7 at the Pierce School Auditorium was over all too soon. Acklin Rae and Pamela Paine opened the meeting by leading group singing after which Troop 100 performed the flag ceremony with Jill Easton, Bettina Brightman, Hope Daniels and Lee Eisenberg, as flag bearers. Singing of the Star Spangled Banner was led by Sally Eurkhart of troop 74. Girl Scout Promise and Laws were repeated and Brownies gave their Promise and sang the Brownie Smile Song.

Neighborhood Chairman Mrs. ,. R. Biesel, Jr., extended a welcome to all and especially to the potential Brownies of grade 2. Troop 191 served as hostesses to new Brownies. Newton Local Council headquarters supplied two films which were enthusiastically received; one about making puppets and one on how not to catch cold. Everyone sang Taps to close the program. Mesdames William S. Easton, S. Kirshner, B. J. Rae, G. Freeman, and B. M. Block assisted Mrs. Biesel in bringing inspiration and enthusiasm to the Girl Scouts of Pierce School.

Completes Course

Mrs. Robert McClone of the Newton Local Council has just completed a Professional Refresher Course given by the staff of the National Branch office covering current trends · neighborhood service teams and the delegation of Board Responsibilities to get direct service to the troops and leaders as promptly as possible. Many thanks to Mrs. McGlone for the extra effort in promoting more efficient service in our council.

College Notes

Miss Jean Helen Speare, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George S. Speare, 26 Brackett road, who is a junior at Wellesley College, has been elected to represent the juniors in her dormitory in class affairs.

A graduate of Dana Hall, Miss Speare is majoring in zoology at Wellesley, where she is active in the Debate and the Biology Club.

WALTER L. MILBERRY

The funeral of Walter L. Milberry, of 598 Walnut street, Newton, was held from the Westwood chapel of Smith & Higgins on Wednesday, December 14. He was a native of Lynn but had resided in Newton for the past 15 years.

Mr. Milberry died at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital on Monday, December 12; he was 71 years old.

The Reverend Merton E. Libby, minister of the United Church of Westwood ,officiated at the service; burial was in Newton Cemetery.

IRVING ROLFE

Irving Rolfe, a telephone "pioneer", died at the Newton Wellesley Hospital December 10.

After 37 years as Gloucester manager of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Company, he retired several years ago.

Born in Bangor, Maine, he graduated from Newton High School, was a pioneer with the Cadillac Automobile Company when it started business and later became a rancher in the State of Washington.

He joined the telephone company at the time when E. K. Hall was president of the organization.

He is survived by a brother, Hayward P., and a sister, Mary L. Rolfe.

Services were held at the Newton Cemetery Chapel Tuesday, December 13, at 3:30 p.m.

Newtonite Of The Week

By LEWIS PAUL SIMONS

CHARLES E. KURTZMAN

This week the Graphic is proud to salute Charles E. Kurtzman of 5 Byfield road, Waban.

Mr. Kurtzman has been selected as "Newtonite of the Week" for thre reasons: (1) because of his business accomplishments, (2) because of his unselfish and constant work with community service and health organizations, and (3) because he is a great guy whom anyone would be proud to call a friend.

For the past 15 years Charlie Kurtzman has been Northeastern Division Manager for Loew's Theatres, Inc. He holds this important post by virtue of his long and excellent experience as a motion picture theatre executive and publicist.

Mr. Kurtzman became associated with the motion picture business through one of those unexplainable quirks of fate. After being graduated from the University of California at Berkeley, Mr. Kurtzman went to work as a reporter in his home town, San Francisco. One of his assignments was to interview a Paramount Theatre big-wig. The V.I.P. liked Charlie and offered him the position of publicist for the local Paramount Theatre.

This was opportunity and Mr. Kurtzman did not let it get away. Coupling the publicist job with the Los Angeles and San Francisco correspondent's position for Variety, the entertainment industry's Bible, he soon was building himself a reputation. This reputation traveled down to Hollywood where Warner Bros. Pictures asked him to be their publicity director.

Two years later young Kurtzman was made publicity director of Paramount Theatres on the West Coast, and shortly after he became Paramount's West Coast division manager for operations.

Mr. Kurtzman's next big step up was in New York with Fox Theatres. At the insistence of Fox's general manager, he became field representative for all the theatres east of the Mississippi. This included personal supervision of the Roxy Theatre in New York, which was at the time one of the country's most important theatres.

St. Louis was his next big move. There he became a partner in a theatre chain with some of the old Fox people. Finally he sold out his partnership to become associated with Loew's Inc., and, as was mentioned before, is now Northeastern divisional manager.

Mr. Kurtzman is a tireless community worker. Twice he was campaign director for the March of Dimes in Suffolk County. He has served as chairman for the Suffolk County Polio Chapter and has been a member of the Board for 4 years. For over 10 years he has been active in the Archbishop Cushing Charity Fund and is on the Advisory Board for the Joseph P. Kennedy Memorial Hospital.

In 1953 Mr. Kurtzman was Massachusetts chairman for the first campaign of the Mental Health Association. For the past 3 years he has been New England chairman for the Will Rogers Memorial Hospital. This charity helps indigent members of the motion picture industry who need hospital care. Last year Kurtzman was chairman of the Kickoff and Testimonial Dinner for the Boston Association for Retarded Children. This affair was a tremendous success.

During the war he was busy selling bonds for the Treasury Department and compiled an enviable record.

His club membership includes the Boston and San Francisco Press Clubs, the Boston Advertising Club, the Variety Clubs of New England, and he is a past Commander of the American Legion.

Just recently Mr. Kurtzman has accepted the post of Entertainment Division Chairman for the Massachusetts Heart Association's 1956 February Fund Raising Campaign.

In these times when so many people are so unwilling to do the least bit to help their neighbors, Mr. Kurtzman stands out with his exceptional record. Here is a man who has a right to refuse any more community work for he has done more than his share . . . yet he doesn't, and many an unfortunate person is better off because of him.

Carr Nursery School

The Carr Nursery School greeted mothers of pupils at a tea last Tuesday afternoon at the school in Newtonville. Director Mrs. Jack Marinsky welcomed the mothers and Miss Mary Harris, the nursery school teacher, introduced William Valdina, director of guidance in Needham, who spoke to the group on "Common Family Problems" and later led a discussion period with the mothers participating.

Mrs. Howard Arbetter and Mrs. Fred Pegnato were in charge of refreshments.

Last Friday Miss Harris acquainted the children with the traditions of the Chanukah holiday by means of a party at which records and stories were used to explain the holiday. Similar parties are planned throughout the year to commemorate the holidays of all faiths in order to initiate a broader sense of understanding between the children.

Fessenden School Play

Friday morning, December 9, the boys in Grade 2 of the Fessenden School, West Newton, presented their annual Christmas play, "Upon a Midnight Clear," for parents and friends.

The cast, directed by Mrs. William Goodhue and the Lower School faculty and William Cook, head of the music department, included the following Newton boys: Third Shepherd, John Locke, son of Prof. and Mrs. William M. Locke, 25 Berkshire road, Newtonville; Second King, Bruce Perkins, son of Mrs. Constance M. Perkins, 40 Beaumont avenue, Newtonville; Third King, Donald Dennis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon A. Dennis, 29 Kendall road, Newton Centre; and Joseph, John Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Adams, Jr., 133 Dartmouth street, West Newton. Christmas music was sung by the Lower School chorus, the Glee Clubs.

Sisterhood of Temple Shalom

Highlighting the afternoon was a presentation of a musical skit by the Drama Group of the Sisterhood entitled "Shalom Specific." Mrs. Robert Levitov directed the parody, with Mrs. Harry Shain the accompanying pianist. The players were Mrs. Joel Bloom, Mrs. Gordon Bronson, Mrs. Robert Goldstein, Mrs. Maurice Greenbaum, Mrs. Harry Elson, Mrs. Yale Lasker, Mrs. Manuel Taylor, and Mrs. Carl Wilson. Mrs. Shepard Yesley is the chairman of the Drama Group.

Mrs. Marshall Levin was the hostess of the day, with Mrs. George Hyde presiding. The opening prayer was given by Mrs. Sydney J. Simons.

Men's Club

The Men's Club of Newton Highlands will hold its annual Christmas party for members and their sons and daughters (of all ages), at the Newton Highlands Congregational Church on Tuesday, the 20th of December.

In lieu of the regular dinner meeting, there will be carol singing, starting at 6:30 p.m., refreshments, and a repeat performance by the Great Bourdini, with his famous East Indian act. A group from the Working Boys' Home will be guests for the evening.

Weeks Jr. High P. T. A.

This evening at 8 o'clock in the Weeks' Auditorium there will be a special program presented by the Weeks' Music Department. Planned and directed by Robert Bachelder, Vincent Jerome, and Miss Joan McNeil, the program will emphasize the theme of the brotherhood of man. The Weeks' Chorus, Glee Club, Orchestra, and Brass Ensemble will all participate. The spirit of Christmas and Chanukah will be portrayed by means of tableaux with music, choral works and off-stage narration. There will be also songs expressing the universal religious spirit of the season.

This special program will be the December meeting of the Weeks P.T.A. Mrs. E. Tyler Parkhurst is chairman of the program committee, which also includes Mrs. Richard F. Jarrell, Rev. and Mrs. Russell H. Bishop, Mrs. Charles J. Brown, and Mrs. Francis Kenney.

West Newton W. C. T. U. Meets Monday

The West Newton Woman's Christian Temparance Union will hold the monthly meeting and Christmas party next Monday evening, December 19, at 7:45 p.m. in the home of Mrs. May L. Sweatt, 62 Austin street, Newtonville. Mrs. Hovenden and Mrs. Sweatt will be co-hostesses.

A Look Into The Future

Dr. Wilhelm Starlinger, noted German physician who was held in a Russian political prison for six years, until last year, has written a most absorbing book, dealing with Russia, Russia's future and the motivations that move the Russian people.

Dr. Starlinger talked with many Russians in his six years inside Russian prisons. He had the opportunity to talk with generals, high political officeholders who have been ousted, farmers, industrial workers, and every type of citizen that today makes up Communist Russia. His book is so stimulating it is said to have had a tremendous influence on West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

The most intriguing conclusion drawn by Dr. Starlinger is as follows: The German physician believes that Russia is faced with several problems which cannot be solved simultaneously. First, the Russian people do not have enough food, and the problem of raising the living standards and improving the morale of farmers cannot be solved so long as emphasis is being placed on heavy industry, as it is today.

Second, the Russians cannot provide the aid to Red China, their principal ally, that China needs to expedite progress in raising its living standard and proceeding with an all-out program of industrialization.

Dr. Starlinger believes the only way the Kremlin can prevent serious distractions inside Russia, and stresses in her economy, is to reimpose a completely terroristic reign such as that exercised by the deposed Secret Police leader L. P. Beria. If such a reign of terror is not reimposed, then Russia will have to expand her trade, perhaps use her gold reserves to do this, and lower her armaments and military preparations to help solve the economic and food problems inside Russia.

Dr. Starlinger believes Russia faces one mortal question which will present the United States with a great opportunity. He says Russia cannot aid China as rapidly and as voluminously as the 500,000,000-Chinese-Communist nation desires. Only one country can do this and that is the United States.

Communist China and the United States must eventually reach some sort of an agreement, he says, and that will suddenly and immediately weaken the ties between Russia and China, and pose Russia with the problem of possible discord on both fronts, the West and the East.

Only in Manchuria and northward and northwestward, can China find adequate living area. Eventually, then, Russia and China will face each other in the region of the Amur River.

This region, Dr. Starlinger asserts, will eventually become the most dangerous and critical area in the world. He believes that three great powers will be prominent and dominant some years hence, Russia, China and the United States. The United States will be the strongest of the three, and it is likely, according to Dr. Starlinger, that China will be the second most powerful.

The United States should never refuse to come to an understanding with Communist China, in later days, if that nation can be successfully wooed from the Russian orbit, or even neutralized. Such a development would improve the position of the free world in Europe, on the other side of Russia, immeasurably, since it would prevent Russia with a two-front problem, such as that which has faced Germany for the last 50 years and which has beaten Germany in two World Wars.

Modern Love Songs

Atlhough we hope not to be branded a sour stick-in-the-mud by the B-bop crew, we feel it is now time for us to register an objection to some of the slush which is being peddled to modern youth today in the way of love songs.

The other day we listened to a love song and tried for some minutes to make any kind of sense whatsoever out of the words. Believing that we are of average intelligence, we thought a solution would be forthcoming if we perservered, but, after considerable effort and some mental gyrations, we decided to give up. The words simply made no sense, but were a conglomeration of cherry blue, buttermilk, etc.

The proper attitude to take, in the face of such a wholesale barrage of slush (and we are not making light of true and valuable love songs), is to be resigned to the fact that if someone is smart enough to sell this stuff, people must like it.

There is a parallel in the movies. Although most movie producers leave wide open holes in their plots, clutter up their productions with a big orchestration and much noise and flash, the net result to anyone who has any intelligence is extremely thin, in most cases.

However, the general public must like it (or else they have no choice), for they go to see pictures which are impossible inaccurate, distorted and just plain stupid.

Holidays Are Hazard Days

Turkeys are not the only creatures which experience a drop in life expectancy during the holiday season.

The Christmas-New Year holiday season also is the most hazardous single period of the year for homo sapiens—that's us.

Last year, according to National Safety Council statistics, 515 persons were accidentally killed in two days at Christmas time. Traffic accidents caused 392 of those deaths—fire and miscellaneous accidents, 123.

Over two days at New Year's 362 persons were killed—296 in traffic accidents, 66 in fire and miscellaneous accidents.

This is a total of 877 killed needlessly at what should be the happiest time of the year for everyone.

Year after year the accident toll hits a peak in December. The holiday season coincides with many winter traffic hazards. In many parts of the country streets and highways are dangerously slippery. Fog, rain, snow, sleet and fewer hours of daylight reduce the visibility of both driver and pedestrian.

Family get-togethers impel people to drive long distances regardless of weather. Shopping draws more people onto the streets. And, of course, there is more drinking than at any other time of the year.

It is a season of gaiety, to be sure, but gaiety to be enjoyed only if you resolve to protect yourself from accidents and to "Be Your Brother's Keeper."

RANDOM CLIPPINGS

Mount Joy, Pa., is one community where motorists who leave their cars at parking meters really have it pretty good. The Mount Joy City Council decreed last week that policemen must slip a nickel into the meter for over-parked motorists and leave a pink notice under the windshield wiper. All the motorist has to do to avoid a fine is turn in the ticket with a nickel.

* * * *

Police in Jonesboro, Ark., explained that the reason they arrested Mrs. R. J. Barnholt for drunkeness was that she drove into a service station, dragging a driverless pickup truck caught on the rear bumper of her car and whispered to the attendant. "I wish you'd check that guy behind me. I think he's drunk."

* * * *

Just as auctioneer George Smith shouted, "going once . . . going twice," he began to close a bid at an auction in Dungannon, North Ireland, the floor collapsed, and he dropped out of sight.

Judge John D. Darnell, who sits on juvenile traffic violations in Frankfort, Ky., is experimenting with the idea of having teen-age juries pass judgment on cases involving young drivers. The judge explains that he is not bound to accept the decision reached by the youthful jurors but so far he has done so because they coincided with his own opinions.

* * * *

Something new in the way of political pledges was added when Warren G. Bath of Morris Plains, N. J., campaigning vigorously for the position of county coroner, promised that if he was elected, he would endeavor to have the job abolished.

This advertisement appeared in the classified for-sale column last week in the Memphis Press-Scimitar: "Boxer pups—My husband's $75 dogs for $50 or less; if a man answers, please hang up."

England had so much good weather this year that it caused a decline in its potato crop and a rise in prices. It didn't rain enough.

PEACE AND GOOD WILL

Editor, Newton Graphic:

The King James version of the Gospel of St. Luke, the version most commonly read in all churches since 1601, gives the Christmas Song of the Angels in the words, "Peace on earth, good will to men." In later revisions of the Story by St. Luke we have the angels' announcement in a quite different form, namely, "Peace on earth to men of good will."

See how much alike the two angelic messages are and yet how amazingly different, so different as to shock us! Yet so much alike as to give us the same essential truth about Christmas.

Both versions make peace consist entirely of a good will; both are on a unified platform in declaring that without "Good Will" there is no more possibility of peace on earth than there is of water running uphill. The spiritual law of peace is as unfailing as the scientific law of gravitation, "No good will, no peace." Long before the song of the Christmas Angels an Old Testament prophet gave the same words in another form. "They cry peace, peace when there is no peace," that is when there is no good will.

The difference between the message of the King James version "Peace on earth, good will to men" and the later version, "Peace on earth to men of good will," is this. The older version seems to declare that Christ brought peace to the earth because God had, in some strange manner decided to love mankind instead of hating and punishing mankind. In this old idea there was and is an element of truth, for men will always reflect in their lives the life that they see in the God they worship.

But the newer version, "Peace on earth to men of good will," adds the still more powerful idea that even God himself cannot bring or send "peace on earth" unless men change their own wills from bad will to good will.

The Christmas Message is not that some far off, strange and angry Divinity has relented and repented of his bad attitude toward humanity but that the Spirit of Love, kindness, appreciation, sympathy, cooperation, consideration, understanding, understanding, unselfishness, truth and helpfulness make up the personality of the God whom Jesus called "Our Father"; and that this Spirit of our Father always and eternally calls upon mankind to be motivated by nothing but a good will toward himself and toward all other men and toward their universe.

It cannot be said that the message of a good will which Christ lived and preached was a new doctrine or conception on the earth. The Old Testament is filled with the same teaching, and among so-called heathen religions the philosophy of Buddha in Persia and Socrates in Greece are sufficient to show that "God hath not left himself without a witness in any nation." Nevertheless, it is the Christmas Good Will that has prevailed in history because it welcomes all other expressions of faith into the full chorus of harmony and cooperation that dwells in the soul of man.

If Christmas 1955 is to be true to itself it will tell us more strongly than ever that willpower is the only real dynamic of peace, and that a Good Will alone can beat back the destructive forces of hate and destruction. The modern world cannot be saved by the unity of inventions and science, as helpful as these are. We can be saved only by the higher unbreakable unity of a Good Spirit or a Good Will.

HE IS ELIGIBLE

Editor, Newton Graphic:

Born of parents, (who were citizens of the United States) on the soil of France, Christian Herter, is the subject of controversy as to natural born wording of our United States Constitution.

"Who knows of a better soil to produce a son, capable and worthy of occupying the White House, in the event that our President decides that he will not seek re-election?"

General George Washington did not question the citizenship of the Marquis de Lafayette, to whom we owe so much.

This was the land that gave us Lafayette, at a most critical time when General George Washington with his back to the wall, the picture and outlook most black and hopelessly grim.

True, Christian Herter was born in Paris, France, to United States citizens, and his birth was registered with the proper United States authorities at that time." "Here is indeed good blood and soil for nativity".

"Who can name another nation who came over to Washington's side, when he was badly in new of true allies?"

"Lafayette was not United States "Natural Born".

"Right", we must govern ourselves as our constitution decrees. It is truly good, as the past decades and history has shown. Here and now we have a condition, a situation, a technicality, a question. A very able man of fine character who well knows that this attribute, is an important and major part of our political system of government; who is at the present time, chief executive of the cradle state of this great nation, is confronted with the question of "Natural Born".

Let us then be logical, reasonable and consistent. A recorded, proven servant, holding the highest elective office of our commonwealth, fairly chosen to be its governor; one forty-eighth part of this (Democracy Union). He can be Governor, although born on foreign soil, yet there is a question as to the Presidency. "He can be a part, but not the whole". "If he is good enough to be Governor, then he should be good enough to be President".

George Washington was born in America, in the state of Virginia in 1732. "We most certainly do realize, that Virginia at that time was British territory, governed, controlled, and under the British flag. We could say that, "The Natural Born question, therefore applies to George Washington. "He was British born before we became the United States". He therefore was a "Natural Born" citizen of England. And he was chosen as our very first President.

Christian Herter was born in an environment and atmosphere of art, to artist parents, (naturalized United States citizens), living in Paris in the days when the glory of France was true art, culture, science, statesmanship, political science and very high in the measure of current and classical literature.

If Washington and Lafayette were here now, they might say: "If the blood and soil of France was good enough at the time of our revolution, let it now as then, mingle and blend through Christian Herter.

Abraham Lincoln, a mental giant, six foot four inches tall, born in a log cabin down to the raw soil, "This was natural born".

Christian Herter, another mental giant, six foot four inches tall, born in Paris, France, and very much mentioned for the high political office, "The Presidency".

Natural born, this is the sixty-four thousand dollar question of eligibility on the grounds of constitutional technicalities, left to the people, political science experts, and possibly the United States Supreme Court to decide.

"May they all well remember France and Lafayette". "May they thank the Almighty that they were all (natural born) here".

Stuttgart, Germany

And, on the way home that first evening, while passing ruin after ruin in a modern city that was once proud and beautiful, I could understand the hate seen in the eyes of those Germans earlier. Truly, the utter futility of a modern war dawned upon me as it has dawned upon millions of others A war that destroys human beings without regard to or for any humane standards, — piling into rubble the cherished stones that once were a proud and ancient church. After only eight short years it was easy to forget the responsible part that even civilians play in a modern war, — production, etc., and although one gets used to the ruins by being near them every day, there is still a profound sorrow that is felt by many of us here in Germany as we realize how so few men have led a whole nation to such utter destruction.

THE NEXT DAY I was on my way to Stuttgart. The train stopped off at Heidelberg, which was such a joy to see. Heidelberg is situated in a valley, right at the foot of the beautiful mountains. This city escaped damage during the war.

At Stuttgart I was met by the principal of the school where I would teach for the coming year. His name is Mr Gyer, and after looking over the school, he suggested that I accompany him to Heidelberg for a regional meeting of administrators, teachers, and Army personnel connected with DSD (Dependents Schools Detachment). Heidelberg is about 60 miles from Stuttgart. Our trip took three hours and was, for the most part, on the autobahn. Mrs. Gyer does not like to drive fast, and is a decided influence upon her husband.

IT WAS WHILE at Heidelberg that I got my first view of the work of communists. Upon one of the white signs lining the company street, WITHIN the military post, drawn in black crayon were the words AMI GO HOME. This gave me rather a start, but here Germans are used in every conceivable job, — nearly all trucks and buses are manned by Germans, PX personnel, dining help, secretaries, etc., are German. I'm sure that screening is done, but for such a volume of jobs to be filled, it's not surprising that there are communists among them, though I hope their number is small.

The next few days, following the return to Stuttgart, (the meetings at Heidelberg lasted two days), were spent getting the school ready for use, and planning for Ruth to join me. In making arrangements for this, I was careful to let everyone in civilian personnel here at the post know about her coming. As a result, things went very smoothly when she did arrive. Often wives are brought over without letting these people know about it, and as a result, bad feeling is often caused. There are a number of things that the Army can withhold in these circumstances which makes life here much less pleasant—PX cards, bus passes, etc., just to mention a couple.

..BEFORE GOING on in regard to planning for Ruth to join me, let me comment upon the living conditions here in Germany. The Americans here have the best of everything, — the best living quarters in the town are used for billets, as are the best hotels. There are about three officers' clubs where I eat. The food is excellent. The service is of the best, — in the fine old European custom which maintains that waitering is one of the oldest and finest of professions. As an example of price, breakfast costs 30 cents, lunch 25 cents, and supper from 75 cents to $2.25 (filet mignon). There is an American movie theater here in Stuttgart, and admission is 25 cents. In German restaurants you can buy full dinners from one DM to 5 or 6, or more. All things that we buy at the PX are tax free, but are not much cheaper than at home because of their transportation from the States. We spend most of our evenings at the nicest German eating place, where the orchestra is super, and the food grand. We also go to the officers' clubs where there is dancing every evening. These clubs would put many American night clubs to shame.

I DECIDED, after being here a few days, that there was no reason for Ruth not to be here also. I applied at PAA for passage, and waited 51 hours without hearing anything about the reservation, — all day Monday, Tuesday, and until noon on Wednesday. At noon, I went over to KLM, the Dutch Airlines, and within five hours they had contacted Ruth in the States, booked her passage, and sent me a confirmation. I lost a lot of respect for PAA through this venture, and told them so in a letter the other day.

I went out to the airport to meet Ruth and got there three hours ahead of time, just in case her plane was early, like ours had been. Her plane was an hour late instead, but I didn't mind waiting.

Ruth was introduced to Mr. Gyer, who will use her as a substitute. This makes it possible for her to be at school with me every day although she does not teach every day. This is nice in two ways, besides the pleasantness of having her nearby. First, she can eat with me, (and the 750 children of our school) and she is nearby in case of an emergency. To my way of thinking, it is important for Ruth to be within ear-shot of me as long as she does not have an AGO card. An AGO card is the open sesame etc. of the U. S. Army in Europe. It indicates that you are an important person to the U. S. This is particularly important in regard to evacuation. I do not think I would be violating security by saying that we all have instructions as to what to do if the Russians start for the Channel. Until Ruth gets her card, and it looks as if she may get one in a day or so as a substitute teacher, I want her to be nearby so that I can take care of her in the event of an emergency.

They figured that he had made a mistake in planning such an event for this time of year, and all the logic and reasoning was on their side. But the turnout in the main ballroom of the Hotel Somerset on Monday night made it plain that McDonough had not overestimated his pulling power.

Not only did the affair add to his political prestige and stature, but it gave him a campaign fund of close to $80,000 with which to finance the start of his gubernatorial drive. While that is not a tremendous sum when measured against the expense of present-day campaigning, neither is it an amount to be brushed off lightly.

A great cloud of doubt hangs over the Democratic picture in Massachusetts at this moment.

No one actually knows, for example, whether the Democrats will hold a State convention next June to block out a State ticket or leave it to the candidates to fight out their battles in next September's primary.

Neither can anyone foretell now with any assurances as to who will challenge McDonough for the right to carry the Democratic gubernatorial banner next autumn.

Former State Treasurer Foster Furcolo obviously is warming up to step into the contest shortly after the turn of the year. Furcolo made a good showing against Senator Leverett Saltonstall last year and has potent strength in Western Massachusetts.

The bulk of the vote cast in a Democratic primary, however, is in Greater Boston, and McDonough would be favored over Furcolo in a clash for their party's nomination.

Another candidate being discussed as a gubernatorial possibility is former State Auditor Thomas H. Buckley of Abington who made a bid for the same nomination at the 1954 convention but did not make an impressive showing.

Potentially, the strongest Democratic challenger who might step out against McDonough is District Attorney Garrett H. Byrne, but there is conflicting opinion even among persons close to Byrne as to whether he is likely to run. If Byrne remains out of the fight, McDonough will be in a strong position.

A number of "Ifs" creep into any discussion of the Republican picture, and they center on President Eisenhower and Governor Herter.

Oen thing that can definitely be reported is that the GOP will hold a State convention next June to endorse a ticket for the 1956 election. Most political observers believe that some advantage will accrue to the Republicans, if they stage a convention and the Democrats do not.

It would mean that the GOP probably would be in a position to map out a better balanced ticket than the Democrats and that the Republicans would resolve their intra-party contests much earlier than with the Democrats.

A political fight in June is much more likely to be forgotten by November than is one waged in September.

Republican Picture Not Clear at Present

This is the gubernatorial situation on the Republican side:

Governor Herter almost certainly will not be a candidate for reelection, if President Eisenhower does not run next year. The only circumstances under which Herter would stand for another term would be if Eisenhower consents to be a candidate in 1956 and urges Herter to head the ticket here in order to strengthen the GOP in Massachusetts.

Lieutenant Governor Sumner G. Whittier, Republican House Leader Charles Gibbons, State Senate President Richard I. Furbush and possibly Congressman Laurence Curtis would be the candidates at the State convention in June for the GOP nomination, if Herter decides to step out.

Whittier would be the favorite to emerge the victor from such a conflict. It might, however, prove much closer than political experts now believe.

This observer's guess would be that no one could get a majority of the votes on the first ballot, if a four-cornered battle of that nature developed.

The convention presumably would adopt a rule requiring that the candidate who finished last on each ballot would be dropped from the race. That would prevent a prolonged deadlock, and the outcome of the fight then might depend on where the losing aspirants threw their strength.

It is very unusual for a gubernatorial campaign to be getting underway before Christmas. But McDonough is determined to get the jump on the rest of the field, and his activity undoubtedly will speed up the entire political time table.

Parents, Politicians Interfere in Schools

There is no question but that the discipline in public schools is not nearly as strong as it was a year ago.

That is true in Massachusetts, with a very few notable exceptions, and it is also the case in most other sections of the United States.

One dominant reason for this situation is that politicians have interfered too frequently in school and classroom discipline after parents have complained to them.

The pattern has been pretty much the same, particularly in the larger cities, and the ones basically at fault have been a minority of parents who assumed their sons and daughters could do no wrong.

When a teacher administered well deserved punishment to an erring pupil, too many parents, instead of backing up the teacher, have gone running to some politician to complain about the uncompromising and unreasonable attitude of the stone-hearted educator presiding over a classroom.

The politico, anxious to get votes, has frequently injected himself into the picture, when he should have remained out of it. The teacher invariably found himself in an embarrassing situation and even on the defensive for doing what she was supposed to do, and the next time a pupil was guilty of an infraction which called for punishment she looked the other way.

That problem has grown to serious proportions in some States.

Now the New Jersey Bar Association has suggested that the Legislature in that State enact a law formally granting school teachers the right to inflict corporal punishment on unruly pupils.

NASSAU HONEYMOON FOR MR. BROCKINGTON AND BRIDE

At a double ring ceremony, performed by the Rev. William E. Soule in Christ Church, Oxford, Connecticut, last Saturday afternoon, Miss Genevieve Twitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stiles B. Twitchell of Quaker Farms, Oxford, Connecticut, became the bride of Mr. Bruce Oakes Brockington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brockington of Newton Highlands. The bride's father gave her in marriage and a reception followed at the home of her parents.

Heirloom point applique lace trimmed the neckline of the bride's ivory silk gown and matched the lace mitts and veil which had been worn by her mother. Fashioned with a high bateau neckline, long sleeves, and fitted bodice, the gown had a multi-tiered full skirt which ended in a chapel length train. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

The two honor attendants were Mrs. Harry F. Sweitzer, cousin of the bride from Bristol, Conn., who served as matron of honor, and Miss Ann H Rademacher of Hamden, Connecticut, maid of honor. They were both gowned in red velveteen ballerina gowns having full skirts and scoop necklines. With their matching hats they carried cascade bouquets of white pompoms. Identically gowned were the bridesmaids, Miss Sue Bovington and Miss Shirley Hearne, both from Cleveland, Ohio, and college classmates of the bride.

The bridegroom's brother, Phillip H. Brockington of Newton Highlands, was best man. Ushers included Deene Clarke of Providence, Rhode Island; Robert Spurdle of Philadelphia; Stiles Twitchell, brother of the bride, from Cleveland and John Walker, both of Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. Brockington is a graduate of Wheaton College and her husband was graduated from the Wharton School of Finance, University of Pennsylvania. The couple will be at home at 4919 Geraldine road, Cleveland, Ohio, after January 1, 1956.

MISS ANNE HARDING IS BRIDE OF ROBERT W. DOYLE

Wearing a white satin gown fashioned with high neckline and pleated hip-line skirt terminating in a full cathedral train, Miss Anne Harding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Harding of Newton Highland, also wore a crown made of lace from her grandmother's wedding gown, to hold her full-length veil in place for her recent marriage to Mr. Robert William Doyle.

The wedding took place November 23 in St. Joachim's Church, Rockport, where Father Whelan officiated at the six o'clock candlelight ceremony. The bride's father gave her in marriage and a reception was given in the Woodland Golf Club, in Auburndale, decorated for the occasion with huge copper bowls filled with white and pale pink chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Eliot F. Richardson of Newton Centre, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a gown of seafoam green chiffon over taffeta with satin cumberbund. Matching chrysanthemums in shades of pink made up her bouquet and head band. The flower girl was Miss Janet Richardson, niece of the bride. With her pale pink taffeta dress, embroidered with gold, she carried a basket of sweetheart roses to match those in her hair.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Doyle of Rockport, had Allen MacLean, also of Rockport, for his best man.

The couple will motor through New York state and New Jersey on their wedding trip and then take up residence in Rockport.

Christmas Parties, Lead to Accidents, Says Registrar

Registrar of Motor Vehicles Rudolph F. King, Chairman of the Massachusetts Highway Safety Committee, today appealed to all highway users, whether motorist or pedestrian, to give highway safety during the month of December greater personl attention than ever before.

"Records at the Registry of Motor Vehicles show conclusively that traffic conditions in December, particularly during the Christmas holiday period, are unusually hazardou and constitute a direct challenge to all," said the Registrar.

"Each year in this month, the unwise use of intoxicating beverages at so-called Christmas Parties — which are already being planned by some companies — is a primary cause for most of the tragic highway deaths reported. It is my purpose to remind committees in charge of these Christmas office parties and the hosts at Christmas home parties that they are responsible for the safe transportation home of their drinking guests. This responsibility is clear and is one which cannot be shirked.

"Motorists should understand that enforcement agencies in the Commonwealth neither sanction nor approve the 'one-for-the-road' propaganda being circulated and are warned that enforcement officers will prosecute any person found driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Motorists convicted of this serious violation will lose their licenses and will also be assessed 12 points," stated Registrar King.

Christmas Musicale At Newtonville Woman's Club

Daughters Karen and Editha, sopranos ,Mrs. Reynolds and John Jr., accompanists, assist Mr. Reynolds. Mr. Reynolds won the 1953 "Musical Horizons" voice award given jointly by the Rhode Island Federation of Music Clubs and radio station WRJB and is continuing his musical education. He is soloist in a large Providence church, director of the Student Nurses Glee Club of the Roger Williams General Hospital and an active member of the University Glee Club of Providence.

The musicale consists of tenor solos, soprano solos and duets, occasionally a song in costume by John Jr. and a reading by the younger daughter. The appealing simplicity of their Christmas Musicale has delighted countless audiences.

Mrs. Frank M. Simmons will preside at the Business meeting at 2:15 p.m. which will be preceded by coffee in the social hall. Mrs. Hugh A. McCrae will be hostess for the day assisted by Mesdames John F. Farrington, Joseph L. Sevigny, Alexander A. Fox, and Robert A. Gaskell. Pourers will be Mrs. Walter F. Burt and Mrs. Alfred A. Alexander.

Janet Stuart Guild

A Christmas tea for members and friends of the Janet Stuart Guild will take place on Thursday afternoon, December 15, at two o'clock in the Alumnae Lounge of Stuart House, Newton College of the Sacred Heart. Mrs. Philip Stuart of Newton will be the chairman.

The highlight of the afternoon will be an informative talk by Reverend Paul V. Harrington.

At the gift table will be Mrs. William J. Galvin, Mrs. William Arthur Reilly and Mrs. James V. Whalen who will offer many choice articles for sale including china and glass. The proceeds will benefit the Building Fund of the college.

Dartmouth Women's Club

The December meeting of the Dartmouth Women's Club promises to be a delightful one. It will be held today at 2 p.m. at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum, Fenway Court, Boston. There will be a tour of the Museum, and a program of Christmas music. Mrs. Hildreth Auer, president, with Mrs. Frank Ford Hill, Mrs. Percy E. Gleason, Mrs. Allen L Priddy and Mrs. Wesley A. McSorley, Jr., pouring.

Indoor Sports International

Fred Rosene, President of the Chapter, extended greetings to everyone and introduced the Hi-Tones, a sophomore quartet from Newton High School consisting of Claudette Sostilio, Charlotte Marden, Virginia McLaughlan, and Judy Grotesma. These adorable girls, who sing as pretty as they look, offered several selections. Chris Marsh of Newton, accompanied by Joan Lewis, sang in a pleasant baritone. Joan played one of the Chopin selections. James Remley, Director of Musical Education for the Newton Public Schools and conductor of this troupe, led community singing of Christmas Carols.

Mr. C. Evan Johnson, Recreation Commissioner of the City of Newton who made the beautiful Childs Center available to the Newton-Wellesley Chapter for its meetings and parties, extended a warm welcome to all.

Eddie Lyons, a singer, impresario and master of ceremonies, presented his troupe of talented youngsters in over an hour of exceptionally fine entertainment The performers were Margie Lynch of Everett, a female Johnny Ray; Kevin Shannon of Brignton, a singer and dancer; Linda Wainwright of East Boston, singer, dancer and acrobat; Johnnie Naso of East Boston, song stylist; Kathy Spartarlino of North Cambridge songs and toe ballet; Leroy Prophet Trio of Waltham, Western songs and tap dancing; Francis Gentile of Newton, singing accordionist; Beverly Sarazen of North Cambridge, acrobat, and smiling Dot Rogers who accompanied the entire show.

Santa Claus paid a surprise visit bringing gifts for all present. The six other Indoor Sport Chapters in this district were well represented by many of their members and friends.

Delicious ice cream, given by the Rotary Club of Newton and a buffet made and served by members and friends of the Newton-Wellesley Chapter was enjoyed and a wonderful time was had by all.

Educ. Garden Club Of West Newton

The Educational Garden Club, of West Newton, will hold its annual Christmas party Monday, December 19, at 1 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Werner Nelson, 14 Westview terrace, West Newton. Mrs. Otto O. ## Newton Visiting Nurse Ass'n.

The regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Newton Visiting Nurse Association was held at the Association's headquarters on Dec. 12.

Mrs. Matt B. Jones Jr., president, conducted the meeting with the reports from the secretary and the treasurer being accepted and placed on file.

Miss Katherine MacDonald, Executive Director, reported on the work for November. A total of 327 patients were served amounting to 1244 visits. Ten Well Baby Conferences were held, with an attendance of 67 — the Accumulative Registration is 394.

The program of the morning was a panel discussion on "The Comfort Basket." Board members, Mrs. Leo Barry and Mrs. Harold Pillsbury and Mrs. Katherine MacDonald, Miss Patricia Storey, Mrs. Andrea de-Mars, nurse personnel, conducted a very informative discussion and revealed many interesting facts about the Comfort Fund. This fund, which is completely financed by the board members is about 30 years old.

The 20 comfort baskets which are to be delivered this year, will contain such "goodies" as candy, fruit, cheese, canned foods, nuts, etc. The articles are not basic needs, but rather extras which help to brighten the holidays of many shut-ins, and bring many hours of speculative pleasure, as each gaily wrapped package is opened.

Hospital Aid Assn.

The regular December meeting of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital Aid Association, Inc. was held Tuesday morning, December 13, at Allen Riddle Hall at the Hospital at 10:30 a.m.

Mrs. Worthing L. West, first vice-president, presided in the absence of Mrs. Paul T. Babson, president. Coffee hostesses for the morning were Mrs. Arthur W. Davis and Mrs. William B. Plumer.

Mrs. Herbert G. Dunphy reported that the final figures on the series of bridge parties, held throughout Newton and Wellesley on October 26, showed a net of $4218.85, which compared favorably with last year's receipts.

Miss Malda Flanders, Hospital Aid treasurer, presented Miss Myrtice Fuller, R.N., Director of the School of Nursing, with a check of $1500 for new furnishings for the Nurses Recreation Room, and a check for $25 for the Annual Children's Christmas party. The balance of the money raised by the bridge parties will be used to purchase new lightweight fracture frames for the Hospital, and to provide planting and landscaping for the new parking lot, which was a gift of the Hospital Aid.

Flowering dogwood, forsythia, and honeysuckle, as well as several kinds of yew will lend attractiveness to the area.

The Glee Club of the School of Nursing presented a program of Christmas carols.

Hold Annual Community Carol Service Sunday Afternoon

"How the Christ-Child Got His Birthday," a new Christmas Festival pageant, will have its first local presentation at the First Unitarian Church in Newton at the annual Community Carol Service, to be held at 4:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, December 18, with senior, junior and primary choirs all participating. The public is cordially invited.

Written by the Rev. William Hammond, formerly of Kingston and Sherborn, now minister at the Grosse Point, Michigan, Unitarian Church, this Christmas Festival Service has been made available through the Division of Education, Council of Liberal Churches (Universalist-Unitarian).

Mrs. Ernest W. Kuebler, wife of Dr. Kuebler, director of the division of education, CLC, will be narrator as well as director.

The Rev. John Ogden Fisher will represent the "Voice from the Long Ago." Speaking parts will also be taken by Roger Adler as the First Herald and by John Demming as the Second Herald.

A beautiful creche, loaned by William R. Mattson, of Newtonville, will be set up in the chancel during the pageant, narration of which will be interspersed with special Christmas music and traditional carols The large cast, members of the West Newton Unitarian Church School, includes:

Sun Disc Bearer, Cheryl Kuebler.

Manger Scene Bearers: Lois Covner, Richard Daniels, Fred Fisher Jr., Linda Laughland, Susan Nalon, Janet Peterson, Pony Spalding.

Menorah Lamp Bearer, Thomas Salzer.

Yule Log: Samuel Hightower, Emily Taplin.

Book of Carols, Karen Beisel.

Wrapped Present, Ivy Nesson.

Santa Claus, Richard Skinner.

Mrs. Dorothy Stallworth Fisher will preside at the organ console. Warren S. Freeman will direct the Senior Choir and Mrs. Elizabeth T. Sweetser will direct both the primary and junior choirs.

Harry B. Taplin, assistant to the minister and director of the church school, will be co-ordinator. Pageant assistants include Mrs. Albert R. Beisel Jr., Mrs. Arthur Laughland and Mrs. Arnold Peterson.

Mrs. Charles H. Abrams Jr. is lending costumes from her collection and Anthony Davis is lending a Santa Claus figure. Both the creche and the artistically carved figures to be used in this Christmas Festival Service have been loaned by Alderman William R. Mattson, a long-time member of the parish.

Santa Claus will visit the annual church school Christmas party to be held from 4 to 5:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 20, at the West Newton Unitarian parish house, to receive gifts of toys, mittens or socks, which will be distributed to other children through the Children's Mission to Children and the Unitarian Service Committee. For the children of the First Unitarian Society in Newton, there will be candy and ice cream.

David Holmes, well-known magician, will provide entertainment. Dr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Kuebler will be in charge of games and Mrs. Elizabeth T. Sweetser, director of the primary and junior choirs, will lead carol singing. Mrs. Howard B Samberg and her committee will be in charge of refreshments. The Couples Club will decorate the big Christmas tree, under which the children will place their gifts for needier youngsters.

Parents are invited to attend this Tuesday afternoon Christmas party with the children of the primary, lower and upper school.

How Safe Is Your Basement?

The "Nerve Center" of every home is the basement. It is also the spot where one-third of the home fires originate. Such fires are often very difficult for firemen to fight and control, especially if there are stacks of combustible rubbish for the flames to feed on.

If your basement was to be inspected by the fire department, do you know what they would look for?

First they will look to see whether there are piles of waste papers, oily rags and rags that have been used to wipe up paint and discarded furniture. If so, these should be discarded or removed from the building. Fire wood should be placed neatly in piles or placed in a bin so that it will be kept separate from all waste papers and rags which could cause spontaneous heating.

If you were using a solid fuel your ash barrel will be examined. It should be metal —putting hot ashes against wood has caused many fires. Then the inspector will turn his attention to the furnace or boiler and to the condition of the smoke pipes and their nearness to the ceiling and combustible materials. Charring of wood, blistering of paint or wood that is hot when you hold your hand against it, are signs that the temperature in that area is dangerously high. Poorly supported and corroded smoke pipes also present a fire hazard—and are a serious threat to your life by allowing toxic fumes to enter the air of the home.

Your gas appliances will be inspected to be sure there are no conditions which might cause gas leaks or explosions. If you have an oil burner, the installation, supply tank and piping will be checked for workmanship and leaks.

Your chimney will get a going over from the inside. Wooden beams extending into chimney walls have started many fires. Unused chimney openings should be sealed with brick or with tight fitting metal stops. There should be a cleanout door at the base of the chimney, to be used to clean out the soot which can cause a chimney fire.

If there are work rooms in the basement, they will get their share of attention, to be sure there are not shavings on work benches and that paint, varnish, oils and turpentine are correctly stored. Electrical appliances and the circuiting for them must be also found safe.

Electrical distribution channels and fuses are usually installed in the basement and they will be inspected for proper fusing. In most cases a 15 ampere fuse should be used.

Winding up the inspection tour they will check to see that the space at the bottom of wall studs are tightly fire stopped to prevent a basement fire from spreading upward into the walls and upper floors.

Lastly, for their own convenience, they will note the location of the exits from your basement. They would store that information away for future reference, in case that their next call to your home is in answer to the fire alarm.

Now is the correct time, while house cleaning season is in progress, to clean the basement of all unnecessary materials especially those that can cause a fire or help it to spread.

Use this article to conduct your own inspection tour and find out for yourself how your home stacks up!

The Spirit Of Christmas

With Good wishes a-plenty we shower your way:
May all men be happy on Christmas Day.
Old folks and young folks, the rich and the poor
Answer the knock of Good Cheer at your door.
His jolly face beams as with mirth running o'er
Friend's hand clasps friend's hand as never before.
Good Cheer's heart is as fire that sends out a flame
To consume all old feuds of whatever name
Their ugly head's reared on a less happy day:
"Forget it, forget it"; they now seem to say.
'Tis the Feast Day of Giving, the bells ring out clear.

TELE-VIEWING THE NEWS

By LEE LOUMOS

Songbird Polly Bergen tells friends she's creating a new TV series, Broadway Knights. It centers around two guys and a gal—Polly, naturally—and young people in show business. Polly meanwhile has signed for more appearances with Perry Como on the singer's popular Saturday night variety hour.

Lloyd Nolan has signed with Desilu Productions (headed by Desi Arnaz and Lucille Ball) to star in a new series, "Father Duffy of Hell's Kitchen." Nolan will do a pilot as soon as he finishes a movie he's doing with Alan Ladd. In the TV series he'll have the role of a priest whose parish is the tough and teeming 10th Ave. of Hell's Kitchen in New York City.

Richard Boone, the TV Medic, is going to a doctor these days . . for burns on his scalp. He had to have his hair dyed jet black for a recent role in "Wuthering Heights" on NBC's Matinee series. back to its original brown, Boone's scalp reacted and his hair came out about sixteen shades of red. his type casting in Medic with Boone is trying to escape from roles on Matinee, Climax and other shows.

Would you like to see a change for the better when you look at your TV screen? Then step up to finer SYLVANIA TV for 1956 . . . just one of the many models for pre-Christmas installation at

Community Service Club

The Community Service Club of West Newton will hold its meeting next Wednesday, at the Second Church of Newton, West Newton.

Miss Alice Fredey, comedienne and character actress, who prepared for her career at the Bishop-Lee School of Boston and with the Boston Stock Company where she portrayed every type character, and Blair Benner, baritone, who is currently baritone soloist and choir director in the Congregational Church of Roslindale, will combine to present a Christmas program.

Mrs. S. Osten Anderson and Mrs. Robert H. Perkins will be co-chairman of the Dessert-Coffee Hour at 1 p.m. The President, Mrs. Alfred O. Weaver, will conduct the Business Meeting at 2 p.m.

The Blind Circle of Newton will be guests of the Club at this meeting.

First Church Benevolent Soc.

The Women's Benevolent Society of First Church (Congregational) in Newton Centre held its all-day monthly meeting yesterday at which time a program of living Christmas cards was presented. Those who arranged the program were Mesdames Peter F. Coogan, Chairman, James R. Cobb, Nathanel M. Guptill, and Clarendon L. Southmayd. The scenes depicted were "A Traditional Card," "A Modern Card," "Family Photographs," "Home for the Holidays," "Merry Christmas, Neighbor," "Come Little Children," and "Madonna." Those taking part in the Christmas cards were Mrs. William J. McPhee and her daughters Peggy, Carol, and Cathy; Mrs. John Metz; Mrs. John Higley and her children Joanna, Robert, John, David, and Larry; Mrs. Nathanel M. Guptill; Mrs. Charles Roth and children Debbie and Charles; and Mrs. Martin Arslanian. There was an off-stage choir consisting of Mesdames Ross L. Trenholm, James R. Cobb, and William A. Meissner, with Mrs. Edwin M. Scribner assisting at the piano.

Spotlight News Of Weeks Jr. High School

Weeks Jr. High School supports a sixteen-year-old war child in Greece. Angeliki Hondronicola lives with her mother, aunt, and three brothers, whose ages range from eleven to twenty. The six of them live in a shack they built themselves. They were given a home by the Reconstruction Service, but they rent this out because they need the money.

Weeks adopted Angeliki through the Foster Parent Association in 1946. The Council treasury sends her $180 a year plus presents on various holidays. The school feels very proud to be associated with the Foster Parent Association as it is the only junior high school in the country having a foster child.

The football record for the Varsity this year was 1 win, 3 losses; for the J.V., 1 win, 2 losses.

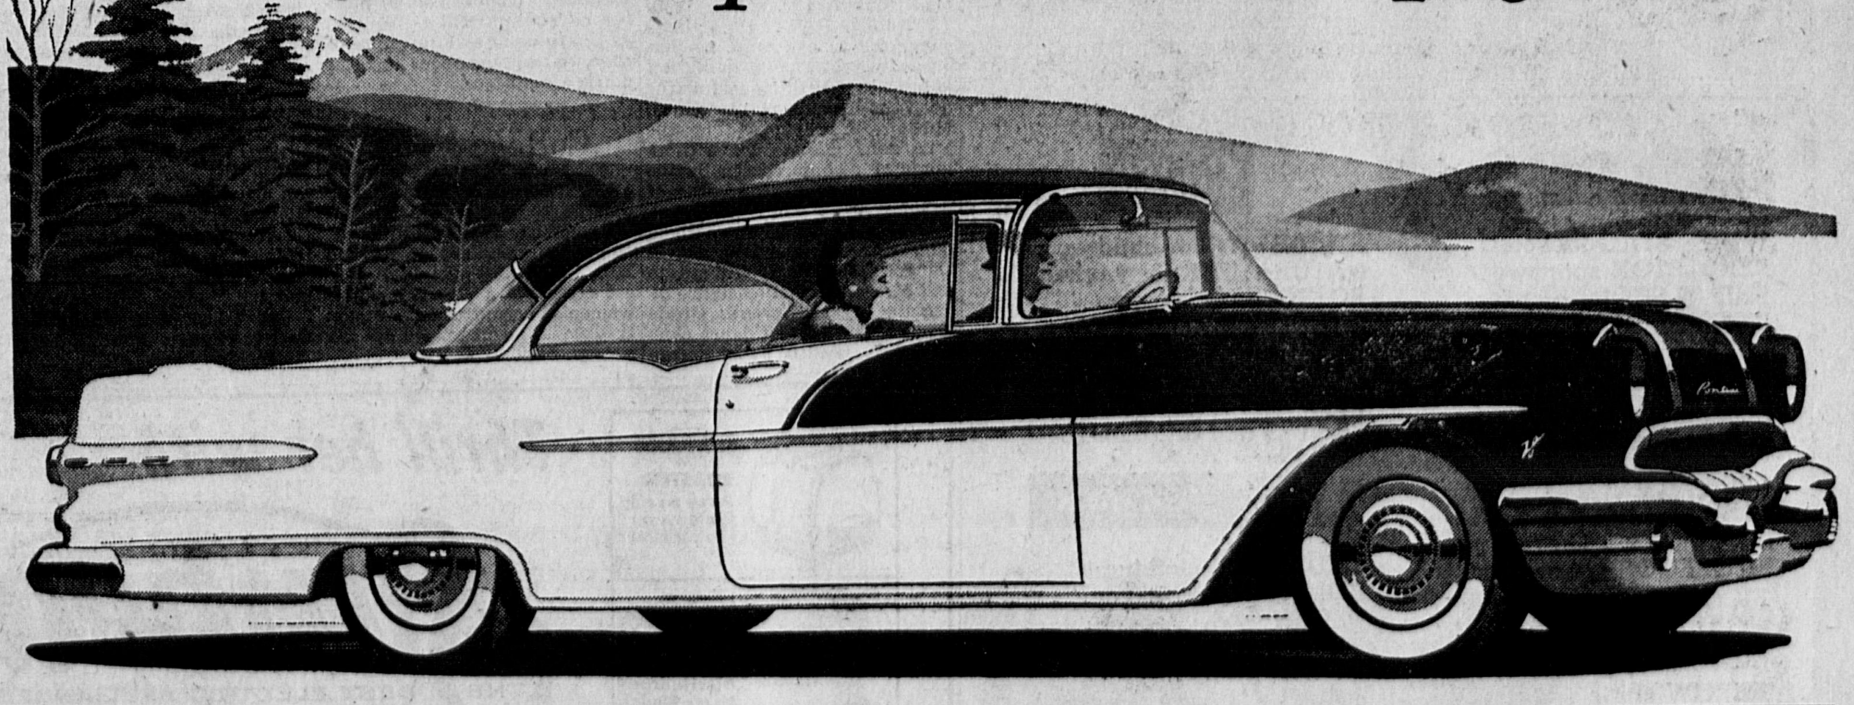
The car says "GO" and the price won't stop you!



That long and lovely creation shown in action above—glamorous with smartly distinctive car-of-the-future styling and packed with all the terrific "go" suggested by its fleet and flowing lines—is actually a member of Pontiac's lowest-priced series, the value-setting 860 line. And here's what this information means to you!

Whatever your new-car plans for '56, even if you're shopping at the bottom of the price scale—this big and beautiful mile-shrinker can be yours!

You can now look forward to luxuriating in the gracious comfort and solid roadability made possible by a man-sized 122" wheelbase—just about as long as they come!

You can now expect to enjoy blazing Strato-Streak performance from the most modern and efficient V-8 engine that ever powered a car.

You can plan on it, definitely, because there's not a thing to stop you—as the figure on the price tag plainly shows.

For instance, your favorite body style in the 860 series carries a price within a whisper of the cost of the smaller, lighter-powered lowest-priced cars! And that's just the start.

We're trading right now to set an all-time record for December. And so when you've heard our deal you may very well discover that there's virtually no difference in price at all!

Come in and confirm that the 860 is the easiest car to want and to buy that ever came your way.

IT'S A FACT—YOU CAN HAVE ALL OF PONTIAC'S BIG-CAR GLAMOUR AND GO FOR LESS THAN THE PRICE OF 44 MODELS OF THE "LOW-PRICED THREE."

Warren Jr. High Snowflake Dance

WARREN WAYS

A Snowflake Dance opens the winter season for the Seventh Graders at the Warren Junior High School. The dance will be held tomorrow evening, from 7:30 to 9:30 P.M. at the gymnasium. All tickets must be purchased while school is in session as no tickets will be sold at the door the evening of the dance. Music will be supplied by the PTA donated Juke Box with albums of records chosen by the dance committee. A number of dancing prizes will be awarded.

General Chairmen of all school dances are Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Dangel. Mrs. Harry Thompson and Mrs. Robert Mitchell are directors of the Seventh Grade Dances. The student dance committee is headed by chaimran Robert Johnson, with Marjorie Loewenberg in charge of publicity. Poster and decorating committee are Dorothy Derick, Susan Kenney Carol DeRusso, Gail Winkley. Kenneth Clark and Webb Hull compose the ticket committee. James Vaccaro, assisted by Van Thompson and Bob Dangel make up the refreshment committee. A number of parents will be present as chaperones and to offer assistance to members of the dance committees.

College Notes

The Kalamazoo College Christmas Carol Service will be held this evening. Miss Judith Vogel, Freshman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Vogel of 31 Forest street, is a member of the women's chorus for this annual traditional event of the holiday season.

RAYMOND C. WASS, president of Lasell Junior College, Auburndale, is congratulated on his election to the presidency of the New England Junior College Council by retiring president Mrs. Gladys Beckett Jones of the Garland School, Boston. Occasion was the council's 26th annual meeting held at the Statler on Dec. 10.

Temple Emanuel Golden Age Club

Three years ago a Golden Age Club was formed in Temple Emanuel in Newton. Each Tuesday afternoon you can find these Golden Agers busily employed in the Vestry of the Temple.

They are now engaged in a very special service project for the Beth Israel Hospital Supply Department. Golden Agers prepare bandages and perform other necessary services that will expedite the work of the doctors and nurses at the hospital. They are also knitting squares to make afghans for the children of Israel.

Dr. Albert I. Gordon, Rabbi of Temple Emanuel and Mrs. Albert I. Gordon are very close to this group. Mrs. Harry Veaner, chairman; Mrs. Max Kramer, vice-chairman; head a devoted committee of workers as follows: Mmes. Henry Fine, Leonard Kabler, Nathan Rosenthal, Morris Rubin, Shirley Segal, Meyer Simmons, Morris Spelfogel, Maurice Tessler, and Benjamin Waldman. Chester Rubin, Youth Activities Director of Temple Emanuel, serves as advisor to the group. Interesting talks, movies, musical programs and special holiday celebrations included in the weekly programs.

It is a thrilling sight and privilege to watch the Golden Agers enjoy and participate in their weekly programs which not only gives them pleasure but adds years of happiness to their lives.

Lydia P. Whiting Chapter D. A. R.

A Yuletide program has been arranged for Monday at Workshop, Newton Highlands, where the Lydia Partridge Whiting Chapter, D.A.R. will be host to the boys of Hillside School, Marlborough, one of the D.A.R. sponsored schools.

A business meeting of the chapter will be held at 1:45 preceding the party. Contrary to the usual custom of having the Hillside students entertain the Chapter, a program of songs for their entertainment will be given by a group of boys from Lexington.

Coffee hostesses will be Mrs. Carl M. Penny, Mrs. Helen A. Miller, Mrs. Charles R. Joy.

College Notes

Clement M. Aldrich, 80 Elinor road, Newton Highlands, has been initiated into Sigma Epsilon Rho, a Northeastern University Evening School of Business honor society.

A graduate in 1955 with a bachelor of Business Administration degree, Aldrich was in the top fifteen per cent of his class and therefore eligible for induction into the honor society.

Sacred Heart Parish

The schedule of the Sodality of Our Lady, of the Sacred Heart Parish, Newton Centre, calls for meetings on the first and third Monday evenings of the month. Rev. Luke A. Farley, the Spiritual Director, will give a series of discourses throughout the year.

He has invited as guest speaker for the December 19 meeting Very Rev. Msgr. Francis J. Lally, Editor of The Pilot, who has selected as his topic "Saint Joan of Arc."

Mrs. J. Ralph Stuart, Prefect of the Sodality, will lead the ritual prayers, and Father Farley will be the celebrant at Solemn Benediction.

All ladies of the parish, both married and single, are invited to attend all meetings.

Establish Book Collection At Brandeis Honoring Wm. A. Cahill

The William M. Cahill Book Collection in Economics and Related Subjects has been established by Brandeis University in the University Library in memory of the late president of the Newton-Waltham Bank and Trust Company, it was announced yesterday.

Establishment of the special book collection was made known yesterday by President Abram L. Sachar who paid tribute to the late Mr. Cahill at a luncheon held on campus prior to a full meeting of the Board of Directors of the Newton-Waltham Bank and Trust Company.

A lifelong resident of Newton, Mr. Cahill passed away on September 12, 1955.

He entered the banking business in 1909 upon graduation from high school and became president of the Newton Cooperative Bank in 1950. Two years later he became president of the Newton - Waltham Bank and Trust Company.

Mr. Cahill was past president of the Newton Community Chest, a member of the Knights of Columbus, and many other organizations.

Rehabilitation Center to Rank With the Finest

National Jewish Hospital at Denver will build a rehabilitation center with "the world's finest facilities for making victims of tuberculosis and chest diseases completely sound in body, mind and earning power," Joseph Kaplan, of Newton, chairman of the New England Regional Committee for the Hospital, announced today.

Kaplan said construction has started at the famed free, nonsectarian medical center for tuberculosis and chest diseases, on a modern, three-story structure designed for the training of increased number of adult patients in a wide variety of vocations.

Kaplan said the structure will comprise new construction and remodeling of present facilities. He said the work, which will include a 250-seat all-purpose auditorium, and its vocational guidance equipment, will cost $750,000. He said $350,000 of this amount was provided for by the single gift of an anonymous donor.

When construction is completed in September, 1956, Kaplan said, the Hospital will be able to increase its adult population by 35% with as many as 80 patients at a time learning new skills, or taking advanced courses, so that they can leave the Hospital fully equipped to resume personal, family and community responsibilities.

Dr. Sidney H. Dressler, medical director of National Jewish Hospital at Denver, said the expanded program is the outgrowth of a three-year pilot study which indicated it is possible to restore 92 per cents of the patients at National Jewish Hospital to a full 8-hours working day, in many cases able to earn more than they could before entering the hospital.

The present adult population in the Hospital is 227. Under the expanded program, the Hospital will be able to provide for 307 adults, an increase of 35 per cent. Nationwide, the famed medical center for treatment of tuberculosis and related chest diseases has given over 4,000,000 days of free care to nearly 55,000 men, women and children of all races, nationalities, creeds and faiths, from all parts of the country, who cannot afford to pay for private care. The Hospital is supported entirely by voluntary contributions.

185 Beginners to Be Consecrated Tomorrow Night

Consecration of 185 beginners of the Temple Emanuel Hebrew School, Newton, will be conducted at the Friday evening service, December 16.

Participants in the service will be students of the Beth class. Eve Steinberg, Louis Kramer, Judy Adelman, Paul Sugarman, Debbie Store, Barry Dashefsky, Robert Creen, Robert Borteck, David Jacobson, Sandra Rosenberg, Donald Kaplan, Michael Friedman, and Judy Korin.

The children will receive miniature scrolls of the Torah as a symbol of their consecration. The program will be climaxed with the benediction by Dr. Albert I. Gordon Dr. Martin Goldstein will address the students on the meaning of their consecration.

The service will be followed by an Oneg Shabbat in the Community Hall.

Girls Craft Program Bustling With Holiday Gift Making

At the Neighborhood Centers, the Girls' Handcraft classes are bustling with holiday gift making.

In the Friday class at the Bowen School at 3:30, the fourth, fifth and sixth grade girls are fashioning holiday corsages, felt novelties and puppets, under the direction of Mrs. Esther Toher.

With Miss Helen Anderson, at the Burr Recreation Center, on Saturday mornings, girls from the second to the sixth grade, have as their project the making of Xmas holiday decorations.

On Mondays the sixth grade, and on Wednesdays the fifth grade girls of the Emerson School are completing organdy holiday aprons under the direction of Mrs. Beatrice Connell, leader.

The Hamilton Schoolgirls from the fourth, fifth and sixth grades meet with Mrs. Eleanor Kempainen and Mrs. Esther Toher on Tuesday afternoons to fashion leather, earrings. pillows, felt craft and corsages

At the Lincoln-Eliot School, on Mondays, the third and fourth grade girls are learning to knit. On Wednesdays and Thursdays the fourth, fifth and sixth grade girls have finished earrings, ribbon ties, novelty pillows, felt craft and corsages. under the direction of Mrs Eleanor Kempainen and Mrs Esther Toher.

With Mrs. Mary Russo, instructor, the girls from the second to the sixth grade of the Stearns School, meet and have completed novelty calendars, letter boxes, Santa Clauses, and a patchwork quilt.

The Newton Recreation Department has scheduled Handcraft exhibits for the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, throughout the Club year, under the direction of Mrs. Allen R. Barrow. These exhibits are arranged to assist in promoting the donation of materials for the Summer Playground and Neighborhood Center Craft programs of the Recreation Department. The Newton Federation of Women's Clubs have made this program one of their important Community Service Projects.

Children's Theatre Program

The first in a series of fine theatre programs for children, sponsored by the Spaulding School PTA, will be presented on Saturday, December 17 at 2:30 p.m. when the Harvard Radcliffe Children's Theatre brings to the school auditorium their musical version of the favorite classic "Pinocchio."

According to Mrs. Morton Braun, chairman of the program series the response to notices of this first performance was so enthusiastic that tickets were completely sold out the second day of their sale. Tentatively scheduled for later in the season are a ballet and a concert.

Announce Exams For U. S. Coast Guard Academy

Congressman Curtis (R-Mass.) today announced that the competitive examination for entrance to the U.S. Coast Guard Academy will be held nationwide February 27 and 28. These examinations will be given in 109 cities.

Congressman Curtis emphasized the opportunity offered young men who choose this four-year course which leads to a bachelor of science degree and a commission as a career officer in America's oldest sea-going service.

"There are no appointments or geographical quotas for entrance to the Coast Guard Academy," he said. "I urge all qualified young men who are interested in a worthwhile profession to write for details and applications as soon as possible to me at the House Office Building, Washington 25, D.C."

A candidate for the next examination for the Coast Guard Academy must be single must have reached his seventeenth but not his twenty-second birthday by July 1, 1956 and must be in excellent physical condition.

A high school diploma is the minimum educational requirement, although high school seniors assured of being graduated by June 30 are eligible to take the examination if they will have at least 15 credits by that time.

Deborah Fraser, daughter of Mrs. Eleanor Fraser of 12 Rockwood terrace, Auburndale, has been chosen to sing in the Chancel Choir of Northfield School for Girls.

Files Bill to Make Boat Owners Liable

Representative George E. Rawson of Newton, during his study of the boat laws of the Commonwealth as a member of the Recess Commission to Study Uniform Motor Boat laws, has discovered that there is some doubt whether injuries to property caused by motor boat operation can be legally prosecuted. Clear authority has been given to prosecute injuries to persons and interference with the public safety. Therefore, Rawson has filed with the Clerk of the House of Representatives a bill which gives officers empowered to make arrests the right to prosecute for injuries to property.

The commission has found that there have been many complaints of injury done to other boats, to fishing tackle in stocked waters, to wharves, landing stages and other property by careless operators of motor boats.

This bill will enable public officers to deal with the situation. It has been filed with the approval of the Commission in advance of its full report.

Bits From Bigelow

Library Trips

During Book Week, Miss Elizabeth Myer, Bigelow's librarian, sponsored several trips to the libraries in Newton Corner for Grades seven and nine. The seventh grade visited the Boys' and Girls' Library and became acquainted with procedures there. The ninth grade visited The Newton Free Library to become familiar with its resources. This year the ninth graders are permitted to have cards at the main library.

Red Cross Report

Several weeks ago, an article was written about the Bigelow Jr. High School Red Cross Enrollment Drive. The results were, as follows: The total amount collected was approximately $450, with a ninth-grade homeroom (Division 122) coming in first with over $64. Their closest contender, Room 217, fell short of them by about one dollar. We at Bigelow feel that the drive has been a great success.

Football

Bigelow's Varsity tied one and lost two of their last three games. We tied St. Sebastian 0 to 0 and lost to Warren 7 0 Our last defeat was at Weeks, 14 - 0, even though we played a splendid game.

Bigelow's Junior Varsity lost their last two games. The first game we dropped to Weeks 13 - 7. Our only touchdown was scored by Alan Copeland, an eighth grader. The second game Warren won 7 - 0. We want to thank the boys for their fine playing on the gridiron. We had some of the best team spirit you can find anywhere and we hope for a better season next year.

Of all the inter-junior high sports, football is the most prominent. Where would the team be without the girls who carry the school spirit to every game

Mrs. Frye asked Miss Hamilton, Mrs. Kunberger, Miss Molway and Miss Myer to help her select the year's cheerleaders. More than half the ninth-grade girls appeared in the required pairs to audition. Many things were taken into consideration as well as how the feats were executed. The main points were ability, all-around scholarship, and most important, citizenship. Judged on a point system, it was very close. The chosen nine are Suzanne Maguire, Susan Cohen, Kay Dickman, Barbara Fleischer, Phyllis Lamkin, Dorothy Newman, Nancy Preston and Carol Gilman and Beverly Hovsepian, substitutes.

Student Council Assembly

On November 18, the first assembly of the year was held in the school auditorium. The assembly featured the Student Council and their tentative plans for the year. Our principal, Mr. Pray, inducted Barry Wish, the Student Council President for 1955-56. After Barry took the oath of office as President, he inducted the leaders of the other student organizations. The representatives of the organizations inducted at this time, are as follows:

Assembly Crew, John Akerman; Bigelow Bee, Kay Sternfeld; Drama Club, Barbara Fleischer; Cheer Leaders, Suzanne Maguire; Boys' Leader Corps, Josephine Cialdea; Library Staff, Robert Kravitz; Music Organizations, Arthur Tenenbaum; Noon Patrol, Patricia Ready; Student Patrol, Richard Hession; Projector Club, Phil Phillips; Red Cross, Richard Greenfield.

Mrs. Dorothy Kunberger, Mr Samuel Grainger are serving as advisors of the Student Council. The assembly closed with a news film depicting the outstanding world events during October.

Is Distinguished Air Force ROTC Cadet at Harvard

The Harvard Air Force ROTC Unit announced this week the designation of J. Donald French, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. French of 6 Weldon road, Newton, as a Distinguished Air Force ROTC Cadet. The announcement was made by Colonel Waldo B. Jones, Commander of the Unit.

Colonel Jones stated that the six Cadets who were designated must have had an academic standing in the upper third of their Air Force ROTC course and in the upper third of all students in Harvard College. In addition, they must be of high moral character and have demonstrated leadership ability.

Mr. French is currently Cadet Group Personnel Officer with the rank of Cadet Captain. A graduate of Newton High School, he is now in his final year of training in the Air Force Unit at Harvard.

Mr. French is President of the Varsity Club, Captain of the Cross Country Team and a member of the Varsity Track Team, Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity and the Hasty Pudding-Institute of 1770.

Makes Appeal For Holiday Highway Safety

Registrar of Motor Vehicles Rudolph F. King, Chairman of the Massachusetts Safety Committee, today appealed to all highway users, whether motorist or pedestrian, to give highway safety during the month of December greater personal attention than ever before.

"Records at the Registry of Motor Vehicles show conclusively that traffic conditions in December, particularly during the Christmas holiday period, are unusually hazardous and constitute a direct challenge to all," said the Registrar.

"Each year in this month, the unwise use of intoxicating beverages at so-called Christmas Parties—which are already being planned by some companies—is a primary cause for most of the tragic highway deaths reported. It is my purpose to remind committees in charge of these Christmas office parties and the hosts at Christmas home parties that they are responsible for the safe transportation home of their drinking guests. This responsibility is clear and is one which cannot be shirked.

"Motorists should understand that enforcement agencies in the Commonwealth neither sanction nor approve the 'one-for-the-road' propaganda being circulated and are warned that enforcement officers will prosecute any person found driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Motorists convicted of this serious violation will lose their licenses and will also be assessed 12 points," stated Registrar King.

Newton Man Dies As Blaze Does $35,000 Damage

Bertram Fisher, 33-year-old Newton man, died of smoke inhalation Sunday night as a $35,000 fire swept through the back of his family's home at 79 Woodchester drive, Chestnut Hill, as he slept in a second-floor bedroom.

Mr. Fisher, a roofing salesman, was dead on arrival at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital.

Firemen were forced to break down the front door of the 12-room brick house and battle their way upstairs with hose lines to reach Fisher, after neighbors reported someone was in the house.

Samuel Fisher is president of the Fisher Shoe & Leather Corp., Boston.

Fire Chief John E. Corcoran ordered a second alarm on arrival at the fire, bringing ten pieces of apparatus to the scene.

He stated the blaze apparently started in a downstairs den. Smoke and flames spread quickly up the rear of the house, destroying most of the interior.

The cause was undetermined and Chief Corcoran called in the state fire marshall's office to investigate.

He said the fire apparently had been burning for some time before it was discovered at 10 p.m. by Jax Fisher, an uncle of the victim, who lives next door at 77 Woodchester drive. He called the fire department when he happened to look out the window and saw flames shooting from the big brick house.

---- the informed citizen ----

A Weekly Column written and prepared by the Newton League of Women Voters and devoted to the principle that an informed citizen is a good citizen.

Established in 1947, the Carrie Chapman Catt Memorial Fund honors the memory of the woman who founded the League of Women Voters of the U.S.A. Carrie Chapman Catt devoted her life to such important civic work as securing suffrage for women, educating them for responsible citizenship and promoting international cooperation for peace

In 1904 she led in the formation of the International Woman Suffrage Alliance and gave powerful support to its world-wide activities for women's rights. After one of her life's goals was achieved in 1920 when the 19th Amendment gave women the right to vote, she directed her efforts to the continuing search for world peace. She persuaded twelve national women's organizations to work together in a concerted educational program in the field of foreign policy, both at home and abroad. The Memorial Fund was established by men and women who admired her work and believed in the democratic ideals that guided her life's work.

BY BOTH its purpose and its program the Memorial Fund reflects the civic ideas and democratic ideals which Carrie Chapman Catt strove so energetically to support. Thus, its purpose is "to increase the knowledge of individual men and women in all parts of the world about the structures, functions, techniques and problems of democratic government."

Its program seeks to accomplish this purpose in several ways. Through its Washington, D.C. office, for example, the CCMF cooperates with U.S. government agencies and with private organizations in the Exchange of Persons Program. It also takes part in the sponsoring of foreign leaders active in various fields who come to this country to observe the role played by the U.S. citizen in government — local, state, national and international

THE WORK of the Memorial Fund also provides challenging opportunities for American citizens to gain broader understanding of world problems and affairs through personal contact with citizens of other countries. In addition, correspondence with individuals in more than 50 countries is maintained.

The program of the Memorial Fund also includes grants for the purpose of assisting and encouraging groups in other countries in their struggle to provide non-partisan citizen education. By such grants, financing is made available for pilot projects in training leaders, demonstrating methods of organization, or publishing printed materials One outstanding example was the aid given to enable a pioneering group in Italy to train teachers and establish democratic centers for citizen education in the rural communities.

In Greece, a grant to the "Ligue Hellenique pour le Droit des Femmes," (a non-governmental, non-partisan organization) aided in publication of a Teacher's Reference Book for the "crusade against illiteracy" and for the purpose of interesting women in government and citizenship while they learned the three "Rs.' In India, a grant to the Allahabad Agricultural Institute covered the initial cost of producing "We, the Government," a simple illustrated primer for citizens. Written in English, it was adapted from publications sent by CCMF, and translated into Hindi for widespread distribution as part of the national village improvement program. By doing work of this sort the Memorial Fund gets to the grassroots of international cooperation.

THE WORK of the Carrie Chapman Catt Memorial Fund, carried on for the most part by devoted volunteers, has far-reaching influence and is a befitting tribute to the woman whose name its bears.

Woman's Club Of Newton Highlands

The Christmas Program takes place Wednesday, Dec. 21 at the Congregational Church parish house Business meeting at 1:45 will be followed by a special program of Christmas choral music rendered by the Newtones.

The speaker will be Elsie Oakes Barber whose topic is "Heart of Christmas." A native New Englander, now living in Concord, Mrs. Barber received her B.A. degree from Tufts and her M.A. from Smith. Following her marriage she has devoted much of her time to writing and speaking where she combines sparkling wit and deep compassion with a rare gift for story-telling. A Christmas tea prepared by members of the Executive Board will follow in the Workshop.

To Discuss What Is Going On In The Arab Mind

What's going on in the Arab mind (educationally speaking) and a straight-from-the-shoulder picture of Israel today by a reporter on the scene since 1948 will be highlighted at the 1956 meeting of the Boston Chapter of the American Technion Society, Monday January 9 at the Faculty Club of M.I.T., Memorial Drive, Cambridge.

Prof. Charles Coryell, professor of chemistry at MIT and one of the nation's youngest and most brilliant atomic scientists will probe into the Arab mind.

He will take his picture from a tour of Arab universities and talks with Arab students—the real fireworks behind the Arab boiling pot.

At the same time Carl Alpert, famed secretary to Gen. Yacoov Dori, former chief of staff of the Israel Army and present head of Technion, the Annapolis and West Point of Israel, will give a reporter's pointed sketch of Israel — a picture free from diplomatic strings and unfettered by censorship.

Mr. Alpert was former editor of the ZOA magazine and is a trained newspaperman right on the scene and behind the scene.

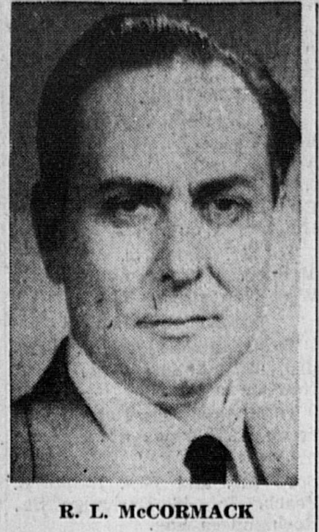
The meeting will be the first of the year for the Boston Chapter and more than 250 members are expected to the dinner and reports.

Mr. Harris Libby of Brookline, president of the Chapter, will preside, and he will be assisted by Mr. Louis Rosenblum of Belmont, chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Mr. Sidney W. Grossman, chairman of the membership committee; Mr. Richard Marcus, chairman of the capital funds committee; and Mel Friedman of Newton, secretary, are committee members also.

Gregory Lane McCarthy was born to Lt. (j.g.) and Mrs. Edward Lane McCarthy (Blanche Ann Bernt) of Waban, November 23 at Jacksonville, Florida. He is their first child.

R. L. McCormack, Waban Heads Raytheon Division



R. L. McCORMACK

Raytheon Manufacturing Company announced today the establishment of a new division under its Receiving and Cathode Ray Tube Operations, to be known as the "special tube division" with R. L. McCormack as manager. The new division, with headquarters in Newton sets up separate facilities and has responsibility for all non entertainment type tubes, including industrial and special-purpose types for guided missiles, aircraft, radar, and many other military and commercial applications.

Mr. McCormack reports to N. B. Krim, vice president who heads the operations. McCormack joined Raytheon in October of 1938 after five years as a tube engineer in Sylvania's plant in Salem, Mass. He was graduated from Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1933 with a degree in electrical engineering. He is a native of Rochester, N. Y. He is a member of the Institute of Radio Engineers, the American Physical Society, and is active in the Boy Scout movement and the Parent - Teacher Association. The McCormacks live in Waban with their three children: Robert, 12, Kevin, 10, and Cathy. 5.

Supreme Court Rules Against Ousted Officer

In a decision rendered last Thursday, the State Supreme Court upheld the dismissal of Ernest W. Prescott from the local police department.

THE COURT stated that a police officer's conduct during his off duty hours "might be of such nature as to show him unfit to continue to act as a police officer." The decision, written by Justice James J. Ronan, may have far reaching implications.

Prescott was found guilty of being drunk on Chestnut street, Newton, on June 28, 1953, while he was in civilian clothes and off duty. He was suspended until January 1, 1954.

Prescott, while under suspension, was found guilty of being drunk on Waltham street, Lexington, on October 12, 1953. After a hearing on charges of conduct unbecoming a police officer, he was fired by Mayor Theodore R. Lockwood and Chief Philip Purcell.

The patrolman appealed to the Civil Service Commission, which in a three-to-two decision, voted to set aside the dismissal order. The split decision resulted in a series of charges and counter charges between members of the Commission.

AS A RESULT, Governor Christian A. Herter called on the legislature to make an investigation of the Civil Service Commission. He also asked for a bill giving local authorities the right to appeal Civil Service Commission decisions. Employees, but not local hiring authorities, can appeal Commission decisions to the courts. Both bills died in the House.

Following this Newton officials took the one course of legal action open to them and asked the Superior Court to review the case. Judge Vincent Brogna agreed to review it, but in his decision, upheld the Commission.

The Supreme Court reversed Judge Brona, saying that it does not agree with the ruling of the Civil Service Commission majority that Newton officials have no right to fire Prescott, because he was under suspension at the time of his arrest.

"SUSPENSION," stated the decision, "is different from dismissal. However tenuous was the grasp he might have had on the office at the time of his discharge the door had not been entirely closed.

Pembroke College Alumni Yule Party

A Christmas party for Pembroke Alumnae living in Newton, Wellesley and Brookline was held on Wednesday evening, December 14th, at the home of Mrs. Wheaton A. Holden in Newton Lower Falls. This group is a regional section of the Boston Pembroke Club. Assisting in arrangements were Mrs. Milton Paul of Waban, transportation, and Mrs. William Clarke Custer of Newtonville, publicity.

Newton Man to Head Precision Gyro Laboratory

The appointment of John J. Jarosh, of Newton, as Director of Cambridge Engineering Laboratory, a new facility of Sterling Precision Instrument Corporation's Instrument Division at Flushing, N. Y., has been announced by Sterling president Robert Russell. The addition of the Cambridge Lab is one of the first steps in a major expansion program being undertaken by the Instrument Division under its new general manager, Brum Wolters.

MR. JAROSH, an M.I.T. graduate, has a broad background of "old line" instrumentation (pressure gages, recorders, valves, thermostats) but is best known for his work at Dr. C. S. Draper's M.I.T. Instrumentation Laboratory. Here, he was chief designer for the Navy's Mark XIV Gyroscopic One Sight of World War II fame and, post-war, head of the gyro lab which produced the floated integrating gyro, heart of today's most critical guidance and fire control systems.

This ultra-precise gyro established new frontiers in low friction levels; low-torque transducers; precise, high-speed ball bearings; stable metals and floatation fluids. Its importance is reflected in the fact that practically every major aircraft instrument company is now building equipment utilizing such gyros.

IN THE NEW facilities in Cambridge, (7,000 square feet, including air conditioned, dehumidified, dust-free assembly areas) Mr. Jarosh and his associates will specialize in the development, assembly and test of high-precision gyros (floated and unfloated) and other associated aircraft instruments. When integrated with Sterling Precision's instrument manufacturing plant at Flushing, N. Y., and the engineering and assembly facilities at Port Washington, N. Y., the Instrument Division will be equipped to undertake not only pilot production work on gyros and related instruments but full scale production as well.

THE MAIN objective of the Instrument Division is to serve as sub-contractor to military and commercial projects on ultra-precise integrating gyros, accelerometers, servo sub-systems and micro-wave antennas In addition to this, the Division will produce and sell smaller types of floated and unfloated gyros, rate gyros, magnetic clutches, serve components and certain types of radar antennas.

The Instrument Division's 72-acre radar site at Port Washington, of unobstructed and uncontaminated terrain, located adjacently to the engineering and assembly facilities also enables the Company to embrace antenna work of the highest complexity. Automatic machine tool controls, automation and instrument programming devices, and guided missile instrumentation of the "Go-no-go" type are among other Division developments now under way.

170 Pints of Blood Collected At Newton Centre

All residents of Newton Centre and one, in particular, can well be proud of the wonderful results of the Red Cross Bloodmobile visit on December 8 at the Sacred Heart Church School.

Mrs. Carmen Alvord, Chairman for Recruitment of Donors for the day reports that a total of one hundred and seventy pints of blood were collected. This is the best showing of any Newton village since the cessation of Korean hostilities.

Home From Trip Through South

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Nash of 200 Church street, Newton have returned home after a month's most interesting and informative southern motor trip.

They made overnight stops at hotels or motels in Philadelphia, Pa., Raleigh, N.C., Charleston, S.C., St. Augustine, Miami, St. Petersburg, Silver Springs, and Tallahassee, Florida; New Orleans, La.; Hattiesburg, Miss.; Bristol and, Natural Bridge, Virginia, and Washington, D.C. Sight-seeing trips were taken from these places to various points of interest.

At St. Augustine, the oldest city in the U.S., visits were made to the oldest house, the oldest school-house, America's first Mission and Shrine, the old City Gates, the old Slave Market-Place, the Fountain of Youth, and old Fort Castillo de San Marcos, built by the Spanish in 1672, and said to be one of the best preserved specimens of military architecture of the Middle Ages. Near St. Augustine, they also visited the world's largest and oldest collection of living alligators, crocodiles, tortoises, turtles, snakes, and other reptiles, besides ostriches, monkeys, wildcats, and birds.

At Marine-land they witnessed the hand-feeding of the porpoises, and an exhibition of their stunts. Here also, looking through glass port-holes into giant tanks, they saw live porpoises, sharks, sea-turtles, and all kinds and sizes of other ocean fish.

At Miami they visited Bay Front Park, the Yacht Basin, Coral Gables, Miami Beach, Millionaire's Row, the Orange Bowl Stadium, the University of Miami, and the world renowned Hialeah race track with its well-kept grounds, gardens, and ponds, including several hundred pink flamingoes and white swans. Another interesting and unusual sight was the visit to the Seminole Indian Village at Musa Isle, where a young Indian boy wrestles a large live alligator.

From Miami they traveled over the Tamiami Trail to Sarasota, where they visited the famous Ringling Museum, now owned by the State of Florida, which houses one of the largest and finest art collections of paintings and statuary in the world. Here, they also saw the palatial and fabulous home of the late John and Mabel Ringling of circus fame, and the spring training field of the Boston Red Sox.

From Sarasota to St. Petersburg, the journey was made over the fifteen-mile new Sunshine Skyway Bridge, built at a cost of $22,000,000, and considered one of the greatest engineering achievements of modern times.

At St. Petersburg they saw its famous sidewalk seats, its parks, its beautiful residential section, its beaches, its million dollar pier, the Sunken Gardens, the world's largest shuffle board, the first out-door U. S. Post Office, and numerous house-trailer villages. From St. Petersburg, a trip was made to Lake Wales, and the well-known Bok Singing Tower, where near-by were seen over thirty-five square miles of orange and grapefruit groves. They also saw Florida Southern College at Lakeland, several phosphate mines, and the world's largest development for growing strawberries, celery, and water-melons, besides the factories and canneries where these fruits and vegetables are processed.

From St. Petersburg to Tampa they rode on the six-mile Gandy Bridge across Tampa Bay. At Tampa, they saw the world's largest phosphate shipping center, the citrus fruit shipping center, the banana boats, the shrimp fleet, the Chicago White Sox spring training field, the pirate ship, and the University of Tampa. They also visited one of Tampa's famous cigar factories, and ate in a well-known Spanish restaurant in Ybor City.

At beautiful Cypress Gardens on Lake Eloise, they saw the world famous aqua-maids and champions perform in a spectacular water ski show.

At Silver Springs they enjoyed a ride in a glass-bottomed boat, and also the famed "photo-sub" boat, thereby being able to see marine life with almost miraculous clarity although the water was eighty feet deep in places.

On the route from Silver Springs to Tallahassee, they crossed the Suwannee River, made famous by Stephen Foster's immortal "Way Down Upon the Suwannee River". At Tallahassee they saw the Florida State University, the Florida State Capitol, Supreme Court, Post Office, City Hall, and many other municipal, state, county, and federal buildings arranged in an imposing civic center.

At New Orleans, trips were made to Vieux Carrie (old French quarter), St. Louis Cathedral (oldest in U.S.), land-marks, monuments, noted restaurants, parks, public buildings, the business district, Millionaires' Row, Lake Pont Chartrain, the Huey P. Long Bridge; Tulane, Newcomb, and Loyola Universities; Sugar Bowl Stadium, molasses and sugar refineries, and many cemeteries with their conspicuous and unusual above-ground burial vaults, some with inscriptions dating from the 18th century.

At Hattiesburg, Miss., a visit was made to the home of a married nephew of Mr. Nash, where a hearty dinner was served in true southern style and hospitality. A tour of this city's business and residential sections was made, as well as, a one-hundred mile trip north to Jackson, the State Capitol. Among other places and things seen were Mississippi Southern College, oil and natural gas wells, cotton fields, and pecan orchards.

At Natural Bridge, Virginia, one of the seven wonders of the world, they rode over this great stone arch, and walked under it by daylight. They also attended the colorful night illumination, and the impressive pageant "Drama of Creation".

Approaching Washington, D. C., one of the first objects to come into view was the National Masonic Monument in Alexandria, and later the famed Washington Monument, and finally the stately dome of the U. S. Capitol.

Although Mr. and Mrs. Nash both proclaim this was a most interesting, instructive and educational trip, they are happy to be back home again.

Boys Honored by Waban Baseball Associates

At its annual fall meeting December 4 at the home of Alan M. MacIntire, the Waban Baseball Associates followed their custom of recognizing outstanding service to local baseball.

Donald K. Kane, 1700 Beacon street, Waban, received the 4th annual Howard V. Jones Memorial Trophy for best exemplifying the ideals set forth by the Associates. Russell A. Putnam, 140 Crafts street, Newton, was given the 2nd annual Harold A. Wiper Directors Award on the basis of athletic ability and team value. Both boys played for the Waban Eagles 1955 champions of the National B. Newton Twi League.

John W. Hawksley, 99 Plainfield street, Waban, was presented with the Presidents' Cup, at the Newton-Wellesley Hospi[illegible] his courageous fight against polio. Jhn was a member of the Waban Chiefs up until mid-summer, when he was stricken. Vincent M. Wilson, chairman of the Trophy Committe made the presentations.

The Associates elected the following officers for 1956: G. Kendrick Bringhurst, president; William A. Durbin, vice-president and secretary, and Philip McPlauck, treasurer. New Directors elected included John J. Riordan, Walter E. Collins, George W. Gibson, Herbert W. Winer, and Esmond S. Rice, Jr., all active during the past summer in Waban's Little League organization.

Says Quality of Garbage Here Is On Poor Side

John A. Janse, garbage contractor for the city, this week appealed to householders to refrain from placing paper, tin cans and other rubbish in garbage cans.

He stated: "We have been collecting now for over five months and the quality of garbage has been on the poor side.

"There's plenty in the pails but it is not fit garbage to feed the hogs.

"Please help us remedy this situation by not throwing paper, tin cans, paper milk cartons, rags, broken bottles, wood and rubbish in general into your garbage cans. It is only a step or two more to the rubbish barrel than the garbage pail, which is usually at the foot of the stairs, so please don't put garbage in bags and expect the garbage man to take them.

"We are making this appeal because we do not want to be forced into open warfare with the housewives, who have in the past, to the greatest degree, been very cooperative, so please help us get a better grade of garbage and eliminate unnecessary calls to the City Hall because the pail is full only half garbage and the rest rubbish. The garbage is cooked and fed to hogs and therefore, excessive paper means more work in getting the cooking done.

Also, if you complain to City Hall or the contractor, and in the meantime the truck should come, please save us a trip by calling back and cancel your complaint. This will save time and make it a lot easier for all. It will also eliminate the chasing of undue complaints."

Cites Need For Hospital Admission Screening Chest X-Ray Programs

Wednesday, December 7, in the Young People's Parlor of the Second Church, West Newton, there was a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association Dr. Theodore L. Badger, guest speaker, gave a talk on hospitalization admission screening chest X-ray programs.

DR. BADGER, a specialist in diseases of the lungs, was chairman of the National Tuberculosis Association committee on X-ray screening and hospital admissions. Dr. Badger has just been elected vice-president of the American Trudeau Society. A director-at-large of the international Grenfell Association, he is also a board member of the National Tuberculosis Association and is currently serving on the executive committee of the Massachusetts Tuberculosis and Health League. He is also chief of the Medical Thoracic Clinic of the Boston City Hospital, consultant on diseases of the lungs for all VA hospitals in Boston, and consultant on tuberculosis for the United States Public Health Service. Dr. Badger, who served as chairman of the program committee of the American Medical Association's recent meeting in Boston, is a resident of Chestnut Hill.

THE NEWTON Tuberculosis and Health Association is currently negotiating with the Newton-Wellesley Hospital, the Norfolk County Health Association, and the Middlesex Health Association in an effort to establish an admission screening chest X-ray program at our local hospital. Invitations to hear Dr. Badger speak were sent to members of the Boards of Health of Newton and Wellesley, public health nurses, the Board of Governors of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital, the staff and board members of the Norfolk and Middlesex Tuberculosis Associations, the volunteers of the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association, and the doctors of the mailing list of the Newton Association. A question period followed Dr. Badger's talk and refreshments were served.

CHRISTMAS TREES THICK AS THE HAIR ON A SKUNK'S BACK!

- When you drive through Maine, New Hampshire, or Vermont, you might think the supply of Christmas Trees is limitless, that they're as thick as the hair on a skunk's back . . .
- But finding a good tree at Christmastime is getting harder and harder except at WINSLOW'S) . . . . That's because the largely indiscriminate slaughter of trees in the north woods each year is reducing the percentage of good trees available.
- Not so at WINSLOW'S - our trees are cut from 5000 acres of carefully managed growth - not slashed from wild seedlings, but from trees uncut till they're "right" for harvest - from our own supply of trees that gets better year by year -

TREES EXCLUSIVELY OURS IN BOSTON

To Participate In American Jewish Congress

Several Newton residents will participate Sunday when the New England Region of the American Jewish Congress meets for its 30th annual convention at the Hotel Statler, Boston.

Among those to attend will be Aaron J. Bronstein, chairman, New England Administrative Committee; Mrs. Louis Feldman, president, New England Women's Division; Mrs. Jay Gilfix, president, Newton, Chestnut Hill Chapter; Israel Trieger, president, Peter M. Leavitt chapter; Philip Lown, member of New England Administrative Committee; Joshua Guiberman, Mrs. E. Louis Friederman; Irving Black, Allen L. Gordon, and Joseph Corwin.

The principal address of the meeting will be delivered by Dr. Israel Goldstein, president of the American Jewish Congress. His subject will be "The Role of the American Jewish Congress."

Bill Would Make Second Gambling Arrest Jail Term

Representative George E. Rawsor of Newton has filed with the Clerk of the House of Representatives for Public Safety Commissioner Otis M. Whitney, a bill to provide for mandatory jail sentence for persons convicted a second time of offence against the gambling laws.

A similar bill was filed last year as a recommendation of the Crime Commission but the General Court failed to enact it into law. The commissioner felt that it was a necessary step in the fight against organized crime in Massachusetts. That is the purpose of this bill which it is hoped will be successful at the 1956 session.

Waban Woman's Club

The Waban Woman's Club will meet next Monday at two o'clock in the Waban Neighborhood Club House. The program will feature a concert by the Harvard Glee Club and the Radcliffe Choral Society with C. Wallace Woodworth conducting a program of Christmas music.

Newtonians

Dr. Alfred Carreno, Dr. and Mrs. Francis Chiampa, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Turchon, of Newton; Dr. and Mrs. Philip J. Burkrat, Dr. and Mrs. Nathan L. Fineberg, and Miss Claire B. Fisk, of Newton Center; Dr. and Mrs. I. Alan Annis and Dr. Pasquale R. Tedeschi, of Newtonville; and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence M. Sibley of Waban, were among the patrons and sponsors of the Birthday Ball held December 3 at the Somerset Hotel in celebration of the 93rd Anniversary of the New England Hospital Proceeds of the Ball, which was conducted by the Medical Staff, will be used to support the hospital's recently launched International Program. This new program, which adds another "first" to the hospital's substantial list of pioneer achievements, offers advanced medical training to young physicians throughout the wor , and represents a new approach to the training of foreign house officers.

Newton Centre Woman's Club

The American Home Committee of the Newton Centre Woman's Club will hold their annual "Merry Christmas" party Monday at the clubhouse. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 with Mrs. Walter Anderson and Mrs. Arthur E. LaCroix as hostesses. A short business meeting will be followed by a bridge and canasta party. There will be table prizes in addition to a door prize.

Mrs. Stanford D. Blitzer, chairman, announces that the members of the Committee will bring children's Christmas gifts for distribution by The Christ Child Settlement House in Cambridge.

College Notes

Miss Janice Litchfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loring P. Litchfield of 220 Woodward street, Waban, has been pledged into New York Alpha of Pi Beta Phi. Miss Litchfield is a freshman in the College of Liberal Arts at Syracuse University, Syracuse, New York. A 1955 graduate of Newton High School, she is active in Placard Cheering and is treasurer of her dormitory.

—o—

R. Russell Crocker, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Crocker of 1245 Commonwealth avenue, Newton, was recently elected to Tau Mu Epsilon, Honorary Public Relations Fraternity of Boston University.

Tau Mu Epsilon is an honor fraternity composed of public relations students who have shown high academic achievement, and evidence of leadership quality in the field of public relations.

Mr. Crocker attended Newton High School and Newton Junior College, where he graduated with an A.B.S. degree. He is presently enrolled as a senior at Boston University's School of Public Relations and Communications. He will receive the degree of Bachelor of Science in Public Relations in June, 1956.

—o—

Janice Patricia Ryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Ryan of 15 Glastonbury Oval, Waban was one of the singers in the Christmas Concert by the New England Conservatory Chorus in Jordan Hall, Boston. The Chorus sang Mozart's Vesperae Solennes de Confessore and a number of French, Dutch, and English Christmas carols.

Miss Ryan is a second year student at the New England Conservatory, majoring in Music Therapy.

Sue Howland of 12 Graydale Circle, Auburndale, and Sally Dunbar, of 12 Ridge avenue, Newton Centre, members of the Wheelock College Glee Club, participated in the program of sacred music and folk carols sung by the Glee Club and choir Tuesday, in the Church of Our Saviour in Brookline.

The Wheelock College Glee Club joined other school glee clubs in serenading Bostonians on Boston Common with Christmas carols Tuesday evening, December 5. Lyle R. Ring of the faculty is director of the Wheelock Glee Club.

Miss Carolyn Jobes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Jobes of 145 Kirkstall road, Newtonville, and Miss Alice Hoyt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin K Hoyt, West Newton, will sing in the traditional Mount Holyoke college Glee Club concert in Town Hall, New York City, tomorrow evening.

—o—

The choirs of Hood College and the United States Naval Academy combine to present their eighth joint production of Handel's sacred oratorio, "The Messiah," in the Naval Academy Chapel at Annapolis, December 17 and 18.

A graduate of Newton High School, Miss Guild is a freshman at Hood. She is a member of the second alto section of the choir.

—o—

Miss Emily Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parker H. Smith of 125 Parker street, Newton Centre, was recently pledged to Delta Delta Delta sorority at Colby College.

—o—

Two girls from the Newtons are participating in "Star Magic," a new children's play being presented by the Wheelock College Dramatic Club. Henriette Pennypacker, of 1435 Center street, Newton, a senior, is head of the Music Committee, and Sandra Nelson, of 36 Judith road, Newton Center, a sophomore, is working on the furniture committee.

Knowledge of dramatics is expected to "pay off" in the classroom for members of the Wheelock Dramatic Club, who, like all other Wheelock students, are preparing to become teachers of young children. They will know how to bring history home by having each child partake in acting it out; they learn to select and simplify important elements while keeping the truth in essentials.

Concurrent with the White House Conference on Education, an education Conference was held at the Saratoga Springs, New York, campus of Skidmore College. The subject of the conference, which lasted from December 2-4, was "The State of American Education." Present at the conference, organized by the Skidmore Branch of the National Student Association, were student delegates from sixty-one different colleges. Chosen as the Student Government Association representative from Mount Holyoke College was Miss Susan Jacobson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Bernard Jacobson of 185 Collins road, Waban. Miss Jacobson, a member of the sophomore class, was sent to Skidmore, in order to be able to report back to other members of the college the results of the panel discussions on the students relation to the campus.

Richard L. Thompson, '56, son of Mr. and Mrs. George B Thompson of 1790 Commonwealth avenue, Auburndale, Mass., has been elected corresponding secretary of the Delta Phi fraternity. A graduate of Newton High School, he is a candidate for the Bachelor of Arts degree. Delta Phi, founded as one of the Union Triad in Schenectady in 1827, and established at Brown in 1838, is one of the seventeen national fraternities represented on the Brown campus.

George A. Benway, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Benway, of 529 Parker street, Newton Center, has recently been initiated into the Beta Chapter of Delta Phi Fraternity, at Brown University. They are Laurence H. Alpert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Alpert, 14 Hobart road, Newton Center; G. Charles Bilezikian, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Bilezikian, 325 Lowell avenue, Newtonville; Paul M. Cohen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Cohen, 438 Waverly avenue, Newton Center; Howard Furman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Furman, 58 Blake street, Newton; and Benjamin Gilfix, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Gilfix, 5 Coolidge road, Newton.

Also Charles A. Hancock, son of Mrs. Thea S. Hancock, 100 Crescent street, Auburndale; Dudley C. Hovey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Hovey, 11 Fairfield street, Newtonville; E. Stephen Kelley, son of Dr. and Mrs. Vincent J. Kelley, 1032 Center street, Newton Center; William McCarthy, son of Mr. E. J. McCarthy, 89 Windsor road, Waban; Edwin P. McGill, Jr., son of Mrs. Gladys K. McGill, 82 Lowell avenue, Newtonville; and Francis A. Southwick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Southwick, 176 Waban avenue, Waban.

They expect to carry a concentrated schedule which will enable them to earn the degree of Bachelor of Science in Business Administration in three years of college work instead of four, under the special intensive program of study available to students at Babson Institute.

David W. Coulter, son of Mr. William J. A. Coulter of 218 Melrose street, Newton, has been awarded an organization key by Rhode Island School of Design's undergraduate drama activity in recognition of "constant and significant service in the college's drama program." The award was made December 9 following the final performance of the RISD Theater's presentation of "The Love of Four Colonels."

A graduate of Newton High School, Coulter is a senior candidate for a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Apparel Design.

—o—

Mrs. Allison Sanford Hamlin of 367 Central street, Auburndale, and Miss Nancy E. Hood of 115 Lowell avenue, Newtonville, have been awarded degrees conferred in absentia by the corporation of Simmons College.

Mrs. Hamlin received the degree of master of science from the School of Library Science.

Miss Hood received a bachelor of science degree from the School of Science.

—o—

Judy Beiring, Newton, is among 129 students who have just been selected to serve on committees of the Memorial Union building at the University of Wisconsin for the coming year.

Judy is serving on the dance committee.

A "home away from home" is the name given by Wisconsin students to their Memorial Union building, which serves as center of social and cultural life on the State University campus. Financed and built with contributions from Wisconsin students, faculty members, and alumni, the self-supporting Union building houses complete dining service, recreational facilities, a theater, and meeting rooms. Dances, concerts, plays, speeches, and art exhibitions are among the many activities which make up the Union program.

LAND COURT

To the Honorable the Judges of the Land Court for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Respectfully represents Irving W House, of Wayland, in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth; that he is owner of a certain lot of land with the buildings thereon, situate in Newton, in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth, bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a point on the westerly line of Taft Avenue extension at the southeast corner of Lot No. 7; thence running fifty (50) feet on the westerly line of Taft Avenue extension; thence turning and running southwesterly ninety-five (95) feet by land now or late of Larson; thence turning and running northwesterly fifty (50) feet by land now or late of Perkins; thence turning and running ninety-five (95) feet by land now or late of Perkins to the point of beginning; containing four thousand seven hundred fifty (4,750) square feet. Being Lot No. 6 on plan of Henry F. Beal C.E. dated July 1916.

That the record title to said lot of land is clouded by a mortgage given by Mary Edna House, to Frank L. Nagle, dated November 17, 1931, and duly recorded Book 5612, Page 10, purporting to secure two notes, one for $1,000.00 payable six months from November 17, 1931, and one for $500.00 payable eighteen months from November 17, 1931, with interest quarterly, which mortgage appears to be undischarged, unassigned and unforeclosed on and by the record;

That for more than twenty years after the expiration of the time limited for the full performance of said condition no payment has been made and no other act done in recognition of said mortgage; and

That the mortgagor named in said mortgage and those claiming under her have been in uninterrupted possession of said land for more than twenty years after the expiration of time limited in said mortgage for the full performance of the condition thereof.

WHEREFORE your petitioner prays that after appropriate notices a decree may be entered on the foregoing allegations as authorized by Section 15, Chapter 240 of the General Laws as amended by Chapter 20, of the Acts of 1924.

IRVING W. HOUSE.

Four scholarships will be presented to students in Rome, gifts of Greater Boston institutions, which were announced during the visit of Mayor Salvatore Rebecchini of Rome to the Hub last week.

Two of the scholarships were announced by Newton residents. Dr. Abraham L. Sachar stated that as president of Brandeis University he was offering a full year's scholarship to a student in Rome. Lawrence Berk, director of the Berklee School of Music, also has given a full year's scholarship to a student in Rome to come to Boston to study American jazz. Both men are Newton residents.

Other scholarships given Mayor Rebecchini during his visit to Boston include one at Northeastern University's Engineering School, given by Commissioner of Public Works John A. Volpe. The other is a scholarship for Tanglewood, contributed by the Boston Symphony orchestra.

General chairman of the "Salute to Rome" week which had as its guest of honor Mayor Rebecchini was Mark Bortman, Newton.

Care of Your Christmas Tree

Saw an inch or so off the butt of the tree as soon as you get it home. If you have it early, stand it in a pail of water in a shady spot outdoors preferably protected from winds but exposed to rain and snow.

The following recommendations regarding Christmas trees are based mainly on the advice of the United States Department of Agriculture:

1. It is best to use a stand that allows the butt to rest in a container of water. Refill the container daily as the tree absorbs the water.
2. Be sure that the tree is well supported, and that it is well away from sources of heat. The tree should not be so placed that it will block exits.
3. Lighter candles or other open flames should never be used near Christmas trees. Don't place a tree near a fireplace that may be used. Accumulations of wrapping paper under the tree should also be avoided as fire hazards.
4. Check electric lights and connections before they are strung on the tree. Worn, frayed wires or electric cords are dangerous.
5. Avoid the use of combustible decorations and flammable reflectors for the colored lights Metal foil 'icicles" and tinsel should be kept out of bulb sockets.

Tipsy Drivers Face Twelve Point Penalty

Registrar of Motor Vehicles Rudolph F. King, Chairman of the Massachusetts Highway Safety Committee, today appealed to all highway users, whether motorist or pedestrian, to give highway safety during the month of December greater personal attention than ever before.

"Records at the Registry of Motor Vehicles show conclusively that traffic conditions in December ,particularly during the Christmas holiday period, are unusually hazardous and constitute a direct challenge to all," said the Registrar.

"Each year in this month, the unwise use of intoxicating beverages at so-called Christmas Parties—which are already being planned by some companies—is a primary cause for most of the tragic highway deaths reported. It is my purpose to remind committees in charge of these Christmas office parties and the hosts at Christmas home parties that they are responsible for the safe transportation home of their drinking guests. This responsibility is clear and is one which cannot be shirked.

"Motorists should understand that enforcement agencies in the Commonwealth neither sanction nor approve the 'one-for-the-road propaganda being circulated and are warned that enforcement officers will prosecute any person found driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Motorists convicted of this serious violation will lose their licenses and will also be assessed 12 points," stated Registrar King

State Mental Health Units Combine Their Organizations

The Massachusetts Association for Mental Health, Inc., and the Mental Health Fund (Massachusetts Division) have amalgamated through their organizational structure, according to a statement released by the President of the Association, The Reverend Robert G. Metters.

In this amalgamation of the educational and fund-raising groups working for Mental Health, the Massachusetts Association for Mental Health, Inc., is progressing along with a national movement, outlined by the National Association for Mental Health, Inc., at its recent convention in Indianapolis, to develop, through a united, vigorous program, the force required to wage a more effective program against mental illness throughout the country.

The Board of Directors elected seven former members of the Mental Health Fund to its membership, E. Jared Bliss, Myer Israel, Augustus G. Means, Mrs Hamilton Osgood, Augustin H Parker Jr., Mrs. Abraham E Pinanski and Mrs. Oliver M. Reed. Mr. Metters continues as president.

The newly formed Executive Committee, with Parker as chairman, is composed of Metters, Bliss, Wilfred Bloomberg, M.D., Henry J. Bakst, M.D., David C. Crockett, Clifton W. Emery, Dana L. Farnsworth, M.D., Israel, Means, Mrs. Pinanski and Mrs. Harry C. Solomon.

Dr. Bakst continues as vice-president and Ralph Lowell, formerly treasurer of the Mental Fund, will serve as treasurer of the new organization, with Waldo S. Kendall and Horace C. Cole as assistant treasurers. Myer Israel is the secretary and Miss Roberta Kellog, assistant secretary.

Means, state chairman of the Mental Health Campaign in 1955, will serve as chairman of the Financial Committee. Plans are underway for the development of further committees and sub-committees and appointments of chairmen to head up these committees.

Headquarters for the reorganized Association will continue to be at 41 Mt. Vernon street and from December 1 the Mental Health Fund Office, formerly 16 Newbury street, will be located at 89 Franklin street, Boston. Telephone HA 6-7482.

Maurice F Whalen was appointed campaign director of the Massachusetts Association for Mental Health, Inc., as of December 1 and Mrs. Elsie R. Lambert, associate director as of October 10. Whalen is campaign director of the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation and will continue in that capacity as well as with the Mental Health Association. Mrs. Lambert was formerly director of Public Relations, the Faulkner Hospital, and has worked closely with hospital, nursing and health groups.

Christmas Often Means Greater Electrical Hazards

The electricity that flows into your home could change from a safe and useful servant into a swift and subtle killer unless treated with proper respect, the Malden Board of Health warned today.

The Health Board issued a statement on using care when near electrical current because of the added electricity used with lighted Christmas decorations.

"Many persons," the board said, "do not realize that enough voltage flows into their homes to electrocute a person or start a disastrous fire."

The board said the following examples point out unsafe practices in the use of electricity:

1. Contact of wet hands with an electrical fixture or switch and some object such as a faucet or water or radiator pipe and the same time.
2. Standing on a wet basement floor while turning "on" or "off" an electrical switch or fixture or while replacing blown fuses.
3. Handling or operating a radio or any electrical switch while bathing.
4. Putting too many outlets on a circuit not protected by a proper fuse. Overloading a circuit can cause a fire.

On the subject of overloading circuits, the local board of health said: "Don't overlook that maze of extension cords. With Christmas decorations, the temptation exists to add another extension cord, especially if an outlet is not convenient.

"Also, if the cords run along the floor, they are apt to be stepped on, shoved around, tripped over or become badly worn. The danger of fire from worn cords alone cannot be emphasized enough."

Too Cold for You? Here's A Story to Warm Your Heart

If you think it's cold in these parts, consider the case of Navy Lt. (JG) Edward R. Cohen, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Cohen of 101 Harvard St. He's on his way to the Antarctic to participate in Expedition Deepfreeze.

When last heard from, he was in New Zealand awaiting the ships and crews of the expedition which will head for the rendezvous spot in the frozen wastes of the Antarctic for the deepfreeze experiments to be conducted under Admiral Byrd.

Lt. Cohen is a 1949 graduate of Malden High and received his B.A. and B.S degrees at Boston University where he majored in statistics and economics.

He enlisted in the Naval Air Corps and received his training at Pensacola Fla. He won his Navy wings at Hutchinson, Kan., and received his advanced flight training at Alameda, Calif.

Lt. Cohen underwent five months of special training at Patuxent River Air Base in preparation for the trip to the Antarctic.

College Notes

Students from the Boston area who are members of the Bryn Mawr College Chorus which sang with the Haverford College Glee Club at the annual Christmas Carol Service given at Bryn Mawr College last Sunday were: Miss Elinor W. Drury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Drury, Jr. of 17 Glenoe road, Chestnut Hill, and Miss Margaret Elizabeth Wiseman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elton John Wiseman of 787 Chestnut street, Waban.

The concert, which included works by Vaughan Williams and Bach as well as familiar Christmas carols, was directed by Robert L. Goodale of Bryn Mawr and William H. Reese of Haverford.

GARDEN NEWS

December means Christmas shopping, and how is your list coming along? When you have garden minded friends or relatives it should be simple to find things to please them for the choice is infinite. Plants may be the gifts you prefer, and if so, think of the space available, and fit the plant to the conditions it will meet. Many flowering varieties require much cooler homes and far more humidity than is available, so that every year I receive frantic calls about yellowing leaves or dropping blossoms or fruit. Nowadays there are many new foliage plants which tolerate hot rooms, and a vist to a large greenhouse will make you gasp at the variety. I have been to one twice recently, and never dreamed that philodendrons came in such different shapes, sizes and types of leaf Large ornamental upright growing leaves, ten inches long, are one extreme, and there is no need merely to think of philodendrons as the commonly grown vine that climbs or trails, according to taste! Go and see for yourself, and ask questions, telling the grower what conditions the plant will meet. Of course you may still wish to give a plant that merely lasts in its glory for a brief space of time. If anyone is fortunate enough to have a bay window instead of the prevelent "picture window," they can do well with plants, as a metal pan filled with pebbles and kept moist will supply much of the necessary humidity.

Good books on general or special topics are always welcome. Make sure it is good, and by an authority on the subject, while at the same time it need not be too technical for beginners to enjoy. Cynthia Westcott's book on roses is a case in point. She is fun to read as well as being a top notch authority.

Tools are excellent, but go for quality first. Stainless steel and good wooden handles are not covered up by enamel to catch the eye of the unwary! Clippers come in many sizes, large, medium, and small, and the best grade tools keep their cutting edges, while cheap ones break, bend, or grow dull quickly. A larger present might be one of the metal garden carts or even a magnesium wheelbarrow with a wide pneumatic tire light and easy to push, and safe to use, without damaging the lawn There are special types of hose nozzles as well as the kind with a glass compartment which holds cartridges of fertilizer or spray materials. These are wonderful for a woman as they are so light, and the water mixes with the chemical as it flows out to the nozzle.

Some people have a very practical bent. For them a bale of peat moss or a bag of fertilizer might be a welcome gift. The fertilizer will keep satisfactorily in a dry place in the basement, or in a covered metal container in the garage.

What about a subscription to Horticulture Magazine, or even a membership in the Massachusetts Horticultural Society with the mail bringing Horticulture each month, plus all the other benefits that such a person would receive as a member? Another suggestion is a gift certificate from a reliable nursery, for something to be planted in the spring. That should supply enough ideas to make much of your shopping easy! Add bird baths or feeders, and every suburban dweller should be happy indeed.

Some people like the idea of "living Christmas trees," and being able to plant them outside afterwards. Personally I have never had luck in this line as the tree hates the dry air indoors, and then going out afterwards is another shock. However, it can be done, and if you wish to try it, be sure to prepare your hole NOW! Dig it large and deep enough for the sized tree a spruce will become, and keep it away from the foundation of the house. Large trees should be far enough from the house to enjoy looking at them, and it is unwise to set them stiffly in the center of a lawn. A forest type tree should be put where you can appreciate it from a distance along the edge of your property. Then you can group shrubs around it if you wish, or use it as the cornerstone of a protective screen to hide the stream of cars on the road, or that house or garage next door.

A Live Tree

A live Christmas tree, with a balled root fitted into a box or tub can be both practical and sentimental. After Christmas it can be planted outside for permanence.

A live tree, however, is very perishable, says O. W. Spicer, president of the Bartlett Tree Experts. It requires extra care whether it's a spruce, hemlock, pine, yew, arborvitae or fir.

Bring it into the house the "last minute." Decorate it and keep it well watered. Plant it no longer than a week later.

Prepare the hole several rays in advance. If the ground is frost-locked, remove the frozen soil with a pick. Then mix the frost-free undersoil with humus and fresh topsoil and cover the excavation with a heavy blanket of mulch or leaves until planting time. After planting, water the tree well, and add a mulch several inches thick.

Better still, if you buy a live tree, plant it right away without taking it indoors. Leave burlap on the ball; it will rot away. Then decorate the tree with lights and waterproof ornaments for the holiday.

Time Changes

Chicago — Before the railroads established standard time zones in 1883, a traveler crossing the continent had to re-set his watch at least 20 times compared with three re-settings now.

o

Coal Use

Wheeling — Crude tar, a derivative of coal, provides aspirin, adhesives, synthetic rubber, sulfa drugs and other medicines.

41.—MISC. SERVICES

Honestly — Want To Save Money on Storm Windows?
After many years of working in the trade, making and installing aluminum doors and windows, I want to be on my own, working out of my home with no overhead. You don't have to buy more than one window or door. "You save commissions and installers costs," since I do all the work and give you guaranteed service I can build you a porch and install jalousies. Excellent references.

POLITICAL OVERTONES

Story of Christmas Never Grows Old; Its Truths Remain; Columnist Writes to Santa Claus on Behalf of Politicians

In a stable, 1955 years ago, in the little town of Bethlehem, was born a Baby Who later was to preach to the multitudes about justice and freedom and fundamental rights.

With pomp and ceremony the captains and the conquerors marched up and down the land. And the heavens opened up with song that was not for them.

His words have resounded down through the ages and are still venerated; theirs are forgotten.

The Babe Who was born in Bethlehem was to speak in simple terms of man's responsibility to man. He was to create the basis for the Christian belief that have down through the sweep of the centuries. He was to lay down the principles to which free men of goodwill everywhere adhere.

Not the least of the wonders of the Birth of the Christ Child was the simplicity that surrounded it.

A carpenter named Joseph and his young wife, Mary, went up from Nazareth to Bethlehem, the town of his fathers, to enroll for taxation, as the ruling Romans had decreed should be done.

Story Hours for Children Arranged

Highlighting the Christmas preparations at the Newton Free Library will be the two annual Christmas Story Hours eagerly awaited by the children of Newton.

Wednesday, December 28, at 10:30 a.m., Mrs. Virginia A. Tashjian, library story teller, will entertain all children six years of age and older at the Boys' and Girls' Library, 126 Vernon street, Newton Corner. Traditional stories and modern humorous tales will be the fare of the day, and the singing of Christmas carols will be enjoyed by everyone.

Friday, December 30, at 10:30 a.m., at the West Newton Branch Library, Mrs. Marie L. Sullivan, children's librarian, will be hostess in the children's room to all her old and new friends for an hour of Christmas fantasy.

Come and hear your favorite stories, and take home books to brighten your vacation days.

Newton Students Advance for Scholarships

Seven brilliant high school students of this city have advanced to the semi-finals of the largest private scholarship program in American history. These seven scholastic All-Americans will be taking the second examination January 14 in the nation-wide talent search currently being conducted by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Thos from Newton who will take the second examination next month are:

John Kelly, 60 William street, Newton.

Robert Sade, 815 Chestnut street, Newton.

David Horvitz, 63 Ridge avenue, Newton Centre.

Arnold Jacobson, 36 Glendale road, Newton Centre.

Richard Hoffman Minear, 75 Pleasant street, Newton Centre.

Jeffrey David Nason, 25 Dolphin road, Newton Centre.

David Bernard Sachar, 66 Beaumont avenue, Newtonville.

The seven Newton students announced today were high scorers among 60,000 hand-picked students who tried for Merit Scholarships in the preliminary screening test, given October 26.

44.2 Telephones For Every 100 Residents Here

Newton has 44.2 telephones for every one hundred residents in the city, according to figures just released by the New England Telephone & Telegraph Company. This compares with one telephone, on the average, for every three persons elsewhere.

The company reported that telephones in the six New England states totalled 3,588,000. Of these, Connecticut had 966,000; Maine 251,000; Massachusetts 1,827,000; New Hampshire 167,000; Rhode Island 273,000; and Vermont, 104,000.

Canada again ranked first as the "talkingest" nation with 417 conversations per capita. Iceland with 394 per capita took over second place from the United States, which had 393. These figures are for 1954, since it takes almost a year to collect information from some 250 telephone operating organizations throughout the world.

THE CHRISTMAS STORY

Now it came to pass in those days, that a decree went forth from Caesar Augustus that a census of the whole world should be taken. This first census took place while Cyrinus was governor of Syria. And all were going, each to his own town, to register.

And Joseph also went from Galilee out of the town of Nazareth into Judea to the town of David, which is called Bethlehem, being of the family and house of David, to register together with Mary his espoused wife who was with child,

And it came to pass while they were therefl that the days for her to be delivered were fulfilled. And she brought forth her first-born son, wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger because there was no room for them in the inn.

And there were shepherds in the same district living in the fields and keeping watch over their flock by night. And behold, an angel of the Lord stood by them and the glory of God shone about them and they feared exceedingly.

And the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which shall be to all the people, for today, in the town of David, a Saviour has been born to you who is the Christ Lord. And this shall be a sign to you; you will find an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger."

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying:

"Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace, good will toward men." The Gospel According to St. Luke.

Four Retiring Aldermen Paid Tribute for Work

At the final meeting of the year of the present Board of Aldermen Monday night, tribute was paid to four retiring members by President Wendell R. Bauckman. The meeting, one of the longest of the year, adjourned at 1:30 a.m., Tuesday.

President Bauckman commended Alderman V. Stoddard Bigelow, William A. Diman, H. Eugene Jones and Richard H. Lovell, retiring members, for their efforts and service in behalf of the city. The Board will be meeting January 2 at 2:30 p.m., to transfer unfinished business to the incoming Board.

Best Gift of All; Your Happiness and Well-Being

Chief Philip Purcell of the Newton Police Department today pointed out that the Best Christmas Gift of all is Your Happiness and Well-Being.

"Activities for most of us," the Chief said, "are speeded up at this time of year, due to distracting holiday sights and sounds, shopping, parties and celebrations. To add to the increased tempo, hurrying motorists and pedestrians, plus all our school children, who are free from their studies, create a potential traffice hazard.

Comptroller Martin Is Ousted By The Board Of Aldermen

Complaint Not Made Public; Vote Is 13-6

By a vote of 13 to 6, taken early Tuesday morning, the Board of Aldermen at its meeting removed from office John D. Martin, 48, as comptroller of accounts "under circumstances involving no moral turpitude on his part."

THE UNPRECEDENTED action was opposed by Alderman Charles H. Cosgrove who asserted that no criminality or moral turpitude was involved and that "some inefficiency and laxity" is no reason for removal. This protest by alderman Cosgrove followed a re-

CARLAN W. RAY

Carlan W. Ray Is Honored for 25 Years of Service

Sunday afternoon at the home of Donald M. Hill of 72 Pine Ridge road, Waban, a reception was given in honor of Carlan W. Ray in recognition of his twenty-five years of service in the Newton Schools. He was presented a Paul Revere Bowl and a purse.

ON BEHALF of the combined P.T.A.'s, past and present of the Angier, Hamilton and Beethoven Schools, the presentation was made by Calvin A. Hill, president of the Beethoven P T.A.

Mr. Ray came directly to Newton from teaching in the New Jersey elementary schools. Not only is he now principal of the Angier and Hamilton schools, but was until this year, principal of the new Beethoven School. He also was at one time principal of the Pierce School.

THROUGH the years Mr. Ray has always been patient and understanding with the children as well as the parents. He has gain-

Vote Auburndale Area for Parking

Although opposition was registered by abutters, the Board of Aldermen at its meeting Monday night voted to take a plot of land on Melrose avenue for off-street parking in Auburndale Square.

FUNDS FOR the project were withheld pending the installation of parking meters in the area to legalize the use of meter receipts for the off-street parking.

The public hearing was held on the taking of Lot 7 and part of Lot 6, of Section 41, Block 2, on the southerly side of Melrose avenue for off-street parking. Public Works Director Willard S. Pratt stated that the taking of the land was recommended by the Municipal Parking Meters Committee of the Board.

Leading the opposition, Robert Marrocco of 274 Melrose street, stated that the commuters to Boston, who leave their cars all day, cause the lack of parking facilities in the square. He said that there are other available sites for off-street parking and that Melrose avenue is too narrow for increased traffic which would result from the parking area.

INSTALLATION of parking meters would take commuters off the street and no off-street parking would be needed, Raymond J. Vienneau of 278 Melrose street, asserted in opposition to the taking.

Ten other residents of adjacent properties also registered their objection to the plan.

Auburndale Post Office Shows Christmas Spirit

Employees of the Auburndale Post Office have been receiving many favorable comments on the appearance of the Post Office lobby. This is the first time that an effort has been made to spread the Christmas spirit with appropriate decorations. The messages of "Merry Christmas" and "Season's Greetings" together with Christmas decorations and bells greet the patrons as they enter the lobby.

GEORGE H. FERRAN, 1174 Chestnut Street, Newton Upper Falls, was appointed Superintendent of the Auburndale Post Office on July 1 to succeed James Feerick who retired, and is ably assisted by John Higgins, Ass't. Superintendent, who is a veteran in the postal service. Mr. Ferran is responsible for the decorations and stated that Christmas is the busiest season of the year and should mean a great deal to the Post Office. The burden placed on the employees in getting the extremely heavy Christmas mail delivered is such that it causes severe strain and tension and anything that will lighten the burden and spread Christmas cheer and contentment not only lifts up the morale of the employees and increases production but it passes that feeling of cheerfulness to the patrons.

THIS HAS BEEN the heaviest Christmas experienced in the Auburndale Post Office and the same is probably true throughout the Boston Postal District but despite this the tradition of the Post Office has been maintained by the faithful Clerks and Carriers of the Auburndale postoffice and they have gone about their tasks in a manner which reflects credit on the Postal Service. The personnel has been almost tripled to handle the Christmas mail.

Since Mr. Ferran assumed the duties of Superintendent many improvements have been made which have increased the service to the patrons and speeded the handling of the mails. The Post Office itself was painted inside and the lobby made more attractive. Signs were put on the outside of the building showing the Auburndale Branch district and zone. Auburndale was the first in the Boston Postal District to receive the new red, white and blue letter boxes which are replacing the old type boxes all over the country.

ference made during the debate in which "inefficiency and laxity" were charged.

Alderman Leo M. Cannon doubted the legality of the proceedings, asserting that there should have been a public hearing with 14 days notice. Such a removal must be done for cause, Mr. Cannon contended. If the action of the Board is illegal, members may be individually liable in a civil action, he stated.

THE MOTION for removal was presented at a special meeting last Thursday, but action at the time was blocked by a charter objection by Alderman Cannon.

A native of Waltham, Mr Martin has lived in Newton for over 25 years. He was graduated from Boston College in 1929.

A veteran of World War II, Mr. Martin served in the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts for five years. He is a member of the Massachusetts Society of Public Accountants and the National Association of Cost Accountants.

MR. MARTIN has been comptroller for seven years, and was unanimously re-elected by the Board last January 1 to a three-year term The nature of the complaint against him was not disclosed.

All Aliens Must Report Their Addresses in Jan.

Commissioner J. M. Swing announced today the Immigration and Naturalization Service expects some 2,600,000 aliens to report their addresses in January using the 1956 Alien Address Report Program.

The Commissioner explained that under the 1952 Immigration and Nationality Act every alien in the United States must report his address to the Service each January. More than 2,300,000 aliens filled out cards last January under the program, and the figure is expected to reach more than two and one-half million in 1956.

District Director Herman R. Landon of the Boston District office of the Service covering the entire New England Area except the State of Vermont, stated that 350 thousand aliens registered under the program in the District last year, and a slight increase is expected under the 1956 registration.

The immigration spokesman pointed out that every non citizen (except persons in diplomatic status and foreign representatives assigned to the United States Nations) in the United States must report his address to the Government each year in January. He said each alien must fill out a registration card available at U. S. Post Offices or at the nearest immigration office.

Parents may fill out cards for their children under age 14. Legal guardians of aliens in custodial care should fill out the address reports for such persons. District Director Landon also said any alien who is ill may send a friend or relative to obtain the address report card for him, and return the card after it is filled out. After filling out the card at a Post Office or immigration office the alien gives the card to a clerk, and he has fulfilled his obligation under the Act.

District Director Landon warned that any alien who wilfully violates the address report provision of the law may be fined up to $200, imprisoned for 30 days, and deported.

On a trip to Venezuela to visit relatives and friends are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Levenson of Lowell avenue. They made the trip by air and will return to Newton via the airways next month.

Newton Women's Republican Club

The annual meeting of the Newton Women's Republican Club will be held Monday, January 9 at 8:15 p.m. at the Beethoven School in Waban. Mrs. David M. Schulman, of Waban, president, will preside. A slate of officers for the coming year will be presented by the nominating committee, Mrs. Parker F. Pond, chairman. Other members of the committee are Mrs. Edward Becherer, Mrs. Denholm Jacobs, Mrs. Louis Kraft and Mrs. William Raye.

Plans are being completed for a guest speaker and a musical program to follow. Mrs. John Parkinson is in charge of table decorations and Mrs. William Brown, arrangements.

Newton Newcomer's Club

The Newton Newcomer's Club, organized in December, 1941, held a joint Christmas and Anniversary Party Friday, December 16.

Gifts were donated for charity.

The usual program of bridge followed a short business meeting.

The tea table was decorated in Christmas fashion. Pourers were two Charter members, Mrs. Herbert J. Ham and Mrs. Charles Corkum.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Arthur Reid and Mrs. Edward B. Leahy.

Do You Know Massachusetts?

Employment Up 44,100

October employment in Massachusetts excluding self-employed and agricultural workers was estimated at 1,819,100 persons, a gain of 44,100 persons compared with October last year. Manufacturing employees were placed at 698,000, an increase of 25,700 above those a year ago. The biggest gains appeared in production of durable goods, up 16,000 with electronics accounting for 5,000, and machinery, excluding electrical, 4,600. Of the 18 classifications in the durable products group, 15 industries showed gains and only three declines. In the non-durable group, employment gained 9,700, while contract construction gained 10,600 and non-manufacturing employment, including public service, 8,100, estimated jointly by the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics and the Massachusetts Dept. of Labor and Industries.

Further Gains in Factory Orders

The strong upward turn in new orders to Massachusetts manufacturers continued in October with a total gain of 20.1 per cent over those a year ago, as reported by Associated Industries. The biggest increases appeared in primary metals, up 54.1 per cent, machinery, excluding electrical, up 50.3 per cent, and electrical machinery and equipment up 38.6 per cent. Other gains were 21.2 per cent in rubber products, 17.7 per cent in fabricated metals, and 2.7 per cent in paper and printing. Textile orders were off 29.5 per cent, chemicals 2.3 per cent, leather and shoes 1.2 per cent and miscellaneous industries 1.1 per cent, compared with October last year.

Small Rise in Consumer Goods

The average of prices of consumer goods and services in Massachusetts at mid-November stood 1.1 per cent above that a year ago, as reported by the Division of Necessaries of Life. Sundries, including medical supplies and services, transportation and other incidentals showed an increase of 2.1 per cent. Housing was up 1.1 per cent, fuel and light 0.6 per cent, food at home, 0.5 per cent and apparel showed no change, compared with November last year.

Steady Climb in Electric Power Consumption

Total electric current produced in and brought into Massachusetts during October amounted to about 930,000,000 kilowatt-hours, an increase of 8 per cent over a year ago. Of the total, 842,240,000 KWH were produced in the Commonwealth and the balance was net imports from, less exports to, other states.

Prospects of Second Largest Home Building Year

Based on the first ten months, the number of new dwelling units undertaken in Massachusetts will approximate 30,900 in the full year 1955, an estimated increase of 18.5 per cent over the 1954 total and greater than in any year except 1950, when the Korean war threat pushed the total to 31,777. Diminution in reports of new building in November and December this year, if it appears, will of course reduce the 1955 estimate. Analysis of home building over the period 1950 through 1954 shows that 51 per cent occurred in the Greater Boston area which includes Boston and 87 surrounding cities and towns. Other important spots of home building appear in places within 12 miles of Springfield 11.4 per cent, of Worcester 7.2 per cent, of Lawrence 6.8 per cent, of the Barnstable area 3.1 per cent, with 20.2 per cent recorded by all other places in the Commonwealth. Massachusetts Department of Commerce.

Cub Pack 73 Holds Christmas Carnival

The regular monthly meeting of Pack 73 of the Newton Cub Scouts at the Pierce School on Friday evening, December 16th, featured a Christmas Carnival. After the usual pack ceremonies in the auditorium the Cubs were led into the gymnasium which had been decorated with balloons and streamers and there found a real Carnival setting. Ten games or booths had been set up at which the boys could shoot targets, pitch rings, throw balls to burst balloons, and otherwise test their skills for small prizes. A supply of play money was given to each boy and his guests as they entered and they made the rounds of the games until their funds were exhausted. Free orangeade and ice cream were served. Credit for the creation of the much-enjoyed Carnival goes to pack committee member, Al Chasson.

At the preliminary ceremonies the following advancements were recognized: Wolf badges to George Russo, Danny Wolf, Steve Leonberg, William Shutzer, Richard Petkin, Alan Levine and Kenneth Sinofsky. Dickie Spinelli was inadvertently omitted from the list but will receive his next month. Bear badges went to Andrew Barrs, Donald Johnson, Todd Brown, Stanley Collinson, Benjamin Rae and William Scar. Two Cubs won their Lion badges, David Anderson and Larry Bowen. One new Bobcat, Jaj Johnson, was inducted. The next Pack meeting will be held on Friday, January 20th.

Bethlehem was a simple, little town in the hills, of no particular importance or consequence at the time.

Mary and Joseph arrived weary and late only to find that the inn was crowded and that there was no room for them there.

With other late-comers they took shelter in the stable, and there the Child was born.

It is a story that may well have a place in a political column in Christmas week.

Its beginning could hardly have been any more simple, and that simplicity was characteristic of Christ Himself and of His teaching.

His Sermon on the Mount was a masterpiece of simplicity. He spoke in a simple tongue, in terms of the beasts of the forest, the birds of the air and the lilies of the valley.

His simple truths live on and His great story needs no adornments. It is one which the rulers of Godless philosophy, entrenched behind Iron curtains, would do well to study.

He is revered; the kings and captains who marched up and down the land, as He was being born, are forgotten. It is the Birth in the stable we commemorate 1953 years later; not the gathering at the crowded inn where Mary and Joseph could find no room.

A political columnist writes to Santa:

Dear Mr. S. Claus, Esq.:

This letter probably will be quite different from those you have been receiving from all the boys and girls who have suddenly become shining models of exemplary deportment with little white halos over their heads and who have been writing to you about the things they would like to find in their stockings and under the tree on Christmas morning.

We realize that you are busier right now than a floor manager at a national convention, when the crucial ballot is to be taken. But after you have filled all the orders from the little tykes and before you return to your haven to the north, we want to offer a few polite suggestions in behalf of our distinguished politicians who are likely to be too busy to speak up for themselves.

The politicos are really a very patient lot. They wouldn't want anything until after you have taken good care of all the youngsters who have cleared things away from the fireplace and made all the preparations for your arrival next year. In fact, they don't expect most of the things they want until next November.

But we also would impress upon you, Sir, that these requests are not to be taken lightly and that we won't stand for any brush-off or double-talk. Also we want results, not bright promises about 1958 or 1960. You take care of 1956, and the politicians will worry about 1958.

This letter may be a little complicated and confusing because some of the boys want the same things. The Republicans, for example, won't think much of you unless you let them keep the Presidency and the Massachusetts Governorship, but the Democrats feel that's a dog-in-the manger attitude and that they've been out in the cold long enough.

A man of your great sagacity and ingenuity should be able to figure out a way to please everybody, however, so get out your pencil and order pad.

The Republicans would like Dwight D. Eisenhower and Christian A. Herter in their campaign stocking for 1956. They have a feeling that Mr. Eisenhower may retire to his farm in Gettysburg and Mr. Herter to his farm in Millis and they want you to know that farming is not exactly what they have in mind for these two gentlemen, at least not for a long time yet.

In other words, Santa, what the sons and daughters of the GOP would like for you to do is to arrange for Mr. D. Eisenhower and Mr. C. Herter to run again in 1956. If you do that, the Republicans will take their chances on holding the Presidency and the Governorship, and they won't ask too much help from you.

Your life is going to become a pretty hectic one, if you don't do that, Mr. S. Claus, and we don't mean to imply any threatening tone. What we mean is that a lot of Republicans will be demanding that you bring the nominations for Governor and President to them, and you're going to be in a bad way, if you have to choose among them.

Several Republicans already have their hand out for the gubernatorial nomination. Theres Lieutenant Governor Sumner G. Whittier, State Senate President Richard I. Furbush, Republican House Leader Charles Gibbons and Congressman Laurence Curtis looks as if he's about ready to get into the act.

One gentleman for whom we want to put in a good word is Governor Herter What he would like is a painless tax which everybody would like to pay and which would raise all the millions of dollars he has to find next year in order to run the State government. He has not been able to find out, so it looks as if it would be up to you to dig one up. It does not seem now that he wants any future offices.

Don't forget the Democrats either. They're not particularly bashful, and they could speak up for themselves. But they're pretty busy right now just before Christmas, so please put them on your list for 1956.

Former Governor Paul A. Dever isn't running for anything these days, but he'd like the Democratic Presidential nomination for Adlai Stevenson next summer and then the Presidency for him.

a little later on in the fall. If you handle that request, Mr. Dever won't worry about any baubles like a cabinet post for him. He'll worry about that himself.

William H. Burke, Jr., of Hatfield would like the undisputed chairmanship of the Democratic State Committee and a little peace and quiet and harmony in the Democratic headquarters. This is a very reasonable request, Mr. S. Claus. John C. Carr of Medford never was elected chairman, and he has held the job for three years and six months. Burke has been elected twice, first in March and then in June, and all he has so far is road blocks.

Governor's Councillor Patrick J. McDonough would like the Democratic nomination for Governor. He's apparently one of your favorites. You came around pretty early at his $100-a-plate dinner and left a tidy nest egg of about $80,000, but that was just a start where he is concerned.

There's a whole group of Democrats who want you to bring them nomination for Attorney General. We're not speaking up for any of them at this time. That's for you to figure out. George Fingold is doing a pretty good job right now, and a lot of people are going to be writing in about him.

We've listed a few of the things our hopeful politicians would like you leave in their stockings in 1956.

What the Republican party in Massachusetts really needs is another Christian Herter to lead them into the 1956 campaign, if the present one decides that two terms on Beacon Hill are enough.

And what the members of the Democratic party in the State need most is another Maurice Tobin to show them the way out of the valleys and up onto the hills.

If you have any would-be political bosses and czars, who like to sit back, pull strings and give orders, please keep them up at the North Pole. We don't need any here. In fact, you can have one or two we've got now.

Ordinarily, Christmas Week is one in which there is a moratorium on politics, and politicians who would gladly hit each other over the head with blunt instruments the rest of the year sit down and send each other Yuletide with the greetings of the season.

On one corner of the political scene, however, there seems to be an absence of the customary goodwill among men. That's the sector where the pulling and hauling is underway over the chairmanship of the Democratic State Committee.

It is the opinion of this observer that William H. Burke, Jr., of Hatfield is legally, the State Committee chairman, and that a court would rule so, if all the angles and aspects were threshed out. But the life of this committee probably will expire before any court could settle the question.

This is an unusual situation. Burke has twice been elected chairman, once in Springfield last March, a second time in Boston last June. On both occasions John C. Carr of Medford maintained that Burke could not be chosen chairman because he, Carr, was the chairman and there could not be two chairmen.

TO ALL OUR READERS WHO FOLLOW THIS COLUMN THROUGHOUT THE YEAR, WE WISH A VERY HAPPY AND JOYOUS CHRISTMAS WITH ALL THE BLESSINGS OF THE SEASON.

LETTER OF PROTEST

The Newton Graphic:

I received a letter today from the Newton City Clerk, Mr. Monte Basbas, advising me of a hearing to be held at the City Hall Monday the 19th regarding the plans to lay additional gas mains on Commonwealth avenue.

I am enclosing a copy of my letter of protest to this project along with material to back up my statements, and I ask as a service to the people of Newton that you print this letter for their information.

John N. Wolbert

"I am writing in answer to your letter of December 12, 1955, advising me of the proposed plan of the Boston Gas Company to lay larger additional gas mains in front of my home at 1841 Commonwealth avenue, Auburndale, Mass.

"I wish to enter as strong an objection as possible for I have no desire to subject my family and my neighbors to the hazards that would be connected with such a project. I have had recently called to my attention the fact that in a 16-inch gas line, usually a quarter of an inch thick, the bursting pressure of each lineal foot is 72 tons! In the average natural gas main with a normal pressure of 700 lbs. per square inch there is the same explosive force in each 2½ linear feet as in a 500 lb. bomb.

"The recent gas line explosions in Rochester, New York, and the more recent ones in Stoughton and Plymouth point out very vividly the dangers that are ever present. The policy adopted by the Veterans' Administration of not making loans on any homes within 500 feet of a natural gas main line certainly shows the government's attitude towards this type of risk.

"In view of the above and many other facts that could be presented I believe the city would be well justified to make a more complete study of the facts of this case before granting this permission.

"It is not a pleasing thought to be living within a stone's throw" of a monster of this size constantly straining to break loose."

College Notes

George W. Arthur, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Arthur, 16 Kingston road, Newton Highlands, Robert B. Colburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Colburn, 304 Otis street West Newton, and David S. Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Murphy, 31 Pulsifer street, Newtonville, have returned to their homes for the Christmas recess at Vermont Academy, Saxtons River, Vermont.

A number of pre-Christmas activities were held at the school in the week prior to vacation. Last Sunday the Vermont Academy Glee Club presented to a large audience in Fuller Hall chapel the annual Christmas Candlelight service, a program of song and story of the Christ Child's birth.

The boys of the school were also hosts at the annual Christmas party, which is given to a group of small boys from a nearby childrens' home. Each little guest has a Vermont Academy senior as his host, and Santa Claus, well supplied with the help of the V. A. students, brings each youngster a number of gifts.

Chapter 3 -- Strasbourg, France

I stopped in at an office that was advertising mortgages for new homes. The fellow inside was a nice sort, and as soon as I spoke to him in English, he was delighted. He has few opportunities to keep up his English, and so we sat and talked for several hours. He is going to start his Doctorate this fall at Munich in Political and Economic Science.

HE HAD QUITE a story to tell. He was first an officer on a German destroyer, and operated north around Norway. One morning they were surprised by 12 British Spitfires which came at them from inland. They weren't expecting this, as Norway was under the Nazis at the time. The first and second pass the Spits did considerable damage, but by the time they came around to make the third attack the gun crews were all ready, and shot down 5 of them.

He mentioned one trip when they were over here just off of New England when one of their torpedoes was discharged in the tube of the ship. It was armed, of course, and threatened to blow them all up any moment. They surfaced at great risk, and sent the engineer over the side to disarm it. The adventure was a success. He also mentioned a procedure that seemed strange to me. He said that all U boats were given instructions at the beginning of '43 to ride on the surface only during daytime. They were ordered to ride underwater during the night. The reason was as follows. The British would pick them up on their radar quite some distance away. Then they (the British) put on full steam, and then turn everything off, and glide in on the submarine. When they were at close range they would turn all of their searchlights on, and the sub would be sunk before it could effectively dive.

Herbert's sub underwent a great deal of damage — to the extent that it was ineffective as a war instrument. The guns mounted on deck were ripped and torn from their mounts by depth charges. A 50 caliber machine gun had a barrel that looked like a pretzel, and the deck plates were buckled to where the torpedo tubes were unable to discharge their explosives. They had been ordered back to a port on the west coast of France. They were about 250 miles from this spot, riding on the surface during the daytime, when they spotted some British ships, away in the distance. They made a dive for it, and in their damaged condition were unable to make more than 3 knots an hour. The British tracked them with their radar for ten hours, at which time their batteries were all discharged. They had to surface, but upon doing so found that their batteries were so low that they would not turn over the diesels. A British sloop was about 800 yards off. Herbert was about third on deck of the sub, and the CO talked to him and the other officers about what to do, and everyone decided it was best to scuttle the sub, but pronto. However, one of the men on the sub began firing at the British with a small machine gun. The fire was ineffectual, but when it was over, 13 of the sub crew were killed in the water. The 53 that were left were picked up by the sloop.

Herbert got quite a kick out of telling about what he met on the deck of the sloop. A Britisher dressed in complete dinner dress kept poking him in the stomach with a large revolver, and asking him what the number of the sub was, etc., etc. Herbert very carefully pushed the barrel of the revolver away from his tummy and explained in his very best English that he hated to be unappreciative of their hospitality, but that he was afraid that the thing might go off! This broke the tension, and everyone had a good laugh. They were treated very well, and the sub S.O. and the C.O. of the sloop got to be very good friends. Everyone taken at this time was first sent to a prison on Gibraltar which was a pretty poor place to be, I guess, and then finally was sent to Canada, where they had a fine time.

WE TALKED about the reason for the war a little. He explained that Hitler was only taking over land that was occupied by Germans for the majority. I explained that it was the method he employed that other parts of the world objected to. We had an interesting chat, both trying to explain to the other what happened in the light of our respective viewpoints. I remember one thing in particular that sticks with me. We also, during our talks, came upon the selective propagation that Hitler advocated for his SS men. Remember the Super Race he was going to create? The SS men were all selected because of their clear aryan strain — all over 6 feet tall, blond hair, broad shoulders, etc. — in order to get married they had to have the OK of one of Hitler's representatives, etc., etc. Herbert said that he had a cousin that was an SS man, and that he said that the SS troops got quite a kick out of this set-up, it being quite a joke with them, and not taken as seriously as those that put it into effect might hope.

Following our chat, I was even more convinced that people all over the world are pretty much the same, and it's acute propaganda in the hands of lunatics that can drive a normal nation with its large majority of good people into a holocaust.

LAST WEEK we decided to go to Strasbourg, France, and then swing down into Switzerland. We left about 9:00 Saturday morning, and were in no particular rush. We started north to find the autobahn, and got on the wrong one. Before we realized it, we were 30 miles out of our way, but rather than turn back, I thought we might be able to just head west from where we were and eventually hit the road we wanted. We were getting low on gas, so I bought some at a German station for 60 cents a gallon. It was lucky that I did, because it was several hours before we got back to an American station. We soon found ourselves in towns and country that is seldom frequented by Americans. The roads were narrow, and the little towns were mighty interesting. Just like they were out of a fairy book. We stopped several times, once to get some fruit, and other times to inquire as to the way, and each time we stopped there were dozens of children that would crowd around the car, and look at us. This was an experience that we were both happy to have. It's good for the ego, because these simple country folk have little to hate the Americans for. Their little villages were not damaged by the war, and they aren't put out of their homes to make room for the the occupation personnel, etc., etc., and one has the feeling that these people really like you, although it may be just that they hold us in awe. Another chance for us to be good ambassadors!

We had planned to go through Pforzheim on our way to the border. We did so, although it was later than we planned because of our trip cross country. This little town has quite a story to it. It was one of the first stories I had heard upon landing in Stuttgart. During the war, this little town made small parts for the war effort. One night the British came over the town and kept on going as if they were on their way to Stuttgart without dropping a single bomb. After they passed over, everyone came out of their storm cellars, feeling much relieved. However, the British passed over the town, then when they were beyond it, turned and came back. They caught the populace just coming out of the shelters, and in a matter of a few minutes inflicted 15,000 casualties, or about ¾ of the total population. Following the raid the town was so demoralized that they didn't even try to dig the town out. They listed those people in an apartment house on the front wall and made the ruin the grave.

WE DROVE through the town, which has begun to rebuild itself on the opposite side of the little river, on the side of a hill. However the rubble still extends for blocks upon blocks. The streets are clear, but its an eerie sight to see what was a town just so much rubble with little done about it. It's like driving through a graveyard.

I must hasten to mention that for three weeks prior to the bombing of Pforzheim British bombers dropped leaflets asking the population to leave the city and giving the minute, hour, and day that the raid would be carried out. From there we went on to Karlsruhe to fill up with gas.

All through the present trip I'm talking about we came in contact with numerous troops, U S., that were involved in operation "Primrose". For the first time we ran into outfits that looked like they might be able to do some fighting on a minute's notice. The boys were dead tired, though. They were on the "ready" all along the line, with the machine guns manned on all the vehicles, etc.

As we left Karlsruhe for Strasbourgh, I began to look forward to getting to a place where I know a little more of the language. It wasn't long before we got caught in some French maneuvers. I didn't realize it for a while, but before long the woods on both sides of the road were full of soldiers and equipment. We finally came to a French M.P. who stopped us, and a French general came dashing up in a small car beside us. I don't know what they thought, but perhaps they were fearing an American invasion. I guess our little "Pokealong" looks big enough to these folks over here to seem like a battleship or something. Before long we were allowed to join the French motor column, and we did O.K. for a while until we came to another French M.P. He stopped us, and wasn't nearly as nice as the General. He started yelling at us so fast that we might as well have been talking with Germans, as far as the language was concerned. What a let down! After all this waiting to get where someone spoke French, and I was as bad off as I was in Germany! Finally the soldier said, "Allons, Allons," and wouldn't let us remain part of the convoy, so we started off cross-country again.

WE HAD A FINE TIME sharing the road with cows, oxen, etc., and as we approached the vicinity of the French border, we stopped the car near a German pill-box which was on the edge of a woods and a field. I put a little gas in the tank from our 5-galllon tin, and then looked the pill-box over. It was blown all to heck! It was larger than many near Stuttgart. (Just the other day three of the boys in my class discovered an old pill-box near their homes that was loaded with rifles and ammunition. There are still nine fields uncleared in the Stuttgart area, too.)

Newton . . . . Girl Scout Activities

News Notes and Meetings

This is the busy season for all the Girl Scouts of Newton. Many troops are showing their Christmas spirit by filling holiday baskets, singing Christmas carols or making presents for those less fortunate than they.

Among those who are giving and getting are the one hundred and ninety girls of the Auburndale Neighborhood. Under the chairmanship of Mrs. John P. Roser these girls will join together with their leaders and assistant leaders in a gay Christmas party on Thursday, December 22, at the Congregational Church in Auburndale. Each one of the girls has made a toy. These will be presented to the children in the Metropolitan State Hospital. After the movie, "The Toymaker" is shown, Santa Claus (Mrs. Emerson Burns) will give each girl a little surprise. Mrs. Ronald Morse will assist at the piano while the girls sing carols. There will be ice cream and cookies for all.

Troop 213 of the Hyde School held their Christmas party at the home of Mrs. F. Lawton Swett on Tuesday, Dec. 20. The girls sang carols, played games, and decorated a tree which they then gave to a hospital. Mrs. Swett read the story, "The Small One", which was greatly enjoyed by all the girls. Mrs. Arthur W. Stomberg, Jr., is the leader of Troop 213. Under her guidance these third grade Brownies have made place cards for hospital trays which they gave to Children's Hospital. Now they are collecting old razor blades which will be sent to India, where they are in demand both as a means of exchange and as a tool.

The fourth grade girls of Troop 188 at the Claflin School is another very busy group of girls. They have prepared a large Christmas box filled with clothes and toys for the Peabody Home for Crippled Children. On Thursday, Dec. 22, the girls will have a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. John T. Evans in Newtonville. On Saturday, Dec. 24, Troop 188 with their leader, Mrs. Paul Bilezikian, will be out corolling.

We of the Public Relations Committee of the Newton Girl Scout Council wish Girl Scouts and friends of Girl Scouts everywhere a very Merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

Four Newton girls were among the prize winners of the Herlihy Dairy Products "Cash in the Bank" contest. Three-year-old Maureen Gorman of 30 Crescent street, West Newton took top prize in the girls' division with the help of her mother. She was awarded an Admiral 3-speed record player. Sandra Brouillette, 20 Lewis terrace, Christine Sennott, 222 Lowell avenue and Faith Carburn, 301 Newtonville avenue were awarded games. Each winner also received a bank book in the Workingmen's Co-operative Bank with a sum representing the amount earned.

The contest was sponsored by the Somerville milk firm on their Barbara Barry "Story Time Lady" program, over radio station WVDA. Each child whose name was entered in the contest was given credit for each new milk customer who gave her name during the 12-week period. A cash award was credited to her account. At the end of the drive a bank book representing the sum was presented to the youngster or her parents by Richard Herlihy, retail sales manager.

Maureen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Gorman. She has two brothers, Fred 15, a student at Warren Jr. High School and John 12, who attends the Davis School.

Mr. Harry Zerigian, 975 Chestnut street, Newton Upper Falls, was recently elected by the Board of Directors to membership in the National Association of Cost Accountants. Mr. Zerigian is affiliated with Bentley School.

The National Association of Cost Accountants is an educational association in the field of industrial and management accounting. It consists of 124 Chapters located in the principal industrial centers of the United States, Hawaii and Cuba, having a membership of over 36,000. The Boston Chapter is one of the Association's oldest, being organized over thirty-five years ago.

Christmas Spirit Prevails At Rebecca Pomroy House

Christmas at Pomroy House rings joyously for all members and little friends of this Red Feather Agency of Newton. From the youngest to the oldest members there have been activities.

Several groups were entertained by interested groups: the Newtonville Women's Club had ten little boys and girls to their Clubhouse where Mrs. Anna Sevigny was Chairman of the afternoon; the Newton Jaycettes took twenty-five little girls to Newton Highlands to meet Santa Claus and his helpers who gave them a delightful party; the Messrs. Nicholas Wentworth, Glenn Stauffer, Arthur Samuels, William Huberly, John Noonan, Reid Ruttenberg and David Bjornson, chairman, were some of the members of Alpha Delta Sigma of the Babson's Institute who transported - thirty-five beaming boys and girls to Wellseley Hills for an afternoon of fun and gifts and refreshments.

At the Community Center on Hovey Street, the Young Mothers' Club met for games and refreshments served by Mrs. Bernice Antonellis, Mrs. Patricia Angelo, Miss Nancy Butts, a volunteer leader of the group.

On Friday afternoon a number of young teen agers entertained the Cheerful Club, the Senior Citizens, with a musical program. Miss Irene Forte, staff member of the Music School, another Red Feather Agency led the group. John Merrill played the violin with the group and a solo number accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Dwight P. Merrill. John Bilezikian played the violin accompanied by his sister, Miss Pauline Bilezikian. Pauline played a delightful solo on the piano. Stephen Custer played both the cello and piano. Mrs Richard Chappel and Mrs. John Kaminski, volunteers assisted with the general program and refreshments.

Drama Group presented the Christmas Story in a simple pageant. Those taking part were the Misses Janice Sprissler. Patricia Ryan, Dawn Fleming, Janice Keegan, Carol Sprissler Alexandria MacLean, Francine Diggins, Joanne Proia, Catherine Donahue, Diane Murray Miss Helen Sandstrom told Rachel Field's Christmas Story. "All Through the Night." The Misses Paula Dunn Eleanor Osterberg and Marilyn McGoldrick, Junior Leaders assisted with refreshments.

The Mothers' Club with Mrs. Adele Abbott, President of the group, had an evening of fun and gaiety.

The Nursery School, under the direction of Mrs Ruth Tedesco, will have a short Christmas Program for the parents and younger brothers and sisters. Mrs. Robert McCabe, Mrs Arthur Cotton and Mrs. Walter Hattery will provide special refreshments for the children

The parents of the Nursery School children had a gay evening themselves with dancing, games and fun. Mrs. John Boudreau. Mrs. Walter Hattery Mrs. Edward Gallagher, Mrs Harold Arsenault, Mrs Arthur Cotton and Mrs. Anthony Delaney with Mrs. Gerard Matthews, President. served.

LT. WM. A. SULLIVAN JR. AND MISS HOUSER MARRY IN TEXAS

Carrying a bouquet of white orchids and seed pearls with her waltz length gown of white slipper satin and chantilly lace, Miss Patricia Suzanne Houser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Robert Houser, of Bellaire, Texas, became the bride of Lt. William A. Sullivan, Jr., yesterday at seven o'clock in Chapel Iwo at Ellington, A.F.B., Houston, Texas. The bride's father gave her in marriage as Chaplain M. J. Finneran officiated at the evening ceremony. Immediately following the wedding was the reception at the Officers' Club on the Air Force Base.

Mrs. George Fox was the bride's only attendant and James Nickerson was best man. Ushers were David Krape and Joseph Porto.

The newlyweds will be at home at 2224 West Beach, Biloxi, Mississippi, when they return from a wedding trip to Boston.

The bride attended Texas State College for Women and the University of Houston. Her husband, a graduate of Harvard, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Sullivan of 138 Arnold road, Newton Centre.

Carr Nursery School News

Mr. William Valdina, director of guidance in the Needham public school system and part-time professor at Tufts was guest speaker at a mothers' tea held at the Carr Nursery School in Newtonville Tuesday, December 13. He spoke on "Common Family Problems", during which time the mothers had the opportunity to participate in the discussion. Mr. Valdina pointed out the motives behind children dawdling. He also stressed the need for a mother "to be good to herself, too," without a feeling of guilt about it.

Mrs. Jack Marinsky, president of the Group greeted the mothers. The nursery school teacher, Miss Mary Harris, who introduced Mr. Valdina, was present to discuss the children's activities and program with the mothers. Refreshments were planned by Mrs. Howard Arbetter and Mrs. Fred Pegnato.

A board of directors meeting was held Wednesday evening. December 14 at the home of Mrs. Jack Marinsky, 8 Brookdale road, Newtonville, with Mrs. Marinsky presiding. Mrs. Newton Press read the secretary's report and Mrs. Paul Goldman gave the treasurer's report to date. It was announced that effective January 30, there will be a switch between morning and afternoon sessions similar to the session change that takes place in the Newton kindergartens.

Williams School PTA

The December meeting wasw called to order by President Ernest Asaff. The Program Chairman, Mr. Deats, introductd the principal speakers of the evening, Alden Thresher and Dr. Lawrence K. Frank.

Mr. Thresher, Dean of Admissions at M.I.T. apologized for his unfamiliarity with elementary education problems since he deals with the secondary level with prospects of entering college. Having just returned from Washingtn, where he attended the conference on education, he had much to relate concerning Public Opinion for more and better schools—fast.

Mr. Thresher cited the fact that education now puts less stress on memorization and more on a different approach through problems, using imagination and originality. Students enjoy study now. Human Relations regarding discipline is another important factor in training.

Dr. Lawrence K. Frank, author, was introduced and he stated that education involves all sections of the country, due to the fact that the school has to establish a common ground of all different cultures.

He advised tolerance toward all education and feels that faith in schools is needed, especially when progress is being attained. Encourage, not discourage new ideas is the answer.

An active question and answer period followed and it was gratifying to see so much interest shown. Discussion of the topic continued into the gym where coffee and cakes were served accompanied by the strains of Christmas music. It was the perfect ending to a program which began with the showing of color slides of the Halloween parties held simultaneously at the Burr, Murray Road, Williams and Normandie Room.

Newton Art Association

The next regular meeting of the Newton Art Association will be at the Newtonville Public Library Thursday, January 5 at 7:45 p.m. Paintings by the members will be shown and criticized by a prominent guest artist to be announced later.

The annual Christmas party held at the Newtonville Women's Club, was well attended with a program arranged by the Hospitality Committee, Katheryn Holgate, chairman, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. James Bonnar, Beatrice Hurwitz, Dr. Osborne, Jo Barker White, Sherwood Blodgett, Roy Randall, Chester Reed and President Carl Stiles. Decorations were planned and arranged by Chester Reed and Robert O'Brien, and included a colorful mobile creation by Martha Pate O'Brien. Master of Ceremonies for the evening was Mr. Horton White with Gladys Park directing and Mrs. Charles Tenney at the piano, a musical program of concert pieces and singing of Christmas music by the members and guests was included in the program.

Featured for the evening were two delightful one-act plays, "The Case of the Weird Sisters" and "Girls Must Talk" presented by the Drama and Literature Section of the Newton Highlands Women's Club under the leadership of Mildred Lynde. The cast for these plays included Fan Sylvester, Betty Ransom, Beatrice Krim, Gertrude Green, Orpha Zimmer, Mildred Lynde, Helen Borwn, Charlotte Wilbert, and Irene Fultz.

The program concluded with the serving of refreshments and the exchange of Christmas presents, and the grand march led by President and Mrs. Carl M. Stiles.

Wentworth Symphonietta Is Presented by H. S. Music Club

Wednesday morning, December 14, at 8:35 a.m., the Newton High School Music Club presented the Wentworth Symphonietta under the direction of Mr. Robert Brunton. The meeting was called to order by the President, Larry Lipson, who welcomed the Junior Class, guests of the music club. The Secretary's and Treasurer's reports were then given.

The program began with the Overture to the Merry Wives of Windsor by Nicolai. The student commentator was Edith Schwartz. The selection was a sprightly number which required much technical skill and whose melodies, characteristic of the plot, were delivered in a superb manner.

The various instruments were then demonstrated for the audience by the players. William Hibbard, second student commentator, remarked on the composer Wagner and the Prize Song from Die Meistersinger. The piece was in sharp contrast to the first selection as the second was slow and melancholy. The ending started to be climatic but it diminished to a soft, slow pace thus giving a feeling of peacefulness. The London Suite was heard after a preceding comment by David Smith. The first movement, Covent Garden, was gay and sprightly with a very climatic ending. The second movement, Westminster, contained a cello solo which had a peaceful melody and was played with much feeling. The French Horn added a colorful background to the music. The third movement, Knightsbridge March, had a martial quality. The London Suite was exquisitely performed under the expert direction of Mr. Brunton.

The fourth number, Waltz from the Sleeping Beauty by Tschaikowsky, was heard after student commentator, Nancy Seymour, reviewed the composer. Next heard was Carousel with Sue Stone, soprano, and class of '57, singing several of the selections.

The concert ended with Jazz Pizzicato, by Leroy Anderson. The Wentworth Symphonietta was accepted with warm enthusiasm by the audience.

The next music club meeting will be held on January 26. At this time, a student concert will will be presented.

College Notes

Two Newton girls were among those honored by the student government council of Simmons College when they announced the election of the freshman officers for the coming year.

Among those honored were Miss Joan Nevins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Nevins of 574 Beacon street, Newton Centre, and Miss Sarah West, daughter of Mr. and Mrs George A. West of 32 Rockledge road, Newton Highlands, both elected to the freshman executive board, both graduates of Newton High School.

JAYCETTES CHRISTMAS PARTY

Last Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Newton Jaycettes gave a Christmas party at The Workshop, Newton Highlands, for children from the Rebecca Pomroy House, Newton.

Each child received gifts from Santa Claus, Mr. Prescott H. Brown. There were games, carol singing and refreshments. The little girls were:

Mrs. Richard Egan planned the party and her assistants were, Mrs. Harry Hofford, gifts; Mrs. Carleton Merrill, punch and makeup for Santa; Mrs. Nathan S. Clark, piano; Mrs. Stuart Spaulding, tags for the presents; and Mrs. John Stevens. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fazio. Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Merrill, Mrs. Nathan Clark and Mr. Eric Wahlman did transportation duty. Coolies were sent from the homes of Mr. and Mrs. James Chin, Mr. and Mrs. James Fitzpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gartland, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Horton, Mr. and Mrs. Dixon Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Harmon and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thompson and others.

All the Newton Junior Chamber of Commerce families gathered with their own children, ages nine months to six years, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vaughan, Newtonville, the previous Saturday, December 17th, and had a visit from Santa there, when he brought gifts to all the children.

P. O. Thanks Public For Cooperation

Every Christmas Card and every Christmas Gift Package on hand in the Boston Postal District will be delivered for the holiday, according to Postmaster Joseph P. W. Finn.

"Despite the fast that we had a greater mail load than ever before, we are in a fine position because of the wonderful cooperation given to us by the public in the early deposit of these cards and packages," said the postmaster. Mr. Finn stated that, "the success we have attained represents what can be accomplished with excellent teamwork. We explained the objectives of the postoffice, outlined the problems and the public came through magnificently. It is a trbiute to the close relationship which exists between the American people and the men and women who serve them in their local postoffices."

Special delivery articles will be delivered both on Sunday and Monday. Postmaster Finn also expressed his appreciation to the regular postal personnel for maintaining the high standard of performance which is a tradition of the service. He commended the temporary employees, most of whom were veterans, for the fine manner with which they carried on their Christmas assignments. They were courteous, cooperative and in every way a fine auxiliary asset to the Post Office Department, said the Postmaster.

College Notes

Charles F. Weden, Jr., of 22 Central street, Auburndale; Edwards H. Ripley of 108 Cabot street, Newton, and Harold A. Smedal of 141 Moffat road, Waban, were among those members of the Bowdoin College Glee Club who sang in the traditional Christmas performance of the "Messiah" when it was presented December 10, in the First Parish Church in Brunswick, Maine.

Christmas Seals Can Be Bought At Self-Sellers

For the convenience of those people who may wish additional Christmas Seals to place on their holiday mail and packages, the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association has placed "self-sellers" in the post offices of the following districts: Newton Centre, Newton Upper Falls, Auburndale, Newtonville, Newton Lower Falls, Newton Corner, Waban, West Newton, and Newton Highlands.

The sale of Christmas Seals provides the sole support of the rehabilitation, health education, case finding and medical research programs of the Newton Association. They also give everyone in Newton a chance to help personally in the fight against the contagious disease tuberculosis.

In charge of the Christmas Seal "self-sellers" in their respective villages are the following village chairmen: Mrs. F. H. Fowle and Mrs. Harold Carter, West Newton; Mrs. Olga Mansfield, Waban; Mrs. Norman W. Kempf, Auburndale; Mrs. Reginald Holmes, Newton Upper Falls; Mrs. John D. Fox, Newton Highlands; Mrs. Stanley G. Kindred, Newtonville; Miss Marie C. Ulmer, Newton Centre; and Mrs George E. Rawson, Newton.

TELE-VIEWING THE NEWS

By LEE LOUMOS

Just for fun, here are some Christmas definitions of television terms.

BRIGHTNESS . . . which ordinarily refers to the amount of light in a TV picture . . . around Christmas time could mean the look on children's faces . . . or the merry glow of many-colored lights on the tree.

CONTRAST . . . like the sharp definition between black and white in a TV picture, there's a big contrast between that Christmas scene at midnight Christmas Eve . . . and long around noon on Christmas Day, when the floor is littered with ribbon and torn wrappings . . . and everyone is looking pleased and happy.

FOCUS . . . in the same way a television picture is brought in clear and sharp, the whole world focuses clearly on one event come Christmas . . . the honoring of the birth of Christ almost two thousand years ago in a manger at Bethlehem. And when all men focus clearly on that event, the world can't help but be a little better place. For then a SIGNAL comes in clear and strong . . . and its message says, "Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men."

We hope that your whole family TUNES IN on all of the happiness of this Christmas season . . . and that you can look forward to the cheerful PICTURE of a joyful and prosperous New Year. A MERRY CHRISTMAS to you all!

Carols To Give Welcome to Church Goers

Carols from the balcony of the First Unitarian Church in Newton, beginning at 10:45 o'clock with organ prelude, will welcome churchgoers on Christmas Sunday morning before the processional of senior and junior choirs. "Joy to the World" will be the Rev. John Ogden Fisher's sermon theme. There will be special anthems and Christmas hymns also.

Contributions to the annual United Unitarian Appeal will be placed in a chimney in the vestibule of the West Newton Unitarian Church, or mailed to the church treasurer. The [illegible] of Newton Unitarians is about $2500, according to the minister's holiday greeting message, towards the support of the Council of Liberal Churches (Universalist-Unitarian), American Unitarian Association, establishing new Fellowship groups and new churches, and carrying on all denominational organizations with the exception of the Unitarian Service Committee.

The church school will participate in the Family Worship service on Christmas Sunday, the Primary and Lower School children adjourning at 11:30 a.m. to the parish hall for a brotherhood good will film, "The Toy Maker." Nursery and pre-nursery children will be cared for as usual during the service.

For Christmas Monday evening Dec. 26, a square dance for all ages, and especially for young people home from college for holiday vacations, will be held in the West Newton Unitarian parish hall from 7:30 to 11 o'clock. Dick Delery of Woburn will again be the caller. The square dance is sponsored by the Evening Alliance and the Jaynes League.

All members and friends of the First Unitarian Society in Newton are cordially invited by the Rev. and Mrs. John Ogden Fisher to the annual "open house" at the Parsonage, 17 Somerset Road, West Newton, on New Year's Sunday afternoon, Jan. 1, from 3:30 to 6:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Mary Murphy Posner, 70, of 60 Beacon street, Newton, died last Friday in a Brookline hospital after a long illness. She was the widow of David H. Posner, founder of Posner and Company, men's haberdashers, of 29 School street, Boston.

Prominent in Catholic circles for many years, she contributed to many charities, including Boston College and Holy Cross College. A former member of the Guild of the Infant Saviour, she was also active in the Cecilian Guild, the Good Shepherd Guild, the Guild of Our Lady of Good Counsel and others. In 1946 Archbishop Richard J. Cushing appointed her a director of the Guild of Our Lady of Ransom. Mrs. Posner also held office in the League of Catholic Women, the Philomatheia and the Women's City Club.

Funeral services were held Monday with a requiem mass in St. Ignatius Church, Chestnut Hill. Burial was in Holyhood Cemetery, Brookline.

o

THEODORE C. MALLETT

Services for Theodore C. Mallett of 48 Newell road, Auburndale, were held last Thursday.

Rev. George O. Ekwall, rector of Christ Church, Waltham, officiated. Bearers were all brothers-in-law, Russell, John, Arthur and George Milligan.

Burial was in the Soldiers' Lot in Newton Cemetery, Newton.

The flag that draped the casket was presented to Mr. Mallett's daughter, Miss Rita Ann Mallett.

HENRY F. TIBBETTS

Retired patrolman Henry F. Tibbetts, 86, of 3 Davis avenue, Newton Centre, a member of the local police department for over 40 years, died last Thursday at the Newton - Wellesley Hospital after a short illness.

Mr. Tibbetts retired from the Police Department in 1934.

He was a past president of the Newton Police Benefit Association and a former member of the Board of Directors of the Massachusetts Police Association. In later years he was a clerk at the desk in Police Headquarters.

Born in Bristol, Maine, he came to Newton as a young boy, and was employed as a trainman for the Boston and Albany Railroad before joining the police department.

He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. George Allen of Waltham and Mrs. Helen Kenney of Waban, and one brother, Robert of Bristol, Maine.

ALEXANDER J. GIBBONS

Funeral services for Alexander J. Gibbons of 24 Cherry place, West Newton, were held last Friday morning with a requiem mass in St. Bernard's Church, West Newton. The celebrant was Rev. Robert E. Brennan, and the organist was J. Arthur Colburn. Mrs. Barbara O'Callaghan was the soloist.

Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham, with prayers by Fr. Brennan.

BRIDGET T. HILLEY

Funeral services for Mrs. Bridget T. (Campbell) Hilley, of 12 Dana terrace, Watertown, formerly of Newton, were held last Saturday morning from her home with a solemn high mass of requiem at 10 o'clock in St. Patrick's Church.

Interment was in St. Patrick's Cemetery, Waltham, with prayers by Fr. Kelly.

EDWARD X. CALLAHAN

Funeral services for Edward X. Callahan, 65, of 1112 Centre street, Newton Centre, were held Monday with a solemn high mass of requiem at 10 a.m., in Sacred Heart Church, Newton Centre. Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery, West Roxbury.

Mr. Callahan died last Thursday at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital. He was New England division manager of 20th Century-Fox Studios for 20 years until his retirement two years ago. A native of New Britain, Conn., he served for 10 years as branch manager of Paramount Pictures in New Haven before moving here.

A charter member of the Variety Club of New England, Mr. Callahan was a leader in the March of Dimes drive and active in the Jimmy Fund campaigns. He was a member of the Holy Name Society of Sacred Heart Church and the Woodland Golf Club.

He is survived by his wife, Helen M. Callahan; three sons, Joseph E. of Manchester, N. H.; Edward X. Jr., of Needham; and Thomas J. of Natick; three sisters, Mrs. Loretta Tobin, Mrs. Gertrude Tracy and Mrs. Mary Grogan; and four brothers, Joseph P., Urban T., Matthew J. and Donald W., all of New Britain.

Rotary Club

Edwin F. Weidig, President, presided and expressed the Rotary Clubs' best wishe to all for a happy Yuletide season. The speaker of the day was introduced by Ray Wass, the Reverend Frederick W. Rapp, rector of the Church of the Messiah in Auburndale. Rev. Rapp extended the Christmas message to the club. He reminded us all of the spiritual importance of the Birth of Christ and its effect upon us in our daily living habits. "Beneath all evil forces of society," sair Mr. Rapp, "there is good which proves that God is in control to check the evil that sometimes loses control. We must all remember to give of ourselves in service and love, especially now as well as throughout the year."

Dr. Charles Ansley made a presentation in behalf of the Rotary Club's past president to Mr. Gus Mascaro of the Newton Boys' Club, of a special woodworking machine.

It was also announced that Lawrence Sprague and Dorothy, his Rotary-Ann, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary December 27. Congratulations and very best wishes go to the Spragues on this special occasion.

o

A local boy who received his letter in varsity football at the Christmas dinner given recently at Governor Dummer Academy's new Alumni Gymnasium, was Clark G. Duncan, son of Dr. and Mrs. Christopher J. Duncan of 170 Windsor road, Waban. He is a member of the senior council and a cheerleader.

U.S.Y. Club Of Temple Emanuel

Garden City Grange No. 364

Garden City Grange No. 364 of Newton entertained the Middlesex-Norfolk Grange No. 1 last night in the Parish Hall of the Centenary Methodist Church on Central St., Auburndale. A supper was served at 6:30 P.M., under the very capable chairmanship of Mrs. Ernst, followed by a business meeting of the Pomona Grange. Following the meeting there was a pageant of the Lorld's Prayer given by the members of the Pomona Grange. After the Pageant was concluded a Christmas Party was held and gifts exchanged by all those present. The next meeting on January 2, 1956, the Past Masters will be in charge of the pro-

Reindeer Romp

Dancing reindeer decorated the gym wall last Friday night for the Christmas season's dance, sponsored by the Eight Grade Cabinet. A four-piece band supplied all styles of music. Enormous cardboard letters seemingly floating in the air over the refreshment stand where cokes were served proclaimed the name of the dance. Everyone who attended had a marvelous time.

Christmas Box

The true spirit of Christmas is giving, not receiving. Every year at Weeks this feeling is expressed, as many divisions "adopt" a needy family and give them a Christmas box with toys, clothes, and food. Division 322X was among the numerous divisions to do this. Volunteers formed committees which eagerly made plans. A well-balanced menu was written up and placed on the bulletin board. All enthusiastically signed their their names with the promise to bring in certain foods. Money was collected to pay for a twenty-pound turkey. By the week before Christmas, Room 322 was filled with an abundance of food. Food, clean toys and clothes were added to the rapidly expanding pile. To top everything, a gift explicitly requested by each member of the family, was purchased. On Wednesday, December 21, the Christmas box was packed and delivered. The family's great joy and overwhelming thanks were much more than enough reward.

Coffee Hours

Weeks' teachers are enjoying themselves at afternoon coffee hours organized by eighth grade Home Economics classes. The girls sell sandwiches, brownies, coffee and tea which they make themselves. The groups wish to earn enough money for a pleasure trip.

Coleman Jr. Is Winner Of Tennis Award

Last week at the Hotel Continental, Cambridge, where the annual meeting of the New England Lawn Tennis Association was held, James Coleman, Jr., was presented an award for "being an able leader, a gentleman on and off the courts and contributing greatly to the growth of the NEJTL."

Jim played on the Waban Junior team 16, which in its first year of competition tied with Wellesley for the league championship. A small trophy was given him and his name was added to a large bowl.

Incidentally over 2,000 junior tennis players were in contention for this award.

Parke Snow's

One Solitary Life

Here is a young man who was born in an obscure village, the child of a peasant woman.

He grew up in another village. He worked in a carpenter shop until he was thirty, and then for three years he was an itinerant preacher. He never wrote a book. He never held an office. He never owned a home. He never had a family. He never went to a college. He never put his foot inside a big city. He never traveled 200 miles from the place where he was born. He never did one of the things that usually accompany greatness. He has no credentials but himself.

While he was still a young man, the tide of public opinion turned against him. His friends ran away. He was turned over to his enemies. He went through the mockery of a trial. He was nailed to a cross between two thieves. While he was dying, his executioners gambled for the only piece of property he had on earth, and that was his coat.

When he was dead, he was laid in a borrowed grave through the pity of a friend.

Nineteen centuries wide have come and gone, and today he is the central figure of the human race and the leader of the column of progress.

I am far within the mark when I say that all the armies that ever marched, and all the navies that ever sailed, and all the parliaments that ever sat, and all the kings that ever reigned, put together, have not affected the life of man upon this earth as has that One Solitary Life.

*We are indebted to the publishers of the Transcript Publications, Inc., who have called this anonymous tribute to our attention. Its origin has been attributed to many sources, but investigation in libraries, and consultation with prominent Clergymen to determine its true origin have been to no avail. THE INVOCATION AND LORD'S PRAYER

(A Cantata for Congregation and Choirs)
Various Sources

A HYMN: Congregation and Choirs

"O Little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie! Above thy deep and dreamless sleep the silent stars go by. Yet in thy dark streets shineth the everlasting light; the hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight." Redner

THE SHEPHERDS

"Go tell it on the mountain over the hills and ev'rywhere that Jesus Christ is born!" While shepherds kept their watching o'er silent flocks by night. Behold throughout the heavens there shone a holy light. The shepherds feared and trembled when lo! above the earth rang out the angel chorus that hailed our Saviour's birth. Down in a lowly manger our humble Christ was born, and God sent us salvation, that blessed Christmas morn." Christmas Spiritual Arr. Work

A HYMN: Congregation and Choirs

"The First Noel, the angel did say was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay: In fields where they lay keeping their sheep, On a cold winter's night that was so deep. Noel. Born is the King of Israel!" Traditional

THE WISE-MEN:

"Eastern Monarchs, Sages three, Come with gifts in great plenty; Worship Christ on bended knee, Cum Virgine Maria . . . Gold, in honor of the King, incense, to the Priest they bring, Myrrh, for time of burying, Cum Virgine Maria. On the feast-day of His Birth, Set on thrones above the earth, Angels chant in holy mirth, Cum Virgine Maria." Long

A HYMN: Congregation and Choirs

"We three kings of Orient are, Bearing gifts we traverse afar, Field and fountain, moor and mountain following yonder star. O star of wonder, star of might, star with royal beauty bright. Westward leading, still proceeding, Guide us to thy perfect light." Hopkin

AT HIS CRADLE:

"Infant so gentle, so pure and so sweet, love from Thy tiny eyes sinners doth greet. No word of ours all Thy beauty can show. We must adore Thee, if Thee we would know. Let Thy dear mother, when time it shall be Draw Thee full tenderly up to her knee; and if Thou weep, she will lull Thee to sleep. Joining with angels a vigil to keep." French Carol. Arr. Lefebvre

A HYMN: Congregation and Choirs

"Silent night, holy night, all is calm, all is bright. 'round yon Virgin Mother and Child, Holy Infant so tender and mild, sleep in heavenly peace." Gruber

"Angels and archangels may have gathered there, Cherubim and Seraphim thronged the air; but only His mother in her maiden bliss Worshipp'd the Beloved WITH A KISS." Holst

A HYMN: "Silent night, holy night, Wondrous star, lend thy light; With the angels let us sing. Alleluia to our King! Christ the Saviour is born. Gruber

"What can I give Him, poor as I am. If I were a shepherd I'd bring Him a lamb. If I were a wise man I'd do my part; Yet what I can give Him — I give my heart." Holst

A HYMN: Congregational and Choirs

"O Come, let us adore him, O come, let us adore Him, O come, let us adore Him, Christ, the Lord!" Anon

SCRIPTURE LESSON: Luke 2:1-20.

SERVICE OF PRAYER:
Call to Prayer — No. 533 (Minister, Choir and Congregation)
Pastoral Prayers and Choral Response.

THE OFFERTORY:

"I arose one morning in the early light, When the earth with frost was all shining white. Sing we Noel once more. Then I went to find Guillaume my neighbor near: "Tell me what's that song you so gladly hear!' Refrain — I am glad to hear the nightingale's sweet song, I have heard its notes ringing all night long. Refrain — 'Tis no song of nightingale, or any bird, 'Twas an angel's voice from high Heav'n you heard. Refrain — 'In a stable,' so he told us, 'born this night.' Is the Son of God come from Heaven's light.' Refrain — Then I took my hautboy and my flageolet, Guillaume took his lute, and away we set. Refrain — Shepherds, come with us this little lamb to see, We will give him music, sweet melody. Refrain — Bas-Quercy Carol Arr. Smith

Christian Science Church

391 Walnut St., Newtonville

Sunday morning service, 10:45 a.m. Sunday School at the same hour. Wednesday evening testimony meeting at 8:00 p.m.

The ever-present power of the Christ, Truth, will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Matthew's account of the coming of the Magi to Bethlehem at the time of the nativity of Christ Jesus will be featured in the Responsive Reading. "Christian Science" will be the topic of the Lesson-Sermon.

Among the passages to be read from "Science and Health" with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be the following:

"To those leaning on the sustaining infinite, to-day is big with blessings. The wakeful shepherd beholds the first faint morning beams, ere cometh the full radiance of a risen day. So shone the pale star to the prophet-shepherds; yet it traversed the night, and came where, in cradled obscurity, lay the Bethlehem babe, the human herald of Christ, Truth, who would make plain to benighted understanding the way of salvation through Christ Jesus, till across a night of error should dawn the morning beams and shine the guilding star of being" (Pref. vii:1-10).

MRS. VINTON O. HARKNESS, JR.

MISS JACQUELINE EWER IS BRIDE OF LT. HARKNESS, USN.

Last Saturday afternoon at a military wedding in the Union Church, Waban, Miss Jacqueline Vose Ewer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vose Ewer of Waban and Centerville, became the bride of Lt. Vinton Orris Harkness, Jr., USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vinton Orris Harkness of Waban and Camden, Maine. The Rev. Joseph Cony MacDonald D.D officiated at the ceremony which was followed by a reception at the Wellesley Country Club.

Mr. Ewer gave his daughter in marriage and she wore her sister's wedding gown of candlelight taffeta for the two o'clock ceremony. Her gown was fashioned with an off-the-shoulder neckline trimmed with Alencon lace and seed pearls and a full skirt ending in a cathedral train extended from the molded bodice. Matching lace and seed pearls made her cap which held a finger-tip veil of French illusion. Her bouquet was a crescent combination of Eucharis lillies stephanotis, holly and pearls with centered orchids.

The maid of honor was Miss Elizabeth Lucas of Waban. She carried a semi-crescent of silver eucalyptus leaves and red roses with her sea green taffeta gown. The lace yoke and shirred bodice of her gown matched her tiny veiled hat, trimmed with sprigs of silver leaves. The bridesmaids were identically gowned and carried white chrysanthemums instead of red roses in their semi-crescent bouquets. They were Miss Jayne Allen of West Newton, Miss Audrey Coleman of Hyannis and Boston, Miss Elizabeth Cooley of Newton Centre, Miss Jacqueline Crones of Centerville and Newton Centre, Miss Mary Silveira of Newport, Rhode Island and Miss Muriel Woolf of Waban. The sister of the bride, Mrs. Bruce H. Palmer of Madrid, Spain, was honorary matron of honor.

The bride was graduated this year from Garland Junior College and studied at the University of Rhode Island. Her husband is a graduate of Northeastern University and was a member of Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Jaycees' Deliver Christmas Cheer

This week the Newton Junior Chamber of Commerce made their annual Christmas trip to the Fernald State School in Waltham and delivered over one hundred pounds of candy to the children.

This Christmas project, which was started by Past President Norman E. Moore and Stuart M. Spaulding, is now in its third year.

Miss Mildred Brazier of the Fernald School has stated that the yearly visits to the school by the Jaycees are eagerly looked forward to by the children as the gift of candy helps to supplement the limited amount of goods furnished by the Commonwealth.

Assisting project chairman Carleton P. Merrill were Jaycees Jack Baldwin, Richard Thompson, Albert Horton, local President Edward V. Gartland, Jr., as well as Mrs. Edward Gartland, Jr., and Mrs. Carleton Merrill of the Newton Jaycettes.

The Jaycees were also assisted by the G & S Paper Co. of West Newton, who donated the bags for packaging and the New England Confectionery Co. of Cambridge who donated a portion of the candy.

ELAINE FURMAN

Engagement of Miss Elaine Ruth Furman Made

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Furman of Chestnut Hill, announce the engagement of their daughter, Elaine Ruth, to Mr. Werner Franz Gossels of Brookline, son of Mr. Maximo Gossels of Caracas, Venezuela.

Miss Furman is a junior at Smith College. Mr. Gossels is a senior at the Yale School of Engineering.

A June wedding is planned.

Newtonite Of The Week

By LEWIS PAUL SIMONS

MRS. KING

This week the Graphic is proud to salute Mrs. Virginia King of 201 Washington Street, Newton Corner.

Mrs. King is presently serving as Chairman of the Newton Women's Police Division. She was elected to that post by her fellow officers as a reward for constant and devoted service.

Our Women's Police Force is another example of the far-reaching programs that make Newton a better place in which to live and raise a family.

In 1950, Chief of Police Philip Purcell and Mayor Lockwood, in an experimental attempt to improve police coverage, founded the Women's Unit. It was their opinion that the Ladies-in-Blue could serve two purposes: 1. to take the place of regular male officers who at that time would have left their regular posts to cover crossings and schools when the children were going to and from school; and, 2. having women assigned regularly to school areas and busy intersections, they felt, would increase safety and provide more adequate coverage.

As a testimonial to the success of the pl we have only to look at the many other towns in Massachusetts which are now using women for this purpose.

In 1950, Mrs. King was a busy housewife with three children. Like most women she was confined to the house quite a bit and was anxious to acquire some outside interest. When the call went out that year for twenty adventurous women who would be willing to form the Women's Police Unit, she quickly volunteered.

The prerequisites for this Unit were simple. The women had to be married and have children. They were to be over twenty-five and of high moral character.

Their training program consists of indoctrination and educational lectures. A course in first aid is given with the requirements that test be passed. A thorough knowledge of traffic rules and regulations is necessary, and most important a working understanding of traffic problems so that the law can intelligibly be enforced.

Since the women are officers of the law, they are equipped with the power to enforce the law. Basically their powers are the same as their male counterparts with just a few differences.

The lady officers' working hours differ according to the area in which they work. Where there are single session schools they are on duty in the morning and afternoon. In double session areas they are on the job more frequently.

Mrs. King and the other original ladies in unifor mhave seen the Corps swell in five years to thirty-six. Moreover they have the satisfaction of knowing that they have been part of a successful experiment.

Mrs. King has been honored by being asked to speak on Mildred Carlson's program on Safe-Driving Day. Rudolph King (no relation) has asked her to speak at various meetings about Newton's lady law enforcers.

I believe that Mrs. King and her staff are doing a fine job of keeping our community safe. They command our respect and we owe them our cooperation.

From "Life in These United States"

My son in college had been dating a pretty, vivacious young blonde and had even brought her home one weekend for us to meet. Then, suddenly, the whole thing was off. When I asked him what happened he showed me a letter she had written him setting forth what she expected marriage a beautiful home, trips abroad, a convertible, and more.

"How in the world did you answer the letter?" I asked.

"Oh," he replied casually, "I merely told her that when I married I hoped to have children — but I didn't want my wife to be one of them."

From the Lighter Side of The Reader's Digest

Having moved into a new apartment, a woman phoned the subscription department of a magazine to which she had subscribed.

"I would like to change my name and address," she explained.

There was a sigh, and a sweet young voice replied emphatically, "Who wouldn't!"

Eighteen Little Girls To Be Made Happy With Presents Christmas

The hearts of eighteen little girls, members of needy families of the area, will be brimming over with happiness on Christmas morning, thanks to the efforts of the women of Ladies Circle 4 of the First Congregational Church.

Led by their president, Mrs. Harold Carnes, 29 Bay State road, and her assistant, Mrs. Paul Chandler, 62 Vista avenue, they have dressed dolls, and knitted mittens, to be distributed by The Salvation Army.

Jaycettes Hold Party for 25 Little Misses

The Newton Jaycettes again, this year, arranged a Christmas party for twenty-five little girls, ages four, five and six, at the Workshop, Newton Highlands, last Sunday.

Santa Claus, JC Prescott H. Brown, gave them presents which were wrapped at the December 1 business meeting at the home of Mrs. Albert Horton, Auburndale, when all the details of refreshments, transportation and decorations were planned.

JC's and JCettes, together, had a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vaughn, Newtonville, at 8 o'clock on the night of December 10. Antipasto and Italian spaghetti, most delicious, were prepared and served by the Jaycettes under the guidance of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fazio of West Newton. The colored films taken at their Hallowe'en party were shown later.

To Hear Talk On Psychological Approach to Error

The Newton-Chestnut Hill chapter, American Jewish Congress will hear a discussion of "The Psychological Approach to Human Error" at its monthly meeting Wednesday, December 21 at 12:30 at the home of Mrs. Manuel Brachman, 126 Langdon Street, Newton Centre. Speaker will be Albert Maysles, instructor on Psychology at Simons College.

Mr. Maysles recently returned from an extended trip through the Soviet Union where he visited many mental institutions. He also visited a number of centers on the continent and has served in many situations as psychological consultant. At the meeting he will describe some of his findings as a result of the studies he has made.

Mrs. J. Charles Santis will serve as hostess at the meeting, prayer will be given by Mrs. Henry Sokolsky and Mrs. Samuel Silverman will pour. Mrs. Jay Gilfix, president of the chapter, will preside.

Honestly — Want To Save Money on Storm Windows?
After many years of working in the trade, making and installing aluminum doors and windows, I want to be on my own, working out of my home with no overhead. You don't have to buy more than one window or door. "You save commissions and installers costs," since I do all the work and give you guaranteed service. I can build you a porch and install jalousies. Excellent references.

Robert Cutler to Address Women's GOP Club Meeting

The annual meeting of the Newton Women's Republican Club will be held Monday, January 9th, at 8:15 p.m., at the Beethoven School in Waban.

AN OUTSTANDING program has been arranged as the guest speaker will be the diversely distinguished Robert Cutler, formerly Administrative Assistant to President Eisenhower and consultant to the National Security Council. Mrs. David M. Schulman, president, will preside and Mrs. Robert Kimball is serving as secretary.

NOTED CONCERT pianist, Mr. Guiseppe deLellis will entertain during the second half of the program, and following this a slate of officers for the coming year will be presented by Mrs. Parker Pond, chairman. These include: Mrs. David M. Schulman, president; vice-presidents, Mrs. John Roy, Miss Alice Waters, Mrs. Robert Hull, Mrs. Norman Moore, Mrs. Edward Uehlein, Mrs. Abbott Spear, Mrs. Benjamin Shattuck; recording secretary, Mrs. Charles Hovey; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Gordon Russell; treasurer, Mrs. Denholm Jacobs; auditor, Mrs. George Hill. Members-at-large, Mrs. Parker Pond, Mrs. Walter Kreske and Mrs. Edward Becherer.

Mrs. Howard Whitmore, Jr., and Mrs. Richard Lee will serve as hostesses for the evening. Mrs. John Parkinson will take charge of table decorations and Mrs. Harrey Halliday will be at the piano.

Two West Newton Men to Aid in Arthritis Drive

The appointment of two West Newton men as chairmen in the annual "Stop Arthritis" campaign has been announced by Joseph Linsey, general chairman of this year's drive.

Joseph S. Kaufman of 219 Chestnut street, will head the Loan Companies team of the Commerce and Industry Division, and Joseph C. Skinner of 85 Prince street will direct activities of the Realtors Team.

The goal of the campaign, which is sponsored by the Massachusetts Chapter, Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, has been set at $300,000, which is the minimum sum required to meet the needs of the Foundation's expanded program for victims of the nation's most wide-spread crippling disease.

The Foundation's four point program in Massachusetts includes the establishment of clinics for diagnosis and treatment of arthritis, applied and basic research into the causes and cure of the disease, education and training of physicians and medical personnel to cope with arthritis and rheumatism, and a home care program.

The drive will extend through January 20.

Graphic's Sixth Annual Stork Derby Awaits Announcement of Winner

The sixth annual Stork Derby conducted by The Graphic will shortly be underway and a grand welcome awaits the first baby born at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital to parents of Newton residents.

THE RULES of the Derby have been slightly changed this year. Heretofore, the first baby born at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital, irrespective of where its parents resided, was declared the winner. However, a suggestion was made following last year's contest by a subscriber that the contest henceforth be confined to residents of Newton. The Graphic believes this was a very good suggestion and so this year, the first baby born after midnight January 1, 1956 and whose parents are residents of Newton, will be declared the winner.

IN THE FIVE contests held previously, the girls hold the edge over the boys. The 1951 winner was Holly Jean Hawkesley of Waban, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hawkesley of Waban. The 1952 winner was Susan Farist Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Butler of Natick. In 1953 the winner was Cynthia Joy Harrington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Harrington of Natick. The 1954 winner was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell D'Argento of 98 Waltham street, West Newton, and the 1955 winner was Alex Allardyce, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Allardyce of Norwood. Who is going to be the winner of the 1956 Derby? And will the girls once more win the honors or will the boys make an attempt to even up the score. Time will tell.

Whether boy or girl, the parents of the first Newton youngster born at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital sometime after midnight this Saturday will be the recipient of many fine gifts offered by the merchants of this city to make the event a memorable one for both parents and the youngster.

Bandits Who Robbed Bank Here Are Still at Large

Two masked men last Thursday morning held up eight employees and a woman depositor at the Newton National Bank at Newton Corner and escaped with $10,329 loot.

THEY MADE their get away in a stolen car which was later found abandoned on Commonwealth avenue in Brighton. The dramatic holdup, according to Charles E. Smith, cashier and trust officer in charge of the bank, took only three minutes.

Every effort is being made to apprehend the bandits who staged the holdup but thus far, no definite clues have been uncovered which would lead to positive identification.

President Louis G. LeBlanc, who became head of the bank last Thursday, reported that an audit made at the close of business on the day of the holdup showed $10,329 was taken.

Capt. Daniel E. Crowley of the police department stated that the finding of the auto so soon after the hold-up was a "good break" for investigators who made a door to door check of the vicinity in a search for clues.

THE HOLD-UP, which was staged with precision at 9:30 a.m., required but a few minutes to complete. One of the bandits with a shotgun stood near the side door as his companion vaulted the tellers' counter and ordered Mrs. Elizabeth Strange and Mrs. Nellie Taeschner, tellers, back against the wall.

Court Action Is Likely In Martin Dismissal Case

Former Comptroller John D. Martin, who was fired from his position last week by a 13 to 6 vote of the Board of Aldermen after a closed hearing, will ask the Middlesex Superior Court to order city officials to reinstate him.

HIS ATTORNEY, Walter F. Henneberry of 21 Littlefield road, Oak Hill, is expected to ask for a writ of mandamus, in the Superior Court.

Mr. Henneberry will stress that Martin should have had a public hearing, and that several of the aldermen who had voted to fire Martin had already decided that Martin should be removed before they heard his defense.

CITING a Supreme Court decision at the hearing, he asked that those members of the Board who came to the hearing with pre-conceptions as to Martin's fitness for the job, disqualify themselves from voting.

Mr. Martin was removed from office "under circumstances involving no moral turpitude on his part," according to the motion passed by the Board. "Inefficiency and laxity" were cited in the discussion of the charges, whose exact nature has not been released.

Nation's Political Future Now in Hands of Physicians as Their Advice Will Determine Whether Eisenhower Runs

Top-brass Republican politicians from this distance have all the appearance of jittery, expectant fathers sitting outside the delivery room. All they can do is squirm uneasily and wait anxiously for the doctor's announcement.

The overlords of the Democratic party are just about in the same predicament, even though they are doing a little better job of concealing it.

As one observer colorfully expressed it, the power to chart the nation's future political course by a strange turn of fate has been summarily transferred from the politicians to the physicians, from the smoke-filled room to the clinic.

And just about all the politicos can do is to sit and wait until the medicos make their findings.

In all the discussions and conjecture concerning political things to come in 1956, the question invariably arises: What will the Republicans do, if the doctors say President Eisenhower can't run?

WILLIAM F. WINGARD

William Wingard Named Director Of N-W Bank

George L. White, president of the Newton-Waltham Bank and Trust Company, announced today the election of William F. Wingard to the Board of Directors.

MR. WINGARD, president of the Ucinite Company, 459 Watertown street in Newtonville, graduated from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1939 and received his Master's degree the following year

The Ucinite Company, which has over 600 employees, is a division of the United-Carr Fastener Corporation and today is known throughout the world as a manufacturer of switches for automotive and appliance use, Television indicators, light sockets, lenses, lamp assemblies and a wide variety of connectors.

Mr. Wingard joined the Ucinite Company as an inspection engineer in 1942. He became general manager of the company in 1946 and was elcted president on June 12, 1955.

HE HAS LONG been active in community activities and is a member of the Brae Burn Country Club.

Commonwealth Club Is Sold

Sale of the Commonwealth Country Club, located in this city near the Brighton line behind the Boston College M.T.A. Station, was announced Tuesday. The sale price was approximately $600,000.

Formal announcement of the purchase was made by Benjamin White at a luncheon held in Boston. The Boston Club is the official purchaser of the 18 hole golf club, but White is the Boston Club.

Commonwealth had been on the block since last summer with various groups attempting to purchase the layout.

After a month's transaction, White completed the purchase.

It is stated that the purchasers will maintain the new enterprise as a golf club.

March of Dimes Drive Is Under Way Today With Goal of $58,000 for City

Co-Chairmen Are Named to Head Drive for Funds

The 1956 Newton March of Dimes fund-raising drive was launched today with the announcement by Middlesex County headquarters of the co-chairmen for the campaign. Picked to head the drive are two Boston lawyers, Frederick A. Hunt of Waban and John F. Finnerty of Newton Centre.

THE CO-CHAIRMEN are faced with a monumental task. The 1955 drive netted a record $26,703 total under the second-year chairmanship of Waban's Jack Baldwin. During 1955, $26,700—almost 100% of the total raised in Newton—had to be expended for care of Newton polio patients.

A record load of 117 new polio cases in the Garden City during 1955 has confronted the Newton March of Dimes Committee with a big fund-raising job. It is estimated that the Infantile Paralysis Foundation will spend $58,000 for the care of Newton polio patients during 1956, and if the city's residents are to "care for their own" the response to the letters of appeal soon to be mailed to Newton homes must be unusually warm.

Mr. Finnerty, who lives with his wife and three children at 72 Dalton road, Newton Centre, has been a Newton resident for 10 years. He is a practicing at

TB Problem Still Greater in Some Ways Than Ever

The Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association has received the following report from the Massachusetts Department of Public Health, Division of Tuberculosis and Sanatoria, on the tuberculosis statistics for 1954:

|---|---|
| Newton | |
| Estimated population | 86,873 |
| New cases reported | 28 |
| Number of deaths | 3 |
| Case rate | 3.22 |
| Death rate | 3.4 |
| Cases per death | 9.3 |
| Middlesex County | |
| Estimated population | 1,104,173 |
| New cases reported | 396 |
| Number of deaths | 68 |
| Case rate | 35.9 |
| Death rate | 6.2 |
| Cases per death | 5.8 |
| Massachusetts | |
| Estimated population | 4,954,000 |
| New cases reported | 2,361 |
| Number of deaths | 499 |
| Case rate | 47.6 |
| Death rate | 10.1 |
| Cases per death | 4.7 |

IN SOME WAYS the TB problem today is greater than it was ten years ago. Death is no longer the measure of the seriousness of tuberculosis. Death used to remove many TB cases from our books, but with modern treatment most TB patients return to the community to take up their lives again.

The theme of the 1955 Christmas Seal letter sent out by the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association to 18,734 Newton residents pointed out that drugs and vaccines alone do not prevent the appearance of new cases of tuberculosis, but that TB can be prevented and controlled when in addition to medical methods and treatment a thorough program of case finding and health education is carried on.

Because of the changing character of the TB problem, rehabilitation is becoming increasingly important, too; increased rehabilitation is needed for the increasing numbers of TB patients who are being treated and returned to the community. The Newton Association maintains year-round programs of health education, case finding, and rehabilitation in Newton.

Course in Human Relations Problems In Business, Industry to Be Given

A 12-week training workshop for supervisers and foremen called Human Relations Problems in Business and Industry was today announced among the second-quarter courses to be offered evenings 7-9 once a week commencing January 16 at the Newton Junior College, Elm road, Newtonville. Registration closes January 13.

THE SUPERVISORY training workshop, designed to discuss problems whose solution is likely to increase effective production, is undertaken with the cooperation of the Newton Chamber of Commerce. Plans call for bringing in experts in the fields of human and personnel relations as instructors and consultants. The course will be coordinated by Mrs. Meyer Ritvo, Newton mother of two, who has had her own Public Relations firm, been correspondent for several trade journals and consultant to many industrial firms on public relations and human relations problems. Mrs. Ritvo is presently a doctorate candidate at Boston University in the School of Education where she has worked closely with Dr. Kenneth Benne in the Center for Human Relations who is expected to serve among advisors to the coordinator. Mrs. Ritvo is herself a graduate of Smith and the B. U. School of Public Relations. She has been active in Newton in connection with the PTA Council, the All-Newton School Auxiliary, chairman of Hallowe'en relations for the Community Council, on the Legislative Committee of the Women's International League, on the Advisory Board of the Massachusetts Council of Pub-

Lovinger Fund Established at Northeastern U.

A $500 Merrill R. Lovinger Memorial Fund has been established by the Northeastern University fraternity, Kappa Zeta Phi, in honor of the late Merrill R. Lovinger who was murdered by a pair of masked gunmen February 5, 1955.

The purpose of the fund is to set up a permanent memorial in Northeastern's new Classroom-Laboratory Building, which is currently under construction.

Fraternity brothers and alumni members are now actively campaigning for funds and plan to reach the goal before the Building is completed.

The tragic death of Lovinger occurred last February when two masked gunmen forced their way into the home of Lovinger's in-laws in Newton in a robbery attempt. When Lovinger attempted to reason with the bandits, he was shot through the heart while his bride of five months and her family stood by helplessly.

A graduate of Northeastern's College of Liberal Arts in 1949 and the School of Law in 1951, Lovinger was a member of the Massachusetts bar.

Local Church to Present Lecture January 6

How to apply God's healing power to solve problems of everyday living will be the topic of a public lecture to be given here January 6 at 8:00 p.m. by Paul Stark Seeley of Portland, Oregon.

Mr. Seeley, a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship, will speak in the church edifice, 391 Walnut street, Newtonville, under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Newton. His subject will be "Christian Science: The Healing Power of True Consciousness." The lecture is free, and local members have invited the public to attend.

MR. SEELEY has been prominent in the Christian Science movement for many years. He has served as Associate Editor of the Christian Science religious periodicals, and as President of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts. He has lectured to audiences throughout the world.

A member of the Bar in New York and Oregon, he is a graduate of Harvard Law School and Princeton University. Prior to devoting his full time to the practice of Christian Science, he was associated with an engineering firm in the Northwest.

Beckwith to Head Heart Drive Here

Edwin L. Beckwith, 19 Dartmouth street, West Newton, will be general chairman for the 1956 Heart Fund drive in Newton, it was announced this week by Dr. Sylvester McGinn, president of the Greater Boston Chapter of the Massachusetts Heart Association.

Mr. Beckwith, who is heading the Heart Fund campaign in Newton for the second consecutive year, is a trustee of the Longy School of Music in Cambridge, a director of the New England Philatelic Association and has served in various capacities on behalf of the local Community Chest. For five years he was active with the U.S.O.

IN ACCEPTING the chairmanship, Mr. Beckwith stated:

"With the Heart Fund Drive devoted exclusively to the fight on heart diseases, a gift can be considered a tax deductible investment rather than a contribution. It is an investment not only in our personal health but also in the welfare of the entire nation. The health of a nation is its first defense in peace or war."

Highlight of the 1956 Heart Fund drive to raise funds for research, education and community service programs will be "Heart Sunday"—February 26, when a door to door collection will be conducted.

Lucien H. Thayer of Waban Is Elected A Member of ASCAP

Stanley Adams, president of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers (ASCAP), announced the election of Lucien Hamilton Thayer of 71 Avalon road, Waban, to the membership of ASCAP.

A NATIVE of Quincy, Massachusetts, Mr. Thayer received the degree of Bachelor of Arts from Harvard University. At the age of ten he played woodwinds in the Pierian Sodality Orchestra at Harvard University and began playing the flute at twelve. Mr. Thayer played in school and college orchestras, and for many years was in the Footlight Club orchestra. His musical education, which was self-taught, was fundamentally based on reading many books on harmony, musical interpretation and orchestration. His first musical instruction came at the age of sixty, when Jacobus Langendoen of the Boston Symphony assisted him in the orchestration and instrumentation technique of his composition, "Saratoga."

SOME OF HIS important works include: "Svedish Moosic," written with Vincent Lopez and Lew Brown, "Valse Creole," "The Brook and the Dragonflies," "Squirrel Cage" and "Twilight Bird Rhapsody."

ASCAP is the nation's foremost performing right society, dedicated to the encouragement of America's creative talent. It was founded in 1914 by the late Victor Herbert and his colleagues to collect the public performance for profit fee (on copyright music) from commercial users of music.

Stanley Adams, writer of "Little Old Lady," and many other songs, is the Society's sixth president; he presides over a membership of more than 3,000 composers and authors.

Newtonite of the Week

by LEWIS PAUL SIMONS

LOUIS P. SIMONS

This week I would like to forego my regular column and instead say a few words about the New Year. First — Happy New Year to one and all. May 1956 be the year of hopes come true.

The purpose of this column is to single out certain people among us who have distinguished themselves in one way or another. Some have been business men, others public officials, and of course the American housewife has appeared here too. In the main these people did not receive public acclaim for success in their vocation alone. Rather our judgment was based on two things, 1) the person himself and 2) the interest he afforded Newton.

I would like to look at the latter point for a minute. A community is only as good as the people who make up its citizenry. Its schools, its government, its morals are a reflection of individual attitudes. In the past most Newtonians have not been apathetic and that is why our city is a good one.

In matters like these a plateau is never reached. We either go forward or backward; we rarely stay the same. And so my wish for the New Year is twofold: 1) to see Newton keep advancing and 2) to see more and more people take part in this progress.

Why not make a resolution for 1956 to do your share of community service? The experience is both rewarding and satisfying and your efforts will be very much appreciated.

Aro Manufacturing Company Establishes Plant In Newton

Another important industry has come to Newton and this one is of special interest to all owners of convertible model automobiles because it is the world's oldest and largest maker of replacement tops for convertibles.

The Aro Manufacturing Company, formerly of Boston, some months ago acquired the buildings at 191-197 Webster street, West Newton and has now completed the transfer thereto of all its manufacturing and servicing facilities.

Newton is now the only place where Aro Replacement Convertible Tops are made. Aro Tops are going out from the new plant to jobbers and auto trim shops throughout the United States and Canada and to various foreign countries.

General Manager Ray Hamlin states that Newton was selected after careful comparison with sites in various other communities.

"We decided that Newton offered distinct advantages for our company," he said, "and we are confident that Aro will prove a desirable industry for Newton.

"Aro has a long reputation for quality. Our company was the pioneer in the field of manufacturing replacement tops for convertibles and we have today an accurate pattern for every convertible model produced in America since 1928, and for most foreign models as well.

"It is a noteworthy fact also that, with the shift of our plant to Newton, Aro Tops now become completely a Newton product, because the fabrics we use for Aro Tops are the famous Jonarts sports fabrics, which are manufactured right here in Newton, at the Haartz Auto Fabric Co. on Bridge street."

The Question Is . . .

Though it will proceed to mark off relentlessly the days of our lives, the New Year comes in as a smiling friend. Inexorably it will note the end of each passing day, but with the next dawn it will just as inexorably give us a new one, fresh, unlived, 24 hours of opportunity.

So comes smiling Nineteen Fifty-Six, giving us 366 clean new days to use before the earth turns again.

Into eternity have all other days gone with their sorrows and joys. Here's the brand new year, all ours on a silver platter.

The question is, for each of us, what will we do with it?

A Partial Answer Is . . .

Saturday night is New Year's Eve. That everyone knows.

The question is, or at least partially, what are we going to do about it!

For quite a number of individuals, the night will be given over to celebrating, carousing, drinking and—danger. For those who do this we wonder at times what 1956 will bring forth. Will they live to see more than a few minutes of the New Year? Or will they be just lucky and "get away with it."

For others the evening will be a period of reflection of another year gone by with an anticipation of the New Year about to arrive. Will 1956 bring greater happiness than the year which is almost ready to be recorded into history. Or will it bring sadness and adversity. These are matters to ponder.

But whichever way you intend to observe New Year's Eve, there is one way you shouldn't. And that way is to drink and drive. That is double jeopardy. If you are one of those individuals who must drink and drive, few care what happens to you as a result but in your frenzy of false stimulation, unfortunately, the innocent are likely to be victims of your stupidity.

"It may be "smart' to indulge in alcoholic beverages on New Year's Eve. But it is much smarter, and far more intelligent, not to do so. The toll of highway accidents, numbering close to 600 fatalities, over the Christmas week-end, should serve as a warning to those who think they can drink and drive too. But will it?

There are always those who think they can drive and operate a motor vehicle even when they haven't a leg to propel them. They are the individuals who can't be convinced. They are the ones who have little or no thought of the potential danger they are creating on an innocent public.

Strong words and strong warnings have been issued time and time again about drinking and driving. But these strong words and strong warnings have fallen on the ears of stupid individuals who think they can do both and "get away with it."

It is too bad that many individuals will be killed or maimed for life this coming New Year's Eve all because some fools must drink and drive. To those innocent individuals who will be made to suffer because of the weakness of drinking individuals, our heartfelt sympathy will go. To those who drink and drive and suffer themselves as a result of their foolhardiness, we have little sympathy. Nor has the public in general.

When is the public going to wake up and realize the seriousness of the situation? Must the death toll keep climbing and climbing before those who imbibe too freely come to their senses? Are not the 600 deaths from motor accidents over the recent Christmas holiday warning enough?

When will it stop!

Magic to the Youngsters

A falling teacup shattered in mid-air by a one-inch steel ball . . . a tablecloth whisked out from under brimfull glasses without the loss of a single drop of colored water . . . a merry-go-round mysteriously slowing or accelerating its momentum. All this looks like magic to the 1600 Greater Boston youngsters who fill the Morse Auditorium at the Museum of Science each week for an exciting lecture-demonstration which is part of a school-visit program sponsored by the MDC.

They quickly learn, however, that the fascinating "tricks" are impressive manifestations of the predictability of our world . . . that the action of gravity on the bullet and teacup times their mid-air collision . . . that stationary objects tend to remain stationary . . . that shifting revolving weights will change the speed of revolution.

The reaction of school audiences to such graphic and dramatic demonstrations of Newton's Laws of Motion is very vocal evidence of the soundness of the Museum's philosophy: when Science Is Fun you remember what you learn. Even more important is the fact that making science fun is a powerful motivation to the study of scientific subjects and training for scientific and engineering careers.

With the dearth of scientists and technologists causing increasing alarm among our country's top industrialists and educators, and with statistics showing fewer and fewer high school students studying chemistry and physics stimulation of an interest in science at the primary and secondary school levels is vitally important. It has been estimated that 30,000 engineers would be required yearly to meet our normal peacetime demands, and 60,000 to 90,000 would be needed to meet the demand resulting from the impact of the defense program on an already expanding economy. Yet this year our educational system will produce only about 23,000.

Use of the Museum's facilities in its first five years at Science Park has so far outstripped original estimates that its leaders have decided to start work on the next phase of its development—the construction of a central building. When completed, this additional unit will relieve some of the pressure for visitor — and exhibit-space and enlarge the scope of its unique science education programs.

The Museum of Science operates on an incredibly small budget for the amount and quality of service it gives. To make this new building a reality it must depend upon the support of the community. Here is an opportunity for giving which deserves thoughtful consideration by every industry, organization and individual concerned about our country's future in an atomic era.

RANDOM CLIPPINGS

Down in Nogales, Ariz., police received a complaint from a couple in a motel that the guest next door was praying too loud. After listening outside the officers warned the man to keep his devotions to himself.

• • • •

Arrested on a drunkenness charge in Great Falls, Mont., Louis Caderet was fined double the ordinary amount after he insisted to police that he wanted his occupation listed as "professional shoplifter."

• • • •

After police in Redford, Mich., installed traffic timers near a school crossing as a result of the appeals from anxious parents, four school teachers were booked for speeding during the first two weeks it was in operation.

• • • •

After being fined $14 for stealing from a self-service store, Mrs. May Hampton, 43, complained indignantly to the court: "The public should be protected from this kind of shop; you can go in and steal anything, and no one is wiser."

Andrew Frieburger, 72, of Walkerton, Ont., was fined $40 and costs for careless driving, after he told a surprised magistrate that he ordinarily drove his car by celestial navigation but lost his bearings and wound up in a ditch when he mistook the light on a TV tower for the evening star.

• • • •

When a dairy bar at the autumn fair in Kitchener, Ont., last week offered patrons all the milk they could drink for 5 cents, one boy paid his nickel and then gulped down 18 7-ounce glasses.

• • • •

Police in Fairfax County, Va., are still hunting for a gunman who drove up to the box-office of a drive-in movie with a paper bag over his head containing eye holes for slits, quietly poked a gun at the cashier and drove away with $1100.

• • • •

David Gilkey of Cincinnati, who lived for three weeks in the middle of the army's heavy artillery range near Albany, Ind., was fined $25 in federal court. Gilkey testified that he scaled a high fence to enter the heavily guarded area and that he lived on apples and pears.

Chap. 3 -- Strasbourg, France

We got to the border, and they had us go in to be checked. They were asking us about money, etc., etc., and I indicated that we were with the military, and it was like waving a magic wand. No more questions, etc. And then we were in France.

Strasbourg is right near the border, and so we were soon there and went right to the cathedral. To say that it is magnificent is a gross understatement. The millions of man hours that went into the detail of that pile of stone and glass. We went inside and it was like being in a huge cave, with the light turned to many colors by the stained glass windows. The ceiling was about 150 feet high. The main part of the church was about 400 ft. long. On one side to the rear was a huge clock. At the hour little figures do an act, go through a little door about 30 ft. up the face of the clock. We enjoyed this visit to the cathedral as much as anything we've done here in Europe. The Strasbourg Cathedral is the one that has but one spire, and they can't build the other one now because it has gotten so famous as the one-spired cathedral. It's just as well. It will save several hundred workmen thirty years of work!

Something that struck us in Strasbourg was the buildings. Most of them were hundreds of years old. The garrets looked like a glimpse into Dickens' "Tale of Two Cities". The window frames have been re-calked and re-calked, the walls aren't always straight, and the roofs are steep with the little tiny windows. Some of the buildings are empty because they are unsafe.

We found that the American dollar is worth a great deal here at Strasbourg, 350 francs to one. However, I don't feel so upset about the German value anymore. I have been concerned about the Germans, who have lost the war, getting the par value for their currency. But in spite of the French having their franc value low, everything costs a great deal, which indicates to me that Frenchmen make a great many francs for a day's work. Our supper cost 1500 francs. Our room for the night cost 1800 francs. A pack of American cigarettes costs 750 francs. We had two cokes at the hotel, and they cost 1000 francs. We were at the best hotel in the town, though. I guess that's part of the reason.

We left the following morning and went south through France to Basel, Switzerland. The trip down was as pleasant as we expected. We saw the stork nests on the tops of houses and churches, etc. At one point we stopped to put the rest of the gas into the tank from the can. It wasn't hard to get a funnel. We carry cigarettes with us most all the time and use them for tips when we are shown little extra courtesies, and they surely are appreciated.

We had no trouble at the Swiss border. Basel is a nice little town. We looked it over, ate supper overlooking the Rhine. It certainly is swift. There were several speed boats putting around. When we started back over the border into Germany, I had a little trouble. I don't know what the trouble was. There was something about my passport that is different than regular passports, and they weren't familiar with it, I guess, since I wasn't in uniform. They couldn't speak English, but again I explained that I was not in the Army, but with the Army, and they let me by. By this time everyone was mixed up, and when they asked to see my car registration, I showed them my Army driver's license, which they O.K.ed. More fun!

We came back from Switzerland through the Black Forest area. It was certainly beautiful. The houses were made out of wood in this area rather than stone, and the roofs were covered with wood shingles. Some of them were very picturesque, built half out into the road. Some of the grades were rather steep, and we were actually in the mountains before we got back north toward Stuttgart.

To that might now be added the pointed query: What will the Democrats do, if they say he can run? Will they still nominate Adlai Stevenson for a return match? Does anyone seriously believe that Adlai could defeat Ike, or, for that matter, that he even could make a substantially better showing than he did in 1952?

The astonishing thing about the national political picture, with a Presidential election year about to dawn, is that the Republican politicians have pretty well convinced themselves that Mr. Eisenhower will be a candidate in 1956 and the Democrats are absolutely certain that he will not run? There is some wishful thinking on both sides.

One positive prediction that can be made at this stage is that the doctor's decision, whatever it is, is going to come as a shock to somebody.

Until that finding is reached, there isn't a thing the members of the Republican high command can do except wait—and hope.

If the medical experts say that Ike is not physically able to stand for reelection, that ends it. And there still won't be anything the GOP politicos can do except find somebody else—and hope for the best.

Only if the specialists conclude that the President is able to seek another term will the politicians enter the picture in their efforts to influence his decision.

It's possible, of course, that the doctors will say that Ike can run and that he will decide he has had enough after one brush with death. But persons who are fairly close to the White House declare that if Dr. White and his other doctors give him the green light, Ike probably will make the fight, although he would not wage nearly as active a campaign as he did in 1952.

It's interesting to speculate on the different chain of happenings likely to develop when the medical experts attending President Eisenhower announce their decision in February or March.

What happens if they say he can run and if Ike agrees that he will?

Well, one thing certain to develop is a bitter fight for the Republican Vice Presidential nomination. It's a bit awkward to deny a Vice President renomination for a second term, but a very sizeable segment of the GOP will try to do exactly that.

The heart attack President Eisenhower suffered in Denver has convinced leaders in both political parties that they should give a great deal more thought to the selection of the Vice Presidential standard-bearers than they have in the past.

Nixon is so strongly disliked by powerful elements in the Republican party that it seems doubtful that he will be renominated, if Mr. Eisenhower stands for a second term, unless Ike himself insists on it.

The situation in the GOP as far as the Vice Presidency is concerned is very similar to the one that existed in the Democratic party in 1944.

Henry A. Wallace had served as Vice President during late Franklin D. Roosevelt's third term in the White House. The Democratic professional politicians had taken him with some misgivings in 1940, and they found in the subsequent four years that their doubts were well founded.

FDR was a far sicker man in 1944 than Dwight Eisenhower is today, and the big city bosses in the Democratic party were determined to block the nomination of Wallace, if it was possible to do so.

Wallace would have been renominated if President Roosevelt demanded it, but he didn't. Harry Truman was chosen as the Vice Presidential candidate, and he stepped up to the Presidency, when Roosevelt's fourth term was less than three months old.

Despite all the opposition to him, Wallace made a very strong bid for renomination, partly because of the backing he received from the CIO, and he didn't miss getting it by too much. Nixon also would be likely to put up a real fight, but unless he has Ike's support, he may meet the same fate as Wallace.

Who would get the nod, if Nixon were shunted aside? The answer is that President Eisenhower presumably would handpick his running mate and that he would choose someone of the stamp of Governor Herter.

What happens in the Democratic party in the meantime?

One thing this onlooker anticipates might happen is that Adlai Stevenson's drive for the Democratic Presidential nomination might be slowed down considerably by an announcement that President Eisenhower would again be heading the Republican national ticket in 1956.

There is no question that the Stevenson backers have pushed their man into the lead in the race for the Democratic Presidential nomination. But there also is no doubt that they are rushing along on the premise that Adlai, if he is nominated, will face someone other than President Eisenhower in the election next November.

A feeling, justified or not, exists in the Stevenson camp that Adlai could defeat anyone other than President Eisenhower. No claims, however, are being made that he would stand up to Ike in a test of strength.

The memory of the last Eisenhower-Stevenson election is still pretty strong, and if Eisenhower is to carry the Republican banner, strong sentiment may develop in the Democratic party to have someone other than Adlai Stevenson make the fight against him.

Maybe Stevenson, as his supporters claim, is the best the Democratic party has to offer. But his best wasn't good enough in 1952. It probably would not be good enough in 1956, if he were pitted against Ike, and he would also have the handicap of marching into battle against a man who defeated him by a big margin.

What happens if the decision is that President Eisenhower cannot and will not run again?

What would be very likely to happen on the Democratic side of the political fence is that Stevenson would surge on to capture the nomination. The Republicans would find themselves in the midst of a bitter fight over the selection of their nominee. And again Governor Herter would loom large in the picture as a very potent darkhorse possibility, particularly if a stalemate developed at the national convention in San Francisco.

The Republicans will be heavily favored to win the 1956 election with President Eisenhower in the centre of the political ring but probably will be on the short end of the odds without him.

Like the politicians we have to sit and wait—and guess. We are among the dwindling minority who expect that Ike will not be a candidate.

1955 Produced Some Outstanding Stories

This is the season, as the year draws to a close, when the political columnists and commentators look back over the 365 days that have flown past and debate among themselves as to the outstanding news events produced by old man 1955.

There is not much room for argument this year. By far the most important story was the heart attack suffered in Denver by President Eisenhower, and its final chapter has yet to be written.

Locally, the most sensational happening occurred last January, when four desperadoes staged their incredible revolt at the Charlestown State prison and held the law-enforcement agencices of the Commonwealth at bay for more than four days.

That riot results in much shakeup at the prison and sweeping reforms in the State's penal code.

Escape artist and bank robber Teddy Green, ringleader in the plot, is now out at Alcatraz, where even his genius for breaking out of prion is not equal to the task confronting him, and the other three hoodlums who were colleagues in the uprising have long ago faded into the background.

One of the big stories of the year was furnished by the weather. After a series of hurricane threats that just skirted Massachusetts, the rains came in last August, and they came with such fury and force as to leave a trail of devastation in their wake.

It was a year that brought its full share of tragedy, with a terrible polio epidemic that struck fear in the hearts of parents of children, but it also brought developments in the field of medicine that may eventually make that dread disease a thing of the past.

Whatever else may be said for old 1955, now living his final days, he was rarely dull. There was almost always something doing. He invariably produced something either to worry about or cheer about, and he left his mark on history for all time to come.

--Newton High's Tiger Talks--

I hear the seniors really had a swell time at their Senior Class Supper, December 3. Held in the Newton High gym, the supper consisting of chicken pie, rolls and a beverage, was served at 6:30. Square dancing and songs brought a close to this evening of fun. The Senior Class Committee under the direction of Bob Sade, Senior Class President, did a superb job of organizing this affair.

Speaking of Bob Sade . . . He was one of the four Newton High students to go abroad with the American Field Service Summer Program. Bob's ship left Quebec on June 20 and entered the port of Bremershaven, Germany on June 30. After attending a banquet given by the Bremen Senate, he went to Cologne to stay with his new "family." One of the great moments of Bob's stay in Germany was the reception given by the President of the West German Republic. Bob and the other three students, besides having an exciting and enjoyable trip, know much more about the countries they visited. Next summer's candidates for the FSSP are now being chosen.

Eight students from NHS have been chosen semi-finalists in the competition for the National Merit Scholarships which are awarded on the basis of acedemic aptitude. Out of 40 of the top senior students who took a test (paid for by Ford Foundation), Douglas Holdridge, David Horovitz, Arnold Jacobson, John Kelley, Richard Minear, Jeffery Nason, David Sacher and Bob Sade were chosen.

I asked some of our star football players to state their opinions as to the highlights of the season. Steve Curley, guard said, "The last quarter of the Brockton game." Brian Kenney, "When we got that Medford victory that Coach Hawkes wanted so much." Pete Nelson, halfback, said, "Those last few minutes of the season, when we had the ball and almost made it."

I enjoyed the Music Club Assembly very much. Under the direction of Mr. Robert Brunton, the Wentworth Symphonietta played music ranging from that of Tschaikowsky to that of Leroy Anderson. Sue Stone, soprano, sang selections from Rodger's and Hammerstein's Carousel. Sue is a junior here at Newton High. I also saw her as the mother-in-law in "Amahl" at the high school last Sunday.

The theme of the first PTSA meeting was "Look To the Future,' which featured a panel discussion on college boards, aptitude tests, personalities, scholastic records, and the values of each in connection with college or employment after high school. The audience had a chance to participate in the questioning and by the end of the evening was well informed on the aspects of a college education.

Reactions wanted! Do students regret having to pay for the test taker at the completion of their Kenyon subject(s)? These tests, previously paid for by the Ford Foundation, are used to determine where a student should be placed in college.

"We have a potentially great indoor track team this year," says Don Quinn, sports editor of the Newtonite. He told me most of the mainstays of last year's team are back. With such boys as Barry Gilvar, Brad Gottschalk, John English, Lou Farrugal, Ed Bograde, Art Menard, Brian Harvey, Pete Nelson, Gil Bickum, and Steve Berger, we are certain to win many meets. Several sophomores should show up well, too. The first meet is with Malden at the East Newton Street Armory on December 31. I hope to see you all there cheering our team on to victory.

Hot off the wires . . . Carolyn Kleinman leaving N H S in January for Dallas, Texas. Hope she enjoys her new home . . . Carol Goldberg NHS Chairman for Boston Association for the Mentally Retarded Children . . . Betsy Marcus elected Greater Boston Chairman for New England Senior Young Judea Scholarship Fo Book.

Congratulations to the Junior Red Cross Council. The sixty Thanksgiving fun books that went to the Peabody Home for Crippled Children were really 'terrific." The books each consisted of a children's version of the Pilgrim's landing, The Thanksgiving Story; another story, Bashful Finds a Friend; and many puzzles and games.

I would like to introduce you to the eight NHS cheerleaders. Jan Toher, head cheerleader, can be recognized by the expression, "You'll just die!" Each of the cheerleaders has a pet peeve; Jan's is a '40 Ford. After graduating Jan plans to go to nursing school. Ann Silva's pet peeve is having to eat breakfast. She can often be heard saying "What am I gonna do?" Ann's favorite pastime is R.S.W. Winnie Hoskins shouts "Wait!" which is her favorite pastime (just who is she waiting for?) Like Jan, Winnie plans nursing school after graduation. The telephone is her pet peeve. Rainy Saturdays and college "men" are Connie Forbes' pet peeves. "You're kidding", she often exclaims. Sally Wallace's favorite saying is "One of these light years." Her pet peeve - kibitzers; her ambition - writing letters to her "Kentucky Colonel". Linda Kahn spends her time counting the days till . . . . ? Her pet peeve is people punching the middle of her "O"; most used expression "Auh". Lynne Albert greets you with a cheery "Hiiiieee." Her pet peeve is that there are not enough uniforms for all of the cheer leaders. Ann Barrs, who enjoys gormandizing in her spare time, may be heard saying "jeepers" very frequently. Ada Nazzaro, the only junior in the group, enjoys spending her time making toll house cookies and cheering the team. Her pet peeve is B.K. Ada can often be heard saying, "call me up some time." All the girls agree that Tigerama is their fondest memory of Newton High.

Now that the football season is over, the girls may be seen at the basketball games. See you at the games soon.

Tenlev Albright Wins New Honor From Editors

Tenley Albright of this city was named among the six "most successful women of 1955."

She was chosen by the editors of the Woman's Home Companion for her contribution to the needs of community, nation, and world, and Miss Albright was one of the six women selected.

"They brilliantly prove that modern women can and do reach out beyond their traditional bounderies, beyond the concerns of family and home," the editors stated.

Miss Albright was cited for winning both the world and national women's figure skating championships last year.

MRS. WILLIAM G. PESTALOZZI

MISS SALLY L. ROSS IS BRIDE OF LT. WILLIAM PESTALOZZI

At a double ring ceremony yesterday afternoon in Trinity Church, Newton Centre, Miss Sally Louise Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Warren Ross of 206 Lincoln street, Newton Highlands, became the bride of 1st Lt. William George Pestalozzi of Chevy Chase, Maryland. The altar was banked with white gladioli and chrysanthemums, Christmas greens and red poinsettias as the Rev. Howard R. Dunbar performed the marriage ceremony. The bride's father gave her in marriage and the reception was held in the parish house of the church.

The maid of honor, Miss Nancy Williams of Glastonbury, Connecticut, wore a ballet-length gown of ruby red velvet, having a round neckline and bracelet-length sleeves. She carried a Colonial bouquet of red and white carnations. With their gowns identical to that of the maid of honor, the bridesmaids carried Colonial bouquets of pink and red carnations. They were Miss Marilyn Estey of Holden, Miss Lise Hindenburg of Washington, D. C., Miss Sandra Shoemaker, Bethesda, Maryland, Miss Carolyn Huss of Newton Centre, Mrs. Theodore Bauckman of East Hartford, Connecticut and Mrs. John Russell of Framingham.

The bridegroom's sister, Miss Alexandra Pestalozzi of Chevy Chase, Maryland, served as junior bridesmaid. She wore a red velvet gown with round neckline and deep collar. Her small Colonial bouquet was made of red and white carnations.

John Jacobson of Dover, New Hampshire, was best man. Ushers were: Lt. Alan Hartell of Port Washington, and Peter Pestalozzi also of Port Washington, New York; Richard Gurbaugh of Indianapolis, Indiana; Harold Moores of South Portland, Maine; Roger Sundeen of Manchester, New Hampshire and Gerald Hannay Jr., of Maplewood, New Jersey.

Mrs. Ross chose a sable brown de-lustered silk sheathe with dusk brown hat and accessories to wear for her daughter's wedding while the bridegroom's step-mother wore a ballerina length sapphire blue lace with matching hat and accessories.

The bride attended the Mary A. Burnham School in Northampton and Colby Junior College. Her husband graduated from the University of Colorado and is a lieutenant in the Corps of Engineers. He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harry George Pestalozzi of Zurich, Switzerland.

The couple will reside in Boulder, Colorado.

MRS. HERBERT E. KAPLAN

HERBERT R. KAPLAN AND MISS FORMAN ARE MARRIED

Miss Audrey Forman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Forman of Providence, became the bride of Herbert E. Kaplan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kaplan, Beacon street, Newton Centre, Sunday, December 18, at the Ledgemont Country Club, Seekonk.

Rabbi William Braude of Temple Beth El, Providence, officiated at the 6:30 p.m. candlelight ceremony.

Participating in the procession were Miss Jill Forman, sister of the bride, maid of honor; Joseph Kaplan, best man; Messrs. Roy Forman, Arthur Weinberg, Max Brandstater, Irwin Kay, Carl Greenburg and Oliver Carpenter, ushers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a candlelight ivory Italian silk satin gown, with a portrait neckline, short sleeves, both decorated with a beaded petal-like affect. The fitted bodice was fashioned to a bouffant skirt with side panels of flowered seed pearls extending to a chapel length gown. Her headpiece was a small diamond shape cap of matching satin trimmed with tiny seed pearls caught up by a finger-tip veil of imported French silk illusion.

The bride is a graduate of the Lincoln School, Providence, and Wellesley College. The bridegroom was graduated from Phillips Academy, Andover, Yale University and is in his final year at the Harvard Graduate School of Busines Administration. He served two years as a lieutenant in the U.S. Air Force.

Miss Woodroofe Is Engaged To Lt. Tulloch

Miss Woodroofe is a senior at Smith College. Her fiance was graduated from Amherst College where he was a member of Psi Upsilon fraternity.

TELE-VIEWING THE NEWS

By LEE LOUMOS

Daytime TV is often neglected . . . both by set owners and TV columnists. But some of the medium's top talent is seen in the daylight hours. There are the strongmen of both radio and TV . . . like Arthur Godfrey, Art Linkletter and Garry Moore . . . who bring a lot of top-flight comedy, music and monkeyshines to the housewives. Others, like Robert Q. Lewis and Tennessee Ernie, have just about as big a following. The day starts off top-flight with fare like Dave Garroway's "Today" . . . and it includes good children's fare right from "Ding Dong School" on to the Mickey Mouse Club. A lot of viewers never have a chance to watch daytime TV . . . and they're missing something.

One of TV's top nighttime dramas, Climax, features Medic star Richard Boone along with Charlton Heston and Nancy Davis in "Fall With Fear" on Dec 29th. It's a drama woven around a crucial test flight by a couple of jet pilots. This show will be directed by television's youngest top director, Johnny Frankenheimer . . . who is only 20 years old! He alternates direction of the Climax hours every other week with an older hand, Allen Reisner. Not bad for a young fellow just getting started! You'll give top-flight direction to your televiewing with a new SYLVANIA TV set from our huge selection of makes and models. Make this a picture perfect New Year with a new TV set from . . .

Temple Emanuel Sisterhood

The first meeting of the New Year for the Sisterhood of Temple Emanuel of Newton will take place January 4, in the Community Hall. The highlight of the afternoon will be a playlet: "Key to the Ark" directed by Mrs. Lawrence Perlmutter, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Philip Cohen. The cast will include: Mrs. Edward Dashefsky, Mrs. Lawrence Perlmutter, Mrs. Philip Charm, Mrs. Harold Falkoff, Mrs. Joseph Zalcman and Mrs. Leonard Matthews.

A panel discussion entitled "Youth Speaks" will be presented with Dr. Martin Goldstein as moderator. The participants are: Miss Judith Armet, who will represent The United Synagogue Youth; Miss Judith Goldstein, who will represent The Hebrew Teachers College; Miss Sue Feldstein, who will represent The Young People's League; and Miss Dena Evans, who will represent The Hebrew High School.

Miss Mark Edison will open the meeting with a prayer and Mrs. Harold Reines will lead the singing of Hatikvah accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Maurice Creem. The afternoon will adjourn with a home made cake sale of which Mrs. Myer Goldstein and Mrs. Henry Lasoff are chairmen. Mrs. Frank Metcalf is hostess for the afternoon. Dessert and coffee will be served at the tables.

College Notes

Area students on vacation from St. Mary's College, Notre Dame, for the 19-day Christmas recess which began Tuesday noon, December 20, and extends to January 9, includes two girls from the Newton Centre area: Sue Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Kennedy of 65 Adella avenue, West Newton; and Jackie Reuter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter T. Reuter of 54 Bow road, Newton Centre. Both will spend the holidays with their parents.

Services for Maurice E. Beardsley, 96, Resident of City 72 Years, Are Held

Maurice E. Beardsley, 96, of 108 Crescent street, Auburndale, retired contractor who lived in Newton 72 years, died after a short illness.

Mr. Beardsley and his wife, M. Millie (Fogwill) Beardsley, celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary in 1952. Mrs. Beardsley is now in Newton-Wellesley Hospital recovering from an operation.

He was a member of many organizations and was a life member of Needham Lodge, Knights of Phythias. He also belonged to Home Lodge, IOOF; Garden City Lodge, NEOP and Sumner P. Lawrence Rebekah Lodge.

He was a past senior warden of the Church of the Messiah, Auburndale, and belonged to that church for 60 years. Mr.Beardsley was born in Bridgewater, Nova Scotia. Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Hoyt, of Auburndale, and a daughter, Mrs. T. Arthur Gibbs of Birmingham, Mich., and two grandchildren.

The funeral was held last Thursday at 2 p.m. in the Church of the Messiah, Auburndale. Rev. Frederick W. Rapp officiated and burial was in the Newton Cemetery.

HARRY PLOTKIN

Harry Plotkin, of 16 Varick Hill road, Waban, Boston retail merchant for 46 years, died last Thursday night at Beth Israel Hospital, Boston. He was 72 years of age.

He was president of Plotkin Bros., 364 Boylston street, with a branch store at Shoppers' World, Framingham.

He started business in a small shop at 19 Arlington street, Boston, in 1909 with his late brother, Ely. They catered to a select clientele of women interested in "high fashion" clothes.

He was a member of the Boston chapters of Knights of Liberty Lodge and the Odd Fellows. He was active in philanthropic activities.

He is survived by his wife, Ida; three sons, Louis and Ralph, both of Newton, and Theodore of Brookline; and one sister, Mrs. Louis Cohen of Newbury street, Boston.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock last Friday afternoon at Stanetsky Memorial Chapel, Beacon street Brookline. Burial was in the Knights of Liberty Lodge Cemetery, Woburn.

Council of Church Women

The annual Mid-Winter Meeting of the Newton Council of Church Women will be held on Wednesday, January 4, at 2 p.m., at the First Methodist Church of Newton, Newton Upper Falls. The program, open to all interested women, will be an informal panel discussion entitled "Conversation Piece." The subject will be the Seventh National Assembly of Church Women, which was held in Cleveland in November; and the report will concern not only the content of the Assembly but will include amusing and interesting sidelights as well. The Assembly, which brought together 3000 women from the United States as well as forty-seven distinguished visitors from foreign countries, was attended by three members of the panel. Those participating will be Mrs. Stanley E. Clark, chairman of World Christian Relations on the state board of the United Church Women of Massachusetts; Mrs. Hugh L. Robinson, president of the Newton Council of Church Women; and Mrs. James H. Burns, vice-president of the Newton Council.

This meeting of the Council will be the first held in the First Methodist Church of Newton, which is the oldest Methodist church in the city. Mrs. Herbert L. Downs, president of the local Woman's Society of Christian Service, will be the hostess. The tea to be held following the program will be served by a committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. John C. MacMaster. The Rev. Henry Beukelman, minister of the church, will bring greetings from the Official Board.

Auburndale Woman's Club

The Auburndale Woman's Club will share in adventure when they hear Eleanor Broadhead present "Summer on the Mountain" Thursday, January 5, at 2:15 p.m. at the Auburndale Clubhouse. Illustrated by spectacular Kodachrome slides, all the beauty, drama and adventure into remote wilderness areas of our own West and the Canadian Rockies will be presented in an entertaining and lively lecture.

Mrs. J. Howard Littleton, president, will conduct business meeting at 1:45 p.m., coffee hour 1:15 p.m., day chairman, Mrs. Azel A. Martin; guests of honor, Ladies of Walker Missionary Home. Hostess, Mrs. Howard N. Atwood, assisted by group 5—Mrs. William E. Bailey, Mrs. Lyle E. Beal, Mrs. Barbara H. Brewer, Miss Lulu G. Bookwalter, Mrs. Robert B. Carr, Mrs. Herbert E. ## Sisterhood Temple Reyim

On Wednesday afternoon, January 4, Sisterhood Temple Reyim will hold their next meeting starting with a coffee hour at 12:30 p.m.

The prayer will be given by Mrs. Allen Fair. Mrs. Robert Schneider will talk on the Dead Sea Scrolls. Music will be by Mrs. Eli Wolfson. Program chairman for the afternoon is Mrs. Israel Arnold.

The guest speaker will be Miss Basilla Neilan, whose subject will be the "Pattern of Youth."

For her outstanding work with teenagers and adolescents, Miss Neilan has won many awards including ones from the D. A. R. and the American Veterans Association. She also was chosen by "Madamoiselle" magazine as one of the 10 most outstanding women of the year.

Miss Neilan has recently written a book about adolescence which will soon be published. She is scheduled to make a lecture tour throughout Europe next year.

Attention: Want-Ad Dept.

Gentlemen:

When one has had much experience in advertising in various mediums and maintains a check-up of the actual results, it becomes rather easy to ascertain which medium is producing the best results, and particularly the certain publications which stand out above the others.

In connection with this I have found that the advertisement which we have been running in your publications has proven highly successful in inquiries resulting in many actual sales. We are getting good coverage in regard to territorial spread. These "Paper Leads," as we call them, come from average and better than average class of property owners who possess sufficient "pride in ownership" to maintain, improve and modernize their homes and properties. Since we handle every phase of the general contracting field in which home owners are interested, we are therefore maintaining what we think is a good average of "closed business." This, coupled with the fact that we give our customers excellent service, plus the finest workmanship and materials makes for a very satisfactory condition all around.

But in all this, the one outstanding factor is that your publications are a very potent factor in bringing us our good customers in the first place, and which very often results in their further recommending us to their friends and neighbors for additional leads for further business. May we say then that we are more than highly pleased with the results our ad in your papers are giving us. More power to you. Yours for a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Very truly yours,
BUILDING CONTROL CORPORATION

DR. R. LEONARD WHITE

Dr. White Elected A Member of Medical Academy

Dr. R. Leonard White of 7 Hyde Park avenue, Newton, was inducted into the Fellowship of the American Academy of Obstetrics and Gynecology at the annual business meeting held in Chicago December 12.

The American Academy of Obstetrics and Gynecology was organized in 1951 to foster and stimulate interest in obstetrics and gynecology and all aspects of the work for the welfare of women which properly come under the scope of obstetrics and gynecology.

Dr. White is a native of Newton, was educated in the Newton public schools, Tufts University and Tufts University School of Medicine in 1947.

He had an internship and residency for four years at the Boston City Hospital in Obstetrics and Gynecology. He is a member of the faculty of Tufts University School of Medicine, Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology and is a staff member of the following hospitals: Newton-Wellesley; Boston City; St. Elizabeth's and the Glover Memorial.

Dr. White was a Captain in the Army for three and a half years during World War II and served overseas with duty in Japan.

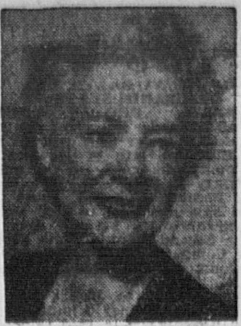
First National Stores to Hold Cooking School January 3

"Fun With Food," television's popular food program starring Bonnie Lynn, will be presented locally when First National Stores in cooperation with the Boston Gas Co. brings to the stage of the Newton Centre Woman's Club the popular free cooking school for three sessions, starting next Tuesday, January 3.



BONNIE LYNN

Sessions will be conducted from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons, and from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. on Tuesday evening. Forty-five free food bags will be awarded at the sessions, in addition to all of the food prepared by Bonnie Lynn. The grand prize to be awarded will be a Roper Gas Range worth $225 at the final session of Wednesday.

During this period, Mrs. Lynn, whose helpful hints, instructive cooking lectures and suggestions have been a boon to hundreds of busy housewives, will demonstrate how to prepare a tasty, palate tempting meal, with a minimum of effort and expense.

Bonnie Lynn, new star of "Fun With Food" replaces the popular Roberta Clarke who retired from the field. A home economist of wide reputation, Mrs. Lynn comes to "Fun With Food" with a background that includes the supervision and organization of homemaking and cookery classes for adults for several West Virginia and New York School systems. She holds a degree in home economics from the University of West Virginia and has been an active member of the American Association of University Women and Association of Women's Clubs.

Judging by the tremendous reception accorded the program in other New England cities and towns it is expected that the Newton Centre Woman's Club will be crowded for each presentation of "Fun With Food" next Tuesday and Wednesday.

The television program "Fun With Food" is seen every Thursday afternoon from 2:30 to 3:00 p.m. on WBZ-TV, channel four in Boston.

Mother's Rest Club of Newton

The Mother's Rest Club of Newton will hold the first meeting of the New Year next Wednesday, January 4, at the home of Mrs. George Willard Smith in Brookline.

Assisting Mrs. Smith at the luncheon will be Mmes Kirtley P. Mather, Philip L. Warren, H. J. Pettengill, Chester L. Churchill, Melville D. Liming, Stanley P. Lovell and Frederick G. Fisher.

After the luncheon a business meeting will follow when Mrs. Warren and Mrs. Steinscieck will report on the progress of the interior decorating of the Nurses' lounge at the Peabody Home for Crippled Children.

lic Schools, in Red Cross and Community Chest activities.

MRS. RITVO STATED: "With our growing pride in Newton industries we are also concerned that Newton workers and their employees shall exhibit the same pride in their community. This comes from understanding the needs of workers and meeting them in such a way as to promote a common pride in Newton and its industries."

Enrollment in this course is limited to 25, including a maximum of five second-year students from the Day Division of the College. The course carries two semester-hour credits and meets on Tuesdays, 7-9 in Room 23E of the College. The course fee is $25.

A second attempt will be made to offer the course in Writing and Handling Publicity, under the leadership of Mrs. Ernest F. Dietz of Newton Centre, former copy editor and writer for the Globe and the American and publicity chairman of many Newton activities including the League of Women Voters, the Mason-Rice PTA, a neighborhood Girl Scout group, the Newton Civic Association, and the Boston-Wellesley College Club. Mrs. Dietz is also first vice-president of the Newton Women's Republican Club.

A LATE START on publicity last fall is attributed by the Newton Junior College Director, Walter M. Taylor, for the failure of the course to materialize then. Since that time material descriptive of the course has been sent to many clubs and organizations in and about Newton from whom students are expected to come in addition to those interested in writing publicity for personal reasons.

The course in Writing and Handling Publicity will be given Mondays, beginning January 16. The fee for this course, and others continuing from the first semester, is $12.

In addition, four courses are expected to be continued for the second quarter of the Evening Division of the College which citizens from Newton and vicinity may enter at this time. Mrs. Raymond Ethier will continue to offer a course in Conversational French on Thursdays, beginning January 19 and Mr. Franklin Davis the course in Spanish on Tuesdays, beginning January 17. Both are members of the Newton High School faculty.

THE COLLEGE DIRECTOR, Walter M. Taylor, will be joined on Wednesdays, beginning January 18, by Mr. Howard Donalds, psychologist on the staff of the Shirley Industrial School and candidate for a Ph.D. in phychology at Boston University in presenting the course on Behavior and Misbehavior, an Introduction to Psychology in which emphasis will be upon problems in social psychology. Mr. Edward Weisberg of the firm of Weisberg and Weisberg, realtors, will offer a continuation of the course in Fundamentals of Real Estate, Mondays beginning January 16, to include all aspects of the business Agreements which were thoroughly covered in the first quarter.

Information about registration and advance payment of fees may be obtained from Miss Janice Abbott, Registrar of the College, LA 7-6267.

Offer Free Coffee For Holiday

In cooperation with national safe driving campaigns, the Hotel Beaconsfield in Brookline is featuring free coffee during the holiday season, according to an announcement by General Manager Roderick E. Bassett.

This campaign, which has been effective in previous years, is trying to promote the use of coffee rather than alcoholic beverages when people have "one for the road."

Newly Decorated Cafeteria Kitchen Is Dedicated Here

A Silver Tea was held at the Sacred Heart School Hall, Crescent avenue, Newton Centre to dedicate the newly decorated cafeteria kitchen. His Excellency Rt. Rev. Eric F. MacKenzie gave his blessing. He was assisted by Rev. Arthur J. McClarey and Rev. Columbo Sullivan.

The guests were welcomed by Mrs. Ray S. Jones, President of the Guild of Saint Francis; Mr. Thomas J. Kenney, President of the Holy Name Men's Club, and Mrs. E. Lake Jones, Director of the Kitchen Committee. The officers and board of the Guild served as hostesses and the usher duties were performed by members of the Men's Club.

Officiating at the tea urns were past Guild presidents, including Miss Elizabeth J. King, Mrs. George M. Shannon, Mrs. William D. Moran, Mrs. John R. Horgan, Mrs. Edwin B. Crowley, Mrs. John J. Ferguson, Mrs. John F. Shea, Mrs. James F. Kerrigan.

Mr. Francis W. Geary conducted the Newton Police and Firemen's Glee Club in an arrangement of Christmas carols. Community singing was enjoyed by all.

Cub Scout Pack No. 7

Cub Scout Pack 7 of West Newton held its annual Christmas party December 19, at the Davis School, Waltham street, West Newton.

The following boys were awarded Denner and Assistant Denner stripes: Den 2, Carlton Stewart and Warren Feldman; Den 3, Francis O'Donnell and Billy Price; Den 4, Michael Taynor and Tommy Flynn; Den 6, Alfred Ryan and Richard Capello; and Den 7, Ned Rubin and Rusty Palmer. Alfred Ryan received his Gold Arrow on the Wolf Badge.

The boys presented Mr. Rabbitt, the custodian, with a Christmas gift.

Registrar King Clarifies State's Point System

Rudolph King, Registrar of Motor Vehicles, issued the following statement today in an attempt to clarify the State's Point System:

As Registrar of Motor Vehicles and Chairman of the Massachusetts Highway Safety Committee, I feel obliged to make it crystal clear that the Registrar and the Highway Safety Committee have nothing whatever to do with insurance, insurance rates, or premium surcharges. This is strictly the responsibility of the Commissioner of Insurance, who acts independently and is not required to seek advice or consult with the Registrar or the Highway Safety Committee.

The Point System was enacted into the law by the Legislature and the law requires the Registrar, with the advice of the committee, to administer the system as it relates to highway safety. The committee and the Registrar adopted a schedule of point assessments, graduated from 1 point to 12 points, in accordance with the seriousness of the involvement. A schedule of penalties, based upon accumulation, was also adopted and under the policy of the committee leeway is given to persons who accumulate points, as the following schedule of penalties shows.

1. A warning is to be given or a conference is to be had, or both, when an operator has accumulated at least five points in the operation of a motor vehicle within a 12-month period.

2. The Registrar may suspend the license of an operator who has accumulated a total of eight or more points in the operation of a motor vehicle within a 12-month period.

3. Upon an accumulation of 12 or more points within a 12-month period, the Registrar may, after hearing, suspend any registration in the name of any person who has accumulated such points on his operating record.

At the end of any 12-month period, points cease to be counted towards possible license or registration suspension and a new period of accumulation begins for that purpose.

From January 1, 1954, when the point system was first inaugurated, 161,852 warnings have been issued to minor first offenders, rather than action being taken upon their licenses, in the hope that their cooperation may be secured before it is necessary to suspend their driving privileges. Our job is strictly highway safety. A warning letter leaves no black mark upon a person's record and each bears the following postscript: "We need you on our highway safety team. Will you please cooperate with us?"

Ten New Year Resolutions For Healthier Living

Want to stay alive in 1956? Here are ten resolutions that you can make which will go a long way toward keeping you alive and healthy.

According to the Institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Liability Insurance Company, the ten safest resolutins that you can make are these:

1. I resolve to drive my car at a speed safe for conditions and always within legal speed limits.

2. I resolve never to drive after drinking, nor to ride with a driver who has had a drink.

3. When working around my home I resolve to use all tools and equipment in a safe manner and especially to follow safe practices in the use of ladders.

4. When bathing or swimming in public or private waters, I shall observe rules for swimming safety.

5. I shall watch my step at all times, knowing that falls on level surfaces or from a height cause more injuries than any other type of accident.

6. If I handle a gun in 1956, I shall certainly not point it at any human being, including myself.

7. I resolve to clean out and rearrange the family medicine cabinet, plainly labeling and identifying all household poisons so that they cannot be mistaken, even in the dark, and I will lock them up out of reach of children.

8. I will eliminate every fire hazard in my house, knowing that a moment's thoughtlessness may destroy my property, even my life or that of a loved one.

9. I will always remember that flue gas, automobile exhaust, heating gas, and all other forms of poison gases such as carbon monoxide are deadly.

10. Having realized that these hazards result in more deaths than do most diseases, I resolve to learn more about accidents, what causes them, how I can prevent them from injuring me and my family.

Why are these the safest resolutions? Each one is based on one of the leading causes of death and injury in 1955.

Trees and shrubs with berries in winter mean fewer insect pests next summer.

It's because of the birds, says Dr. Dale F. Bray, entomologist of the Bartlett Tree Research Laboratories. Berries lure birds to the premises, then stay on to feast on insect eggs or borers and bark beetles in a tree.

Redbirds are fond of the berries of juniper, yew and sumac. The cedar waxwing is partial to the black-colored berries of Japanese honeysuckle and mountain ash. The purple finch feeds on fruit of hawthorn and flowering crab.

The pine grosbeak goes for miles to dine on berries of hawthorn and California privet. Downy and hairy woodpeckers can be enticed to your yard with suet hung in a tree on a bird feeder. They're valuable to have around for they peck out bark beetles hiding in trees.

Honestly — Want To Save Money on Storm Windows?

After many years of working in the trade, making and installing aluminum doors and windows, I want to be on my own, working out of my home with no overhead. You don't have to buy more than one window or door. "You save commissions and installers costs," since I do all the work and give you guaranteed service. I can build you a porch and install jalousies. Excellent references.
